The Records of the Synods, the reports of the Theological Seminaries and of the officers of the Assembly, all overtures, appeals and complaints, statistical reports and other papers, designed for the Assembly, were called for and put in the hands of the Stated Clerk.

The Special Committee on the Digest presented its Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Digest of the Acts and Deliverances of the General Assembly respectfully report, that the manuscript of the Digest is in the hands of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, that about one-third of the book is in type and that it is expected that it will be issued at an early date. Great care has been taken both by the Committee and by the editor, Rev. W. E. Moore, D.D., in the revision of material, and in the carrying of the work through the press.

The Committee requests to be continued to complete its work.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS,
E. R. CRAVEN,
W. E. MOORE.

The Special Committee on a Consensus Creed reported as follows:

The Committee on Consensus Creed would respectfully report to the General Assembly that the reason for their continuance as a Committee has ceased, and that they request to be discharged.

In behalf of the Committee.

W. E. MOORE, Chairman.

The request was granted and the Committee discharged.

The Special Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes reported as follows:

The Committee on the Reprinting of the Minutes would report to the General Assembly, that they hope to have the Index to the volume of the Minutes of the General Presbytery and General Synod, covering the period from 1705 to 1788, printed during the present year.

They respectfully request to be continued.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS,
WILLIAM E. MOORE.

The Report was approved and the Committee continued.

The United Christian Commission presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The United Christian Commission having charge of the religious welfare of the soldiers of the United States, respectfully report to the General Assembly that the work entrusted to them has been faithfully attended to, so far as circumstances permitted, by the representatives of the several denominations organized in the Commission.

Your representatives on the Commission have been in constant communication with army officials in Washington, and nothing has occurred during the year to call for special action by the Assembly.

They recommend the reëlection of the following members as representatives of the General Assembly, viz.: Joseph T. Smith, D.D., LL.D., Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D., and George H. Beatson, Ruling Elder.

It is also recommended that the Commission be directed to include the U. S. Navy within its sphere of work.

For the Commission,

JOSEPH T. SMITH, President.

The Special Committee on the Presbyterian Building, New York City, presented its Report, which was read and accepted.

Hon. Thomas McDougall presented a minority Report. Pending the reading of his Report, the Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 21, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

A gavel from Mr. George Work, of Florida, was presented to the Assembly through the Stated Clerk.

Hon. Benjamin Harrison addressed the Assembly on the Report of the Committee on the Presbyterian Building, after which Mr. McDougall resumed the reading of his minority Report. The minority Report was received and a motion was made to substitute it for the majority Report. The consideration of the subject was continued until the time of adjournment, and the Reports were then made the order for to-morrow morning at 11.30 o'clock.

The Permanent Committee on Commissions reported the following additional Commissioners and their names were enrolled: Ministers—J. Ritchie Smith, of the Presbytery of Westchester; James Byers, of the Presbytery of Bismarck; Nathaniel P. Sproul and Albert E. Weston, of the Presbytery of Monmouth; Caleb E. Respectfully submitted,

J. L. WITHROW, Chairman.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief was received, and, after addresses by the Hon. James A. Mount, Chairman; Rev. B. L. Agnew, D.D., Secretary of the Board; and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief respectfully submits the following Report:

The Forty-second Annual Report (the forty-eighth year) of the work of Ministerial Relief, and the twenty-first year of work of the Board as formally organized by the General Assembly in May, 1876, together with the Minutes of the Board for the past year, have been submitted to your Committee. The Minutes of the Board have been neatly and admirably kept, and show that the directors of the great work of caring for the aged and disabled ministers of our Church, and the dependent widows of deceased ministers and helpless orphans of the servants of Christ who have yielded their lives in the service of the Church, have given anxious and unremitting attention to the sacred cause entrusted to their hands, and we cordially recommend the approval of these Minutes.

The Report of the Board has evidently been prepared with great care. It gives a succinct history of the work of the Church in her attempts to relieve the suffering of her venerated servants, and the wants of the widows and orphans of those who have fallen battling for the extension of the kingdom of God. This Report contains the Charter and By-Laws of the Board and a clear codification of all the deliverances of the General Assembly in directing the Board in its work, and the various regulations the Board has found necessary in doing the work entrusted to its hands. The ministers and elders of our churches, and especially the Presbyterial Committees on the Board of Relief, will find the Report of the Board an invaluable compendium of the rules and regulations of the Board to aid them in the sacred and delicate duties devolving upon them from time to time in caring for those who, in God's providence, need the loving sympathy and material help of the great Church to which they have solemnly consecrated their talents, their energies and their lives.

The Board has a rapidly increasing number of families under its care. There are now 835 families on its roll. This is forty more families than it ever had under its care in any preceding year. Of the names on the roll, we find there are 317 ministers, 468 widows, 20 orphan families, 3 women missionaries, 1 widow of a medical missionary, and 18 guests at the Ministers' House at Perth Amboy in lieu of receiving an annual appropriation in money. One hundred and five of these 835 families are new names, 46 have been removed from the roll by death, 32 ministers, 12 widows and 2 orphans. There have been probably over 3000 persons aided by the Board during the past year.

The Permanent Fund of the Board is steadily increasing and it now amounts to $1,551,783.58.

The receipts of the Board last year from all sources were $160,856.07, but the expenditures were $182,264.26.

There is grave reason to fear that the churches have been depending upon the Permanent Fund to yield revenue enough to pay the annuitants of the Board, for ever since the Centenary Fund was raised nine years ago, the contributions of the churches have been steadily decreasing, whilst during these years the number of persons asking aid from the Board has been steadily increasing. The consequence is that the Board is compelled to report a debt at the close of its fiscal year of $20,911. In view of this condition of the treasury, the Board has been most reluctantly compelled to commence this year's work by withholding one-fourth of all appropriations except to those on the Honorably Retired Roll, who have been thirty years in active service in the ministry of our Church, until the churches furnish the Board with sufficient funds to pay all annuitants in full.

The Board calls attention to the fact that it has made a change in By-Law, Art. iv, Sec. 5, which read as follows: "Legacies shall always be considered Permanent Funds, of which the interest only shall be used, except in cases where the testator has otherwise ordered." The By-Law now reads, "Legacies not specifically given to the Permanent Fund, may be used by the Board in paying beneficiaries and current expenses."

This change, if approved by the Assembly, will enable the Board to use unrestricted legacies in paying the debt of the Board. It has in hand now enough of unrestricted legacies, not yet invested, to pay off all its indebtedness, and your Committee are of the opinion that it is not fair to the venerable men and the widows and orphans on the roll of the annuitants to place these unrestricted legacies in the Permanent Fund, to remain there, when the families on the roll are suffering for the necessities of life.

The Committee, therefore, recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That this General Assembly approves of the change the Board has made in By-Law, Art. iv, Sec. 5, and authorizes the Board to transfer to the Current Fund, unrestricted legacies, with which to pay its indebtedness and to meet special emergencies.

Resolved, 2. That the Assembly approve the codified rules of the Board as found in the Annual Report on pp. 10, 11, 12 and 13.

Resolved, 3. That our Presbyteries direct every church Session to appoint a Committee to take the subject of Ministerial Relief under its special charge, and to place upon this Committee representatives from all the organizations of the church, especially enlisting the coöperation of the women, and to see to it that the leaflets furnished by the Board are distributed in the church prior to the time of taking a collection for this cause, and that Sessions be instructed that their reasons will not be sustained by Presbytery, for not giving the people under their care a fair opportunity to contribute to this Board, unless their reasons are special and providential.

Resolved, 4. That this Assembly urges the Chairmen of Presbyterial Committees to take unusual pains to call the attention of pastors and Sessions to the pressing needs of this important Board, and impress them with the necessity of giving their congregations abundant opportunity to contribute, and see that this column in the Statistical Report does not appear blank.

Resolved, 5. That in view of the steady decrease for the past nine years in the average amount contributed by the members of our Church to this Board, pastors and stated supplies of churches be directed to preach upon the sacred duty of our people making a more generous provision for disabled ministers and the widows and orphans of deceased ministers.

Resolved, 6. That we have heard with deep regret of the failure of the health of the late Corresponding Secretary of this Board, the beloved Dr. Cattell, which made his resignation imperative. We rejoice to see the unanimous action of the Board in regard to his resignation as published in the Annual Report on p. 23. Dr. Cattell has endeared himself to the whole Church by the tender, loving, earnest, faithful manner in which he has discharged the duties of his high and responsible office, and our prayer is that the God of all comfort may restore his health and cheer his heart with all the consolations of our holy religion.

Resolved, 7. That we most heartily endorse the wise selection of Rev. B. L. Agnew, D.D., as the successor of Dr. Cattell. We commend the earnest spirit with which he has taken up the work and believe that through his devoted efforts the Board will be able to move forward to greater success, and also be able to render better service in aid of our beloved disabled ministers and their families.

Resolved, 8. That Rev. James H. Mason Knox, D.D., LL.D., Rev. Samuel T. Lowrie, D.D., Joseph M. Collingwood, Esq., Henry L. Davis, Esq., directors of the Board whose terms of office expire with this Assembly, be reëlected, and that the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. John Scott, whose term expires in May, 1899, be filled by the election of Elmer Ewing Green, Esq., of Trenton, N. J.

For the Committee,

JAMES A. MOUNT, Chairman.

The following additional Commissioners reported presence, and were duly enrolled: Ministers—W. F. Shiels, of the Presbytery of Iowa; Cyrus G. Allen, of the Presbytery of Washington: W. J. Boone, of the Presbytery of Boisé; Plato T. Jones, of the Presbytery of North River. Ruling Elders—Rathbun J. Hunt, of the Presbytery of Geneva; J. F. Stevens, of the Presbytery of Detroit; James D. Martin, of the Presbytery of Catawba; Charlesworth Powel, of the Presbytery of Kingston; W. B. Kyle, of the Presbytery of Huntingdon; Josiah Ketcham, of the Presbytery of Newton.

The consideration of the Reports of the Special Committee on the Presbyterian House, New York City, was resumed. The Hon. John Wanamaker addressed the Assembly in favor of the Report of the Committee.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

SATURDAY, May 22, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Judicial Committee presented:

Judicial Case No. 1, The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., vs. the Rev. W. J. Lee, D.D., being an appeal from a decision of the Synod of Missouri.

The Committee reports that it finds the appeal in order and recommend, first, that it be entertained, and, second, that a Commission be appointed by this Assembly to which the case shall be submitted.

The Report was adopted, and the Moderator appointed the following Judicial Commission: Ministers—D. W. Moffat, D.D., P. D. Young, D.D., T. G. F. Hill, Byron Bosworth, C. W. Anthony, John Morrison, S. M. Glenn, J. P. Whitehead, S. C. Thompson; Ruling Elders—C. P. Hoag, William H. Crabbe, Ph.D., John B. Kell, C. Birnie, M.D., J. M. Leidigh, Peter Sinclair, Francis Marsh, M.D., John S. Krimmer, A. M. Whaley.

It was Resolved, That the Assembly adjourn this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and that the consideration of the Report of the Committee on the Presbyterian Building, New York City, be resumed on Monday afternoon as the second order of the day.

The Report of the Special Committee of Conference with the Board of Home Missions was made the second order for Monday morning.

The consideration of the Report of the Committee on the Presbyterian Building, New York City, was then taken up. Rev. Dr. S. C. Logan addressed the Assembly and gave notice of his intention to offer an amendment, and Rev. Dr. J. Gray Bolton, with Rev. Dr. Henry P. Bake, gave similar notices. Pending discussion

The Assembly adjourned until 9 o'clock A.M., on Monday, May 24, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 24, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of Saturday's sessions were read and approved.

The following telegrams were received :

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 22, 1897.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly, meeting at Winona Grounds, Eagle Lake, Ind.:

The Southern General Assembly sends cordial and fraternal greeting, with the prayer of Numbers lx. 24–27.

MOSES D. HOGE.

TOLEDO, O., May 22, 1897.

To the Moderator of the Presbyterian General Assembly, Winona, Warsaw, Ind.:

The General Conference of the United Brethren Church, now assembled at Toledo, O., sends fraternal greetings to you, invoking God's blessings upon you.

D. O. DARLING.

The Moderator and Stated Clerk were directed to send suitable replies in the name of the Assembly. Also, to send a message of greeting to the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in session at Chicago.

The Stated Clerk presented the Answers to the Overture on Constitutional Rule No. 2, sent down by the last Assembly, and in accordance with the rule, a Committee of Canvass of the Answers was appointed, as follows : Ministers—Harlan P. Carson, D.D., Henry A. Howard, Theodore Lee ; Ruling Elders—Samuel M. Ramsay, John B. Minnis.

The Stated Clerk presented additional papers, as follows :

1. The returns from the Presbyteries on the Statistics of the Young People's Societies (Minutes, 1896, p. 64), with the request that they be referred to a Committee for consideration. The request was approved, and the Moderator was empowered to appoint a Committee of four ministers and three elders to report upon the returns. The Committee was constituted as follows : Ministers—Lyman W. Allen, D.D., Thomas G. F. Hill, Theodore F. Chambers, Rollo P. Branch ; with Ruling Elders—Frank P. Hart, C. B. Worrall, W. M. Galbreath.

2. The Answers of the Theological Seminaries to the inquiry of the General Assembly of 1896, recorded on p. 122. These Answers were referred to the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

3. The Reports of the Boards on their administrative expenses, which were referred to the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures.

4. The Answers of the Synods of Baltimore, California, New Jersey and Michigan, to the inquiry of the General Assembly respecting the religious welfare of the students in State Universities and other secular institutions within their bounds. These Answers were referred to the Standing Committee on Education.

The Standing Committee on Freedmen presented its Report, which, after addresses by the Rev. Thomas Lawrence, D.D., Chairman; E. P. Cowan, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others, was accepted and adopted, as follows:

Your Committee, to whom was referred the Thirty-second Annual Report of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, would respectfully report that they have carefully gone over the records of the meetings of the Board for the past year, and have been gratified with the evidence which they furnish of the deep and prayerful interest in the great department of Church work committed to their hands, and the wise and prudent measures from time to time taken, under the stress of a greatly reduced income, to save the work from present disaster on the one hand, and the accumulation of a huge debt on the other. The Board has not only retrenched its operations in the field, but materially curtailed the expense of office work. The salaries of two officers are for the present being saved to the Board—that of Treasurer and that of the Secretary in the Field—resulting in a saving of nearly $3000 over last year, and not quite $5000 over previous years.

In this connection, it is but just to mention that Dr. Beacom, late Treasurer, is gratuitously giving his valuable services to the Board. A spirit of entire harmony seems to have pervaded the councils of the Board, and from their widely diversified field of labor there has not reached the ears of the Committee a single complaint or reproach.

During the year there have been expended by the Board $182,-299.22, an increase of not quite $10,000 over the expenditures of last year. This increase was not spent in the enlargement of the work, but simply arose out of the disbursement of a sum of money held in trust to aid in the reërection of Mary Holmes Seminary, and which was expended for that purpose, considerably less having been expended, as we may learn from the Report, in the prosecution of the regular work.

The Board reports 175 ministers, five less than were reported last year. Churches and missions, 321, an increase of seven churches or missions over last year. Added on examination, 1809, a loss of 174 as compared with the number reported last year. Whole number of communicants, 18,068;—693 less than reported last year. Three hundred and fifteen Sunday-schools, one more than reported last year. Sunday-school scholars, 19,021;—603 less than last year's report. Number of day-schools, sixty-seven, eight less than last year. Number of teachers, 204, twenty-six less than last reported. Nine thousand four hundred and forty-two scholars, sixty-nine less than reported last year.

The institutions under the care of the Board are, Biddle University, Charlotte, N. C., for the training of ministers and teachers of a higher grade, five female seminaries, thirteen academies (coeducational), eight other institutions classified as academies and large parochial schools. Two of the five female seminaries were not on the list reported last year. The Mary Holmes Seminary, West Point, Miss., which burned some two years ago, has been reopened under most favorable circumstances under the efficient management of the Rev. Dr. Payne and his estimable wife, the insurance and the gifts of sundry friends meeting the cost of construction, some $39,000, with the exception of $5000, which it is hoped some friend of the enterprise will speedily liquidate.

Another substantial, beautiful and spacious seminary building, built and furnished at the cost of $50,000, was erected by Mrs. Phineas M. Barber, of Philadelphia, as a memorial of her late husband, and presented by her to the Board. The building was of brick and stone, four stories high, with accommodations for between two and three hundred pupils, with all the modern appliances fitted to secure the health and comfort of the scholars. On the same delightful premises, some sixty-nine acres in extent, is erected a neat chapel and a comfortable parsonage. Since this Report was begun to be written the sad intelligence has been received that this building has been burned to the ground. Particulars connected with this sad event have not yet been received, save that in the providence of God no lives have been lost, and the furniture saved. There was an insurance of some $25,000 on the building. The sympathies of the Assembly are due the Board of Freedmen, upon whom in their present great embarrassment this severe calamity has fallen, and the noble Christian woman who, with loving hands, reared this grand building as a memorial to her sainted husband, and a munificent gift to a needy race.

The number of churches contributing last year was 3639, showing a gratifying gain over last year of 328. Women's societies, 1805, a gain of 187. Young People's Societies, 256, thirteen less than last year. The amount contributed for self-support on the field, which does not pass through the treasury of the Board, was a little more than $70,000, an increase of nearly $2000 over last year, an encouraging fact when taking into consideration the distressed and impoverished condition of the contributing churches.

Besides the moneys paid out to secure the finishing and furnishing of the Mary Holmes Seminary, moneys were paid out from the treasury during the year in aid of the erection or enlargement of fourteen different schools or churches, which moneys in every instance have been paid into the treasury for these specific purposes, and could not be used for any other. These contributions increased the real estate item, and possibly diminished the receipts for the regular work of the Board.

Foreseeing about the beginning of the year that the receipts as compared with the preceding year were falling off, notice was sent by the Board to all their teachers that in the year to come such reductions should be made as would bring their expenditures within the limits of their income. It is sincerely hoped that further retrenchment, which simply means disaster to the work, may not be found necessary.

The Board reports to the Assembly their resolution to decrease their indebtedness $20,000 during the coming year, and asks its advice as to how it may be best accomplished. If the present status of work is maintained, no new enterprises being entered upon, the income of the Board from regular sources continuing as it is, would enable them to liquidate $9000 of their indebtedness, leaving $11,000, to be provided for either by increase of income or a reduction of expenditures to that extent. The latter, in the present condition of the work, would, in the judgment of your Committee, involve irreparable injury to the work, and distress and suffering to the workers.

The Board gratefully acknowledges the generous aid received from the various societies connected with the Woman's Executive Committee, which, notwithstanding the stringency of the times, aggregates but a few hundred dollars less than last year, making honorable mention of Mrs. C. E. Coulter, General Secretary of Freedmen's Department, and Miss Mary E. Holmes, of Rockford, Ill., acting without salary as Freedmen's Secretary of the Northwest.

Your Committee would make to the Assembly the following recommendations:

1. That the Minutes of the Board, which they have carefully examined, be approved.

2. That whilst deploring the painful necessity for such action, the General Assembly commends as wise and prudent the measures taken by the Board to bring their expenditures within the limits of their income.

3. That Presbyteries be requested to urge upon delinquent churches the duty of contributing to the Freedmen's cause; and that pastors and stated supplies earnestly put its pressing need and present peril.

4. That in the present crisis, with disaster impending if retrenchment is further continued, the Assembly appeal to the membership of the churches to give preference to their own work and institutions in their gifts to the Freedmen.

5. That the General Assembly urge upon the churches under the Freedmen's Board the duty and necessity of self-denying effort to lighten the burdens of the Board, and at the earliest practical moment to assume their pastor's support.

6. That the Assembly renew the recommendations of former Assemblies with reference to steps being taken to secure the endowment of Biddle University, in order that the burden of its support may be lifted off the Board, and that they approve of the appointment of Rev. Dr. Weaver as the financial agent of the University.

7. That permission be given by the Assembly to the Board of Freedmen to appeal to the churches for an increase of $11,000 over the contributions of last year, that the necessity for further retrenchment may be removed, the present work maintained, and that they may be enabled, in accordance with their expressed desire, to reduce their present indebtedness to the extent of $20,000.

8. Your Committee would recommend the reëlection of the following members of the Board whose term of service expires with this Assembly, Rev. D. S. Kennedy, D.D., Rev. H. T. McClelland, D.D., Rev. David M. Skilling, Rev. Samuel J. Glass, and Mr. A. G. Bixler.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

THOMAS LAWRENCE, Chairman.

The following additional Commissioners were enrolled: Ministers—John Sinclair, of the Presbytery of Mankato; Hiram F. Fitch, of the Presbytery of Aberdeen; Ruling Elders—Robert Beggs, of the Presbytery of New York; William M. Turner, of the Presbytery of Lima; J. K. McCullough, of the Presbytery of Whitewater, and C. C. DeHart, of the Presbytery of Morris and Orange.

The Special Committee of Conference with the Board of Home Missions presented its Report through the Chairman, Rev. W. P. Kane, D.D., which was accepted, and made the order for 4 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon.

The following telegrams were reported to the Assembly as having been forwarded in accordance with its directions:

The General Conference of the United Brethren, Toledo, O.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in session at Eagle Lake, Ind., cordially reciprocates your fraternal greetings. See Hebrews, thirteenth chapter, verses twenty and twenty-one.

SHELDON JACKSON, Moderator.
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, Charlotte, N. C.:

The General Assembly in session at Eagle Lake, Ind., heartily reciprocates your cordial and fraternal greetings. See Ephesians, fourth chapter, verses four to six.

SHELDON JACKSON, Moderator.
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 24, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The following message, proposed by Hon. John Wanamaker, was unanimously ordered to be forwarded:

To her Majesty, Queen Victoria, Windsor, England:

This day being the seventy-eighth anniversary of the birth and near the sixtieth anniversary of the coronation of her gracious majesty, Queen Victoria, whose reign has lasted longer than that of any other monarch in the past thousand years, the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. of A. deems it fitting, and does hereby send most cordial Christian greetings to both the illustrious Christian sovereign, and the subjects of her gentle, generous and righteous rule, over an empire upon which the sun never sets.

SHELDON JACKSON, Moderator,
WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Education presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Rev. Stephen W. Dana, D.D., Chairman, and Rev. E. B. Hodge, D.D., Secretary of the Board, was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee would report that the year just closed is one of hopefulness in connection with the Board of Education. In accordance with the expressed wishes of the last General Assembly the Board closes the year without additional indebtedness. This has necessitated a reduction in the appropriations to the students.

The number of men aided is 911;—167 of these being new applicants.

The Treasurer's report has been submitted to your Committee and appears to be carefully audited and the Minutes of the Board accurately kept. The Treasurer's report shows that while the churches and their various societies have given $2930 less than the year previous, there has been an increase of 222 in the number of contributing churches.

It is not necessary in this presence to emphasize the importance of a well-educated, thoroughly consecrated ministry. The Presbyterian Church has been conspicuous for the intellectual power of its pulpit. It has been the friend of the school, college and the theological seminaries. It cannot afford to lower its standards to-day when the general education of the people has increased, and when the demand upon the pulpit was never so great and exacting. Pastors, Sessions, Presbyteries and our theological professors are urged to see that picked men are thoroughly educated for this work, so responsible, so vital. Your Committee would call the attention of the Assembly again to the Newberry scholarship, which yields about $500 per annum, and is awarded for the term of three years to the man who stands the best examination among the three nominated by the faculty of the Seminary, which for the time being enjoys the privilege of furnishing the scholar. It is hoped that others will be prompted to found similar scholarships, which have proved so beneficial, stimulating a high grade of scholarship. The last Newberry scholar has offered his services to the Board of Foreign Missions.

Inasmuch as so many people from foreign lands are being grouped in different parts of our country, the adults of whom do not understand English, your Board is wisely aiming to assist men into the ministry who shall be able to preach Christ to these people in their own language.

Your Committee would renew previous recommendations of the General Assembly that there should be more Presbyterial watch and care over all our ministerial candidates; a loving interest to be taken in these young men, involving a better knowledge of their private character and their progress as students.

In accordance with the request of the Board it is recommended:

1. That the General Assembly direct the Boards of Foreign Missions and Education to hold a conference, concerning aid which should be given to young men who may be preparing to become medical missionaries.

2. The attention of the Board having been called to an apparently invidious distinction in the rules concerning the morals of the white and colored students, we recommend that permission be granted to the Board so to revise the rules as to have all students under the care of the Board subject to the same rule.

3. The term of service of Samuel A. Mutchmore, D.D., Charles Wadsworth, Jr., D.D., Robert Hunter, D.D., Charles H. Matthews, Esq., George Peirce, and George W. Bailey, M.D., expires at this time, and we recommend their reëlection.

4. We recommend the approval of the Minutes of the Board and the Report of the Treasurer.

One of the subjects which has commanded much of the thought and attention of your Committee is the subject of "a fourth year of practical training for all our young ministers." It is manifest that this cannot be accomplished without the awaking of a deep missionary spirit on the part of our young men. We are confronted with the fact that in some parts of our country the supply of ministers is greater than the demand, while in other fields, calling for heroic service, the demand is greater than the supply. It is fitting that the young men fresh from the seminary, usually unincumbered with families, should "endure hardness as good soldiers," leaving the churches which can give a comfortable salary to men of larger experience. Pastors, elders, Presbyteries and theological professors should encourage no one to enter the ministry who is not willing to go into the darkest, most difficult place at the call of God.

More searching questions should be asked than are often put to those who claim to have "a call to the ministry." More loving and intelligent sympathy should be extended to those who are ready to give themselves a willing sacrifice unto God.

The Board of Education in its Report of this year has given the summary of its extended correspondence on this subject. In order to make this fourth year of training practicable and to encourage a missionary spirit in candidates, it has prepared the following resolutions which we recommend for the adoption of General Assembly:

Plan for the Encouragement of a Missionary Spirit in Candidates.

I. The Board of Education is hereby directed to use its influence to incline the candidates under its care, at the conclusion of their studies in preparation for the holy ministry, to offer their services, under all ordinary circumstances, for missionary labor for a longer or shorter period of time as the providence of God may indicate.

And further, in order effectively to bring this influence to bear upon its candidates, the Board is hereby authorized to add the following to its "Rules Relating to Candidates for the Ministry:"

"III. Scholarships.—10. While the Church, in providing scholarships for her candidates, makes no specific conditions as to the particular kind of service in the ministry which they will be expected to render upon the completion of their theological training, nor as to the character or situation of the place where they shall labor, nevertheless her judgment is that they ought to cultivate a missionary spirit as Christlike, apostolic, and timely; and that it would be highly becoming in them, under all ordinary circumstances, to offer their services, at the conclusion of their education, for work in missionary fields, ever remembering the abounding destitution in our own country, as well as in foreign lands; the peculiar fitness of young men for such work; the honor, privilege, and advantage pertaining to it; the natural expectations of the Church which has trained them in the hope that they would endure hardness as good soldiers; and, above all, the spirit of the last command of our ascended Lord."

II. It is hereby made the duty of the Board, through its Corresponding Secretary, by correspondence with the candidates, the Education and the Mission Committees of Presbyteries, Synodical Superintendents and the Board of Home Missions, and the Mission Committees of Synods, to bring about, to as large a degree as possible, the employing of the probationers of the Church in missionary labor at the conclusion of their studies.

III. Each theological seminary is hereby requested to coöperate in this plan by so ordering the course of instruction and the general life of the seminary, as to put increased emphasis, if possible, upon the dignity, privilege and preëminent importance, in this crisis of the world's history, of missionary labor; and to use its influence to incline the young men whom it has under its care, without distinction, to a willingness to consecrate the strength and zeal of their early manhood to a task so appropriate to men in their situation, and so rich with promise of large results.

IV. The Presbyteries are hereby requested to coöperate by making themselves acquainted, through the Board of Education and the authorities of the theological seminaries, or otherwise, with the number and qualifications of the candidates who are prepared to offer themselves for missionary service, and, as far as possible, to employ them promptly upon the conclusion of their studies; that thus efficient measures may be taken to supply some at least of our destitute mission fields, and to make use without delay of the men whom the Church is at so much pains to educate.

In behalf of the Committee,

STEPHEN W. DANA, Chairman.

The Committee also presented a supplementary Report, as follows:

Overture No. 43, from the Presbytery of Peoria, on the qualifications of theological students. It is recommended that inasmuch as the action of the General Assembly in the past fully covers this ground, further action is unnecessary. Adopted.

The Assembly having referred to your Committee a communication from the Board of Education concerning the minimum amount to be granted to students under its care, we recommend that the General Assembly approve of the policy contained in the following resolution of the Board, viz.:

Resolved, That the Board of Education feels it to be its duty to express to the General Assembly its strong conviction, that the appropriations to collegiate and theological students should not be less than eighty dollars per annum, as a minimum, even though the maintenance of this amount should necessitate a reduction in the number of candidates received.

The Board cannot acquiesce, except on the express instruction of the General Assembly, in allowing that to become a permanent policy which was intended to be only a temporary expedient, and it therefore begs the Church to increase its contributions to the end that the above-mentioned rate may be maintained, and the number of candidates not be diminished.

The Report was adopted.

The discussion of the Reports of the Committee on the Presbyterian House in New York City was resumed, and pending the discussion,

The Assembly adjourned until Tuesday at 9 A.M., and was closed with prayer.

MONDAY, May 24, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interest of the cause of Missions among the Freedmen, Hon. John Wanamaker presiding. The meeting was addressed by the Chairman, and by Hon. L. P. Berry, Revs. A. J. Tate, L. L. Downing, Samuel C. Thompson and Edward E. Weaver.

TUESDAY, May 25, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

It was ordered that the consideration of the Report of the Committee on the Presbyterian House, N. Y., be resumed at 2.30 this afternoon.

The Report of the Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges was made the first order for Thursday morning, and the Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection the second order for Thursday P.M. It was made the second order for Thursday afternoon to hear the Report of the Standing Committee on Benevolence, and the Report of the Special Committee on Church Temporalities was made the second order for Wednesday P.M.

An invitation from the citizens of Fort Wayne to visit that city on Saturday afternoon was accepted with thanks.*

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report, recommending references of papers as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report to the General Assembly, recommending the reference of papers put in their hands by the Stated Clerk, as follows:

To the Committee on Church Polity:

Overture No. 56, being a Memorial from the Presbytery of St. Cloud, as to an alleged violation of the Plan of Coöperation by the Classis of Iowa.

Overture No. 62, from the Presbytery of Neosho, as to the eligibility of certain elders to serve as Commissioners to General Assembly.

* Withdrawn on Friday owing to the early adjournment of the Assembly.

Overture No. 65, from the Presbytery of St. Cloud, concerning Constitutional Rule No. 1.

Overture No. 66, being a Memorial from four persons, members of the Presbytery of Westchester, touching the rights of protest.

Overture No. 67, from the Synod of Texas, on ecclesiastical relations of colored churches.

To the Standing Committee on Temperance:

Overture No. 58, from the Presbytery of Oakland, that a Congressional Committee investigate the liquor traffic.

To the Standing Committee on Publication:

Overture No. 59, from the Presbytery of Utah, as to a concise summary of Presbyterian doctrine.

To the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions:

Overture No. 61, from the Presbytery of Western Africa, as to certain action of the Board of Foreign Missions.

To the Standing Committee on Education:

Overture No. 64, from the Presbytery of Geneva, as to aid to foreign students.

To the Standing Committee on Benevolence:

Overture No. 68, from the Synod of Pennsylvania, as to apportionment plan of benevolence.

To the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures:

Overture No. 57, from the Presbytery of Steubenville, on the Work of the Boards and the Church Papers.

Memorial No. 63, on Delegates to National Temperance Convention, from the National Temperance Association.

The recommendations were adopted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures further reported regarding certain of the Overtures committed to it, as follows:

Overture No. 6, from the Presbytery of San José, on reporting work and gifts of Young People's Societies in the Assembly Minutes. It is recommended that the matter be referred to the Stated Clerk, with power, and with the recommendation that he comply with the suggestion of the Overture so far as possible, so as to indicate the source of the gifts from Young People's Societies. Adopted.

Overture No. 19, from the Presbytery of Milwaukee, concerning the observance of a Week of Prayer for the Sabbath. It is recommended that answer be made as follows: It is the duty of Christians at all times to remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy; they should also by precept and example teach others so to do. We deem further action, in relation to a duty so imperative and so continuous, to be unnecessary. Adopted.

Paper No. 20, being part of the answer of the Presbytery of Elizabeth to the Overture on a Proposed Constitutional Rule. It is recommended that reply be made that the General Assembly is without power to change the phraseology of an Overture after it has gone down to the Presbyteries. Adopted.

Overture No. 22, from the Presbytery of Huntingdon, as to fuller presentation of the work of the Boards in the Church papers. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 23, from the Presbytery of Kingston, as to the reception by the Church of public money for school work among the mountain whites, such work to be declared to be "exceptional work." It is recommended that the prayer of the Overture be not granted in the form requested, but that the Boards be authorized to cöoperate in these localities with the local authorities in the establishment and maintenance of schools. Adopted.

Overture No. 29, from the Presbytery of Austin, as to changing the day of meeting of the Assembly. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 30, from the Presbytery of Utica, asking that the date of the ecclesiastical year be definitely fixed. It is recommended that this declaration be made: The ecclesiastical year closes on the 31st day of March. Statistical reports, for the sake of uniformity, should be prepared upon that basis. Adopted.

Overtures Nos. 34 and 35, from the Presbyteries of Cayuga and Otsego respectively, requesting Triennial or Biennial Sessions of the General Assembly. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 36, from the Presbytery of Baltimore, touching the 250th anniversary of the Westminster Standards. It is recommended that the matter be referred to a Special Committee of seven, four of whom shall be ministers and three elders, to be appointed by the Moderator, and report at this Assembly. Adopted.

Overture No. 38, from the Presbytery of Athens, as to simplifying questions in the Narrative of State of Religion. It is recommended that it be referred to the Stated Clerk, with power. Adopted.

Overtures Nos. 40 and 55, from the Presbyteries of Otsego and Hudson, as to issue of Assembly Minutes. We recommend that no action be taken. Adopted.

Overture No. 51, from the Synod of New York, for leave to change its name to "Synod of New York and New England." It is recommended that the request be granted, to take effect when the necessary and appropriate State legislation on such change of name be enacted. Adopted.

Paper No. 54, from the Philadelphia Ministerial Association, as to a Roman Catholic Church at West Point. It is recommended that no action is necessary in view of the recent decision of the Secretary of War, under advice of the Attorney General. Adopted.

Overture No. 50, from the Presbytery of Steubenville, touching a new constitutional rule establishing a Synodical-Presbyterial Committee of Supplies. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

There was also referred to your Committee a paper on Sabbath Observance. Your Committee added to this paper an additional recommendation to the effect that it be read by pastors from their pulpits at an early date. It is recommended that this paper be adopted, and it is further recommended that it be made the general topic for Thursday morning devotional exercises, and that Rev. I. W. Hathaway, D.D., Secretary of the American Sabbath Union, have charge. Adopted.

Respectfully submitted,

J. L. WITHROW, Chairman.

The paper on Sabbath Observance, including the resolutions adopted, is as follows:

The American Sabbath Union beg leave to present the following paper and resolutions relative to Sabbath Observance:

We believe that there never was a time in the history of our country or of our Church when there was more need of earnest and faithful endeavor on the part of the Christian Church to stem the tide of Sabbath desecration and to promote the proper observance of the Sabbath day, than now. Very many of the advances of applied science to the needs and for the benefit of mankind appear to be used as instruments for further misuse of the Sabbath day, for the further overriding of its moral and religious uses, and to convert it into a day of social pleasure and sensuous indulgence.

The forty-page Sunday newspaper, the bicycle clubs, the trolley cars, the League baseball games, the excursion by boat and car, the open saloon on the Lord's day, have already in our cities impaired our beloved American Sabbath, have largely depopulated our churches, debauched the moral sense of communities, and caused our American Sabbath to outrival the Continental Sabbath as a day given over largely to physical recreation and debasing vice, destructive of all that pertains to the worship of Almighty God, and that which makes for righteousness and the perpetuity of the Christian Church and all civil and religious liberty.

We do therefore ask this General Assembly to speak in most earnest terms, calling attention to the real dangers that threaten this divinely ordered and graciously given day of rest and worship, only by the proper Biblical use of which, all that is best in our civilization, together with the interests of man's immortal being, can be conserved.

Therefore, be it

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly reaffirms its belief that the law of the Sabbath is a law of perpetual binding obligation upon all men.

Resolved, 2. That we call upon all members of our churches, members of Young People's Societies and Sabbath-schools, together with all friends of God's law, to use their personal influence for the Biblical observance of the day by abstaining from the purchase and reading of the Sunday newspaper, from all riding of the bicycle for pleasure or recreation on the Lord's day, from all forms of amusements, from unnecessary visiting and from all things that are unproductive of holiness in men, and to be faithful to religious duty and life on this holy day.

Resolved, 3. That while the ministers of the Presbyterian Church are to be commended for their faithful presentation of the truth concerning the claims and obligations of the Sabbath, they are reminded of the necessity of renewed diligence in its defense and proper observance.

Resolved, 4. That the American Sabbath Union and the Woman's National Sabbath Alliance, societies organized for the purpose of enlisting all Christian men and women in the work of conserving the American Sabbath and also to organize auxiliary societies for the distribution of Sabbath literature, and to use all methods for the quickening of the public conscience, and awakening interest for the promotion of the Biblical Christian Sabbath, receive our cordial endorsement and approval. And we hereby heartily commend them to those who are stewards of the Lord's gold and silver, a small portion of which is necessary for their work.

Resolved, 5. That the Assembly's Special Committee on Sabbath Observance be continued, and the names of Mr. James Yereance and Rev. I. W. Hathaway, D.D., be added to the same.

Resolved, 6. That these resolutions be read by pastors from their pulpits at an early date.

The Special Committee on Sabbath Observance is as follows: Mr. William R. Worrall, Mr. James Yereance, Hon. James A. Beaver, Frank C. Monfort, D.D., S. J. McPherson, D.D., I. W. Hathaway, D.D., Charles B. Ramsdell, D.D., H. Scott Howell, Esq., John Gordon, D.D., Arthur J. Brown, D.D., J. W. Dinsmore, D.D., A. W. Ringland, D.D., Willis G. Craig, D.D., James Gardner, D.D., and M. D. Kneeland, D.D.

The Judicial Commission reported:

Judicial Case No. 5, being a complaint against the Presbytery of Cleveland made before the Synod of Ohio, and referred by said Synod to the General Assembly. It is recommended that inasmuch as the question involved is purely one of polity, the paper be committed to the Committee on Church Polity. The recommendation was adopted.

The Judicial Committee also reported:

Judicial Case No. 2, an appeal of A. P. Ketchum, Esq., and twenty-one others, against the Synod of New York, and Judicial Case No. 3, a complaint of Rev. Robert Russell Booth, D.D., LL.D., and forty-four others against the same Synod.

Both cases are against the same action of the Synod.

The appellants, being also complainants, consent to withdraw the appeal.

The complaint is in order. But we believe the differences can be satisfactorily settled for all parties, and for this purpose we recommend the adoption of the following, to wit:

The answer of the General Assembly of 1895 to the Presbytery of New York declares that "obedience to the Constitution of the Church is obligatory on all the Presbyteries."

The words "instruct" and "enjoin" in this answer, reaffirmed and explained in 1896, are to be regarded as universal in their application; and also, "the right of the Presbytery to determine the qualifications of candidates for licensure," is a declaration applicable to all Presbyteries alike.

This Assembly emphasizes the fact that all the Presbyteries of the Church are under one Constitution, and that what is lawful in one is lawful in all, and that what is unlawful in one is unlawful in all. And the Presbyteries in the exercise and discharge of their rights and obligations are subject to the Constitutional powers of the higher judicatories.

For the Committee,

HENRY C. MINTON, Chairman.

The report was adopted.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions presented its Report, which was received, and, after addresses by the Rev. J. D. Hewitt, D.D., Chairman; William C. Roberts, D.D., one of the Secretaries of the Board, and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Home Missions respectfully submits the following Report:

The history of the year, which closed March 31, 1897, is full of thrilling interest.

I. THE DIFFICULTIES.—On April 1, 1896, the Board was confronted with a debt amounting to $310,029.17.

The financial condition of the country was unusually depressing on account of the stagnation in almost every branch of business. Agricultural interests were never known to be at a lower ebb. Railroad enterprises were paralyzed. Commerce was stagnant, and distrust pervaded all departments of enterprise. The country was on the eve of a great political campaign, to which all minds had turned, hoping for the best results but fearing the worst. Money in many sections of the country had found its way into safety deposit vaults, and refused to appear until the results of the political campaign should be known, and confidence reëstablished. This uneasiness in business and political circles seemed to affect the Church itself, and it partook of the general spirit of distrust in which the Boards naturally shared. The Home Board is no exception to the other Boards of our Church, and to those of other Churches, as may be seen from the Annual Report on pp. 4 and 5.

II. The Work That Has Been Done.—The Board at the very beginning of the year had to face the difficulties of the situation, and an effort was made to make plain to the churches the action taken by the last Assembly in regard to the apportionment which that General Assembly ordered. The Committee on Systematic Beneficence, to whom it was referred by the Assembly, faithfully discharged its duties. The Board of Home Missions was to receive $76,265 in excess of its receipts the year before. Other efforts were put forth to remove the causes of the falling off in receipts. The Synods were prompt and hearty in their endorsement of the Board; and happily their resolutions were very largely carried into effect by the Presbyteries and churches.

The next item of interest is the ten per centum deduction in appropriations to the churches and Presbyteries. To make this clear to the parties interested, a circular was prepared and sent out June 15, 1896. The Board sought to have the retrenchment made so as not to affect, if possible, the salaries of the missionaries, but, on the contrary, it sought to bring up the condition of the Home Mission churches more nearly to the support of the pastors, and that the stronger churches should give as much as possible to their own support. And still further, that groupings should be made of contiguous churches so as to reduce the demands upon the Board. Other circulars were sent out during the year, all of which contributed to increasing the gifts of the churches, and to diminishing the demands, where possible, on the funds of the Board.

The missionaries and the missionary congregations have labored and sacrificed together in order that the work might suffer as little injury as possible, and the Board comes up to the close of this year with the debt reduced to the sum of $121,176.96.

Another element that must be taken into consideration is the carrying out of the order of the General Assembly requesting Presbyteries to make estimates of the money actually needed for the missionary work, so as to enable the Board to determine how best to apportion the grants for the ensuing year (see Minutes of 1896, pp. 50 and 51). We are glad that the Board is able to report that this has thus far proven a great success.

Notwithstanding the lack of money, we note that there have been at work on the field 1416 missionaries preaching the Gospel, and 308 missionary teachers have been engaged in training the children. There have been added to the Church, by profession of faith, 8522, and in addition 4778 have been added by certificate to the roll of communicants. Four thousand and ten adults and 4637 infants have received the ordinance of baptism. Besides this, it would be impossible to tell how much seed sowing has been done which will bring forth in future years, by God's blessing, thirty, sixty or a hundredfold. We cannot leave this part of our subject without noticing the forces that have been engaged in this great service. The Board itself has been unremitting in its efforts to serve the Church efficiently; seeking, as we believe, the praise of God rather than the plaudits of men. Among those who served, some have fallen by the way. We record with sorrow the death of the Board's honored Treasurer, Mr. O. D. Eaton, who for twenty-four years gave his labor to the Church with self-sacrificing zeal; and we have no doubt that his great devotion to the interests of the Board hastened his death. In addition to the death of this officer, ten of the missionaries on the ground died in the harness. You will find their names recorded on the eighteenth page of the Report. They fought the good fight, they rest from their labors. And what shall we say of the missionaries who have preached and toiled during this entire year? We make a grateful record of the faithful service and self-forgetting sacrifice of the 1724 missionaries and teachers who have this year labored for Christ and the Church.

We congratulate the Young People's Societies on the good work they are accomplishing both financially and religiously, and we urge them to redouble their efforts in helping to claim our land for Christ.

III. The Things to be Accomplished.—And first of all the land is before us. It is to be taken for Christ. It is an extensive field. Never in the history of the Church has there been such an opportunity to do great things in the name and by the power of the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Board calls our attention to the new States that have recently come into the Union: North Dakota, South Dakota, Montana, Washington, Idaho, Wyoming and Utah. Each one of these is an empire in itself, with territory enough to support a population so great that at this moment we dare not even estimate it.

Then there are the Territories of Alaska, the Indian, Arizona, Oklahoma and New Mexico; and still further there is the great middle West, and the older States, and your Committee are of the opinion that it is as necessary to maintain the missionary service in New York, with 131 missionaries, and hold what we have done in this and other of the older States, as it is to take the new fields of Nevada or Washington. And, therefore, the Board does not overestimate the importance of our duty when it sets before us the future of the whole country (see p. 27 of the Annual Report) in these words, "Within a hundred years our Home Missionary field must grow from our present population of 73,000,000 to 400,000,000 or 500,000,000 of thrifty and intelligent people;" and this is our field for present and future operations.

Of course it is forced upon the minds of your Committee that there are certain peculiarly needy communities where special and immediate work must be done. In the older States, in certain localities, the foreign populations are increasing very rapidly, and they must be met with the Gospel of Jesus Christ and saved for their own sake and for our sakes also. For if the Gospel does not dominate them, they will dominate the American people. We are especially pained that lack of funds compelled the closing of many mission schools among our needy exceptional populations, and this is particularly to be deplored in the case of the Mormons.

Statehood for Utah has not abated, but increased the aggressiveness of Mormonism, whose doctrines, clothed in Christian terms, are more abhorrent to pure Christianity than is Islam. Besides, they are not held by persons or communities not in touch with each other, but they are propagated by astute leaders who plan in secret and enforce obedience through a priesthood who reach every Mormon adult and child in the land—leaders who control State education in Utah, from the university to the kindergarten. These exceptional conditions must be met by exceptional efforts, especially emphasizing Christian education of every grade. The announcement of the opening of the Sheldon Jackson College for instruction at Salt Lake City is full of encouragement to every Christian visitor, preacher or teacher in the State. We commend the keeping up of the high grade work in Salt Lake Institute, and the making of the Institute the preparatory department of the college. Then we shall have on the ground a system of education for all who desire it.

IV. The Way to Do It.—We must bear in mind that it is necessary that the work should be distributed so that each Synod, Presbytery, church and person shall do a just and proportionate part. We must recognize the fact that it is not optional with us, as a Church, as to whether we do this or not. We must realize that it rests upon us as an absolute obligation. We must recognize that we are in the kingdom for such a time as this, and still further, that what we do must be done quickly. We believe that to meet this great responsibility much is now ready and prepared to our hands. Here is the wealth of the Church. No one doubts for a moment that the Presbyterian Church has money enough and men enough to do all that is required. There is money with which to send a missionary to every destitute field. We believe that the Lord has opened every door and that there are men enough ready to enter. We have been praying that the Lord would send forth men into His harvest, that He would raise up men for the service of the Church, and here are our theological seminaries and other institutions all ready to our hand, preparing the men who are now ready to go out, and preparing others who will be ready for the work as soon as they may be called. Here are the Women's Societies organized and ready to coöperate most heartily in this undertaking. The Sunday-schools are ready to lend a helping hand, and the Young People's Societies will do their part. Churches are prepared by their organizations and education to enter the army, and thousands of individuals are only waiting to be called upon to assist with their means. Then what do we lack? Simply this, such an outpouring of the Spirit of God as will set in motion the machinery already in existence. Here is the promise of our Lord in which He has said to us, "Go and make disciples, and lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

We submit the following recommendations:

1. That the Minutes of the Board placed in our hands be approved.

2. That strenuous measures be taken by the entire Church in its various organizations to secure means by which to wipe out the $100,000 or more debt that rests upon the Board.

3. That in view of the enormous evil which now exists and threatens to disturb the peace and purity of our population in Utah, and the adjacent States, that special and earnest efforts be made to arrange for aggressive movements in that section of the country, especially in establishing and maintaining schools.

4. That the Assembly commends most heartily the efforts and rejoices in the success of the Woman's Executive Committee; and that it is particularly gratified that they have not only done so well in their school work among the exceptional populations, but also that they have not neglected to maintain the preaching of the Gospel, by missionaries laboring in the school districts. And in view of the great need for the preaching of the Gospel in many fields, it is asked that the Executive Committee, if possible, increase their efforts in this direction.

5. That the Sunday-school throughout the Church be asked to give an annual offering to the Board of Home Missions on the Sunday preceding the 22d of February, and that they take their usual annual offering for the educational work of the Woman's Executive Committee on the Sunday immediately preceding Thanksgiving.

6. That the Assembly reaffirms the action of the last General Assembly in Recommendation 1, of the Minutes of last year, pp. 50, 51.

7. That conferences be held during the year in all the Presbyteries in the interests of Home Missions throughout the country.

8. That the following members of the Board, whose time of service expires with this General Assembly, be reëlected: Ministers—John Hall, D.D., D. Stuart Dodge, Lyman W. Allen, Wilson Phraner, D.D.; Ruling Elders—George R. Lockwood, Titus B. Meigs, George H. Southard, together with Mr. A. Noel Blakeman, who was elected to serve to the end of the year in place of Mr. John S. Kennedy, resigned.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

JOHN D. HEWITT, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions also offered a supplementary Report on Overture No. 17, from the Presbytery of South Florida, which refers to the requirement of the last Assembly (Minutes, pp. 50, 51) as to salaries of Home Mission pastors. It is recommended, in view of the fact that the plan proposed has not yet been thoroughly tested, that no action be taken by this Assembly. The recommendation was adopted.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 25, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

A telegram was received from the Queen of Great Britain in response to the greetings of the Assembly:

BALMORAL, SCOTLAND, May 25, 1897.

To the Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, Eagle Lake, Ind.:

The Queen thanks you for your kind telegram.

EDWARDS, Secretary.

Several Documents on Purity in Literature were presented and referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Assembly resumed the consideration of the Report of the Committee on the Presbyterian House, the question being the substitution of the Report of the minority for that of the majority. Dr. S. C. Logan moved to lay the minority Report and all papers offered as substitutes or amendments therefor on the table. The motion was adopted. The Rev. Dr. J. L. Withrow, Chairman of the Committee, then closed the discussion, after which the Report of the Committee was adopted unanimously. The Doxology was sung and a prayer of thanksgiving offered for the harmony of the Assembly. The Report is as follows:

The Committee of Eleven on the Presbyterian Building in

New York City respectfully Reports to the General Assembly as follows:

I. The Committee was appointed and its duties indicated by the following action of the General Assembly of 1896:

"The Joint Committee on 'The New Presbyterian House in New York City' presented its Report, which was unanimously adopted, and is as follows:

"The Standing Committee on Home and Foreign Missions, to which was referred the communication presented to the General Assembly concerning the real estate of the Boards in New York, respectfully submit the following resolution, and ask for its adoption:

"Resolved, That the said communication, and the subject matter thereof, be and hereby are referred to a Special Committee of Eleven, to be appointed by the Moderator, with instructions to said Committee to confer with the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions and advise as to the most prudent course to be pursued in connection with said property. This Committee shall also publish, at the earliest possible date, such information as in their judgment will be of value to the Church at large."

II. The Moderator was appointed Chairman of the Committee by vote of the Assembly. The Committee as finally constituted was composed of the following persons:

Moderator J. L. Withrow, Hon. Benjamin Harrison, Hon. John Wanamaker, Hon. Justice John M. Harlan, Hon. James A Beaver, Hon. Thomas Ewing, Samuel B. Huey, Esq., Thomas McDougall, Esq., H. B. Silliman, LL.D., Alexander McDonald, Esq., Robert S. Williams, Esq.

III. On examination of the action of the General Assembly in connection with the subject entrusted to us, the Committee found that the Assembly, in 1894, had adopted the following deliverance:

"The General Assembly heartily reiterates the expressions of former Assemblies, regarding the kindness and generosity of those whose munificence made possible the acquisition of the property which has been occupied for the past seven years by the Boards of Home Missions, Foreign Missions and Church Erection, and deeply regrets that any action of the Boards should have unintentionally wounded the feelings of those so greatly beloved and honored by all Presbyterians. The General Assembly is, however, of the opinion that inasmuch as the General Assembly of 1893 gave its endorsement to the proposed new site and building, no complaint being made, though the matter was one of common fame at that time, and inasmuch as the two Boards accepted that endorsement in good faith and completed the purchase of the property, and have now actually begun the work incident to removal, and inasmuch as it is the opinion of competent legal advisers, and the unanimous opinion of the officers and members of the two Boards that the conveyance of the present property to the Boards was not subject to any conditions, either expressed or implied, which would operate as a legal or a moral bar to the proposed transfer, and inasmuch as the erection of the new building is strongly advised by business men of the highest standing and the largest experience in such matters, and in their judgment will involve no use of money contributed for missionary purposes, and inasmuch as it is the emphatic opinion of these two great Boards that the proposed change is wise and necessary, and in the interest of true economy and the cause of missions: Therefore, the General Assembly sees no adequate reason for reversing the approval of the last Assembly, and the practically unanimous and deliberate judgment of these two ably and loyally constituted Boards, regarding the administration of the business affairs committed to them, and the General Assembly therefore approves the records of these two Boards relating to this subject."

IV. Your Committee held its first meetings in New York city, July 28 and 29, 1896. An extended conference was held with the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions; and under the authority given the Committee to publish such information as in its judgment would be of value to the Church at large, the following statement was given to the public the next week:

"On Wednesday morning the Committee examined the new building, and also the properties 53 and 55 Fifth avenue, and in the afternoon met with the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions in a conference of three hours' length. Considering the extreme heat prevailing, it was very pleasing to find such a large representation of the Boards, brethren having come long distances to be present at the conference. And we are happy to report to the Church, acting under the instructions of the Assembly, that the conference was full, harmonious and satisfactory; and to express to the membership of the Church our full confidence in the integrity, fidelity, good faith and loyal service of all the members of the Boards in the administration of their trusts, including the erection of the new building, No. 156 Fifth avenue. And the Committee earnestly hopes that the Church will unhesitatingly sustain the causes of Home and Foreign Missions, giving that financial support necessary for the prosecution of the work of the two Boards, and also for the liquidation of the debts which embarrass them at present. The Committee has provided a Subcommittee of three to formulate a full report to be submitted to a meeting of the full Committee at a later date. This present statement was approved by every member above mentioned."

V. The Subcommittee were Hon. Benjamin Harrison, Hon. Justice John M. Harlan, Thomas McDougall, Esq., and the Chairman.

VI. The Committee held a second meeting in the city of New York, on March 17 and 18, 1897, all the members present except

Gen. Harrison and Mr. Williams, and adopted the following, viz.:

1. In view of the action taken by the Assembly of 1894, prior to the letting of the contract for the building, as shown by its Minute hereinbefore given, we conceive our only duty to be to confer with the two Boards, and to advise as to the course to be pursued in connection with the New Presbyterian House.

2. The Committee finds that there is no pending offer from any one to buy the property; nor has there been since the first meeting of this Committee.

3. Whether the property on Twentieth street and Fifth avenue, as well as that on Fifth avenue and Twelfth street, should be sold or not, are matters which, under existing conditions, may be properly and safely left to the determination of the two Boards.

4. The application of the money derived from the Stuart Estate toward the erection of the new building was not an illegal use of such money.

5. The Committee advises urgent appeals to all the churches of our denomination to make not only their ordinary but increased contributions for Home and Foreign Missionary operations; in the full confidence that under no circumstances will money given for current work be applied to the account of the new building, but that the debt thereon must be provided for by other contributions for that purpose.

6. As seems proper, the Committee recognizes the sore difficulties and embarrassments under which the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions have recently labored in the discharge of their onerous duties, and would bid them Godspeed in the execution of the great trusts committed to them.

VII. After adopting the above, your Committee authorized its Chairman and Judge James A. Beaver to meet with as many of the members of the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions as might be assembled at 3.30 P.M., of that day, and make known to them, for private use, the fundamental points to be framed in the Report of the Committee; to the intent that the business interests of the Boards might have any advantage therefrom. This duty was discharged in the afternoon, a large representation of the Boards being present.

VIII. In view of these facts your Committee offers for adoption the following resolutions:

1. That the disposition of the two properties in question shall now be left to the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions, as agents of our Church.

2. That the General Assembly hereby expresses its cordial appreciation of the laborious services, the sacrifices of time, and as well the contributions of money made by members of the Boards and others also in the conduct of these enterprises.

3. That the General Assembly approves of the action of the Committee, and herewith discharges the Committee of Eleven.

J. L. Withrow,
Benjamin Harrison,
John Wanamaker,
John M. Harlan,
James A. Beaver,
Thomas Ewing,
Samuel B. Huey,
H. B. Silliman,
Alexander McDonald,
Robert S. Williams.

The following action as to legacies was adopted unanimously:

While the Boards of our Church are civil corporations under the laws of the States in which they are located, they are also creatures of the Church, organized and operated for missionary purposes, and subject to control by the Church. This being so, the General Assembly adopts the following rule:

Resolved, That when any Board receives a legacy the use of which is not indicated in the will of the testator, the funds shall either be used for current work, or shall be invested in accordance with the laws provided for the care of trust funds in the State where the Board is located. But if not so used, the funds shall be held until the General Assembly approves of some different use of them which the Board may propose to make.

A vote of thanks for their services was extended to the members of the Committee of Eleven on the Presbyterian Building, New York city.

It was also Resolved, That the thanks of the General Assembly are hereby tendered to Miss Rachel L. Kennedy, Mr. John S. Kennedy, and the laymen of the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions, for their gifts and self-sacrificing services to the cause of Missions.

The Report of the Special Committee of Conference with the Board of Home Missions was taken up.

Resolution No. 5 of the Report was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Resolutions Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4, and the paper as a whole, were then adopted. The Report as adopted is as follows:

Report of Special Committee on Home Missions to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in session at Winona Assembly Grounds, May, 1897:

The General Assembly's Special Committee of nine to confer with the Board of Home Missions was appointed in accordance with the following action of the Assembly of 1896:

"In view of the present financial stringency and the difficulty of raising sufficient funds for the prosecution of the mission enterprises of our Church, we recommend that a Committee consisting of three ministers and six laymen be appointed by the Moderator with full authority :

"1. To confer with the Home Mission Board regarding its method of general administration and suggest what changes, if any, are advisable therein.

"2. To carefully examine the expenditures for officers' salaries and clerk hire, and to indicate what reductions, if any, can be made consistently with economy and efficiency of service.

"3. To examine the books and accounts of the Board, with the aid of an expert accountant, if such aid be deemed desirable, and to recommend any changes they may regard as essential.

"4. To ascertain the cause of the present accumulated indebtedness, and to recommend such measures as in their judgment will most efficiently remove the indebtedness and prevent the recurrence of deficits.

" 5. To publish in the Church papers, at the earliest possible moment, such information as in their judgment will be of value to the whole Church, and make full report of their work, with recommendations, to the next General Assembly."

By appointment of the Moderator, the Committee was constituted of the following persons : Rev. W. P. Kane, Rev. Charles A. Dickey, Rev. John Dixon: Elders Dan P. Eells, L. W. Yaggy, S. P. Harbison, Robert N. Willson, S. M. Clement and Robert Pitcairn.

The above action of the last Assembly defines both the occasion for and the duties of the Committee.

In accordance with the above instructions the Committee has held repeated conferences with the Board of Home Missions, and has given careful and conscientious attention to all the matters committed to it.

We have endeavored to gain exact information concerning the present condition of the work of the Board, its burdens, its difficulties, and its methods of administration.

Under the Assembly's instructions five distinct items were to be considered :

1. Conference with the Board in regard to its method of general administration and the recommendation of any changes therein that might be deemed advisable.

The details of administration fall necessarily, for the most part, upon the Board's Secretaries and Treasurer, the Board exercising general direction and review of the work done by these officers.

Those not having given the matter special attention will have little conception of the extent and perplexing character of this detail work, involving the wise distribution of so large a sum of money among so many men and upon fields so diversified in character and claims. To command such accurate information and clear judgment as are demanded in the discharge of these duties is a requirement that must tax the patience and intelligence of the wisest and most gifted executive. That errors of judgment should occur, and that mistakes should sometimes be made, cannot be a matter of surprise. It may be reasonably expected, however, that every safeguard against errors shall be observed, and such rules and methods be adopted as shall, so far as possible, promote accuracy and fairness and efficiency. Bearing upon this point we have some recommendations to make which will appear in the resolutions at the close of this report.

2. In accordance with the second instruction of the Assembly, we have carefully examined the expenditures for officers' salaries and clerk hire. At the time of our examination the expense for these particular items amounted to the sum of $37,940 per annum. It should be explained that these figures do not cover the whole cost of administration. If we add other items contained in the Treasurer's statement of expenses the sum will be very largely increased. We are clearly convinced that material reductions can and ought to be made in this department. In the interests both of economy and efficiency there should be a careful reorganization of the office; and this done, the questions of detail in regard to expense will largely take care of themselves. We believe that the division of responsibility between two or more Secretaries is undesirable, and that there should be but one Secretary, with such subordinates as may be necessary, and that he should be held strictly accountable to the Board for the executive work. We believe also that there should be increased responsibility placed upon the Treasurer's department, by making him a member of the Executive Committee.

3. In obedience to the third instruction of the Assembly, a sub-Committee, consisting of two experienced business men from the Assembly's Committee, gave special and thorough attention to the examination of the books and accounts of the Board. The result of their investigation is given in the following statement to the Committee:

"We learn that on April 1, 1896, a new set of books was opened under the supervision of the Auditing Committee of the Board. At our request, Mr. John H. Allin, a public auditor, of No. 46 Wall street, who has a clientage among the largest financial institutions of New York city, and who has been engaged by the Board as its auditor, made an examination of the books as they stood on the morning of September 1, 1896. His report shows that the books are in exact balance, that all the securities called for are on hand, and that the interest on the same, with the exception of a small amount, has been promptly paid. The very satisfactory showing made by this examination does away, in our judgment, with the necessity of the engagement of an expert accountant as suggested by Section 3 of the Instructions of the General Assembly. And we are further of the opinion, that the new system of bookkeeping which was inaugurated April 1, 1896, as well as the modern methods which are being introduced in the office management, are fully up to the requirements of the business, and give guarantee that all business entrusted to the Treasurer's office will be promptly and efficiently managed." The report of the sub-Committee, after careful consideration, was approved and ordered to be inserted as a part of this Report.

4. Your Committee was also instructed to examine into the causes of the present indebtedness and to suggest measures for its removal and for guarding against such embarrassment in the future. We find that the present large indebtedness has not come upon the Board suddenly, but has been the accumulation of several years. Various causes are apparent. During the decade between 1880 and 1890, a large area of new territory was opened up and occupied, making unusual demands upon the Board for aid in sustaining the efforts of the Church to keep pace with the new settlements. The increased receipts of the Board during the same period encouraged the expectation that the necessary funds for this enlargement of work would be furnished. Following this came the universal financial depression of the country which is always apt to affect benevolent enterprises first and most seriously. The Board found itself burdened with the responsibility of a greatly enlarged field to be carried upon a seriously reduced income. In this respect the Board was not different from many, if not most, business enterprises throughout the country. Reluctant to abandon new and promising work, and hoping that the financial depression would soon give way to returning prosperity, the Board determined to borrow the funds necessary to carry on the work.

Almost at the same time an increased burden was placed upon the Board by the transfer of the Indian work from the Foreign to the Home Board, involving an additional outlay of $21,000 annually. By the same Assembly, that of 1894, our alliance with the Government in the support of the Indian schools was dissolved at an annual loss to the Church of $32,000, which the Home Board was expected to supply. These two items alone involved a deficit of more than $50,000, on the supposition that the receipts of the Board would continue at their highest record. These causes, we believe, are sufficient to account, in a large measure, for the accumulation of indebtedness; and it will be seen that they are causes not within the control of the Board.

Accompanying these main causes, other conditions may, and probably did, contribute more or less to the accumulation of the indebtedness. Your Committee is of the opinion that the Board's method of calculating the probable income was not sufficiently conservative. Too much reliance seems to have been attached to general resolutions passed by the Assembly, urging the Church to bring its total contributions up to a specified sum in advance.

It is an easy matter for Commissioners, under the temporary enthusiasm awakened by a stirring appeal, to vote recommendations, or instructions, if you choose, that contributions for the next year shall be largely increased; but that, however, as experience abundantly shows, does not furnish any guarantee that the increase will be realized. Such resolutions may be well enough, and may have more or less effect in stimulating offerings, but they should not be interpreted as authorizing the Board to plan its expenditures on the basis of such recommendations. We are of opinion that the Board should estimate its probable income upon the basis of past receipts and not upon uncertain anticipations for the future.

Still another condition, entering to some extent into the present financial embarrassment, grows apparently out of what seems to be the disproportionate increase of work thrown upon the Board by the energetic and successful prosecution of its pioneer educational agencies. The school work, under the immediate direction of the Woman's Executive Committee, was undertaken for the purpose of opening the way for the organization of churches in certain sections where this seemed the only practical method of evangelization. When this need was made known, the women of the Church loyally and heroically undertook to raise the funds and to assume the responsibility for the management of the work under the general direction of the Board.

From the beginning the enterprise was prosecuted with great energy and success. The funds for this work, secured through the organization of women's societies throughout the whole Church, have gradually and largely increased, until for several years they have amounted to fully one-third of all the offerings made by the churches for Home Missions. Many new and promising fields, otherwise inaccessible, have been opened through the agency of the school work. The very success of the enterprise has, however, in the present depleted and burdened state of the treasury, become an embarrassment to the Board. As an outcome of the school work, new fields, demanding the organization of churches and the supply of missionaries, are appealing for aid, while the Board finds itself unable to satisfactorily sustain the work already on hand. The condition seems to be that an undue proportion of the offerings of the Church have been turned into this channel, and that this feature of the work has outrun the ability of the Board to follow it up. Your Committee desire to say that this statement is not to be interpreted as in any way reflecting upon the work or the methods of the Woman's Executive Committee. For these we have only words of praise and commendation. It is rather the great success of their work that has developed embarrassment in this direction. The Church cannot afford to place any discouragement upon the zeal and self-sacrifice of her noble women, who have given themselves and their offerings so generously to this cause. Still we feel that a point has been reached where some readjustment is needed by which the educational and evangelistic work can be held in truer proportion.

Your Committee has not felt at liberty to formulate any specific action bearing upon this point. We believe that such an adjustment can be better reached by the Board and the Woman's Executive Committee themselves, under direction of the General Assembly.

As to safeguards against the accumulation of indebtedness in the future we have made specific recommendation in the resolutions attached to this Report. We are firmly convinced that the fixed policy of the Board should be against the incurring of indebtedness. In the early years of the Board's history, the policy of extending the work from year to year beyond the probable income, with a view to stimulating the churches in sustaining an aggressive work, seems to have been adopted, and for a time to have worked well; we do not believe, however, that that should be the present or the future policy of administration. The Church has grown weary of appeals to relieve the Board from indebtedness, and now longs for the stimulus of an annual statement that the business has been so managed that the year has been closed without debt, and that the Board is able to face the future and assume its responsibilities without hindrance from the past. Unusual conditions and unforeseen difficulties are liable at times to arise making this impossible; but we believe that every precaution should be taken to make such a situation improbable and exceptional.

5. One additional responsibility, not contained in the original instructions to the Committee, was transferred to it by special vote of the Assembly, viz., that of considering the advisability of consolidating the Treasurerships of the Boards, so that there would be one Treasurer for the three Boards located in the city of New York and one for the three located in the city of Philadelphia. Your Committee did not have before it the general question of consolidation, but merely this particular plan. In the light of our investigation we are convinced that the consolidation proposed is not practicable, and would not, under present arrangements, be either in the interests of economy or efficiency.

Your Committee also gave careful consideration to the matter of Synodical and Presbyterial self-control in the administration of Home Missions in its relation to the work and interests of the Board. There is a pronounced feeling on the part of some of our self-supporting Synods and Presbyteries that the work within their immediate bounds can be more efficiently directed by local control. Several Synods have already assumed this responsibility and are now caring for their own work. It is not the province, nor the purpose, of your Committee to challenge the right of Synods and Presbyteries in this matter, nor to pronounce judgment upon any of the various plans now in operation. We are impressed, however, with the importance of maintaining sympathy and coöperation throughout the whole work of Home Mission administration. It therefore seems to your Committee that the subject is one that should receive careful attention, in order that, if possible, some method may be devised that will preserve the constitutional authority of the Presbyteries in the matter, allowing variety of administration according to different conditions, and yet promote the efficiency of the general work under the direction of the Board. We include, therefore, in our recommendations, a specific resolution bearing upon this point.

In concluding this Report, your Committee desires to express its sympathy with the Board in the trying experiences through which it is passing, and its appreciation of the valuable service which it has so long rendered to the Church. Most of the members of the Board have served in this capacity for many years, and all have given their time and labor, not only gratuitously, but heartily and cheerfully. Almost without exception they are men already burdened with heavy responsibilities in other spheres. They deserve, and should receive, the generous appreciation of the whole Church.

We desire to submit to this Assembly for adoption the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Board of Home Missions be directed to so reorganize its methods of administration that the executive work shall be placed in charge of one Secretary, with whatever assistants may be necessary, and that he be accountable to the Board for its faithful and efficient management.

Resolved, 2. That the Board be directed to make, at the beginning of each fiscal year, an estimate of the probable income for the ensuing year, by taking the average amount received from legacies, church offerings and all other sources, for a period of preceding years; and that the sum thus obtained shall be considered the available amount for the work of the Board during the ensuing year.

Resolved, 3. That the policy of the Board shall be to avoid debt. Where debt has been unavoidably incurred, then allowance shall be made for the payment of the debt, as far as possible, during the ensuing year, out of the estimated receipts.

Resolved, 4. That the proposed consolidation of the Treasurerships in the cities of New York and Philadelphia is inexpedient.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Committee.

W. P. KANE, Chairman.

The following additional Commissioners were enrolled: Ministers—Charles Park, of the Presbytery of Nassau; John L. McKee, D.D., of the Presbytery of Transylvania; B. S. Ely, Jr., of the Presbytery of Freeport.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

TUESDAY, May 25, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held in the interests of Home Missions. Rev. John Hall, D.D., President of the Board, presided, and addresses were made by the Moderator, Rev. Sheldon Jackson, D.D., Rev. George L. Spining, D.D., and others.

WEDNESDAY, May 26, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report, as follows, which was adopted:

Overture No. 21, from the Presbytery of Washington, looking to the transfer of the Sabbath-school Work to New York, under the care of the Board of Home Missions, referred to the Committee by this Assembly. It is recommended that it be answered in the negative. Adopted.

Paper No. 60, being the Annual Report of the Alliance of Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System. It is recommended that it be referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. Adopted.

Paper No. 72, being a Report on Scientific Temperance Education in Public Schools in the U. S. It is recommended that it be referred to the Committee on Temperance. Adopted.

The Special Committee on the Reception and Licensure of Candidates for the Gospel Ministry presented its Report, which was adopted, as follows:

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1896, in reference to the powers of the General Assembly and the Presbyteries, in the matter of the reception and licensure of candidates for the Gospel ministry, respectfully reports as follows:

The Judicial Committee of the last Assembly, after making their general Report upon the subject of the reception and licensure of candidates for the ministry, made also a supplemental Report, which was received and adopted, and which reads: "While this Committee has no doubt as to the power of the General Assembly and Presbytery in the matter of the care and licensure of candidates for the ministry, being already expressly and clearly defined by our Form of Government, and applicable to actual cases, nevertheless, in view of the confusion said to be existing in many minds, causing serious differences of opinion:

"We recommend to the General Assembly, if it deems it wise, to appoint a Special Committee of five to prepare a Constitutional rule, or such other action as may seem best to them, regulative of the power of the General Assembly and of the Presbyteries to superintend the education and care of candidates for the ministry, to be reported to the next General Assembly, and in the event of its adoption by the next General Assembly to be overtured to the Presbyteries" (Minutes, 1896, p. 162).

The Committee of five thus authorized, as originally appointed, consisted of the following persons: Ministers—Benjamin L. Agnew, D.D., William F. Junkin, D.D., J. Clement French, D.D.; Elders—Hon. R. N. Willson and F. L. Sheppard, Esq.

When Dr. Agnew became Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief, he resigned his place as a member of the Committee, and the present Chairman, Rev. John A. Liggett, D.D., was appointed in his stead. Dr. French also resigned from the Committee, and the Rev. William Durant, D.D., was appointed in his place.

The Committee has held three meetings in the city of Philadelphia. This whole delicate and extremely interesting subject of the powers of the Assembly and of the Presbyteries in reference to the reception and licensure of candidates was considered in all its aspects, so far at least as they presented themselves to the minds of the Committee. The members were deeply impressed with the seriousness and profound importance of the subject under consideration. They felt that so far as the peace and prosperity of our beloved Church are concerned a great deal might depend on the nature of the report to be made.

By the action of the Assembly, the Committee had been entrusted with the power of preparing a new Constitutional Rule upon the subject, or such other action as might seem best to them. To prepare a new Constitutional Rule, to add an article, or even a sentence, to the present Constitution of the Church was felt to be a most serious matter, and one not to be attempted, unless from sheer necessity. The Committee did not feel that such necessity had arisen. They felt, on the other hand, that the Constitution, which has already stood the test of more than one hundred years' operation, and under whose benignant influence our Church has so greatly prospered, was still sufficient for every emergency. Without therefore suggesting any change of or addition to the Constitution of the Church in reference to the matter of receiving and licensing candidates, and at the same time realizing the extreme importance of safeguarding the polity and the doctrine of our beloved Church, we recommend to the Assembly the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the General Assembly expresses its confidence in the sufficiency of the Constitution as it now is, and does not deem it wise at this time to propose any changes therein or additions thereto.

Resolved, 2. That in view of the extreme importance of safeguarding the polity and doctrine of our Church, this General Assembly affirms as applicable to all theological students the deliverance made by the General Assembly of 1806 (Minutes, as reprinted, p. 367), concerning students who received aid from the Presbyteries, viz., that the Presbyteries inspect their education "during the course of their theological studies, choosing for them such schools, seminaries and teachers as they may judge most proper and advantageous, so as eventually to bring them into the ministry well furnished for their work."

The Report of the Delegates to the Glasgow Council was presented, and was received and approved, as follows:

The Delegates from the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. to the Sixth General Council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System respectfully report:

That the Sixth General Council of the Alliance was held at the city of Glasgow, Scotland, on the 17th day of June, 1896, and for ten days following. That the following Delegates from this Church were present, and attended the sessions, viz., Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., Rev. T. Ralston Smith, D.D., Rev. S. F. Scovel, D.D., Rev. E. C. Zenos, D.D., Rev. W. C. Roberts, D.D., Rev. J. Addison Henry, D.D., Rev. A. D. Cunningham, D.D., Rev. A. D. Hawn, D.D., Rev. W. H. Hubbard, D.D., Rev. W. F. Hamilton, D.D., Rev. William B. Noble, D.D., Rev. H. C. Minton, D.D., Rev. W. W. Harsha, D.D., Rev. S. B. Fleming, D.D., Rev. T. V. Moore, D.D., Rev. James M. Maxwell, D.D., Rev. John Hall, D.D., Rev. John Fox, D.D., Rev. S. M. Studdiford, D.D., Rev. H. Lindsay, D.D., Rev. L. Y. Graham, D.D., Rev. J. L. Marquis, D.D., Rev. W. S. Hubbell, D.D., Rev. S. E. Wishard, D.D., Rev. Thomas Lawrence, D.D., Rev. M. D. A. Steen, D.D., Rev. Charles A. Stoddard, D.D., Rev. Barton W. Perry, Rev. W. W. Moorhead, D.D., Rev. John T. Oxtoby, D.D., Rev. Charles T. Haley, D.D., Rev. D. C. Marquis, D.D., Rev. Robert Christy, D.D., Rev. J. A. Hodge, D.D., William M. Lanning, Hon. Emerson E. White, LL.D., Hon. C. E. Vanderburg, F. Wolcott Jackson, Esq., Robert S. Davis, Esq., Edwin R. Perkins, Esq., William M. Camp, Esq., David Jack, Esq., H. S. Howell, Esq., William D. Sinclair, Esq., Charles E. Green, LL.D., O. E. Boyd, Esq., Gen. Ralph E. Prime.

The Delegates were appointed by the General Assembly, and vacancies were filled by the authority of the General Assembly.

The Delegates attending the Council were royally entertained by the Presbyterians of the city of Glasgow. The Council was one of the largest ever held, almost every Church entitled to representation having its delegates present. In spirit and in helpfulness it will long be remembered by all the delegates.

It ought to be stated that our Church was honored at that Council by the choice of Rev. Dr. William H. Roberts, who is the Stated Clerk of this General Assembly, and was one of the Delegates to the Council, to be President of the Alliance and of the Council, and his opening address was the keynote of the great meeting. In the nature of things, with so many Churches connected with the Alliance on each side of the Atlantic, this honor of the choice of one of our own Delegates as the President of the Council can only occur once in a great many years, and to preside over the Alliance of all the Presbyterians in the world is one to be gratefully recognized by the Church which was honored, by the choice of one of its own representatives to fill that position. It goes without saying in our Church, where Dr. Roberts is so well known, that the honors were borne with dignity, and in a manner that reflected not only credit upon himself but on those whom he represented.

The papers prepared for and read before the Council were of a very high order, and the book in which the work of the Council has been preserved will stand as a monument of the meeting, which will compare with that of any other of the six Councils. It has been, in the past, the rule that the successive Councils meet at the interval of four years, and the year of the meeting has in the past fallen in the midst of the excitement of an American Presidential campaign, which has prevented our Church from including in its representation some of the best men among its eldership, who owing to the circumstances were unwilling to leave their country at such a time. To avoid the recurrence of this in the future, your representatives sought and obtained a change of the interval between the last and the next Council, so that the next will be held in the year 1899, and thereafter every four years, which arrangement will avoid the presidential election year.

The Seventh General Council of the Alliance will be held in the city of Washington, D. C., in September, 1899, in the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church of that city, pursuant to the invitation of the Session of that church, and also of the Presbytery of Washington City, and to that Council it will be the privilege of this Church to send its Delegates.

By order of the Delegates, attending the Assembly,

RALPH E. PRIME, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Foreign Missions presented its Report, which was received, and after addresses by the Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D.D., Chairman; Rev. F. F. Ellinwood, D.D., one of the Secretaries of the Board; Dr. J. C. R. Ewing, D.D., Rev. W. P. Boomer, Rev. Hunter Corbett, D.D., Rev. L. S. Esselstyn, Rev. Hugh Taylor, Rev. S. M. Moore, J.

M. Alexander, D.D., and J. A. Fitch, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Foreign Missions presents congratulations to the General Assembly on what it believes must be one of the best Reports in recent years. In these most trying financial experiences through which our country is passing, this must surely sound as a note of encouragement. It is true the reported debt of the Board as given in the financial report is $97,454, but it is not to be forgotten that the year was begun with an indebtedness of $46,235 (which was subsequently reduced to $30,450 by gifts from the Anniversary Reunion Fund), and that the bequests this past year have been $58,000 less than in former years, and it can readily be seen that the sum of these two amounts would more than equal the indebtedness reported for the year just past. It is likewise true that it has been necessary to practice retrenchment in the Board, and this cut has fallen heavily on the native pastors and helpers, but reduction of expenses was inevitable. However, in every case the salary of every foreign missionary has been paid in full and with greatest promptness. But in the face of it all, the prospects in the foreign field were never brighter, the work never more hopeful, the barriers in the way of the progress of the kingdom were never fewer. "The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad."

MEXICO.—The burning question of this field is that of self-support. Notwithstanding the reduced aid received from the Board, we learn of earnest work carried on by native pastors in all departments of the field under conditions involving great self-denial, and many notable instances of self-sacrificing giving on the part of congregations are written on the records of the past year's work.

In some cases where pastors have grown discouraged and left the work the people have carried it on, and conducted Bible readings or held a simple service of prayer and praise. There has been a gain of eight per cent. in the additions to the churches in Mexico.

GUATEMALA.—This little mission began in 1882, and has been greatly blest of God. The gain in the membership is only twenty-six, but that is forty-two and one-half per cent of the whole number, and for the second time it shows the largest per cent. of increase of any part of the field and leads the whole Church in its rate of advance.

SOUTH AMERICA.—The unstable character of the South American governments and their liability to political upheaval, produce a condition of society not conducive to mission work, but the work is not without its encouragements. The work in Brazil, in the face of great trials, has been so successful as to demand a reinforcement of its workers. In the Chile mission, the growth of the Sunday-schools and Christian Endeavor Societies has been marked, and the increased immigration from Europe marks this field as one of promise for the future.

Siam, Laos and India.—The missions in India have felt the discouragements of the famine and pestilence of the land, and what their ultimate effect will be cannot be foreseen, but the missionaries are hopeful. There has been a steady growth in all the missions, while in some, remarkable manifestations of God's power have been witnessed. Upon every page of the Laos report is found the one strain of joyous success. Everywhere it speaks of growth in grace and remarkable activity among Christians, with earnest efforts towards self-support.

China.—The work is well in hand in China, and a careful reading of the report leads one to think that the conservatism of the old nation is giving way, and that we may at no distant day look for a Pentecostal harvest. Let the Church be faithful in the supplying of funds, and she may be prepared for the harvest sure to come, it may be speedily.

Japan.—Japan continues to be the same interesting field, the missionaries all report progress and their work is owned of God.

Korea.—Of all the fields now open to missionary effort, Korea seems to stand first in the matter of blessed opportunity. The recent war has only served the better to prepare the Koreans for the hearing of the Gospel. But this field must be taken now for Christ; five years hence the door may be practically closed. There is an urgent demand in this part of the vineyard for laborers. God forgive us if we should fail to heed His call and forever be too late.

Africa.—The most notable addition to the work in Africa is that which has just been begun by the Board among the Dwarfs. Miss Margaret McLean, of Scotland, reading of them in Stanley's wonderful book, offered to provide for the Church of Scotland a sum sufficient to support the work, but in view of the fact that the Church of Scotland has no mission work in that part of the land, her generous offer was sent to our Board and heartily accepted. This is believed to be the first mission of its kind in the world.

Syria.—Despite the war-clouds which hang over the western horizon and the awful bloodshed in the north and east, the seventy-third year of the Syrian mission's history has been crowned with success. For years the printing press has been running in Syria, and 600,000,000 sheets of the printed Word of God have gone on their mission through the Arabic-speaking world.

Persia.—Persia too presents an open door, and it must be speedily entered, as it is not improbable that ere long the Russian influence will become so dominant as to preclude the possibility of further pioneer work. This is the more urgent because in the east of Persia is another open door into Afghanistan and Beloochistan, which can also be taken for Christ. And thus the chain of Christian missions from Constantinople eastward through India and China to the Pacific Ocean may be completed. This crisis in Persia must come during the next ten years.

Thus the story goes, it has only been line upon line, when it might have been volume upon volume, so important has the work been and so full of promise for the near future. There are indications in every country of which we have spoken, of the direct work of the Holy Ghost, and it would seem to us both from what is known of our land and what we have learned of others, that we are on the eve of a mighty awakening, which shall cover the earth with blessing as the waters cover the bed of the sea.

In view of all these facts it is absolutely necessary that in our own land and in the churches we represent we do certain things,

1. We must first of all arouse the enthusiasm of the people in the cause of Foreign Missions. To do this we must give them the facts. There is no better way to accomplish this than, in addition to the Church literature, to establish the Monthly Concert of Missions. The Board has prepared a most admirable list of topics for 1897. We would advise their use in all the churches.

2. We must pray more for the work and the workers. We learn with pleasure that every day in New York, from 12.45 M. to 1 P.M., the Board meets for prayer for God's blessing on their work throughout the world. We would suggest that so far as it may be practicable the members of the Church everywhere join in prayer at this time, so that we may belt the globe with our petitions to God.

3. We must give more for the support of the work. Many pastors could greatly increase their Foreign Missionary contributions to the Board for this work. May the Lord lay on us all the burden to do so. The Student Volunteer Movement has done much to bring to the Boards and send to the fields, some of the brightest and best of our students, but we submit that the time has come when a layman's volunteer movement may well be organized, and thus our consecrated elders, deacons and members generally may preach the Gospel by proxy in foreign lands, if they are unable to go themselves.

We must think more, know more, pray more, work more, give more. A wonderful opportunity is just before us. May the great Head of the Church lead us to lay hold upon it before it is forever too late.

We have received the financial Report of the Board of Foreign Missions, have examined it carefully, and report it correct. We note the resignation of William Dulles, Jr., Esq., as Treasurer, and the unanimous election of Charles W. Hand, Esq., to succeed him.

We have received the Report of the Women's Societies and Boards of the Church for 1896–97. Your Committee is deeply impressed with the faithful and devoted labor of these women of our beloved Church. They report 7387 Auxiliary Societies and Young People's organizations, and have raised $317,635.59 during the year.

In view of the fact that the Board has felt obliged to cut its appropriations $100,000 below those of 1894, thus making unprecedented retrenchment in the native work at the very time when the providence of God is calling the Church to a vigorous advance, the Assembly strongly urges the churches to so emphasize the cause of Foreign Missions this year, that the debt may be liquidated and an increase of gifts made over those of last year of at least twenty per cent. as being imperatively needed.

We recognize the efficient activity and extensive labors of the Field Secretary, to whom the success of the recent conference is so largely due. And we bid him Godspeed in the prosecution of his special work in arousing the interest of the churches.

Upon the Overtures from the Presbyteries of Stockton, Denver, Olympia and Shanghai, asking that the Foreign Missionary Board be increased twenty-five new members, and that half the number be women, and that the secretariat of the Board be increased by at least two women, it is recommended that no action be taken.

In reference to the Overtures from the Presbytery of Western Africa, relating to a certain action of the Board of Foreign Missions, it is recommended that it be referred to the Board for their consideration.

We have been deeply impressed with the cordial and brotherly sympathy which manifestly exists between our Secretaries, and their united and unselfish desire to extend the bounds and the influence of the kingdom of God.

We have also been greatly pleased with the perfect confidence which certainly binds together our Secretaries in the Boards and our workers in the field. How can two walk together except they are agreed? We wish to bear testimony to the high character, the deep piety and the sweet spirit of our foreign missionaries with whom we have been brought in personal contact during the Assembly. They all seem to be spirit-filled men and women.

In closing, we count it an honor to say, that we have never in all our ministry been brought in contact either with a work or a band of workers, where we were more profoundly impressed with the fact that the Holy Spirit was the Executive in all, than in this contact we have had with our Foreign Missionary Secretaries and our Foreign Missionaries themselves. Their work reads like another chapter in the Acts of the Apostles. And to sit in conference with them, as we have had the privilege, was indeed to sit in heavenly places.

The following recommendations are offered for adoption:

1. That the records of the Board, which have been carefully examined, be approved. The Subcommittee, having the records for examination, note the kindly supervision of all the work on all the mission fields by the Secretaries, the caution with which new fields are entered upon, the cordial sympathy existing between the Secretaries and the missionaries, the care taken in the proper use of the funds, and the magnitude of the work conducted by the Board.

2. That the Assembly urge upon all Sunday-schools greater attention to Foreign Missions, giving the cause a regular place in the instruction of the schools, especially observing the Sunday preceding Christmas as a suitable time for special Christmas Foreign Missionary exercises, accompanied by the bringing of gifts to Christ for this work.

3. The Assembly has learned with gratification of the interest and helpfulness of the conference held, under the direction of the Board, with the Chairmen of Synodical and Presbyterial Committees and representatives of the Women's Boards, just before the opening of the General Assembly, and would recommend the Board to hold a similar conference just prior to the next Assembly.

4. The Assembly heartily approves of the proposed simultaneous interdenominational movement in the interests of Foreign Missions next January, under the direction of the Joint Conference of Foreign Missionary Boards of the United States and Canada, and expresses the hope that pastors will heartily coöperate with the movement.

5. This Assembly reiterates the recommendation of former Assemblies that at least two offerings should be made each year for the cause of Foreign Missions, and that the second of these offerings be taken in the month of April.

6. That the General Assembly deprecates the custom of native professed Christians from foreign lands coming to America to solicit money from the churches and Young People's Societies, and expresses the hope that pastors will consult the Secretaries of the Board before giving them aid, and that the Assembly strongly urges that foreign missionary gifts of the people be not given to independent agencies, over which the Church has no control, but to our own Board, which is organized for the express purpose of administering the foreign missionary gifts of Presbyterians.

7. That the following elders be elected members of the Board of Foreign Missions: For the class of 1895–98—Mr. John Stewart and Mr. W. E. Stiger. For the class of 1897–1900—Mr. H. B. Silliman and Mr. W. P. Stevenson. And that the following ministers and elders be reëlected as members of the Board of Foreign Missions: Ministers—R. R. Booth, D.D., W. R. Richards, D.D., John R. Davies, D.D., Rev. John Fox, D.D.; Elder—Hon. Darwin R. James.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

J. Wilbur Chapman, Chairman.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 26, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The following Special Committee was announced:

On the 250th Anniversary of the Westminster Standards: Ruling Elder—Hon J. A. Mount; Ministers—J. W. Rendall, D.D., G. L. Spining, D.D., W. H. Roberts, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Gen. E. C. Mason and W. H. H. Smith.

The Mileage Committee reported the following Resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Commissioners who are entertained in Warsaw, and who so desire, be authorized to charge their local fare to the mileage account.

For the Committee,
WILLIAM W. FISKE, Chairman.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Assembly hereby directs the Committee of Arrangements to provide that whenever the Moderator shall announce the close of any session of the Assembly, the ushers shall at once close all doors of exit, and that no egress shall be permitted through them except for some imperative necessity, until after the notices have been given by the Clerks of the Assembly, and the closing prayer has been offered.

The Stated Clerk announced the death of the Rev. J. Davidson Randolph, of the Presbytery of Chester, a Commissioner-elect to this General Assembly. The Stated Clerk was directed to extend the condolence and sympathy of the Assembly to the widow of the deceased brother.

It was made the order immediately after the reading of the Minutes, to-morrow A.M., to receive the Report on the Assembly Herald; the third order for to-morrow A.M. to receive the Report of the Committee on Correspondence, and the first order for Friday A.M., to receive the Report of the Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries.

The Standing Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work presented its Report by its Chairman, Ruling Elder James Yereance, which, after an address by the Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others, was accepted, and the resolutions adopted. The Report is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work respectfully reports as follows:

The Board has submitted to the Committee the records of the proceedings of the three departments under which its work has been conducted since its reorganization in 1887, together with the Minutes of the monthly and special meetings of the Board, its printed Annual Report and Balance Sheet. These records present in detail all the transactions of the Board in its Editorial, Business and Missionary departments. They are clear, explicit, full and admirably kept.

Your Committee record the great satisfaction afforded in the evidence of the careful business methods, the economy of administration, the close oversight of all parts of the work and the laborious attention given to the management of the great trust reposed by the Assembly in the hands of the Board. It deserves and should have the fullest confidence of the whole Church. Here is a remarkable exhibit—a missionary and benevolent agency of the Church, which not only takes charge of the funds collected from the churches and Sabbath-schools, and donated by individuals, and puts them to work in one of the grandest and most fruitful of all missionary enterprises, but absolutely pays its own way in doing so. Without taking a single dollar from the contributions of little child or wealthy donor, for running expenses, it not only puts dollar for dollar into the work, but makes every dollar you give larger, out of the profits of its own labors. We think the whole Church should know that while grandly serving the Church, it is paying its own current expenses and blessing God for the opportunity of doing so.

Editorial Department.—The Editorial department has prepared during the year twenty-three new publications, including one complete edition of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., containing all the Standards, with the new proof-texts authorized by the General Assembly, together with the Administrative Acts of the Assembly; and one edition each of The Shorter Catechism (with proof-texts), The Confession of Faith, and The Government and Discipline of the Church. And since the close of the fiscal year, a Manual for Ruling Elders, by Rev. William Henry Roberts, D.D., LL.D.

Reprints of one hundred and sixty-seven (167) former publications of the Board—sixty-four bound volumes and 103 tracts and paper-covered books—have also been issued.

The number of periodicals published was that announced in the last Report, namely, eleven Lesson Helps and four illustrated papers. The favor with which these publications have been received not only in our own Church, but in other denominations in the United States, and also in Canada and England, has been of the most gratifying character.

Forward, which since the beginning of the year 1896 has been published as a weekly, will, after the first of July next, be doubled in size, and the aim will be to make it even more interesting and instructive than heretofore, at the same price as formerly, fifty cents a year for school subscriptions.

A Chapel edition of the Hymnal is now ready for the press, to be followed by a Sabbath-school edition of the Hymnal, which will contain popular tunes, suitable for young children and youth, and also include choice hymns that will appear in the Chapel edition and that are not in the Hymnal. It being always to be borne in mind that the education and elevation of musical taste should not be made at the loss of children and youth to other denominations.

At the last Assembly the following recommendation was adopted:

"That the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work be requested to consider the whole matter of the establishment and maintenance of a course of instruction in the Bible, and in the doctrines and history of the Presbyterian Church, similar to that provided by the Church of Scotland in its 'Guild Text-books,' and by the Free Church of Scotland in its 'Welfare of Youth Scheme,' and to report fully concerning the whole matter to the next General Assembly."

The Board, as appears from its Report (pp. 8 and 9), has given careful attention to the matter indicated and proposes during the ensuing year to begin the publication of a series of brief treatises upon such a general outline of subjects as has been recommended.

Business Department.—In acordance with the recommendation of the last Assembly, the Board issued a cheaper edition of the Hymnal bound in cloth, placing the introduction price at $1.

It is gratifying to know that since the issue of the Report, a contract has been entered into with the Congregational S. S. and Publishing Society in Boston, for the supply of the Hymnal for use in the Congregational churches—thus manifesting their appreciation of the high merit of the Hymnal.

Notwithstanding the depressed state of business of the country—the great field of the publications of this Board—this department has paid all its expenses and been able to turn over to the Missionary department the sum of $17,577.90. While this is somewhat less than the amount turned over last year, yet, in view of the conditions prevailing, this result is a cause for great thankfulness.

We note with great satisfaction the distribution of Free Libraries, and commend this phase of the work, believing that a continuance along this line will result in great good to the schools of our beloved Church.

We are glad to note a growing improvement in the material that enters into the Board's publications with no increase of price therefor. This may account for the increase of the sales during the past year.

Sabbath-school and Missionary Department.—Highly as we value the Editorial and Business Departments of the Board's work, it is the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department which we desire especially to commend to the attention and loyal support of the Church. The work of this Department falls under two heads, (1) Educational, and having reference to the improved efficiency of already existing Presbyterian Sabbath-schools; and, (2) Missionary, directed to the organization of new schools and to religious work in connection with such organization in the unevangelized portions of our land. Your Committee is of the opinion that the Board should have the fullest encouragement to push its work in both these directions. In regard to the first of them, the Board avows its purpose "to subordinate all machinery, external appliances and educational methods, and the entire work of the Sabbath-school to the accomplishment of one great end, the salvation of the scholars, their conversion to Christ and upbuilding in Christ" (Report, p. 30). God has so honored the faithful work of the officers and teachers of the Sabbath-schools of our entire Church, that during the year 1895–6, as shown by statistical tables gathered from the entire Church, more than 32,000 of our Sabbath-school scholars were received into the full communion of the Church. Several methods employed in this department of the work deserve notice. The first of these is the Normal Class work, directed to the raising up of men and women perfectly equipped as Sabbath-school teachers. For this purpose a series of "Outlines," embracing a three years' course of study, has been devised. This has already begun to bear good fruit.

Thought has also been taken to secure more regular and systematic study of the Scriptures on the part of those who, for any reason, cannot be in actual attendance upon the Sabbath-school. For the benefit of such persons the Home Department has been organized. Many of our pastors can testify to the good which is being accomplished by this method of work and to the fact that it tends to recruit our schools.

The Board has also continued to stimulate our young people to commit to memory the Shorter Catechism. For this purpose it has offered a Bible as a reward. The number of persons who have received such rewards during the last year was 1469—in the last ten years, 14,406. It should be noted that the Board has no special funds in hand for the maintenance of this offer for the current year, but the Board keeps the offer open, and asks for donations for this purpose. The amount expended last year was $975.75. The Board has now devised a similar plan to encourage what is even more important, the habit of committing the Scriptures themselves to memory. It has arranged a series of selected passages, covering a four years' course, and proposes to present an engraved certificate to any scholar who shall be properly certified to have memorized and recited the selections for any one year in the course, and a more elaborate certificate to any one who shall have recited the selections of the whole course. In view of the widespread neglect of what was once so prominent a feature in the religious training of our Presbyterian youth, and of the inestimable value of a familiar knowledge of the very words of Scripture, this plan deserves the heartiest endorsement and coöperation of all who are in any way concerned in our Sabbath-school work.

The missionary work of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department of the Board consists (1) in the organization and upbuilding of new schools and the reorganization of such as for any reason have lapsed; (2) the distribution to schools, families and individuals of Bibles, tracts, hymn books and lesson helps, and (3) the visitation of families and individuals not reached by other Christian agencies. The Board reports that the schools organized last year numbered 938—ninety-two less than the year preceding. In addition, 389 lapsed schools were reorganized, which exceeded the number of lapsed schools and schools not heard from during the preceding year by 121, showing that the Church is overtaking her losses by recovered schools. In regard to this matter the Board well says: "The fact that schools die is discouraging, but it is a feature of this work which cannot be overlooked or avoided. This Department has never attempted to conceal the fact, but on the contrary has annually published the number of its lapsed schools, regarding it as of equal importance to seek after the lost one and restore it, as to organize a new school" (Report, p. 14). It should be said in this connection that the statistical tables show that at least seventy-five per cent. of the schools organized survive permanently; it deserves to be said also that the Board directs its missionaries to use every effort to secure permanency in results. To this end they are instructed to place every new school under the care of the Session of the nearest Presbyterian Church; and in case there is no church sufficiently near, to commend it to the Presbyterial Committee; they are charged to keep in touch with the schools organized, by correspondence with the superintendents and by visitation, and to do all in their power to preserve and foster them. In accordance with these instructions, 3984 schools were last year visited or otherwise aided by agents of the Board. It should be fully understood, however, that these agents are not engaged in the organization and oversight of Sabbath-schools merely. They are also distributors of religious literature and evangelists. They "are instructed to give marked attention to the distribution of Bibles, and of the books, tracts and Sabbath-school periodicals of the Board" (Report, p. 14). Another and highly important element in this subsidiary work of our Sabbath-school missionaries is house-to-house visitation. Within the past year they have gone into 90,000 homes, carrying the Gospel with them and leaving it behind them, in printed form, or in the memory of words of prayer, exhortation, counsel, instruction and comfort which they have spoken in Christ's name. The reports from the fields, especially from the more sparsely settled agricultural regions, emphasize the good which has been accomplished both directly and indirectly in this way. In some of these districts it could truly be said of the people that apart from such labors on the part of our Sabbath-school missionaries, they had none to care for their souls. The Sabbath-school missionary has been the pioneer, preparing the way for the home missionary, just as the Sabbath-school has prepared the way for the Church. He has held services in neglected places, often with encouraging results in the conversion of souls. These results defy tabulation, but what has been accomplished may be in part indicated by the fact that to them may be attributed in large part the hopeful conversion during last year of 2824 souls, the reception of 675 persons to membership in our Church, the establishment of thirty-three preaching places, the opening or dedication of fourteen chapels, the organization of eighty-two Home departments and twenty-eight Young People's Societies, and the development of thirty-eight mission schools into organized Presbyterian churches. It cannot be denied that in view of these results the Board is abundantly justified in saying as it does (Report, p. 28): "Presbyterian pastors, churches, Sabbath-schools and individual givers are therefore justified in supporting with true Presbyterian enthusiasm and loyal perseverance their own Sabbath-school mission work, in preference to agencies outside of and not representing their own Church."

But the blessing of success wherewith God has graciously crowned these efforts only adds emphasis to the demand for increased men and means for this work. The measure of opportunity has by no means been attained, the measure of need in no sense been met. There are still fifty Presbyteries which need Sabbath-school missionaries, but have none. Three Synods are calling loudly for Synodical missionaries; thirty-three Presbyteries have made repeated requests for men. The great State of California has but one Sabbath-school missionary; four men are needed at once. Oregon has but three missionaries; a vast region in southern Oregon has not even one missionary and calls loudly that one be sent. The great State of Texas has not one Sabbath-school missionary; Indian Territory has none; New Mexico has none; Wyoming has none; Utah, the home of Mormonism, has none; Montana, North Dakota, Arkansas, have but one each. Other States are equally needy. The Board could employ at once twenty-five additional missionaries in needy fields, and with the highest advantage, if only the means were furnished to support them. In view of these facts, we urge the claims of this work upon the generous support of our churches. There is danger that the great success that has attended the observance of Children's Day and Rallying Day may lead our churches to depend unduly upon the Sabbath-school to support this cause. It is noteworthy that last year the offerings credited to our churches for the Board were only $34,716.76, while the contributions credited to our Sabbath-schools amounted to $52,-232.08, an excess over the churches of $17,500. Surely the churches should contribute as much as the Sabbath-schools. Attention should also be drawn to the fact that in some quarters State Sabbath-school unions are endeavoring to get possession of Rallying-Day offerings. Presbyterians should support their own work first. It honors the Scriptures, it honors Presbyterian doctrine, it stands for the best methods and the highest efficiency in Sabbath-school work. God has abundantly honored it with His blessing. Let the Church be loyal to it, and let her, as a part of that great advance along mission lines for which this Assembly has pledged itself and the Church, make a substantial increase in her gifts to the Missionary department of this Board.

Your Committee therefore recommend for adoption by the Assembly:

1. That the appointment of Rev. Charles Wadsworth, D.D., as a member of the Board in the place of Rev. Benjamin L. Agnew, D.D., resigned, whose term of office will expire in June, 1898, be ratified and approved, and that the following-named gentlemen, whose term of office expires June, 1897, be reëlected, viz., Ministers—William Brenton Greene, D.D., Loyal Young Graham, D.D., William Dayton Roberts, D.D., Robert H. Fulton, D.D.; Ruling Elders—William W. Allen, Thomas W. Synnott, George Hale, M.D., John H. Converse.

2. That in view of the urgent calls for Sabbath school missionaries from many Presbyteries, where the necessity of the work is keenly realized and of the pressing need of fields as yet untouched, and which cannot be entered until the resources of the Board are increased, our churches and schools be recommended to contribute at least $200,000 to this work for the ensuing year, and that the attention of the pastors and elders be directed to the fact that the churches are not meeting their obligations to this Board and its blessed work. To this end the Committee on S. S. Work in each Presbytery is urged to thoroughly organize and supervise this important educational department in their respective Presbyteries, and stimulate all their churches and Sabbath-schools to contribute liberally therefor.

3. That we urge upon our churches, schools, and other societies and individuals, the purchase of their supplies and literature from our own Board and its agencies, instead of outside publishing houses.

4. That our Sabbath-school teachers are recommended to adopt the methods and appliances furnished by the Board for Teachers' Training, Home Department, Grading Sabbath-schools and the other educational features of this important work.

5. That as about 400 churches have adopted the Hymnal since its introduction some eighteen months ago, being nearly all which have during that time selected a new book, it is evident that it will become the accepted hymn book of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and it is urged that all our churches, as they may have need of a new book, shall adopt the Hymnal.

6. That we urge the general observance of Children's Day on the second Sabbath of June, and Rallying Day on the last Sabbath of September, and that liberal offerings be secured on one of those days for the Board for the use of its missionary work.

7. That we authorize the Board to prepare an exercise on the subject of "Sabbath Observance," to be supplied to our schools for use on Rallying Day.

8. That we urge the churches and schools to contribute to the Special Fund for granting rewards of Bibles for committing to memory the Scriptures and Catechism.

9. That the thanks of the Assembly be extended to the American Bible Society for generous aid in supplying our missionaries with all Bibles needed for gratuitous distribution, and that our churches be exhorted to remember this Society in their gifts. All of which is respectfully submitted,

JAMES YEREANCE, Chairman.

Overture No. 59, from the Presbytery of Utah, on a Concise Statement of Doctrine, which was referred to the Committee on Publication and S. S. Work, was, on its recommendation, answered by the statement that the matter is already being considered by the Board of Publication.

The Special Committee on Church Temporalities presented its Report by its Chairman, Rev. John Fox, D.D., which was received, amended, adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Church Temporalities respectfully submits the following Report to the General Assembly, and begs, first of all, to refer briefly to the Reports previously presented by them to other Assemblies, inasmuch as this will greatly help the consideration of the present one. The Committee having been appointed in 1892 reported in 1893, recommending that for the more thorough performance of the duty assigned them, and as well for the use of the churches generally, they should be permitted to have prepared a compilation of the Laws relating to Religious Corporations.

This proposal was agreed to, and the Committee employed the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., to make it; and in accordance with the subsequent directions of the Assembly of 1894, it was completed and finally published by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and so reported to the Assembly of 1896. The final Report of the Committee was thus necessarily delayed until this work was finished. Meanwhile, however, the Committee had proposed to the Assembly of 1893 the following deliverance, which was adopted, looking to the immediate mitigation of some of the difficulties arising under the present modes of managing Congregational Temporalities (see Minutes of Assembly, 1893): "The General Assembly takes notice that the exclusive authority of the Session over the worship of the church, including not only the times and places of preaching the Word, but also the music and the use of the church building, is not sufficiently appreciated by the Church at large, and that there are frequent complaints that trustees of congregations assume powers and authority, especially over music and the use of church buildings, which are not warranted by, but in conflict with, the Constitution of the Church.

"The Assembly enjoins upon the churches loyal adherence to our Form of Government providing that the authority of the Session over all matters of worship is paramount, and at the same time recommends that all such questions be treated by the Session with Christian tact and courtesy, in the spirit of love and forbearance."

This deliverance at once suggests the nature of the questions with which the Committee has had to deal. They refer to the delicate relation existing between those to whom the management of temporalities is ordinarily committed, and the spiritual rulers of the church; or to the nexus between the church considered as a spiritual body, and as a civil corporation. The difficulties felt by the Church at large, as the Committee then pointed out, were plainly evidenced by the very fact that thirty-two Presbyteries had asked the Assembly of 1892, "that some proper inquiry be made into the generally prevalent methods of managing the temporal affairs of our churches by means of Boards of Trustees, and that if these methods are found to be defective or injurious, that some means shall be taken to amend them." How sorely these difficulties often press is emphasized by the further fact that twenty-nine of these petitioning Presbyteries "are strongly of opinion that many features of the present methods of management need such amendment, and that to be effective it may require some amendment to the Form of Government, defining the proper functions of such trustees, and their precise relations to the deacons and to the Session." The Committee accordingly declared in their first Report, that beyond question "there is a widespread impression or conviction existing throughout the Church, that the present system of trustee management is not altogether satisfactory, and ought, if possible, to be amended;" and more specifically that "such inquiry as we have been able to make abundantly confirms the impression, that hurtful misunderstandings not infrequently arise between the trustees and the Session, less frequently between deacons and trustees, as to their mutual relations and duties." "These misunderstandings are due, we believe, chiefly to the absence in our organic ecclesiastical law (Form of Government) of any provision whatever for the existence of trustees, or any definition of their functions and sphere of duties, designating their due relation to the Session, and providing for the peaceable adjustment of any misunderstandings." The civil legislation of the different States, the Committee further pointed out, sometimes increases the difficulty, because it "seems to be shaped to suit the usages of other denominations rather than our own, so that financial management based upon it cannot be in entire accord with the genius of Presbyterian government."

In concluding this Report the Committee called the attention of the Assembly to certain suggestions made by the Chairman of the Committee, upon which, as a Committee, they had taken no action, but which they regarded as deserving the attention of the Church. The nature of these proposals may be summarized as looking to diaconal management of temporalities, instead of one by mere civil law trustees; they do not aim at dispensing with trustees, but seek to give the office its proper connection with the ecclesiastical law of the spiritual body for whose convenience the civil corporation is created and maintained. Financial management would thus be brought into the closest possible relation with the framework of spiritual government, and while carefully respecting the civil law and its requirements, the care of temporalities would thus be part and parcel of the order of God's house. These proposals have thus been virtually before the Church for four years, and during that time have been most carefully considered by the Committee, which has been continued by successive Assemblies and increased from five to seven in 1893 (upon the presentation of their first Report), and again from seven to fifteen upon the presentation of their Report in 1896. In this Report the Committee accepted the general principle upon which the proposals summarized above were founded, and recommended to the Assembly an Overture to the Presbyteries amending the Form of Government, so as to make a diaconal management the distinctly preferred mode of caring for the temporalities of God's house. It will facilitate proper consideration of the present Report to make somewhat extended quotations from that Report, as follows:

"The trustee is simply an officer created for holding and managing church property according to the civil law, and must necessarily continue in most of the States, no matter what action may be taken by the Church. Whatever injury has accrued, has arisen in many cases not from ill-intention of those invested with the office, nor from any unwillingness on the part of Legislatures or courts to allow the churches liberty to manage their temporalities fully in accordance with their own usages, but chiefly from the neglect of the Church hitherto to take action defining and settling what these usages are. The Session and trustees have often come into secret or open conflict, not from any intention to do so on the part of either body, but first because there has been no satisfactory definition or limitation of the powers of the Trustees easily accessible to them; and second, because the Church has not given the office a definite status in its system of government, and brought the persons to whom temporal management is entrusted into official relations with their brethren who are set as spiritual rulers. How grave these evils may become, and how troublesome they often are, it is difficult to estimate aright, for the reason already adverted to, that no official information can reach the judicatories of the Church until some open conflict of authority renders an appeal to the civil courts—surely a last resort—a matter of necessity. As the churches grow in wealth, their revenues (already about $10,000,000 yearly) should be collected and managed in harmony with the fundamental principles of sound Presbyterian government and the spirit of the New Testament. Some of our churches are already endowed with great wealth—others will naturally become so. It is certainly not a system which we should quietly acquiesce in, that these revenues should be handled by men who, in many cases, are not even professed Christians, much less men solemnly set apart to the administration of the affairs of the Lord's house.

"The Committee are by no means forgetful that the paramount need of the Church for the administration of all its affairs, both temporal and spiritual, is the grace of the Holy Spirit—the Spirit of wisdom, prudence and love. Laws and decisions, taken by themselves, can never produce an effective and conscientious administration of church finance; but a sound and well-adjusted system will do much to promote harmony and coöperation between trustees, deacons and Session. It must be remembered, also, that the Report of a Committee or the action of the Assembly can only begin a reform which will require the continued and combined effort of all our inferior judicatories, and the sympathetic coöperation of the congregations as well, to bring to perfection. We regard it as most desirable that the interest and coöperation of the trustees themselves should be secured. These proposals must not be construed to reflect upon the Christian character and fidelity of the large body of communicants who are now serving God and the Church in this office, nor do we underestimate the service rendered by others who, while not themselves coming to the Lord's table, show their sympathy and interest in the welfare of the Church by useful service as trustees. It is greatly to be desired that such service be made more effective by a closer and more sympathetic relation to the organization of the Church.

"The general principle of diaconal management appears to the Committee to give the clue to the true solution of our present difficulties. If deacons are not made ex-officio trustees, at least those who hold the management of temporalities in their hands, should see it written in our organic law that their trust must be discharged with a due regard to the appointed order of God's house. But more than this, it is now within the knowledge of the Committee that some of our own churches, and whole denominations of the Presbyterian family of churches, manage their temporalities generally through deacons, and find the practice satisfactory. During the past year the Synod of New York has sought and obtained from the Legislature of that State the passage of a law by which it is now possible for any of our churches to commit their temporalities to the management either of the deacons alone, or of the Session and deacons jointly, after the manner of the Reformed (Dutch) Church and some other denominations. The importance and value of such an amendment in its effect upon the practice of the churches can hardly be estimated.

"In view, therefore, of all these facts, the Committee regarded it as desirable that an Overture be now submitted to the Presbyteries looking to the general adoption by our churches of some similar system. It is not intended by the amendment proposed to interfere with the liberty of congregations by any mandatory law, or by taking the management of temporalities out of the hands of trustees, but so to change the Form of Government as to emphasize diaconal management as the normal and preferable mode, and at the same time to recognize the existing trustee usage as a permissible or necessary variation therefrom, by pointing out its relation to the spiritual government of the Church.

"The Committee therefore recommend:

"1. That this Assembly overture the Presbyteries: Shall the Form of Government, Chapter vi, 'Of Deacons,' be amended, so as to read as follows:

"OF DEACONS.

"(I) The Scriptures clearly point out deacons as distinct officers in the Church, whose business it is to take care of the poor and to distribute among them the collections which may be raised for their use.

"(II) To the deacons, where not inconsistent with the civil law, may properly, and should preferably, be committed the management of the temporal affairs of the Church. If for any reason such management be committed to other officers, it is desirable that they be elected from the communicant members of the Church. Such management shall in all cases be subject to the exclusive authority of the Session and minister over the worship of the Church, including not only the times and places of preaching the Word, and other religious services, but also the music and the use of the church buildings."

This Report having been discussed at some length was finally recommitted to the Committee accompanied by the following specific instructions:

"Recognizing and fully appreciating the services of the members of the Committee, and in view of the importance of the subject, and the far-reaching consequences of any change in the Form of Government in this matter,

"Resolved, That the Report be recommitted to the Committee, to consider and report on the whole subject to the next General Assembly; defining as far as practicable the power and duties of deacons and church Sessions; specifying what recognition, duties and powers, if any, officers of civil corporations and trustees holding titles under civil law to the property of our various congregations should be given in the Form of Government: and also furnishing a guide to congregations hereafter organized, as to what essential provisions should be inserted in each charter or deed by which their property is acquired and held, so that it shall be secured and safeguarded to the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A." (Minutes, 1896, p. 37).

During the past year, therefore, the Committee has held three meetings: one September 2, 1896, in New York; a second at Philadelphia, December 30, 1896; and a third at Pittsburgh, Pa., March 24, 1897. The Hon. John W. Foster having declined to serve longer, the Moderator of the General Assembly appointed General Ralph E. Prime, of Yonkers, to fill the vacancy. The Committee, thus constituted of seven ministers and eight ruling elders, have given most anxious thought to the whole matter in all its phases. They have been somewhat embarrassed by the fact that the instructions of the last Assembly, did not clearly express the mind of the last Assembly regarding the general principle upon which Overture of the Committee then proposed was founded. It might naturally be inferred, however, considering the whole history of the Committee and its work (and this inference the Committee has been disposed to draw), that the reason for recommittal lay rather in objection to the form than to the essential principle of the Committee's proposal; and that further, it was desired that the Committee should inquire into the matter last mentioned in the instruction just quoted, viz., that of "furnishing a guide to congregations hereafter organized, as to what essential provisions should be inserted in each charter or deed by which their property is acquired or held, so that it shall be secured and safeguarded to the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A." At their first meeting the Committee appointed a Subcommittee consisting of the Hon. Robert N. Willson, S. B. Brownell, Esq., and W. M. Lanning, Esq., to carefully consider this matter; they subsequently reported adversely to this proposal, on the ground that the wide variations in the laws of the different States render it impracticable to frame any statement of provisions universally applicable.

This item of the instructions of the last Assembly being attended to, it remained for us next to define as far as practicable the powers and duties of deacons and church Sessions. The Committee had indeed attempted to do this in the Overture proposed last year. After full discussion, it seemed most likely to promote the ends sought in these instructions if instead of a single amendment to Chapter vi, which should define the duties assigned to deacons, and adjust their precise relations to the Session, there should be a double amendment to the Form of Government to be overtured to the Presbyteries for adoption.

The first one should add to Chapter ix, which defines the duties of the Session, a clear declaration of the exclusive authority of the Session over the worship of the congregation, including the music as part of the worship, and also over the uses to which the church buildings may be put. This proposed amendment, found at the end of this Report, will be found to embody substantially the deliverance adopted at the suggestion of the Committee by the Assembly of 1893—indeed, so far as possible, the very phraseology has been retained, so that the Committee is now only proposing a more explicit provision of the organic law based on this authoritative interpretation of the present provision of the Form of Government. The second amendment which is now proposed proceeds upon the principle upon which the Overture was founded, which was proposed to the Assembly of 1896, viz., that a diaconal management of temporalities is the preferable mode. In the absence of any hint or suggestion from the last Assembly contrary to what their Report then avowed as its foundation principle, adopted after four years of consideration, the Committee have simply given this principle a somewhat clearer expression, so that the Form of Government, if amended as we now propose, will bear upon its face the declaration of what the management of Temporalities "ought ordinarily" to be; that is, they propose a declaration of the essential governing principle, not a mandatory rule which admits of no possible exception. The adoption of an iron-clad rule, as the Committee has pointed out in previous Reports, would work hardship, breed discontent, and probably be practically unworkable in actual practice. But the first step toward the reform of our usages, and the adoption of a better practice, is this clear enunciation in the Form of Government, of the desirability of having Christian men to handle the revenues of the Lord's house, and men set apart for their office by prayer and the laying on of hands. This step taken, let patience have her perfect work, and in due time the churches may be reasonably expected to act on this principle and to bring their practice into accord therewith. Some of our churches have already done so, without waiting for any initiative but their own. In at least thirty-five States and Territories there is now no obstacle in the civil law to such a practice, provided, we make it clear that this is the ordinary practice of the Church. The Committee accordingly feel that they can best follow the spirit of the instructions of the last Assembly, by proposing to amend the Form of Government in Chapter vi by substituting "To them ought ordinarily to be committed the management, etc.," instead of the words "to them may properly be committed the management, etc." Recognizing the fact, however, that there may be cases in which it is undesirable to commit the management of temporalities to deacons alone, the amendment now proposed provides as an alternative usage a joint management by Session and deacons, after the pattern of the (Dutch) Reformed practice, or the "Deacons' Court" of the Scotch churches.

The Committee were further instructed by the last Assembly to specify "what recognition, duties and powers, if any, officers of civil corporations and trustees holding titles under civil law to the property of our various congregations should be given in the Form of Government." After very full discussion and deliberation the Committee has decided to propose a second section to the sixth chapter (the title of the chapter being altered), dealing briefly with this subject. This section provides amply for continuing the present modes of management by means of Boards of Trustees who may not be deacons, when the civil law or the special provisions of wills or deeds require it, or when the preferences and customs of congregations render it desirable. If adopted, its effect will be of course to interpret the previous section as being the strongest possible expression indeed of the true principle, but not a mandatory rule inflexibly imposed. This will conserve the existing rights of congregations against undue interference with what their past experience may lead them still to prefer, or with what the civil law may require. At the same time such management is in all cases, whether by deacons or by other persons, made expressly subject to the Session when it falls within the limits of the prescribed rights and duties of the Session, or to the congregation itself in all other cases. The clauses in these two sections, securing the right of congregations to control the action of their financial managers, do not of course set aside the powers and rights vested in the various judicatories for the purpose of enabling them to carry on the spiritual government of the Church. A congregation may rightly control the action of those whom it elects as managers of its own temporal affairs, while at the same time it obeys those who are set to rule it, in things spiritual. To avoid, however, any possibility of misconstruing these clauses, a third section is added, which puts beyond peradventure the powers and rights of all judicatories. Taken as a whole, therefore, the proposals of the Committee contemplate these great ends; first, it has been sought to find the simple principle to which in a well-ordered government the whole matter of financial management ought to conform. This principle finds abundant illustration in historic Presbyterianism, and is indeed recognized and sanctioned by Chapter vi of the Form of Government, as it stands. But to secure its application in actual practice, it needs a deeper emphasis and more unmistakable assertion such as is now proposed.

Nevertheless, the Committee have also recognized, second, that the perfect and consistent application of pure principles in all church government is never easy, and not always possible. Many of our churches at present have no deacons. Others have chosen men with no thought of their special qualifications for this particular work. In others there are perhaps legal difficulties, and most of all old customs, and the habits of years cannot be disregarded. The Committee has, therefore, endeavored to shape its Reports to meet these facts, and has sought to conform to the instructions given by the Assembly of 1896. It remains only to add that the Committee must again recommend that the action suggested by the Presbytery of Newark would be unwise, at least for the present. The Committee, therefore, while they cannot (as stated above) suggest any statement of the essential provisions to be inserted in wills, deeds, or charters to safeguard the property of churches, nevertheless are of the opinion that the Assembly may properly recommend the Synods to take the matter up and adopt some suitable forms for the guidance of churches and Presbyteries in their respective States. The Committee accordingly recommends:

That the General Assembly overture the Presbyteries as follows:

(I) Shall the Form of Government, Chapter ix, be amended by adding a new section, to be numbered Section 7; the three succeeding sections to be renumbered as Sections 8, 9 and 10; the new section to read as follows:

SECTION 7. Subject to the provisions of the Directory for Worship, the Session shall have and exercise exclusive authority over the worship of the congregation, including the musical service; and shall determine the times and places of preaching the Word and of all other religious services. They shall also have exclusive authority over the uses to which the church buildings may be put, but may temporarily delegate the determination of such uses to the body having management of the temporal affairs of the church, subject to the superior authority and direction of the Session?

(II) Shall the Form of Government, Chapter vi, be amended so as to read as follows:

CHAPTER VI.

OF DEACONS AND OF TEMPORAL AFFAIRS.

SECTION 1. The Scriptures clearly point out deacons as distinct officers in the Church, whose business it is to take care of the poor and to distribute among them the collections which may be raised for their use. To the deacons, or to them in conjunction with the Session, ought ordinarily to be committed the management of the temporal affairs of the Church whenever permitted by the law of the State, and, in their management of such temporal affairs, the deacons, or the deacons and Session, are to be subject to the direction of the congregation.

SEC. 2. Where, by reason of the provisions of the law of any State, or of the terms of any deed or will, or other writing, or where, by reason of the action of any congregation, the management of the temporal affairs of a church shall be committed to trustees, such management shall be subject to the control of the Session over the uses to which the church building may be put, and, in other matters, subject to the control and direction of the congregation. Such trustees ought ordinarily to be chosen from the communicant members of the church.

SEC. 3. The rights and duties herein specified, and the powers thus conferred, are to be construed in harmony with all the powers vested in the judicatories of the Church for the maintenance of its spiritual government.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

Ministers.	Ruling Elders.

It was Resolved, That the several Synods be and they are hereby recommended to consider and examine, and if deemed advisable and practicable, to prepare, adopt and set forth for use in each respective State and Territory such form of charter of Presbyterian churches and such provisions to be inserted in wills and also in deeds of land to Presbyterian churches as will safeguard and secure the property of our churches to this denomination, and also be in accordance with the Form of Government of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

WEDNESDAY, May 26, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting in the interests of Foreign Missions was held. Ruling Elder Dr. William C. Gray presided, and addresses were made by the Rev. Hunter Corbett, D.D., of China; Rev. J. C. R. Ewing, D.D., of India; Rev. L. S. Esselstyn, of Persia, and the Rev. F. E. Hoskins, of Syria.

THURSDAY, May 27, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services, the special theme being Sabbath Observance.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

* NOTE.—Mr. S. B. Brownell qualifies his signature as follows: "Subject to some verbal criticism, I approve most highly of the proposed amendment to Chapter ix of the Form of Government. I cannot escape the conviction that the amendments to Chapter vi are both mischievous and dangerous in making or attempting to make the deacons, or the deacons and Session, subject to the control and direction of the congregation. In this respect they seem to me opposed to Presbyterianism and in conflict with the proposed amendment to Chapter ix." S. B. BROWNELL.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report upon Overtures referred to it by the Assembly, with recommendations, as follows:

Overtures Nos. 1 to 4, inclusive, from the Presbyteries of Kansas City, Madison, Palmyra and Utica respectively, touching organic union with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. It is recommended that the following answer be given: This Assembly reiterates its hearty readiness to take active steps toward such a union, as soon as the Lord, in His providence, shall open the way. Adopted.

Overtures No. 18, from the Presbytery of Chicago, and No. 33, from the Presbytery of Cairo, relating to The Church at Home and Abroad and the Assembly Herald, touching the reference of their Reports to a Standing Committee and the suspension of the Herald. It is recommended that both be answered in the negative. Adopted.

Overture No. 60, being the Report of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, Western Section. We recommend the following answer, viz.: 1. That the Moderator and Stated Clerk be directed to send an official letter, under the seal of the Assembly, to the General Synod of the Reformed (German) Church in the U. S., congratulating the Synod on the approaching sesquicentennial of the organization of the Reformed Church on the 29th day of September, 1747; and that the General Assembly send a delegate, who shall bear to the Synod the cordial Christian salutations of the General Assembly, and the joy of the Assembly in view of their prosperity in our common Lord.

2. That the General Assembly learns with satisfaction that the several Presbyterian bodies included in the Alliance have adopted a Plan of Coöperation in Home Missions; and pledges the continued adherence of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. to the principle of fraternal coöperation embodied in said Plan.

3. That the Treasurer of the General Assembly be directed to pay the sum of $765 to the Treasurer of the Alliance—this being the apportionment due from this Assembly.

4. That the Rev. W. S. P. Bryan, D.D., delegate of the Executive Commission of the Alliance, be invited to a seat in this Assembly, and that the Moderator be requested to accord to him the courtesy of a hearing.

5. That the General Assembly thanks the Executive Commission for the expression of its good will and directs the Stated Clerk to express to the Commission its hearty appreciation of their labors on behalf of the Alliance.

6. That the following persons be accredited as representatives of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. to the Seventh General Council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, to be convened at the city of Washington in the year 1899, and that they be empowered to name the remainder of the delegation to which this Church will be entitled in that Council, viz., The Moderator, the Stated and Permanent Clerks of this General Assembly, Rev. John L. Withrow, D.D., LL.D., Rev. Wallace Radcliffe, D.D., Rev. William L. McEwan, D.D., Cyrus H. McCormick, Esq., Alexander McDonald, Esq., Hon. Samuel B. Huey and Gen. Ralph E. Prime. Adopted.

Overture No. 63, being a Memorial from the National Temperance Society, asking for the appointment of delegates to a National Temperance Convention. It is recommended that the answer be made, That while we sympathize with the objects of the Society, the Assembly does not send delegates to non-ecclesiastical bodies. Adopted.

Papers Nos. 69 and 70, both being from certain friends of purity in literature and art. The following declaration is recommended: That the General Assembly has learned with profound satisfaction that the National Editorial Association and the National Republican Association, as well as other State Press Associations, have expressed their sympathy with the women's movement for the promotion of purity in literature and art, as tending to maintain a Christian standard of morality in society; and that they have pledged their Associations to make the press one of the best friends of humanity, by refusing space to all impure advertisements, and by excluding from their publications all that alloys the truth and hardens the conscience.

The General Assembly desires the religious papers enjoying Presbyterian patronage to give wide circulation to this pledge of the secular press, and advises all Christian families and readers to give the favor of their patronage to those papers and periodicals which honor this pledge by excluding all questionable advertisements and immodest serials, and which refrain from Sabbath editions. Adopted.

Paper No. 52, being an Overture from the Board of Home Missions on the appointment of a Committee to consider the various plans of Synodical Home Missions, and Paper No. 71, being the fifth resolution of the Report of the Committee of Nine, referred by the Assembly to this Committee. It is recommended that the following resolution be adopted:

Resolved, That a Committee of fifteen be appointed by the Moderator, upon which there shall be at least one representative of every Synodical Plan now in operation, and one of the Home Board, the balance of the members to be composed of representatives of the remaining Home Missionary interests of the country at large. This Committee shall examine the whole subject, so as to report to the next Assembly, in a manner defining general principles and also, if possible, formulating general methods to harmonize and unify the various plans of Synodical self-support. Adopted.

Papers Nos. 74–81, being Reports from the Boards on their administrative expenses. We recommend that they be committed to the Committee on Finance. Adopted.

The Judicial Committee reported:

Judicial Case No. 3, being a complaint against the Synod of New York, by Robert Russell Booth and others. The Committee recommend that inasmuch as the matters involved have been satisfactorily adjusted by the action of this Assembly already taken, the complainants be granted leave to withdraw the complaint. The Report was adopted.

Judicial Case No. 4, being an appeal of Laycock vs. the Synod of Indiana. The Committee find the appeal in order, but recommend that, inasmuch as no question of law or doctrine is involved, and inasmuch as the decisions of Synods are final in such cases (F. G., Ch. xi, Sec. 4), the appeal be dismissed. The Report was adopted.

The Report of the Committee on the Assembly Herald was presented, adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee appointed to issue the Assembly Herald, in the interests of missionary literature in an inexpensive form, respectfully report that the Assembly Herald has been kept on a self-supporting basis from the beginning of its existence. The average circulation of the Assembly Herald during the past year has been 120,000 copies per month. During the past year it has been twenty-four pages instead of sixteen, the extra eight pages having been made necessary by publishing the acknowledgments of receipts for the various Boards. This service has been rendered without expense to the Boards, but at the expense of the reserve fund of previous years. We do not feel that the Assembly Herald can publish the acknowledgments of the receipts of the various Boards longer without provision being made for the cost of the composition, printing, paper and postage of the extra pages, as it would require the use of at least thirty-six tons extra of paper.

For the new year it is expected to issue the Assembly Herald on better paper, and to adopt the policy of prompt discontinuance of all subscriptions at the close of the period for which it has been paid for. We recommend

That the publication of the Assembly Herald be continued during the coming year, that the existing Committee, having authority as to all details of publication and consisting of Rev. W. H. Hubbard, Hon. H. B. Silliman and Hon. James A. Beaver, be reappointed.

For the Committee,

W. H. Hubbard, Chairman.

The Special Committee upon the Observance of the 250th Anniversary of the Westminster Standards presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee appointed by this Assembly to report upon the observance of the 250th Anniversary of the Adoption of the Westminster Standards would respectfully report as follows:

The history of the adoption of the Westminster Standards concisely stated is as follows: The Confession of Faith was reported to the English Parliament, December 4, 1646, and was returned with the proof-texts to Parliament on April 29, 1647, and adopted June 3, 1648. The General Assembly of the Church of Scotland adopted the Confession August 27, 1647, and it was approved by the Parliament of the kingdom of Scotland, February 7, 1649. The Larger and Shorter Catechisms were reported by the Westminster Assembly to the English Parliament, October, 1647, and were adopted September 15, 1648. The General Assembly of the Church of Scotland adopted both Catechisms, July 20, 1648, and the Parliament of the kingdom of Scotland, February 7, 1649. In view of the varying dates of adoption, and of the fact that Church and State in both England and Scotland were united at the time of the formulation of the Westminster Standards, it is believed that the year 1898 is the most appropriate year for the observance of the 250th anniversary. The Committee therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

1. That the General Assembly observe the 250th Anniversary of the adoption of the Westminster Standards on the second Thursday of the sessions of the General Assembly of 1898; and that a Committee of nine, of which the officers of the Assembly shall be members, and of which the Moderator shall be the Chairman, shall be appointed by the Moderator, to make due preparations for the observance of this great historical event.

2. That this Assembly recommends to the Synods, Presbyteries and churches under its care to observe at such times as may be convenient to them, during the year 1898, the anniversary of the adoption of these great Standards of faith and practice, which have been so inestimable a blessing alike to the churches and to the world.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES A. MOUNT, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Aid for Colleges and Academies presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Rev. Duncan Brown, D.D., Rev. Edward C. Ray, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

The wisdom of the appointment of this Board has been abundantly proved by the work which it has done in the fourteen years of its existence. It has discouraged and prevented hasty and unwise founding of institutions in places, or under conditions, in which they could not be sustained. It has given valuable advice to Presidents and Boards of Trustees, which has greatly aided them in the efficiency and success of their work. It has insisted on thorough business methods in permanently securing property, wise use of money, and economy of administration, thus saving the Church from much waste both of money and effort. It has wisely aided where its help would accomplish most, giving the benefit of its careful experience and observation, and stimulating the gifts of men and women who wished to be sure that their money would be wisely used in Christian education.

SPIRITUAL RESULTS.—It is not too much to say that many hundreds of conversions, and the choice of the Gospel ministry by hundreds of young men, have resulted mainly from the work of the institutions fostered by this Board. One hundred and four conversions and 181 men preparing for the ministry are reported from the 2711 students in the thirty institutions aided by the Board last year. Systematic Bible instruction is insisted on for all students, and faithfully given in all these institutions.

TEACHERS.—These schools have been able to secure, through the Board's help, and at comparatively small salaries, teachers thoroughly qualified for their work and consecrated to it. The earnest self-denying Christian work of many of these teachers is worthy of the highest praise.

COMMENDATION.—The Committee has carefully examined the Fourteenth Annual Report and the Records of the Board for the past year, and strongly commends the combined zeal, prudence and wisdom which characterize all its official actions. Individual opinions may sometimes differ in particular cases, but the combined work can hardly be improved. The Board's rules requiring clear definite statements of expected income and outgo, and also requiring a distinct statement from each institution at the close of the year, that the Board's money will positively finish paying every cent of the expenses of that current year before its last payment shall be made, have brought into many schools clear business methods which are immensely valuable for their permanent work.

DEBT.—The Board has never closed a year in debt, and all appropriations promised to any institution have been paid when the required conditions were met.

TREASURY.—The following condensed Treasurer's Report will be of interest in this place:

C. M. Charnley, Treasurer, in account with the Presbyterian Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies:

To cash on hand April 1, 1896		$17,765 27
To receipts to April 1, 1897:
a. "General Fund:" Churches and Sabbath-schools	$29,751 97
Individuals	7,532 54
Interest	2,950 60
Carried forward	$40,235 11	17,765 27

Brought forward.....		$40,235 11	$17,765 27
b. "Property Fund:" Churches and Sabbath-schools.....	$91 50
Individuals.....	3,304 00
Legacies.....	100 00
		3,495 50
c. "Direct:" Churches.....	$9,316 86
Individuals.....	23,320 47
		32,637 33
d. Sustentation.....	$853 36
Transmission, Churches.....	337 75
Interest.....	427 08
		1,618 19

This Report shows an increase for the General Fund, from churches and Sabbath-schools of $1451, and from other sources of $3551, which is gratifying. A decrease of gifts for Property Fund and from individuals, is probably accounted for by the season of depression through which we are passing.

EXPENSES.—This Board, according to the Assembly's direction, gave us an itemized account of administration expenses down to the last five-cent piece. We carefully examined and heartily approve this account, and recommend the same plan for next year. Attention is called to the fact that administrative expenses were reduced last year nearly twenty-two per cent., and that the budget for next year shows a further reduction of ten per cent. on this, beginning with a voluntary reduction of $400 in the salary of the Corresponding Secretary, and the voluntary acceptance of only a clerk's salary of $600 by the Treasurer. The confidence felt in this Board, by those who know it best is well shown by the fact that its contributions from Chicago Presbytery are nearly double those of any other, excepting Pittsburgh, where one church gave nearly $1900.

OFFERINGS.—If all our churches, especially those in the Eastern States, could know what good work this Board is doing, and would give it one offering, every good thing in this Report might be more than doubled during the next year. Less than half of our churches gave anything to this cause last year, a sorrowful record. Brethren, remember that the tribes settling east of the Jordan were required to help their brethren on the west, to possess their land, before they could rest at home in their own. Will not you do likewise? There is need for special effort in this direction just now, lest institutions of great promise and efficiency go down or pass out of our hands, for lack of a few thousands or even hundreds of dollars to secure them and keep them going till better times.

The Committee makes the following recommendations to the Assembly:

1. That the Records of the Board be approved as far as written.

2. That the Assembly approve and commend the work and plans of the Board, and rejoice in the results achieved through this agency.

3. That the Assembly recommend this Board for an offering from every church, and that the Church contributions for this work be $150,000 for the coming year.

4. That the excellent literature of the Board be utilized by our pastors and Sessions, both for the stimulation of gifts to this Board, and for awakening and increasing intelligent interest in the work of Christian education.

5. That, as the Day of Prayer for Colleges is the last Thursday of January, the Sabbath preceding or succeeding be observed throughout the Church as Education Day, when the subject of Christian Education shall be presented from the pulpit and offerings be made for this Board.

6. That the "Plan for the Classification of Presbyterian Educational Institutions," designed to indicate to the Church the exact grade of the institutions applying for aid, be approved by this Assembly, and that the Board be directed to report institutions in accordance with this Plan.

7. That the members of the Board whose terms of office expire with this session of the Assembly be reëlected, as follows: Ministers—David S. Johnson, D.D., J. G. K. McClure, D.D., William P. Merrill, M. L. Haines, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Hon. Dan P. Eells, Henry J. Willing, Thomas Lord, and in place of Hon. James McMillan, Charles M. Charnley.

In behalf of the Committee,

GEORGE L. SPINING, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Correspondence presented its Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Correspondence respectfully reports that a communication has been received from the General Synod of the Reformed (Dutch) Church, through the Rev. Cornelius Brett, D.D., corresponding delegate. A reply is herewith presented for the approval of the Assembly. The Committee also reports the presence of the Rev. A. M. Campbell, Ph.D., a fraternal delegate from the United Presbyterian Church of North America. It is recommended that Dr. Campbell be heard immediately after the acceptance of the Committee's Report. It is also recommended that the Rev. William S. Marquis, D.D., be appointed fraternal delegate to the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church; and the Rev. Wilson Phraner, D.D., delegate to the General Synod of the Reformed (Dutch) Church in America.

In behalf of the Committee,

BYRON SUNDERLAND, Chairman.

The Chairman of the Committee on Correspondence then presented the Rev. Dr. Campbell, the fraternal delegate from the United Presbyterian Church, to the Moderator. Dr. Campbell made a cordial, fraternal address to the Assembly, to which the Moderator responded in an appropriate and hearty manner.

THURSDAY, May 27, 2.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The following telegram was received from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church:

ENGLEWOOD, ILL., May 26, 1897.

Rev. Sheldon Jackson, D.D., Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

The Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly reciprocates your fraternal greetings, commending Eph. vi. 23.

W. S. DANLEY, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Church Erection presented its Report, which was received, and, after addresses by the Rev. George F. Whitworth, D.D., Chairman, the Rev. E. N. White, D.D., Secretary of the Board, and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Church Erection respectfully presents to the Assembly the following Report:

The Board of Church Erection may very appropriately be termed the right arm in carrying on the important work of Home Missions, in which the heart of the Church is so deeply interested. The home missionary realizes the great value of the aid which it affords, by enabling him to obtain what is so often needed to complement the efforts of a weak church to secure for it a habitation, which shall give stability to his work. This is especially true, and is most fully appreciated by the missionaries, who go to the destitute portions of the great West, where in many instances the little uncomfortable schoolhouse, or the more limited accommodations of the settler's cabin, are the only places where a congregation can be gathered. Sometimes a barn or a shed will furnish temporary shelter, or failing in these, the only resort which is left is to preach in the open air, it may be under the shade of a tree, or the wider canopy of heaven. While such conditions exist there can be neither stability nor permanence, and all movements to advance are crippled. To supply these wants is the office and the province of this Board. Its work, begun about fifty years ago, was in its inception very limited, but has now grown to large proportions, and is only restricted in the performance of still greater work, by want of the means necessary to its enlargement.

Originally intended to assist only in the erection of a house of worship, it now includes another branch, to aid in the erection of a manse or parsonage, and so provide a home for the minister as well as for the church. This will be recognized as a natural, a very wise, and most helpful provision.

To avoid any confusion or complication between these two branches, the funds to be thus employed have been divided, so as to embrace three distinct departments of work, which are designated, as the Report of the Board shows, as the General Fund, the Loan Fund, and the Manse Fund; the General Fund being principally provided by contributions from churches and individuals, including legacies. The Loan and Manse Funds differ from the General Fund in that they are permanent funds, whose preservation depends upon the faithful returns from the churches to which loans have been made. The increase of these funds is not regular, but additions are made at times through legacies or special contributions.

1. The General Fund.—It is out of this fund that the grants are made to assist the feeble churches to complete their house of worship. The number of the grants, as well as their respective amounts, are necessarily governed by the sums contributed annually by the churches. From the Report of the Board we gather that it has been unable during the past year to meet the demands which have been made upon this fund, and that, too, notwithstanding the number of contributing churches has been increased sixteen per cent., the contributions have not increased in amounts, but have diminished, and are $1798.61 less than those of the preceding year. Receipts from other sources, with one or two exceptions, are also less, so that the total General Fund for the year just closed is $76,469.54, as against $83,171.38 of the previous year, or a difference of $6701.84. As a result in part of this, twenty-five applications for aid could not be met, though they were approved, but were necessarily postponed for further action to the ensuing year. Different causes have been productive of this condition of affairs, upon which it is not needful for us to dwell. Financial disturbances have had much to do with it, but in addition thereto, the work of city evangelization in a number of our cities has diverted to some extent in sustaining their local work, some of the aid which formerly was rendered to this Board. For the last four years this diminution of receipts year by year has been increasing. May we not hope that there may be such changes in the near future, as will be remedial, and cause a return of increase to the treasury of this Board, and that local enterprise will not absorb benefactions of our strong and wealthy churches, to the neglect of the weaker and destitute portions of our widely extended land.

The need of additional contributions is emphasized when we notice the discrepancy between the sums applied for, which amounted to $147,292, and the total income of the Board, which was $115,737.59, making a deficit of $31,554.41. If our Presbyteries would give a closer attention to the Reports made by the churches which have received aid, showing their failure to contribute according to their written engagement at the time of receiving aid, it would prompt them to a grateful remembrance. The pastors of such churches should also interest themselves in calling attention to their plain and obvious duty in this respect, and see that it is not any longer neglected.

2. The Loan Fund.—It is also the duty of Presbyteries to impress upon the churches which are indebted to this fund that they make prompt payments according to their agreements, otherwise they impair the ability of the Board to aid others who are equally in need with them. We are informed that if this were done, annual loans to the extent of $40,000 or thereabouts might be made. The entire fund is $245,000. If this were all loaned at the rate of six per cent., that alone would bring in over $14,000 per annum to be added to the principal fund.

3. The Manse Fund.—This fund has proved, and will prove, to be a great blessing, both to the churches and ministers. Although it is only recently that the total of this fund has reached $86,000, it has in the short space of nine years rendered efficient aid to 439 churches, as given in the Report of the Board, to an amount of nearly $175,000, and this has been done without requiring payment of interest.

Your Committee would call attention to the matter of applications for aid in completion of church buildings, that more care be exercised by the Presbyteries and their Committees having this subject in charge.

1. That in small communities, where there is little prospect of growth, and where there is already sufficient church room for the population, the question be well and carefully considered, before any steps be taken to build.

2. That where any congregation is proposing to ask aid to complete a building, it should submit to the Presbytery, or its appropriate Committee, a plan of said proposed building, with a careful estimate of its cost, and stating the need which exists for its erection. To assist churches in economic building, the Board is able to supply at a merely nominal cost, the elevations, working plans, and specifications, and we would recommend that all such churches apply for designs before deciding upon size or plan of proposed building.

3. Whenever any congregation is able to raise towards the erection of a house of worship the sum of $3000, the propriety of obtaining a loan without interest, upon the plan proposed by the General Assembly of 1893, instead of asking a grant, should be carefully considered, so that the weaker churches, not having such ability, may receive the grants they really need, and in case of buildings exceeding $5000, the application should be made ordinarily to the Loan Fund.

Your Committee would also call attention to what seems to be apparent neglect, in regard to the church edifices, which for some reasons have been abandoned, on which the Board holds a mortgage for the repayment of a grant, the same not being promptly reported to the Board, and no effort made to have such disposition made of the building as will secure a return of the money thus invested. Your Committee is of the opinion that the Presbytery should instruct its Committee to look well to all such cases, that the Board may not suffer loss. Much of the expense of administration is caused by the neglect and failure of churches to attend to the payment of insurance, their promised annual contributions, the payment of interest and installment on loans. These failures increase greatly the clerical work, necessitating the writing in some instances of three or four, and even more, letters before any answer is given, or any attention is paid to the same. This ought not so to be. Were the contributions of the churches and disbursements for aid doubled, the expenses of the office would be very little, if any more than they now are.

The nature and extent of the responsibilities and care of the Board are fully set forth in its Report, on pp. 12 and 13, to which we would call the careful attention and consideration of the members of this Assembly, making this additional statement, that with every grant or loan made, these interests and responsibilities are accumulating.

In closing this Report, your Committee recommmends, as follows:

1. That the Presbyteries be requested to use increased carefulness in recommendations for aid, so that the funds of the Board shall not suffer loss, but shall be so applied as to secure the benefits for which they are intended, to the greatest possible degree.

2. That it be urged upon Presbyteries, pastors and Sessions, to endeavor by all the means in their power to secure prompt payment on loans and for insurance, and that contributions for the cause be secured, small though they may be, from every church under their care or supervision.

3. That all Presbyteries be requested to instruct their Committees to consider carefully, and look closely after the case of church buildings apparently abandoned, in order that if the work be finally relinquished, the Board's interests in the property may be protected.

4. That all churches contemplating building, and needing aid from the Board, shall first confer with the Board in regard to architectural plans, to the end that they may be enabled to build edifices at once tasteful and economical.

5. That the Rev. David R. Frazer, D.D., Rev. Charles T. Haley, D.D., Rev. David Magie, D.D., and Elders Frederic W. Baldwin, Robert Jaffray and Hezekiah King, whose term of office now expires, be nominated for reëlection,* and that in place of Dr. R. P. H. Vail, who declines reëlection, the name of Rev. John A. Ingham be inserted, and he be elected a member of the Board, and further, that the appointment by the Board, of Elder Ezra P. Hoyt, M.D., to fill the vacancy caused by the declination of Elder Eugene McJimsey, be approved.

6. That the records of the Board be approved as far as written. In conclusion, your Committee would say that their examination of both the Report and the records of the Board bear testimony to its care, ability and faithfulness in the administration of its affairs. Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE F. WHITWORTH, Chairman.

The Permanent Committee on the Next Place of Meeting presented its Report, which was approved, and is as follows:

The Committee on the Next Place of Meeting report to the General Assembly that they have received invitations from the Winona Assembly and Summer School, Eagle Lake, Ind.; the Westminster Church, Minneapolis, Minn., and from the Presbytery of Philadelphia. In the invitation from Philadelphia, the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work unites. It is recommended that the thanks of the Assembly be tendered to the respective parties, and that their representatives be heard in the following order: Minneapolis, Philadelphia, Winona. Respectfully submitted,

SHELDON JACKSON,
WM. H. ROBERTS,
WM. E. MOORE.

The Winona Assembly Grounds, Indiana, were chosen as the place for the next meeting of the General Assembly.

The Assembly adjourned until 9 A. M., Friday, and was closed with prayer.

THURSDAY, May 27, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

A popular meeting was held, which was addressed by the Rev. John Henry Barrows, D.D., on India and other Oriental lands.

FRIDAY, May 28, 9 o'clock A.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with devotional services.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read, and approved.

The Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Bills and Overtures respectfully report on papers referred to them, as follows:

Overture No. 37, from the Presbytery of Athens, on the banishment of the saloon from the National Capitol, and Paper No. 73, being proposed resolutions as to legislation pending in Congress. The Committee submits that it has been supplied with insufficient data to enable it safely to pass on the merits of the proposed laws referred to it, but the following declaration is recommended:

The General Assembly reaffirms its deep interest in all legislation by which the causes of temperance and morality are wisely furthered, and commends the efforts of Christian men in our State and Federal legislative assemblies, to safeguard social purity and to prevent the maintenance of liquor saloons in any Government building.

Paper No. 75, from the Synod of Montana, respecting irresponsible traveling missionaries. We recommend no answer be made for the reason that the subject-matter has been before the Assembly in another connection.

Respectfully submitted,

J. L. WITHROW, Chairman.

The Judicial Commission presented its finding in the judicial case of Lee vs. the Synod of Missouri, and the same was ordered to be entered on the record. The Report is as follows:

The Judicial Commission, to which was referred the appeal of the Rev. William J. Lee, D.D., by his counsel, Hon. Selden P. Spencer, from the action of the Synod of Missouri, in refusing to entertain the appeal from the judgment of the Presbytery of St. Louis, beg leave to report:

That, without entering upon the merits of the case as determined by the Synod, we sustain the appeal upon grounds of irregularities in the mode of procedure; first, in that the members of the Presbytery of St. Louis were permitted to vote on the question of an appeal from their own judgment, and, second, in that no reason is assigned for refusing to entertain the appeal; and the case is hereby remanded to the Synod of Missouri, with an injunction that the question of entertaining the appeal from the judgment of the Presbytery of St. Louis be reconsidered and acted upon in a regular and constitutional manner.

Signed, D. W. MOFFAT, Moderator, and all the members of the Commission.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence presented its Report, which was received, and, after addresses by the Rev. Wilson Phraner, D.D., Chairman; Rev. W. H. Hubbard, Chairman of the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence, and Dr. A. G. Wilson, was adopted, as follows:

Your Committee would respectfully report that they have examined the Report of the Special Committee on Systematic Beneficence and gratefully recognize the intelligence and comprehensiveness with which the whole subject of Christian giving has been treated. Your Committee would especially call attention to the valuable facts, illustrated by the carefully prepared tables and statistics and summaries, which are contained in this Report, and which may prove to be of great practical value to the Church, especially to pastors and all who desire to have an intelligent understanding of our benevolent work. In this Report we find the work of the past admirably summarized and brought down to date. It is gratifying to observe that the number of churches contributing to our several Boards is increasing from year to year, although it must be admitted that a lamentable condition of things still exists, while thousands of our churches—in the case of some of our smaller Boards, the majority of all our churches—fail to contribute, or even to recognize their obligation to contribute anything to these important branches of our Church work. This too, after injunction upon injunction, and exhortation upon exhortation, to be loyal to the Boards of the Church; and after all that has been written and said upon the worship of God by offerings, and upon the subject of systematic and proportionate giving. While what has been accomplished by our Standing Committee upon this subject is to be appreciated, yet it would seem, in view of all the facts of the case, that this campaign of education upon this vital subject was scarcely more than begun. Certainly it must be carried forward until that which all accept as the teaching of God's Word shall be realized, and find practical illustration in the Church, viz., that not only every church, but every member of every church, shall regularly and as God has prospered him, make his offerings for the work of the Lord. True, it should be distinctly recognized in this connection, that the great majority of the churches which fail to contribute to some of our Boards are very small—many of them without pastors, and in a discouraged and struggling condition. Nevertheless, it remains true that the Master's approbation in this matter does not depend upon the amount which is given by the individual or by the church, but upon the fact that the gift is according to ability. Our Saviour recognized in the two mites of the poor widow more than all others had cast into the treasury. Is it not true that multitudes of our feeble churches, as well as of our church members, deprive themselves of the satisfaction and self-respect to which they are really entitled, because they feel that their gifts are small, and because they fail to recognize the fact that there may be as much of Christian character and principle, and of the spirit of the blessed Master exemplified in the gift of a dime, as in the gift of thousands of dollars, the gift in each case being according to ability, or as God has prospered them.

In the examination of the Report, it appears that less than one-third, or only thirty-one per cent., of the moneys which have come into the treasuries of the Boards, have come from Church offerings; the remaining sixty-nine per cent has come through various organizations, such as Women's and Christian Endeavor Societies and Sabbath-schools, together with legacies and diverse miscellaneous sources. Now, while there is no objection, if the members of our churches so prefer, to their making contributions through these several agencies, yet would not the fact stated seem to indicate a failure on the part of our pastors to improve their great opportunity to lay before and urge upon the attention of their churches and congregations as such, the claims of our benevolent work, and to secure especially from the men of the Church, their due proportion of gifts to our several Boards. The women and the children are to a considerable extent organized for this work. The men of our Church are without organization, save in the fact of their general relation to the Church. Ought not our Church collections to provide more than thirty-one per cent of the aggregate amount raised for the work of the several Boards, which really represent the organized work of our Church. It certainly would be so, if all our pastors were faithful in holding up before their congregations the claims of the work represented by our several Boards, and urging upon their people their privilege and duty in this connection.

The Assembly of last year recommended that "an apportionment should be made to the several Synods and Presbyteries and churches, based upon the average percentage of the congregational expenses, and the total offerings made by the Presbyteries during the past two years, less bequests, and that the amount of such apportionment should be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, and that each Presbytery, through its Committee of Systematic Beneficence, or in such other way as in its wisdom it may deem best, undertake the raising within its bounds for the Boards of the Church such a sum as its considers, in view of its ability and their needs, its fair share of the whole amount required, and that each church be informed by Presbytery of the sum requested for each Board."

The Committee on Systematic Beneficence has endeavored, at great cost of time and labor, to carry out the spirit of the above instructions of the General Assembly, but has not found the plan altogether practicable or effective. In some instances it has served rather to diminish than to increase the income of the Boards, by suggesting to individual churches and Presbyteries, a smaller sum as their apportionment than they have become accustomed to give. Some have also regarded it as an interference with the voluntary spirit which should underlie and prompt all our gifts. Our Church machinery should not be allowed to interfere with individual liberty, or with individual responsibility, in the matter of gifts; but on the other hand, conscience and principle and spontaneous feeling should be allowed free play in determining what the church or the individual ought to give.

Hence, your Committee, in accordance with the suggestions of the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, recommends in the place of this plan of apportionment (except in cases where it operates to the advantage of the Boards), the substitution of another in behalf of which four Overtures have come to this Assembly, viz., one from the Presbytery of Palmyra, another from the Presbytery of Central Dakota, a third from the Presbytery of Redstone, and a fourth from the Iowa City Presbytery. These Overtures, together with another from the Synod of Pennsylvania, call in question and ask the consideration of the desirability and practicability of the plan of apportionment, recommended by the last General Assembly. All suggest the substitution of what is known as the "Redstone Presbytery Plan," which, in substance, is the securing of pledges beforehand from all the members of our churches and congregations, as to the amounts which they are willing to contribute to each of the Boards during the ecclesiastical year. Two cards are to be distributed about the first of March each year, upon which a column for each Board is provided. These cards, when filled by the donors, shall be returned, the one to the pastor and the other to the Session of the Church, and by the Session sent to the Presbytery, and by the Presbytery transmitted to the Committee of Systematic Beneficence, for tabulation and presentation to the General Assembly, as the pledge of the Presbyteries and churches for our benevolent work.

Your Committee has as carefully as possible, under the circumstances, considered this Plan, and believes it to have some desirable and practical features, and has concluded to recommend to the General Assembly the submission of this Plan to the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, to be put into operation by them as far as they regard it desirable and practicable.

Your Committee has examined the accounts of the Treasurer, and finds them correct and recommends their approval.

The Committee presents for adoption the following recommendations:

1. That the present Committee on Systematic Beneficence be reëlected, viz., Rev. W. H. Hubbard, Auburn, N.Y., Chairman; Kiliaen VanRensselaer, of New York, Secretary and Treasurer; Rev. John R. Davies, D.D., of New York; Rev. Charles L. Thompson, D.D., of New York; Rev. Charles Herr, D.D., Jersey City, N. J.; Hon. Horace B. Silliman, Cohoes, N. Y.; Rev. William L. McEwan, D.D., Pittsburgh, Pa.; Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., Pittsburgh, Pa.; Hon. James A. Beaver, Bellefonte, Pa.; Hon. Robert Pitcairn, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Rev. Thomas Marshall, D.D., Chicago, Ill.; Rev. G. P. Williams, Chicago, Ill.; Rev. Howard A. Johnston, Chicago, Ill.; Rev. C. N. Wilder, D.D., Champaign, Ill.

2. That attention be again called to Chapter vi of our Directory of Worship, "On the worship of God by offerings," and the churches be urged anew to the duty of honoring God by gifts as a part of His holy worship.

3. That attention be anew called to the Scriptural rules or laws of Christian benevolence, viz., that our gifts should be both systematic and proportionate, even as God has prospered us.

4. That the General Assembly again reminds all our churches, whether large or small, and all our church members, whether rich or poor, of their duty and of their privilege each and all to stand in their places, and have a part in the great work in which our Church is engaged.

5. That the General Assembly again reminds all pastors and stated supplies of their duty to instruct their people as to the several departments of our church work, and to afford them an opportunity to contribute to our several Boards.

6. That the Assembly accepts for the current year, as a general basis for recommendation as to amounts to be raised through Sabbath church offerings, the averages calculated by the Assembly's Special Committee, and published in their Report for 1897, and accordingly recommends that all Presbyteries endeavor to raise for each of the Boards, during the coming year, at least five per cent in advance of the average of their gifts to the same for the past six years, and that the few Presbyteries whose gifts the past year have exceeded their average, be encouraged in the endeavor to increase their contributions for the various Boards over that which they have contributed during the year past.

7. That instruction and authority be given to the Committee on Systematic Beneficence to furnish, free of charge, subscription blanks and collection envelopes, to all who apply for them, for the purpose of securing larger gifts for the work of our Church, the cost of the same, including the postage, to be met by the several Boards in whose interests this service is rendered.

8. That the sum of $1000 be appropriated, if necessary, from the funds of the General Assembly to the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, for its use in the prosecution of its work.

9. That popular meetings, as far as practicable, be held in connection with the meetings of Synods and Presbyteries in behalf of systematic beneficence, and that the Assembly's Special Committee be requested to coöperate in all practical ways with the Synodical and Presbyterial Committees in carrying out this recommendation.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

WILSON PHRANER, Chairman.

It was Resolved, That a business session of the Assembly be held this evening at 7.30 o'clock.

The Stated Clerk was authorized to settle the bills for entertainment on the basis of $1 per diem, and also to pay the entertainment of Commissioners, who may remain over Sabbath, until Monday noon.

The Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after an address by Rev. John S. MacIntosh, D.D., Chairman, was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The Standing Committee on Theological Seminaries presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after an address by the Rev. John Clark Hill, D.D., Chairman, was amended and adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee on Theological Seminaries respectfully report that two classes of papers have been placed in their hands—those relating to the work usually covered by the Annual Report of the Seminaries, and those papers as to the relation of the Seminaries to the Assembly in the matter of control of funds and teachings. These latter papers have been by previous Assemblies placed in the hands of a Special Committee.

The ordinary duty of this Committee is to examine the Annual Reports of the Seminaries, which are always printed in full in the Appendix to the Minutes of the General Assembly, and to report to the Assembly the general character of these papers, and make known any special matters that may require the attention and action of the Assembly. The tabulated statistical report is presented herewith as a part of this Report.*

Notwithstanding the continued business depression, the year has been for the Seminaries one of fair prosperity.

Reports have been received from all our Seminaries, and their approval is recommended.

Princeton Theological Seminary reports that during the year 112 new students were enrolled, the total enrollment being 253. A class of sixty-five were graduated. The Rev. Chalmers Martin has been appointed as the Elliott F. Sheppard Instructor in the Old Testament Department, and Mr. K. D. MacMillan has been appointed, under special arrangement, to assist Dr. William H. Green in the instruction of his classes during the present year. The Board of Directors, with deep regret, announce the death of the Hon. John Scott and of the Rev. James T. Leftwich, D.D. The Board has elected in their places the following: In place of the Hon. John Scott, Mr. John J. McCook, of New York city, and in the place of Dr. Leftwich, Rev. Jere Witherspoon, D.D., of Baltimore, Md. Dr. William E. Schenck, for twenty-seven years Secretary of the Board, owing to inability to serve longer, has resigned and the Rev. Maitland Alexander, of New York city, was elected to succeed him. The experiences of the past year, indicate the ever-increasing influence and usefulness of Princeton as a training school for the ministers of our Church. It has not been specially marked from other years save in the quality of its course, and the high standard which the Directors and Faculty set for the diploma which it issues.

Auburn Theological Seminary reports 120 students in attendance, forty-five completed the course, forty-three received diplomas, and two received certificates. Rev. Henry Waite Miller was inaugurated as the Hyde Professor of Ecclesiastical History and Church Polity. On April 12 of this year, the Hon. William E. Hughitt, a member of the Board of Trustees, died. "He was a wise and good man, who served the Seminary and the Presbyterian Church with great fidelity."

The Western Theological Seminary at Allegheny reports a total enrollment of 105, and graduated twenty-six. The lectures on the Elliott Lectureship Foundation for 1897 were delivered by the Rev. James Orr, D.D., Professor of Church History in the United Presbyterian College, Edinburgh, Scotland. The Board, at its semi-annual meeting in November, received an offer from Mr. J. H. Wallace of $20,000 toward the establishment of a new Chair, securing regular instruction in elocution upon certain conditions. The Board has undertaken to secure additional funds to make the total amount of the endowment $50,000. This new Chair is to be entitled Sacred Rhetoric and Elocution. The Rev. James O. Kelso, an alumnus of the class of '96, was elected to fill the position of Assistant in Hebrew for the next year.

Lane Seminary reports a total of an attendance of 44, with a graduating class of 14. The past year for this Seminary has been one of marked success, the number of students attending having been exceeded in only seven of the past twenty-six years, and is considerably above the average during this entire period. The resignation of Dr. Morris was reported to the General Assembly in 1895. He continued his work up to the beginning of the present year. His retirement was the occasion of a banquet in his honor, given by those who are officially connected with higher education in Cincinnati and its vicinity, and by other friends of the institution. It was a notable event and a just recognition of his eminence as a scholar and teacher, and a fitting close of his distinguished career. The Rev. Henry Goodwin Smith, whose election was reported at the last Assembly, entered upon his duties at the beginning of this year. Rev. Prof. Henry W. Hulbert has resigned his Chair of Church History, and the Board has elected the Rev. David Schley Schaff, D.D., of Jacksonville, Ill., to that Chair. The Board has also elected the Rev. Alexander B. Riggs, D.D., of Cincinnati, to the Chair of New Testament Exegesis and Introduction.

Danville Theological Seminary reports a total attendance of forty-one, with three in the graduating class. This Seminary suffered a great loss during the past year in the death of the Rev.

Dr. W. C. Young, who occupied the Chair of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology. Dr. Young was a wise counselor and excellent instructor. The instruction in this Chair was given since his death by the Rev. J. M. Worrall, D.D., and the Rev. R. R. Sutherland, D.D. For the next Seminary year, instruction will be given in Homiletics by the Rev. J. C. Ely, D.D., and in Pastoral Theology by Dr. Sutherland.

McCormick Theological Seminary reports a total enrollment of 152. The number admitted during the year was fifty-four. Those receiving the customary certificate of graduation was fifty-four. During the year the Virginia Library, a convenient, commodious, imposing and classically simple building, presented by Mrs. Nettie Fowler McCormick and her family, has been occupied. The library has been increased by 2000 volumes, 20,000 in all. At the recent meeting of the Board of Directors, Rev. J. Ralston Stevenson, A.M., adjunct professor, was elected to the full Chair of Ecclesiastical History. Since the last meeting of the Assembly, the venerable and greatly beloved Leroy J. Halsey, D.D., LL.D., professor emeritus in this institution, has entered into rest, after a long and exceptionally useful career. The memory of such a man lingers as a precious benediction to all who have come within the circle of his varied ministry for Christ. "The Church," in the language of the President of the Board, "would return its thanks to God for his eminent services and fidelity to this institution; for his learning, piety and influence."

The San Francisco Theological Seminary, located at San Anselmo, Cal., reports a total of twenty-seven students in attendance. The eight members of the Senior class were awarded diplomas. This is the second largest class that has gone out from this Seminary. The work of the Faculty has been supplemented during the year by a number of lecturers on appropriate subjects in connection with the work of the ministry. The Seminary has seven scholarships well endowed. The Rev. John H. Kerr, D.D., hitherto an instructor, has been elected the Professor of Greek Exegesis and New Testament Literature. The Montgomery Memorial Chapel, erected to the memory of the late Alexander Montgomery, the munificent benefactor of the Seminary, has been completed, and his remains deposited in the vault connected therewith. The quarter-centennial of the foundation of the Seminary was held on April 29. The event was suitably celebrated. This Seminary now has property aggregating over $400,000; a library of over 19,000 volumes, and a future of great promise.

The German Presbyterian Theological School of the Northwest, located at Dubuque, Ia., reports five graduating and thirty-seven students in attendance. It has had a year of average success. This institution is one of exceedingly limited means, but is doing a work that is exceedingly important, and its great necessity should be appreciated by the whole Church. Some years ago, it asked for an endowment of $50,000. It had one Chair endowed with $20,000, and had other resources, including buildings, amounting to $26,000 more. All it asked was the insignificant sum of $50,000 to endow a whole Theological Seminary—about as much as is ordinarily put into one Chair in our other Seminaries. After three years of heroic work on the part of the financial agent, the Rev. Charles E. Schaible, about $13,000 has been secured. They ask that this Assembly again commend the Seminary to the consideration of all our churches in the middle West. This work cannot be ignored. The demand for a German-speaking ministry, to those who can only grasp religious truth in their German mother tongue, will not cease so long as Germans over twenty years of age come to our shores.

The German Theological Seminary of Newark, located at Bloomfield, N. J., reports a Faculty of four instructors; thirty-six students have been in attendance throughout the year, fifteen of whom have been in the Theological department and twenty-one in the Academic or Preparatory department. The graduating class had eight members; three were in the pastoral year. The endowment has been increased in the sum of $3050, making a total of $92,750.16. The year has been subject to peculiar embarrassments; this Seminary has been set by Providence for a vigilant service. That service seems to be first of all to the mighty and rapidly increasing cosmopolitan life which is closing around us. It certainly deserves a place in the benevolences of the Church.

The Theological Department of Lincoln University reports an attendance of forty students, and a graduating class of eighteen. The Trustees of Lincoln University report that the charter of the institution has been changed, so as to give to the Assembly a veto power in the election of the professors in the Theological department, so as to bind the institution to teach nothing contrary to the constitution and government of our Church, and to hold all property and funds given them for theological instruction in trust for our Church.

No Report has been received from the Theological department of Biddle University, except a brief statement that they have five professors, and that eight students were matriculated and five graduated.

Omaha Theological Seminary reports thirty-one students in attendance during the year. Eight received certificates of graduation. Prof. J. M. Wilson, on account of the pressing claims of pastoral duties, was constrained to resign the Chair of English Bible, which he has filled with great fidelity for the past three years. The Board accepted the resignation and is arranging for the continuance of instruction in this department. A series of special lectures were delivered in the Seminary by Dr. Countermine, of Beatrice, Neb. The Rev. Peter Robertson, of Cincinnati, gave special instruction in elocution. This Seminary is still without endowment. The continued financial depression has prevented any advance in securing funds for the endowment which has been recommended three times by the General Assembly, and which we again recommend. The Committee appointed by the last Assembly to coöperate in securing this endowment has rendered valuable services and will make its own Report to this Assembly.

The Committee notes that only a few of our Seminaries indicate in their Reports that they are giving attention to the subject of sociology. This is not true of the Seminaries of other denominations. This department is one of growing importance owing to rapidly changing social conditions. It is pressing its practical problems upon the churches. The demand for information and instruction in this department has been met with a large supply of literature, some that is good, and a good deal that is otherwise. Our students should be well instructed in these things before they go out into the actual work of the ministry, so that they may be thoroughly prepared to grapple with the work of the churches, in meeting with the needs of the unfortunate, in an intelligent manner, and in accord with methods that will be for the glory of God, the purity of the Church, and the highest good of man.

Overture No. 7, from the Presbytery of New Brunswick, in reference to the missionary work of students on leaving the Seminary, was referred to this Committee. In view of the fact that the result aimed at by this Overture is substantially covered by the action already taken in this Assembly on the Report of the Committee on Education, we recommend that no action be taken.

In concluding this section of our Report, the Committee present the following recommendations:

Resolved, 1. That this Assembly again commends the work of securing an endowment of $100,000 for Omaha Seminary to the consideration of the Church, and that the Special Committee appointed by the last Assembly be continued to prosecute this work.

Resolved, 2. That this Assembly very cordially commends the efforts of the German Presbyterian Theological School of the Northwest, at Dubuque, to secure the balance of the endowment recommended by previous Assemblies, and expresses the hope that this may be speedily accomplished.

Resolved, 3. That the General Assembly hereby expresses its deep interest in Lincoln University and especially in its Theological department, and commends this school of learning for young colored men to the churches for the liberal support of the whole work, and for the separate endowment of its Theological department.

The Assembly has referred to this Committee the replies of the Seminaries in reference to the matter of "Assembly control."

Princeton Seminary again asks the Assembly to designate which of the two legislative bills submitted to the last General Assembly should be adopted. This Assembly refers the Directors to the decision of the Assembly of 1896, recorded on p. 122 of the Minutes, declaring preference for the short bill of three sections as printed in the Appendix of the Minutes of the last Assembly on p. 187, which decision we recommend this Assembly to reaffirm.

The replies from Omaha, Dubuque and Lincoln, embodied in their Reports, set forth in full the legislative action that has been secured from the civil authorities of the various States in which these Seminaries are located, which action fully satisfies every request that has been made by the Assembly. These documents are printed in full in the Appendix to the Minutes.

Replies to the request of the last Assembly [see Minutes, p. 122], from those Seminaries which had declined to take such action as the Assembly indicated in the matter of safeguarding the teaching and funds, have been received from the following Seminaries, viz., Lane, Auburn, McCormick and Newark German, and are as follows:

Lane Seminary.

The Trustees of the Lane Seminary, having carefully considered the action and request of the General Assembly of 1896 in regard to the plan of Seminary control approved by the Assembly of 1895, make, after due deliberation, the following statement in reply:

The Trustees are thoroughly confirmed in the judgment, frankly stated to the Assemblies of 1895 and 1896, that the changes proposed in the charter of this Seminary are impracticable. This charter clearly defines the object of the institution, provides for the organization of its Board of Trust as a civil corporations and definitely prescribes the manner in which this trust shall be administered.

It is plainly the imperative duty of this Board to execute with fidelity these explicit provisions. It seems to the Trustee, increasingly clear that they have neither the legal nor the moral right to become a party to any attempt to modify or alter any of the expressed terms or conditions of the trust which they are appointed to administer, even were such legislation permissible under the present Constitution of Ohio.

Moreover, all the funds that have been donated to the Seminary since the enactment of this charter, have been received under its specific provisions. Most of these donations have been made with the assurance and in the belief that these conditions are to be perpetual. The changing of these provisions and conditions in the manner proposed would be, as it seems to the Trustees, a violation of good faith on their part, as well as a breach of trust, and would seriously imperil these endowments and expose the institution to ruinous litigation.

For these conclusive reasons, it is their settled belief that this Board ought not to initiate any proceedings which would modify or alter the existing charter in any of its essential provisions.

But it seems proper to add, that, if the proposed changes were practicable, they are not, in the judgment of the Trustees, necessary to the full protection of Lane Seminary as an institution of the Presbyterian Church, or for the safeguarding of its teaching and funds. This appears from the following facts, namely :

1. The charter itself expressly provides that " all the professors, tutors, teachers and instructors in the Seminary shall be members of the Presbyterian Church, in good standing, under the care of the General Assembly of that Church in the United States." This provision the founders deemed sufficient to safeguard the teachings of the Seminary, and it has been attested to be such by the entire history of the institution.

2. In connection with the union of the two branches of the Presbyterian Church in 1869, the Board of Trustees of Lane Seminary took in August, 1870, the following action, which was " accepted as satisfactory " by the Assembly of 1871 (Minutes, p. 580), namely :

" Every election of a professor in this institution shall be reported to the next General Assembly, and if the said Assembly shall by vote express its disapprobation of the election, the professorship in question shall be ipso facto vacant from and after such vote ; it being understood in such case, that it is not the pleasure of this Board that such professor shall continue in office."

From this explicit " compact," there has not been a single deviation by this Board, and the Trustees, for the third time, reaffirm their purpose and obligation to observe its provisions.

3. The deed for the land on part of which the Seminary buildings stand and the rest of which still constitutes one of its chief sources of support, contains the express provision that in case the Seminary shall ever fail of its appointed purpose as defined by its charter, this gift shall be forfeited in law, and shall revert to certain organizations which are specifically named. Moreover, many of the subsequent donations and bequests to the Seminary contain similar conditions and might be legally forfeited should the Board divert such funds from their original purpose.

It is thus seen that the obligation to guard the endowments as well as the teachings of the Seminary is as fundamental and imperative as it can possibly be made. It may safely be assumed that no Board, present or future, would ever seek to pervert a pecuniary trust so carefully protected, and should such attempt ever be made, the courts of Ohio are open for its correction.

The Trustees are constrained by the foregoing considerations to declare as their final judgment, that the proposed changes in the charter of the Seminary are impracticable and unnecessary.

At the same time they most cordially affirm their loyalty to the doctrines and polity of the Presbyterian Church, and solemnly avow their purpose to administer with fidelity the sacred trust committed to their care.

The foregoing statement is a correct copy of the unanimous action of the Board of Trustees of Lane Seminary, at its annual meeting, May 5, 1897. A. B. RIGGS, Recording Secretary of Board of Trustees of Lane Seminary.

AUBURN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

AUBURN, N. Y., May 7, 1897.

The Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D.D., LL.D., Stated Clerk General Assembly:

HONORED BROTHER:—The communications in your favor of October 27, 1896, containing the actions of the last Assembly on (a) the matter of safeguarding the funds and teaching in the several theological seminaries, and (b) in the matter of a communication from Auburn Seminary (relative to concurrent Resolution No. 9, etc.), were presented by me before the Board of Commissioners of the Theological Seminary of Auburn, in its annual meeting, yesterday, May 6, 1897. The communications were received, and after discussion a resolution in reply was adopted and ordered sent to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

I enclose an attested copy of the resolution.

Very respectfully yours,

FREDERICK W. PALMER, Stated Clerk.

Resolved, That the following reply be sent to the General Assembly of 1897, in view of the instructions voted by the General Assembly of 1896, to the Boards of Control of Theological Seminaries:

Having duly considered the recommendations of the last General Assembly, regarding the safeguarding of the funds and teaching in the several Theological Seminaries, we, the Board of Commissioners of Auburn Theological Seminary, are happy to announce that another successful year of seminary administration has confirmed us in the truth of our statement made to the Assembly of 1896:

"The control of Auburn Seminary, at first exercised by the Synod of Geneva, through its ten Presbyteries, and later by the Synods of Geneva, Genesee, Utica and Susquehanna, through their eighteen Presbyteries, and now through those same eighteen Presbyteries, forming a part of the great Synod of New York, and which we believe is referred to in Resolution No. 9 of the Reunion Compact, is so sure, so flexible, so thoroughly Presbyterian, and has been administered with so remarkable success during seventy-six years, that we can devise no changes, which, in our judgment, will enable the Church to have a more effective control of our Seminary."

We, therefore, with great pleasure, assure you of our fulfillment of the instruction of the General Assembly of 1896 to the Boards of Control of the various Seminaries, viz., "That they may see their way clear to come to such a conclusion, that all the funds and property in their hands, and the teaching in said seminaries, may be so completely safeguarded to the Church, that benevolent persons contemplating making gifts or bequests to these institutions may have the fullest confidence in the future security of said gifts or bequests."

Adopted, May 6, 1897.

McCORMICK THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 19, 1897.

Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk, General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.:

DEAR SIR:—Your letter of October 27, 1896, to the Secretary of the Board of Directors of the McCormick Theological Seminary, was received, enclosing a copy of the action taken by the General Assembly in session at Saratoga Springs, May 29, 1896, in the matter of the safeguarding of the funds and teaching in the several Theological Seminaries.

The communication from the General Assembly was fully considered by the Directors of the McCormick Theological Seminary at their annual meeting, May 6, 1897, and the following communication to the General Assembly was adopted:

The General Assembly of 1896, having requested the Theological Seminaries to report their several attitudes toward the plan advised by the Assemblies of 1894 and 1895, for changing the charters of the Seminaries, the Board of Directors of McCormick Theological Seminary have again considered the matter and would respectfully submit the following:

The Board reiterates its loyalty to the Standards and to the General Assembly of our beloved Church, and its full sympathy with the endeavor to safeguard the property entrusted to the Seminaries, and to insure their denominational faithfulness and the purity of their doctrinal teachings. The close relations and strict subordination of this Seminary to the General Assembly, secured by the charter and the Constitution of this Seminary, are entirely agreeable to this Board.

The charter and Constitution of this Seminary substantially secure the end which the Assembly seeks, and are capable of being altered or amended only upon the approval of the Assembly. The elections of Directors, and the elections or removals of professors, are subject to the veto of the Assembly. The teaching of the Seminary has for its object, according to the Constitution, "To instruct candidates for the Gospel ministry in the knowledge of the Word of God . . . . and of the doctrine, order and institutes of worship taught in the Scriptures, and summarily exhibited in the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church . . . . and to impart to them, as far as may be, the varied learning by which they may be furnished for its work."

The property of this Seminary is already so fully safeguarded to the Presbyterian Church that, in the judgment of able jurists, the changes suggested would be wholly without advantage, and might be hazardous to the common interests of the Assembly and this Seminary.

The relations between this Seminary and the Assembly have for twenty-seven years been entirely harmonious and mutually helpful. The success of the existing method of supervision in the past, is its best guarantee for the future. The growth and prosperity of this institution have inspired many thanksgivings to God. Every Director and every professor takes a solemn pledge to support the Constitution of the Seminary and the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church.

It is the belief of this Board that the proposed changes would not be for the best interests of this Seminary, nor promotive of future gifts to it. They would disturb rather than establish confidence, and raise doubt and distrust of their legal effect if they should be adopted.

While, therefore, the Board of Directors deeply regrets the necessity of declining any request of the General Assembly, it does not see its way clear to make the proposed changes in the charter of McCormick Seminary.

Adopted by unanimous vote.

With the request that you will bring this communication to the attention of the General Assembly, I beg to remain,

Very respectfully yours,

WALTER L. RANKIN, Secretary,

Board of Directors of McCormick Theological Seminary.

GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF NEWARK.

NEWARK, N. J., May 13, 1897.

Rev. William H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

DEAR SIR:—Your letter to Dr. Craven of October 27, enclosing copy of the action of General Assembly of last year in the matter of safeguarding the funds and teaching in the several Theological Seminaries, was forwarded to the undersigned and presented to the Board of Directors of the German Theological School of Newark, December 28. Action was postponed till its next meeting, 11th inst., when the following resolution was passed:

"That the Board respectfully replies that it does not see its way clear to take any other action than that heretofore reported to the General Assembly."

Very respectfully,

SAMUEL L. PINNEO, Secretary.

The Committee are fully persuaded that while these Seminaries have not complied in letter with the requests made by the General Assembly in 1894 and reaffirmed in 1895 and 1896, yet the Boards of Control of the Seminaries have made conscientious and persistent investigation of the matter in hand, with the desire to comply with the wish of the Assembly. They find, however, many difficulties, and believe that such changes would disturb rather than establish confidence, thereby diminishing future gifts, and also entailing upon the Seminaries litigations which would probably deprive them of bequests which are now their main support. They are also convinced that the teaching and properties of these Seminaries are already so fully safeguarded to the Presbyterian Church that, in the judgment of able jurists, the changes suggested would be wholly without advantage. In view of the fact that the Church has been for years disturbed and loyal Seminaries harassed—Seminaries that assure us that their teachings and properties are fully safeguarded to the Presbyterian Church—it appears to this Committee that continued discussions of these questions are not for the peace of our Church, we therefore recommend the following resolution:

Resolved, That this Assembly accepts as sincere the repeated, positive and explicit written declarations of the above-named Seminaries, that they are loyal to the Church, and that their teachings and properties are in their judgment fully safeguarded to the General Assembly, but if at any time in the future these Seminaries should find that the changes could be made in their respective charters as the General Assembly has desired, it will be gratifying to the whole Church to have such changes made.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

JOHN CLARK HILL, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Finance presented its Report, which was accepted, and adopted, and is as follows:

I. The account of the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., Stated Clerk, acting in the capacity of Treasurer of the General Assembly, for the year ending May 10, 1897, has been submitted, compared with vouchers for the several items, and found to be correct, and the Committee recommend the approval of the account. It shows

A balance on hand May 10, 1896, of		$59,801 23
RECEIPTS.
Mileage Fund, 1896, ...	$34,835 28
Entertainment Fund, ...	12,747 73
Contingent Fund, ...	12,983 86
Miscellaneous, ...	627 96
Interest, ...	2,588 14
		63,782 97
		$123,584 20
DISBURSEMENTS.
Mileage Fund, 1896, ...	$27,955 99
Entertainment Fund, ...	7,607 25
Contingent Fund, ...	15,390 20
		50,953 44
Balance on hand, May 10, 1897, ...		$72,630 76

The accounts have been carefully kept, and the balances have been kept at interest in such a manner as to have earned during the year the sum of $2588.14 as before stated.

II. The account of the Stated Clerk with the several Boards of the Church for the publication and distribution of their Reports for the fiscal year has also been audited and found correct.

Your Committee recommend that the thanks of the General Assembly be extended to the Stated Clerk for the ability and care with which he has discharged his duties as Treasurer.

III. Your Committee have also examined the Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly, together with the Report of the Treasurer of the corporation, for the fiscal year ending March 31, 1897. Accompanying the Report of the Treasurer were the usual certificates of the Committee on Accounts and the Committee on Finance of the Board of Trustees, testifying to their having personally examined the cash account, bonds, mortgages and other evidences of property belonging to the Trustees, as set forth in the account of the Treasurer, and have found the same as reported in the said account in every particular.

PRINCIPAL OF THE TRUST.

The amount of principal in the hands of the Trustees is $706,805.72, which is distributed as follows:

First mortgages on real estate, ...	$658,675 00
Other securities, ...	21,908 15
Advances to secure bequests, ...	3,275 59
Real estate bought in under foreclosure of mortgage,	6,700 00
Balance, cash uninvested, March 31, 1897, . .	16,246 98
Total, ...	$706,805 72

The Trustees also hold ten pieces of real estate in Philadelphia, the value of which is not given, and a bond and mortgage for $5000 not included in above statement.*

The Cash statement is as follows:

PRINCIPAL ACCOUNT.

Cash on hand March 31, 1896,		$12,676 98
Received as follows:
Account of legacies,	$20,778 00
Securities paid during the year,	39,900 00
		60,678 00
		$73,354 98

Payments as follows:

Board of Missions for Freedmen,	$208 00
Cost of foreclosure of mortgage on real estate,	200 00
Invested in mortgages,	56,700 00
		57,108 00
Balance on hand March 31, 1897,		$16,246 98

INCOME.

The balance of cash on hand to the credit of Income Account, March 31, 1897, was,	$568 15
Receipts of income during the year,	34,646 16
Total Income Account,	$35.214 31

DISBURSEMENTS.

Cash disbursed on account of trusts,	$32,653 21
Taxes, water rent, insurance and paving repairs on real estate,	497 55
Expenses of administration,	1,700 00
Balance, cash undistributed,	363 55
Total, as above,	$35.214 31

During this year default has been made on one mortgage of $6500, and the property has been bought in by the Trustees, and they believe there will be no loss of either principal or income, ultimately. Default was also made in two items of railroad bonds. These bonds were not investments made by the Trustees, but were specific bequests.

All the other interests and incomes have been paid and the income applied to the proper trusts.

During the year the Trustees have received legacies as follows:

For the benefit of the Board of Ministerial Relief,	$20,500
For the benefit of the Board of Freedmen,	208

* Given to secure payment of $5000 to the Board of Relief at death of mortgagor.

The funds for the Board of Relief have been invested and the legacy for the Freedmen has been paid over to that Board.

The Committee with pleasure direct attention to the fact that interest upon all but three investments has been paid regularly, and is not in arrears, which in these stringent times is very satisfactory; and that the expenses of management of investments aggregating over $700,000 have been only $1700. To those who are familiar with financial affairs, these facts speak volumes as to the skill and fidelity of the Trustees, and of their Treasurer, Frank K. Hipple, Esq., and your Committee recommend that to them the cordial thanks of the General Assembly be extended for their faithful service.

IV. Your Committee record with sadness the removal by death of a member of the Board of Trustees, the Hon. Edward T. Green, LL.D., who died October 10, 1896. To fill the vacancy thus occasioned, your Committee nominate for election the Hon. William M. Lanning, of Trenton, N. J.

V. As to other matters under consideration by the Finance Committee, a supplemental Report is hereby submitted.

In behalf of the Committee,

JAMES M. HAM, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Finance reports in addition upon the administrative expenses of the Boards. The Boards were directed by the last General Assembly to forward to this Assembly detailed statements of their expenses. The Committee have given to this matter as much attention as was possible under the circumstances, and find the statements to be both minute and full and prepared with great care. The Committee believes that no further action is necessary on the part of the Assembly.

The Committee also reports on Paper No. 53, being a request from the Board of Home Missions, and on Paper No. 75, being a petition of the Board of Freedmen, both asking that the expenses of binding and mailing the Annual Reports of the various Boards be paid out of the funds of the General Assembly. It is recommended that no action be taken.

For the Committee,

JAMES M. HAM, Chairman.

The supplementary Report was adopted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures presented a Report as follows:

Paper No. 76, being miscellaneous resolutions on the subject of temperance instruction. It is recommended that they be referred to the Committee on Temperance. Adopted.

Paper No. 77, being the Report of the Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad, with its recommendations, together with the resolutions of Gen. Prime referred to this Committee.

We recommend, first, that the Report be approved and its recommendations adopted, and, second, that in view of the action to be reported by this Committee on Overtures 41 and 57, relating to the same subject matter, no action be taken by the Assembly on the resolutions. Adopted.

Overtures 41 and 57, relating to the investigation of the condition and prospects of the Assembly Herald and The Church at Home and Abroad, from the Presbyteries of Westchester and Steubenville respectively. We recommend the following action: That a Committee of three ministers and two elders, viz., Ministers—R. S. Holmes, D.D., Teunis S. Hamlin, D.D., J. Ritchie Smith; Ruling Elders—Hon. William M. Lanning and L. H. Severance, Esq., be appointed by this Assembly to consider all questions relating to the authorized missionary publications, The Church at Home and Abroad and the Assembly Herald, and report the facts with their recommendations to the next General Assembly.

In behalf of the Committee,

J. L. WITHROW, Chairman.

The Report of the Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad is as follows:

The Committee on The Church at Home and Abroad respectfully presents its Eleventh Annual Report:

Your Committee has continued its efforts to conduct the magazine in accordance with previous instructions of the General Assembly, and to increase its usefulness, its attractiveness and the number of its readers. The means and methods which we have employed for this purpose are not different from those hitherto reported, except as experience has, we hope, enabled us steadily to improve them, with no sudden or radical changes.

That we have thus been able steadily to increase the usefulness and helpfulness of the magazine to all who read it, we have the emphatic testimony of many. These gratifying testimonials, coming unsolicited from subscribers, from other publications of our own and other Churches, and from correspondents in this and in other lands, have been more frequent and emphatic than ever before.

Witness to this improvement and adaptation to realized necessities, has come to us from two specially gratifying and important sources.

From the Foreign Mission Field.—No class of readers has shown more appreciative and affectionate regard for The Church at Home and Abroad, in all the years of its existence, than the foreign missionaries, who find their own work regularly reported and advocated in it. This soul-stirring work is presented in its normal close connection with all departments of the Church's work at home. By this method our brethren declare that we strengthen their hands and comfort their hearts, enabling them to realize and enjoy the healthy unity of the Church's work, at home and abroad, and assuring them that no Americans working for Christ anywhere are looked upon as alien and foreign, and no work less so than that which, simply from its location is, more conveniently than properly, designated Foreign Missions. We are happy in the belief that the reading of this magazine, has had some influence in both satisfying and cultivating that sentiment which is manifested by these two significant facts, viz., (1) that no members of the Church take a more lively and intelligent interest in all our home work than the foreign missionaries, and (2) that there is no better recruiting ground for foreign missions than home mission churches and homes.

And the second special source of cheering testimony we find in Our Young People's Societies.—Prominent leaders of young people's work have during the year expressed hearty commendation of the educational features of the magazine. While many have testified to the helpfulness of the young people's department, especial mention has been made of the following items: 1. The missionary biography every month. 2. The question page, which is intended to arouse interest in the whole work of the Church through each of the agencies employed. The Sunday School Times has recently suggested the use of these questions as supplemental lessons in the Sunday-school. 3. The suggestive reports, usually from the pastors' point of view, of the activities of Presbyterian young people. 4. The Christian Training Course.

From the beginning it has been the constant endeavor of your Committee and the Editor, to conduct the magazine in such a manner and in such a spirit as to win the cordial approval of all our brethren, and to enable them all to reach their people, with the needed information and instruction concerning the respective departments of the one sacred work effectively, and so as to make evident the unity of that work in all its vastness and variety. The happy success of this constant endeavor is signalized by the reception of the following from the honored and beloved Secretaries of our Church's Boards, which, by their request, was published in our February issue:

Testimony of the Secretaries.—"The New Year offers to our Church new opportunities for mission work at home and abroad. But opportunity implies obligation. That the Church may discharge her obligation, there is needed among her members a wider diffusion of knowledge than at present exists concerning the doors open before her, and the agencies by which those doors may be entered. We, therefore, would now call your attention to the magazine established and maintained by the General Assembly to promote the great work of our Church administered by its Boards and Permanent Committees, viz., The Church at Home and Abroad.

"It is now ten years since the consolidation of several papers into that magazine. By some the consolidation was regarded with misgiving; by all, even the most hopeful, it was felt to be an experiment. In quality, the magazine has grown better year by year. As an organ for presenting to the Church the work and needs of the Boards, it has been increasingly effective. To-day it stands in the front rank of missionary periodicals. We, therefore, as Secretaries of the Boards, commend it most earnestly to the friends of the vast and varied work of our Church.

"The magazine, however, that it may do for that work what it is capable of doing, and what it ought to do, should have many times its present circulation. That would mean fuller knowledge, deeper sympathy and larger contributions. It should have a place in every household of our Church.

"Will not every minister, every elder, every thoughtful Christian strive to bring about this most beneficent result?

"Secretary of Board of Ministerial Relief.
"EDWARD P. COWAN,
"Secretary of Board for Freedmen.

"Secretary of Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies.

"Although not a Secretary at the time it was resolved to send out this circular, I cheerfully give it my endorsement.

"B. L. AGNEW,
"Secretary of Board of Ministerial Relief."

That the consummation so earnestly invoked by our brethren —the domesticating of this magazine in every household of our Church—has not been reached, is not, in our judgment, the fault of either Editors or Committee. Every legitimate effort has been put forth by us. Constant pressure has been used to secure a wider reception and recognition. But we know from many letters received that the hard times have told against our circulation. Circumstances over which we have had no control have been singularly adverse. It is the unanimous opinion of our Committee that we have deserved larger success. We have done our best and have no apology to make.

Nor would we make the slightest concealment of the fact that our roll of subscribers and our pecuniary income have been affected by the continued financial depression, as all treasuries and all enterprises have been.

We believe by examination and after inquiries widely made, that proportionately we have lost less than similar publications. But we have lost; and so faithfully and frankly, as brethren with brethren, we desire to invite the attention of this Assembly to this matter somewhat more distinctly and fully.

The Christian Training Course.—The Christian Training Course, which the Assembly of 1896 approved and commended "to the favorable consideration of pastors and other instructors of the young," has been continued during the nine months, October to June, inclusive. It has consisted of (1) a brief doctrinal study of questions in the Shorter Catechism; (2) a Biblical study, following Mr. Speer's The Man Christ Jesus; (3) historical study, using Smith's Development of the Missionary Idea; (4) a missionary study based upon a series of sketches of modern missionary heroes prepared especially for this course and published monthly in The Church at Home and Abroad, and the other fresh material in the pages of the magazine.

Resignation of the Editor.—At the last meeting of our Committee the following communication was received from Rev. H. A. Nelson, D.D., Editor of our magazine:

"It is after much conscientious consideration of the interests and obligations involved, that I have reached the conviction that I ought not to retain the editorship of The Church at Home and Abroad longer than during the current year, 1897.

"Your meeting to-morrow seems to me a suitable occasion for communicating this decision to you, and I hereby place in your hands my resignation of the office to which you called me, and in which you have sustained me so loyally, so generously and so long; to take effect at such time as you may judge best for the magazine and all that it represents, not later than the date above indicated, the end of this year, 1897.

"For this decision, I am sure, you will agree with me that I need not mention any other reason than this comprehensive one, viz., that before that time I shall have passed the seventy-seventh anniversary of my birth.

"206 St. Mark's Sq., Philadelphia, May 6, 1897."

It was resolved to receive and accept this resignation of Dr. Nelson in the terms of his own letter. The Committee expressed very high appreciation of Dr. Nelson and his work, and instructed the Chairman to convey to him in the warmest and most emphatic terms their great regret at the loss of his valuable services, their continued and ever-increasing confidence, their cordial recognition of the faithful and efficient labors of the past eleven years, and their earnest prayers that, although Dr. Nelson regards the approaching period a suggestion of needed rest, there may be for him yet very many happy years of usefulness and honor.

Recommendations.—1. That the Assembly commend to all the youth in our congregations the diligent use of the Christian Training Course as a convenient and efficient help in the study of the Bible, Presbyterian history and doctrine, and allied topics; and advise the devotion of one meeting each month to this course.

2. That the Committee be reappointed with the same powers, and directed to report to the Assembly of 1898.

For the Committee,

JOHN S. MACINTOSH, Chairman.

The Committee of Canvass of the Answers of the Presbyteries to the Overtures on Constitutional Rule No. 2 presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Your Committee to Canvass the Answers of the Presbyteries to the Overture on the proposed Constitutional Rule, sent down by the last General Assembly, report:

We have carefully canvassed the answers from the Presbyteries to the Overture, "Shall a Constitutional Rule be adopted as follows: 'Candidates for licensure, in addition to the examination required by Chap. xiv, Sec. 4, of the Form of Government, shall be diligently examined in the English Bible, and shall be required to exhibit a good knowledge of its contents, and of the relation of its separate parts and portions to each other?'"

We find that the following one hundred and sixty-two Presbyteries have answered the Overture in the affirmative, viz., Aberdeen, Alaska, Albany, Allahabad, Allegheny, Alton, Athens, Bellefontaine, Binghamton, Bismarck, Black Hills, Blairsville, Bloomington, Boston, Box Butte, Buffalo, Butler, Butte, Cairo, Boulder, Catawba, Cayuga, Cedar Rapids, Central Dakota, Champlain, Chemung, Chester, Chicago, Chile, Chillicothe, Choctaw, Clarion, Cleveland, Columbia, Columbus, Corisco, Corning, Crawfordsville, Dakota, Dayton, Denver, Des Moines, Detroit, Dubuque, Duluth, East Florida, East Oregon, Ebenezer, Emporia, Fairfield, Genesee, Geneva, Grand Rapids, Gunnison, Hastings, Helena, Holston, Hudson, Huntingdon, Huron, Indianapolis, Iowa, Iowa City, Jersey City, Kalamazoo, Kearney, Kendall, Kingston, Kolhapur, Lackawanna, La Crosse, Lahore, Lake Superior, Lansing, Larned, Lehigh, Lima, Logansport, Louisville, Madison, Mankato, Marion, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Minnewaukon, Monmouth, Monroe, Morris and Orange, Muncie, Nebraska City, Neosho, New Albany, Newark, New Brunswick, New Castle, Newton, New York, Niagara, Niobrara, North River, North Texas, Northumberland, Oakland, Oklahoma, Olympia, Omaha, Osborne, Otsego, Ottawa, Ozark, Palmyra, Petoskey, Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, Pittsburgh, Portland, Portsmouth, Pueblo, Puget Sound, Red River, Redstone, Rock River, Sacramento, Saginaw, St. Cloud, St. Lawrence, St. Louis, St. Paul, San José, Santa Barbara, Schuyler, Siam, Sioux City, Solomon, Southern Dakota, South Florida, Spokane, Springfield, Steuben, Steubenville, Stockton, Syracuse, Topeka, Transylvania, Troy, Tuscaloosa, Utah, Utica, Walla Walla, Washington, Waterloo, Wellsborough, Westchester, West Jersey, Westminster, White River, White Water, Willamette, Winnebago, Winona, Wooster and Yadkin.

The following five Presbyteries answered in the negative, viz., Brooklyn, Carlisle, Cincinnati, Elizabeth and Parkersburg.

The following twelve Presbyteries reported "no action taken," viz., Baltimore, Fargo, Fort Dodge, Great Falls, Kittanning, Long Island, City of Mexico, Santa Fé, Southern Oregon, Peoria, Union and Zanesville.

We therefore recommend the following:

Resolved, That the General Assembly, acting under Section 6, Chapter xii, of the Form of Government, hereby declares that the following Constitutional Rule having been adopted by a majority of the Presbyteries is a law of the Church, viz., "Candidates for licensure, in addition to the examination required by Chap. xiv, Sec. 4, of the Form of Government, shall be diligently examined in the English Bible and shall be required to exhibit a good knowledge of its contents and of the relation of its separate parts and portions to each other." And the General Assembly further directs that this Rule shall be known as Constitutional Rule No. 2, and shall be appended to the Constitution of the Church.

For the Committee,
H. P. CARSON, Chairman.

The Moderator announced that Constitutional Rule No. 2 had been adopted and enacted, and was therefore a part of the law of the Church.

The Assembly adjourned, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 28, 2 30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Special Committee on the Endowment of Omaha Theological Seminary presented a Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Special Committee on the Endowment of Omaha Seminary would respectfully report that, owing to the stringency of the times, it has been found impracticable during the last year to carry out the purpose of the Assembly to provide an endowment as recommended. The Committee is, however, gratified to report, that the Seminary has prospered, and that it grows in favor with the Church, which recognizes the value of its position, its admirable work in its teaching, its economy, and best use of its limited funds. At the request of the friends of the Seminary, we recommend the continuance of the Committee, whose membership is as follows: Ministers—S. A. Mutchmore, D.D., John Dixon, D.D., Henry D. Lindsay, D.D., Maurice D. Edwards, D.D.; Ruling Elders—Hon. James A. Beaver, James Yereance, Elisha H. Perkins, Alexander McDonald and Gen. George H. Shields in place of the Hon. Russell A. Alger, unable to serve. Respectfully submitted,

S. A. MUTCHMORE, Chairman.

It was Resolved, That the Minutes of the Assembly be furnished to Clerks of church Sessions at fifty cents per copy.

Rev. Dr. W. S. P. Bryan presented the salutations of the "Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System," and was cordially responded to by the Moderator.

The Special Committee on the Congregational Narrative presented its Report, which was amended and adopted, as follows:

The Special Committee on the Form of the Congregational Narrative respectfully presents its Report to the General Assembly.

The Committee was appointed by the following action of the General Assembly of 1896, viz., "Overture No. 64, on the Blank for the Narrative, from the Presbytery of Cincinnati. It is recommended that a Committee, consisting of Revs. B. L. Agnew, D.D., George D. Baker, D.D., and Mr. F. L. Sheppard, be appointed to confer with the Stated Clerk, and make such improvements as may be possible. Adopted" (Minutes, 1896, p. 38).

The Committee held several meetings, in consultation with the Stated Clerk, and as a result of their deliberations present the following form of questions for the Congregational Narrative:

Annual Narrative of the State of Religion.

Inquiries for the Guidance of Church Sessions in the Preparation of the Narratives.

I. CONGREGATIONAL SERVICES.

1. What was the membership of your church as reported to the General Assembly this year?
2. To what extent has your congregation been supplied with preaching during the year?
3. How many services do you usually hold on the Lord's Day, what is the nature of these services, and what is the average attendance? A.M.——, P.M.——.
4. To what extent are the children and the youth of the congregation present at these services, and what special means, if any, are employed to secure their attendance?
5. What meetings for worship are held on days other than the Lord's Day, and what is the average attendance?

II. SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

6. How many Sabbath-schools are there in connection with your congregation?
7. Are they church, union, or mission schools?
8. Is the Shorter Catechism regularly taught?
9. Are the Westminster Lesson Helps used? If not, what Helps?
10. Are teachers' meetings held for study and mutual help? If so, how often?
11. Has the school a library, and is proper care used in the selection of books?

34. Is proper provision made for the poor of the church?

VI. FAMILY RELIGION.

35. Are Christian parents faithful in presenting their children for Baptism, and are they well instructed in respect to this duty?
36. Are the obligations of family worship and the Christian training of children urged in public and private instruction?
37. Is the Session faithful in its care of "children born within the pale of the visible Church and dedicated to God in Baptism,'' and does it inform them, '' when they come to years of discretion,'' that '' it is their duty and their privilege to come to the Lord's Supper?'' (Directory for Worship, Chap. x).

VII. MISCELLANEOUS.

38. Are the financial obligations of the congregation met with fidelity?

39. Are the temporalities managed by the deacons or by Boards of Trustees?

40. Are the special days appointed by the Assembly observed in the congregation, viz., Prayer for Colleges and Education, in January; Children's Day, in June; Sabbath Observance, in October; and Temperance, in November?

41. Does the Session exercise due supervision over the Sabbath-school and all the societies referred to above?

The Committee finds that other matters connected with the form of the Narrative need, in their opinion, no revision, and recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Stated Clerk of the Assembly be authorized to issue the Congregational Narrative in the usual form with the questions as given in this Report.

Resolved, 2. That the Narrative be printed at the expense of the Assembly and distributed by its Stated Clerk to the Stated Clerks of Presbyteries.

Respectfully submitted,

B. L. Agnew,
George D. Baker,
F. L. Sheppard,
W. H. Roberts.

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk furnish, without charge, to the Clerks of Presbyteries, the Statistical Blanks for the returns from the churches for the Reports of Presbyteries to the General Assembly, the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work to furnish the blanks for the Sabbath-school statistics.

The Committee on the Next Place of Meeting respectfully report that they are authorized to state that the Winona Assembly and Summer School Association will give entertainment for Commissioners to the next General Assembly at $1 per diem, and that the rate at the Winona Hotel will be $2 per day for Commissioners for ordinary rooms. The Winona Assembly will also pay the expenses of the Committee of Arrangements. The Committee recommend that the Committee of Arrangements for the next General Assembly be the Rev. S. C. Dickey, D.D., Rev.

Charles Little, D.D., Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D., and the Rev. W. E. Moore, D.D.

In connection with the meeting for the next Assembly, it was Resolved, That, as usual, the arrangements for the railroad and other transportation of Commissioners be placed entirely in the hands of the Stated Clerk.

The Standing Committee on Temperance presented its Report, which was accepted, and, after addresses by the Rev. Harry H. Henry, acting Chairman; William C. Lilley, of the Assembly's Permanent Committee, and others, was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee on Temperance would respectfully report:

That the Minutes and Annual Report of the Permanent Committee on Temperance for the year ending May 1, 1897, reveal the gratifying fact that the work has not only been prosecuted with diligence and conscientious fidelity, but with a good degree of success in spite of many and mighty obstacles, and in the face of what appears to be amazing carelessness and lack of coöperation on the part of many Sessions; also of some Presbyteries and Synods in their failure to appoint Temperance Committees, or in the neglect of such Committees, even when appointed, to engage with any earnestness in efforts to promote the cause of Temperance.

A careful perusal of the Permanent Committee's Report will surprise us by the mass of information therein contained, and give us a clearer comprehension of what has actually been accomplished, the magnitude of the work to be done, and the desperate character of the enemies by whom we are confronted, as well as the sad and almost criminal disorganization of those who are praying for the deliverance of the world from the awful dominion of the curse of intemperance.

The Report recognizes in grateful terms the efficient coöperation of the women of our Church, and of various organizations engaged like our own Permanent Committee in promoting the Temperance cause. The work of this Committee is entirely a labor of love. Not one of its officers receives a salary. There is no debt incurred and out of the meagre sum of $1461.07 contributed to this Committee for its work during the past year, there remained on the first day of May, 1897, a balance on hand of $5.03.

We desire to highly commend the work of the Permanent Committee, and we believe they are worthy of praise, for having accomplished so much with the small amount of money placed at their disposal. We sympathize with them in the fact that they feel crippled for lack of funds, and we earnestly suggest that a work so worthy, amid opportunities so many and so magnificent, is deserving of and ought to receive a more generous support, and that, so far as possible, all our churches make an offering to the work of this Committee, either on Temperance day or at such other time as may be most convenient. Especially have most gratifying results attended their labors among the colored people in two of the Southern States where they employed two missionaries for a short time at a small compensation. But owing to the lack of funds, this work could not be long continued or greatly extended, although its efficiency was fully demonstrated.

We are unanimously of the opinion that the work of the Permanent Committee on Temperance is being prosecuted along the wisest and most effective lines of activity.

First of all, the Committee aims to create public sentiment. To this end it seeks to gain the coöperation of the Sessions of the churches, the Sunday-schools, the Young People's Societies, the Christian homes, and so far as possible the teaching of Temperance Physiology in the public schools, as required by the laws of all the States except three. Legislation, certainly, has not thus far proved sufficient to deal with the awful curse of intemperance. Law, however good it may be, never enforces itself. It must have behind it an enlightened and righteous public sentiment to sustain it. And, therefore, "We are more than ever convinced," says the Report of the Permanent Committee, "that before the objects for which this Committee was constituted can be attained, our churches and the communities in which they are located must be sown thick with Temperance truth in printed form."

But how much of truth in printed form goes into the waste-baskets of ministers and ruling elders where it never germinates, but dies—who can tell? The only effectual method of sowing printed truth thick in any community in a way to forever produce a harvest is to plant it in the minds and hearts of men, where it will germinate and bring forth fruit, some thirty, some sixty, and some a hundredfold. What the Permanent Committee proposes to do is to put the printed truth into thousands of homes as well as into the hands of pastors, Sunday-school officers and teachers, and into the hands of the leaders of Young People's Societies, in order that they may sow it in their own lives, and in the lives of those under their care, and of the multitudes all about them. May it not be possible that we have been neglecting the educational work of the Church in reference to Temperance, while we have been giving our main endeavors of late to the suppression of intemperance by means of legal restrictions or prohibitions?

Legislation may furnish us some relief, but the main energies of the Church should be carefully and steadily directed to educating the children and youth into abhorrence of intemperance, so that they will refrain from even any tasting of that which intoxicates. By all means pity and save the hapless victims of strong drink; restrict the traffic; remove temptation as far as possible from all; destroy the evil by law if that can work its destruction, but at the same time it will be wise to use our utmost endeavors to train the children and youth to abhor intemperance, and so create a public sentiment which in the near future will outlaw the manufacture and traffic and make disreputable the habit of moderate drinking. It is beyond dispute that many homes do not feel the influence of the Church, the Sunday-school and the Young People's Societies. If, therefore, the teaching of Temperance Physiology in our public schools shall prove helpful to the work in which we are engaged, we can only hail it with delight and seek to extend the good results into all the higher institutions of learning.

The Report of the Permanent Committee says that many of our Presbyteries are calling the attention of the Sessions of the churches under their care to the deliverance of the Assembly of 1871, declaring that, "Those who knowingly rent their premises for the traffic, or endorse licenses which legalize it, are reprehensible as accomplices in the guilt of the same." We can hardly be too careful to free our churches from all complicity in the traffic, and to bring all our membership up to the high standard of total abstinence. We rejoice in the assurance "that the bombardment from our pulpits of the drink habit and of the drink traffic is more general and vigorous all along the line to-day than ever before. In our Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies there is more temperance teaching and more temperance effort. A vast majority of all our churches have ceased to place on our Lord's table an intoxicating cup."

And surely it ought to awaken our energies and inspire our enthusiasm and intensify our prayers to Almighty God for help to crush out this awful curse from our land and nation, if we remember that the traffic can thrive only when our worst enemies take our children, and by all Satanic arts create in them an appetite for intoxicating drinks. Thousands of boys and youth must every year be seduced from sobriety and virtue to recruit the ranks of the dissipated who, at the rate of more than sixty thousand a year, are falling into drunkards' graves. With spirit and methods truly diabolical, men who make gain out of the ruin of their fellow-creatures are putting forth every energy to keep the ranks of the great army of the intemperate full and even increase the numbers upon whose destruction the liquor traffic thrives. And however diverse the nationalities, the religious beliefs, the political faiths and personal opinions of our enemies, they never suffer themselves to be divided on questions of means and methods to be employed in increasing their power and profits. They are a unit as regards the success of the liquor traffic. They contribute their money without stint to advance their interests. No matter how many concessions they wring from political parties, they always want more. Six days in the week in which to carry on their blighting business are not enough. They want the seventh, and they will leave no effort untried to have all days and all hours, in which, like death itself, they may pursue unchecked and unmolested their relentless war upon all that is sacred in human life.

On the other hand, the divisions among the friends of Temperance and virtue delight our enemies and enable them to thrive. They wax strong because we fight among ourselves. Has not, then, the time come when all who love God, love truth, sobriety, and the weal of their fellow-men should cease to strive one against the other, and however we may differ as to methods, be united as one in the sole single purpose to do our utmost in the one grand endeavor to save as many as we can, in every way we can, from the blight of this pestilential traffic, which walketh in darkness and wasteth at noonday? If we cannot kill the devil, we may at least prevent, by the power of God in the Gospel, multitudes from falling into his deathful embrace. When we are all at it, and always at it, each in his own way if need be, then be the laws what they may, the hour of the doom of the liquor traffic will have struck, and the people of God, united in the one purpose to save the world at any cost of toil and sacrifice, will triumph, and be able to sing this song—not "Thanks be unto political parties and legislatures"—but "Thanks be unto God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." In so far as the powers that be shall render assistance we shall confess them ordained of God, and are grateful for their help. But, above all, and beyond all, our hope is in Him whose we are, and whom we serve, who is our Lord and Leader, who shall put down all enemies under His feet, and in whose advancing dominion evil must die, and righteousness and truth must be established in the earth.

Your Committee recommend the following action:

Whereas, Intemperance is one of the greatest foes of the Church, the Christian Sabbath, the homes of the nation, the childhood of the race, the prosperity of the people, the social and Christian interests of all men, we should use every legitimate means within our reach to destroy the traffic in intoxicating drinks, to create abhorrence of all that is against sobriety, to create public sentiment against the drink habit and aversion thereto, until in the not distant future Temperance shall be the prevailing sentiment and practice of the world; therefore,

Resolved, 1. That in the judgment of this Assembly it is the privilege and duty of all who love Christ and their fellow-creatures to set the example of total abstinence from intoxicating drinks, and to employ every proper agency in their power, moral and spiritual suasion, legal and educational methods, and whatsoever other means may commend themselves, to enlighten Christian judgment, for the lessening of the power and for the total destruction of this tremendous evil. Above all should we bear in mind that the glorious Gospel of the blessed God is the mightiest power and the most efficient weapon put into the hands of men for the pulling down of the strongholds of sin.

2. That it is recommended to the Session of each church, and the several Presbyteries and Synods, to appoint Standing Committees, if any have not already done so, to coöperate with the Permanent Committee of the General Assembly, in the endeavor to quicken and inspire, to unify and direct the energies of our people effectively and constantly against this evil and in the establishment of the opposite virtue.

3. This Assembly reaffirms the action of the Assembly of 1896, "That the third Sabbath in November of each year," or some other convenient day, "shall be known as Temperance Day, and be observed by all our churches, if practicable;" that in our preaching and prayers, in our Sabbath-school teaching, in the services of our Young People's Societies, and in our homes, we may turn the hearts and lives of men away from the awful curse that rests upon those who go the way of the drunkard.

4. That the following members of the Permanent Committee, whose terms of office expire at this time, be reëlected, viz., Ministers—J. J. Beacom, D.D., and J. F. Hill; Ruling Elders—O. L. Miller, M.D., and Matthew Bigger.

For the Committee,

HARRY W. HENRY, Acting Chairman.

A supplementary Report was also submitted by the Committee on Temperance, and adopted, as follows:

The Standing Committee on Temperance reports on Paper No. 72, on the subject of "Scientific Temperance Education in Public Schools," etc., asking that this Assembly adopt certain resolutions therein contained. It is recommended that, inasmuch as former Assemblies have given unqualified endorsement of the principles therein contained, we deem it unnecessary to do more at this time than to call attention to the action of the Assemblies of 1895 and 1896.

Overtures Nos. 14, 15, 44 and 58, being Overtures from the Presbyteries of Newton, Wellsborough, Palmyra and Oakland, seeking Temperance measures through the National Government. It is recommended that the General Assembly memorialize the Congress of the United States to appoint a Committee for the thorough and impartial investigation of the liquor traffic, and for the purpose of obtaining the facts which will indicate the best method of dealing with the great evils connected therewith; and that the Moderator of this Assembly appoint a Committee of three, one of whom shall be a member of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, to prepare and present such memorial to the President, and through him to Congress. This action to involve no expense to the General Assembly.

Overtures Nos. 8–10, from the Presbyteries of Chillicothe, Madison and Sacramento, with reference to the use of wine at a college banquet, were laid upon the table.

The Assembly took recess, and was closed with prayer.

FRIDAY, May 28, 7.30 o'clock P.M.

The Assembly met, and was opened with prayer.

The Standing Committees on the Records of the Synods reported, and on their recommendation the records of the following Synods were respectively approved, viz.: Atlantic, Baltimore, California, Catawba, Colorado, Illinois, Indiana, Indian Territory, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Washington and Wisconsin.

The records of the Synod of Michigan were approved with the following exceptions:

1. That the meeting of Thursday, October 15, 2 P.M., (p. 27), is not stated to have been closed with prayer.
2. That the printed Minutes were not attested in writing by the Stated Clerk of the Synod.

The Minutes of the Synod of Minnesota for 1895 and 1896 were approved, with the exception, that on pp. 22 and 33 of the Minutes of 1895, and also on pp. 76, 85 and 90 of the Minutes of 1896, there is no record of the opening and closing of the sessions of the Synod with prayer.

The records of the Synod of Missouri were approved with the following exceptions:

1. That on p. 32, at the bottom, the word "entertained" be used instead of the word "sustained," and the word "entertaining," instead of the word "sustaining."
2. That the voting of the Presbytery of St. Louis in the appeal case of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. vs. W. J. Lee was contrary to the law of the Church, said Presbytery being a party to the case. In addition, that the Minutes are excepted to in said case, in so far as necessary to conform them to the action of the Assembly upon the appeal from the decision of Synod, in the case above named.

The Minutes of the Synod of New Mexico were approved with the following exceptions:

1. That there is no record that the Narrative of the State of Religion, printed on pp. 19–21, was adopted by the Synod.

2. That on p. 25 it is recorded that the second recommendation of the report on the Spanish Institute was "answered," etc. Presumably it should read "amended." There is no record of the adoption of this resolution.

The records of the Synod of Pennsylvania were approved with the exception that the blank page or pages are not at the end of the printed Minutes as required by the General Assembly.

The Minutes of the following Synods were not in the hands of the Assembly, viz.: Montana,* North Dakota, Utah.

The Synods of China and India having held no meeting since the last Assembly, therefore no Minutes were presented.

The Standing Committee on Church Polity presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

Overture No. 5, from the Presbytery of Nebraska City, concerning the observance of Easter by an offering for the Freedmen's Board in Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies. It is recommended that no action be taken. Adopted.

Paper No. 66, being a memorial from certain members of the Presbytery of Westchester, concerning the recording of a protest. It is asked:

Question 1.—"When a protest conforms to the conditions of Book of Discipline, Sec. 105, may a Presbytery rightfully refuse to order it entered upon the records?" It is recommended that this inquiry be answered in the negative.

Question 2.—"Is a protest to be considered as having been presented to the body when read by the protestant, before it has been placed in the hands of the Clerk?" It is recommended that it be answered in the negative.

Question 3.—"When a protestant reads his protest to a Presbytery and the Moderator thereupon declares to him, without objection, that his protest is received, is a vote of the Presbytery necessary to authorize the recording of the protest?" It is recommended that the answer be given, On account of the ambiguity of the language no definite reply can be made.

Question 4.—"Does a protestant forfeit his right to have his protest recorded, if he furnish to the Clerk, in place of the original manuscript read by him to the body, a printed copy of the same, duly signed by him, provided he inform the Clerk in good faith of his intention to do so, and the latter make no objection?" It is recommended that this question be answered in the affirmative. Adopted.

Overtures Nos. 11 and 13, from the Presbyteries of Canton and Ningpo, asking the division of the Presbytery of Ningpo, so as to form a new Presbytery, to be called Hangchow, and also asking that the Synod of China be divided into two Synods, to be entitled the Synod of Northern China and the Synod of Central and Southern China. Also Overture No. 12, from the Presbytery of Chinan, asking for the division of the Synod of China. It is recommended that these petitions be granted, and that the following acts be passed by the Assembly, viz.:

Be it enacted, That the Presbytery of Hangchow be and is hereby constituted, to be composed of ministers Tsiang Nying-k'we, Wong Hyao-k'we, Loh Dongwa, Junius H. Judson, Leo P'ing-fong, Joshua C. Garritt, Tsiu Song-ngoh, and the churches of Hangchow, Sing-z and Tong Yiang; that it be directed to meet in the Hangchow Presbyterian Church, September 8, 1897, at 10 A.M., and that the Rev. Tsiang Nying-k'we, or in his absence the Rev. Junius H. Judson, preside, until the election of a Moderator. Adopted.

Be it enacted, That the Synod of Northern China be and is hereby constituted, and that it be composed of the Presbyteries of Chinan, Peking and Shantung, and embrace all the territory in the Chinese empire north of the river Yangtse; and that the said Synod is hereby directed to meet in the Chefoo Presbyterian Church, May 19, 1898, at 10 A.M., with the Rev. C. W. Mateer, D.D., or in his absence the Rev. John Wherry, D.D., presiding until the election of a Moderator. Adopted.

Be it enacted, That the Synod of Central and Southern China be and is hereby constituted, that it be composed of the Presbyteries of Canton, Hangchow, Ningpo, and Shanghai, and that it include all territory in the Chinese empire south of the river Yangtse; and the said Synod is hereby directed to meet in the Lowrie Memorial Presbyterian Church at Shanghai, May 19, 1898, at 10 A.M., with the Rev. D. N. Lyon, or in his absence, the Rev. T. W. Houston, presiding until the election of a Moderator. Adopted.

Paper No. 5, being a complaint of Rev. Arthur C. Ludlow to the Synod of Ohio against the action of the Presbytery of Cleveland, touching the constitutionality of a provision in the Constitution of the Windermere Church, limiting participation in the election of "Deacons and Elders to communicants over eighteen years of age." Presbytery declared this clause "plainly unconstitutional." Synod referred the subject to the General Assembly for an expression of its judgment. It is recommended that the decision of the Presbytery be sustained. Adopted.

Paper No. 56, being a memorial from the Presbytery of St. Cloud, complaining of a violation of the principle of church comity by the Reformed Church in America, in organizing a church at Clara City, Minn., "a field fully occupied by the Presbyterian church." It is recommended that the case take the regular course under the rules of Church Comity and be referred to the Boards of the respective Churches for final action. Adopted.

Overture No. 39, from the Presbytery of Chile, inquiring if the expression "English Bible," used in Constitutional Rule No. 1, for example, is to be understood as the "Bible in the vulgar tongue." It is recommended that the answer be, Yes; that is, the accepted translation of the sacred Scriptures into the vernacular of the people among whom it circulates.

Overture No. 24, from the Presbytery of Elizabeth, inquiring what evidence of standing is to be deemed the equivalent of a certificate in the case of persons coming from denominations which do not give certificates to a Presbyterian Church. It is recommended that, in the absence of satisfactory testimonials as to church membership or of a personal knowledge of the piety and good standing of such persons in other evangelical churches, the applicant is to be received on a profession of faith in Christ.

Overture No. 31, from the Presbytery of St. Paul, proposing the submission to Presbyteries of the following amendment to the Book of Discipline: "When a member not chargeable with an offense and of good moral character shall request permission to withdraw from the membership of a particular church, the Session, if the reasons given for withdrawing be deemed sufficient, may erase the name of said member from the roll of communicants, making a proper minute of its action, with reasons therefor, in the Sessional record." It is recommended that no action be taken and the petitioners are referred to Book of Discipline, Chap. vii, Sec. 48. Adopted.

Overture No. 32, from the Presbytery of Saginaw, in reference to "the plan of educating local evangelists." It is recommended that while the employment of local evangelists is not to be altogether discontinued, Presbyteries are hereby directed to comply exactly in this matter with the regulations of Constitutional Rule No. 1, and the resolutions of the General Assembly. Adopted.

Overture No. 67, from the Synod of Texas, asking the "General Assembly to grant permission to colored churches, of the Presbyterian Church, if they so elect, to unite with Presbyteries within our Church outside of the bounds of the Synod to which they may naturally belong." It is recommended that the Overture be answered in the negative. Adopted.

Overture No. 49, from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, in relation to Rev. W. A. Waddell, a former member of the Presbytery and later a member of the Presbytery of Sao Paulo, Brazil, and a missionary professor in the College at Sao Paulo under the Foreign Board, who, for valid reasons, asked for a letter of dismissal to the Presbytery of Los Angeles, which was refused, whereupon at his request his name was dropped from the roll. He now seeks to renew his connection with the Presbytery of Los Angeles, though a foreign missionary in Brazil, and advice is sought by the Presbytery. After a careful examination of all the facts, it is recommended that Rev. W. A. Waddell be received as a member of the Presbytery of Los Angeles, and that his name be placed on the roll.

Overture No. 65, from the Presbytery of St. Cloud, concerning the interpretation of "Constitutional Rule No. 1." It is recommended that Question 1—"Is a Constitutional Rule of the same force as if it were incorporated in the Form of Government?"—be answered in the affirmative. That Question 2—"Is the rule to be applied to all local evangelists, making no discriminations as to the man's general education, experience and adaptability to the work?"—be answered, The rule is general in its application. That Question 3—"Do the four years date from the time of his being received under care of the Presbytery?"—be answered, They date from the time of licensure. Adopted.

Overture No. 16, from the Presbytery of Lehigh, respecting the ministerial standing of David A. Aquarone, a native of Italy, installed by said Presbytery under a misapprehension as to his ordination and asking advice as to the course to be pursued. It is recommended that the Presbytery secure proper credentials and letter of dismission from the Free Church of Italy in favor of Mr. David A. Aquarone, and then proceed to ordain him in accordance with the Form of Government. Adopted.

Overture No. 62, from the Presbytery of Neosho, concerning the eligibility to election as a Commissioner to the General Assembly of an elder serving under either the term or permanent service in a particular church, when dismissed to another church under the jurisdiction of the General Assembly. It is recommended that the Overture be answered in the negative. Adopted.

In behalf of the Committee,

R. F. SAMPLE, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on Education presented a supplemental Report, which was adopted, as follows:

I. Your Committee, to whom was referred Overture No. 64, from the Presbytery of Geneva, concerning foreign students, would report recommending that in view of the fact that the rule of the Board of Education sufficiently provides for the desired protection, that no action be taken.

II. The answers of the Synods to the questions sent down by the General Assembly of 1896, concerning "the religious welfare of students in the State Universities and other secular educational institutions within their bounds, in order that such provision may be made in each case as shall seem necessary and possible, to care for the religious welfare of Presbyterian students and to bring the great claims of Christianity to the attention of other students," having been referred to us, your Committee recommend the following action:

1. The General Assembly recognizes with gratitude the interest already displayed by several of the Synods in studying the problem how to provide for the religious welfare of Presbyterian students in State Universities and other secular educational institutions, and to bring the great truths and claims of Christianity to the attention of other students there in attendance.

2. But the special conditions are so various in the different States, calling for local knowledge and judgment, that the Assembly does not deem it advisable to express its approval of any particular plan.

3. The Assembly therefore refers the whole question to the separate Synods, with the earnest request that they take such action in each case as may be approved by them; the matter being, in the judgment of the General Assembly, of immediate and pressing importance. The General Assembly, however, expresses the hope that no plans may be adopted which can be interpreted properly as likely to lessen the influence of our denominational institutions.

In behalf of the Committee,

S. W. Dana, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Mileage presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Standing Committee respectfully submit, after consultation with the Stated Clerk, the following Report of Receipts and Disbursements of this General Assembly:

Receipts.

From Apportionments,	Mileage Fund,	$26,860 97
" "	Entertainment Fund,	12.950 76
" "	Contingent Fund,	13,763 76
Total,		$53,575 49

Disbursements.

Mileage Bills,	$22,085 90
Entertainment Fund, in hands of Stated Clerk,	12,950 76
Contingent Fund, in hands of Stated Clerk,	13,763 76
Balance, Mileage Fund, in hands of Stated Clerk,	4,775 07
	$53,575 49

The last General Assembly adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Mileage and other accompanying vouchers hereafter be referred to the Standing Committee on Mileage for examination and audit only, with authority to adjust all claims."

The Committee would report that they have audited the accounts, so far as the early date of the adjournment of the Assembly permits. They recommend that the Chairman of the Mileage Committee, with Mr. W. H. H. Smith and the Stated Clerk be a final Committee of Audit.

There are 612 Commissioners on the roll, 319 ministers and 293 elders, representing 228 Presbyteries. Thirty Presbyteries, comprising the Foreign Mission, Indian and Freedmen Presbyteries, are exempt from payment; but with few exceptions, the remaining Presbyteries have paid their full apportionment. Those who have not paid in full are as follows: Bellefontaine, Lima and Transylvania have paid only the Contingent Fund; White Water has paid the Contingent Fund and has made a large contribution to the Mileage Fund; Huntingdon has paid the Mileage and Contingent Funds, and made a contribution to the Entertainment Fund. This is the most satisfactory exhibit ever made in connection with the funds of the Assembly.

The Committee make the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly again urge upon all the Presbyteries to contribute in full the Mileage, Entertainment and Contingent Funds.

2. That in view of the action taken by the Assembly, at the suggestion of the Stated Clerk, recommending the apportionment for next year at five cents for each communicant, that the distribution be as follows: To the Mileage Fund two and one-half cents, to the Entertainment Fund one cent, and to the Contingent Fund one and one-half cents.

3. That the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer of the Assembly, be authorized at his discretion to pay Commissioners for any further sums that may be considered justly due them, by reason of their having underestimated railroad charges, or other necessary expenses in returning home.

4. That the General Assembly extends its thanks to such railroads and other transportation companies as have carried Commissioners at reduced rates. Also to the Stated Clerk for most valuable services rendered in connection with the work of your Committee.

5. That the Presbyteries be urged to forward the amount of their apportionments to the Stated Clerk at least two weeks prior to the meeting of the General Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM W. FISKE, Chairman.

It was Resolved, That the entertainment allowance for the Assembly of 1898 be $1.25 per day in case a room is given to each Commissioner.

The Special Committee on Young People's Societies reported as follows:

There have been placed in our hands statements from the Presbyteries, in response to questions sent down by the last General Assembly, as to certain statistical facts connected with the Young People's Societies of our Church. Having examined these statements, we find many of them deficient as to several of the facts desired, and from a number of Presbyteries no response.

We therefore recommend that these statements be referred to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly with instructions to secure from all the Presbyteries complete answers, and to tabulate and arrange the same for the use of the next Assembly. The Report was adopted.

For the Committee,

LYMAN W. ALLEN, Chairman.

It was Resolved, That this Assembly recognizes the great good accomplished by the young people of our Church and hereby expresses its appreciation of their earnest spirit and faithful labors and bids them Godspeed in the year to come.

The Report of the Special Committee on the Qualifications of Voters in the Election of Pastors, Elders and other Officers of Presbyterian Churches was adopted, as follows:

The Committee on the Election of Pastors, Elders and other Officers of Presbyterian Churches, appointed by the General Assembly of 1896, respectfully report as follows:

The Committee was constituted by the subjoined action of the Assembly, viz.:

Resolved, That all Overtures relating to the election of pastors, elders and officers of Presbyterian churches be referred to a Committee consisting of the Moderator, with the Stated and Permanent Clerks, to report to the next Assembly, (Minutes, 1896, p. 129).

The Overtures before the Assembly referred to the Committee for consideration and report were:

Overture No. 57, from the Presbytery of Kansas City, asking that Sec. 4, Chap. xv, of the Form of Government, be amended by substituting the following for the last sentence: "In this election no person shall be entitled to vote who is not a communicant in regular standing in that particular church."

Overture No. 69, from the Presbytery of Platte, asking the Assembly to define the law in our Church as to who shall vote in an election for pastor (Minutes, 1896, p. 146).

These Overtures both deal with the question of the persons entitled to vote at the election of a pastor.

Upon this subject the Committee draws attention, first, to the language of the Constitution, which reads, "in this election no person shall be entitled to vote who refuses to submit to the censures of the church, or who does not contribute his just proportion, according to his own engagement, or the rules of that congregation, to all its necessary expenses" (Form of Government, Chap. xvi, Sec. 4).

This Constitutional Rule contains the following provisions affecting elections for pastors:

1. The right of each congregation to make rules for the conduct of certain of its affairs, among these being rules as to the methods and extent of contributions by its members for necessary expenses.

2. The qualifications of voters, indicated by the declaration that two classes of persons shall not be entitled to vote: (a) those who refuse to submit to the censures of the church, and (b) those who do not contribute their just proportion to necessary expenses.

This much being clear, the issue next arises as to the meaning of the word congregation in the Constitution. This term, in relation to pastoral elections, has been decided by the General Assembly to include all persons associated together in a given organization for the worship of God, whether communicants in good standing or regular contributors to church expenses. The deliverances of the Assembly read: (a) "It is the judgment of the General Assembly that all members of the church in full communion have the right to vote in the election of pastor in the congregation with which they are connected" (Minutes, G. A., 1879, p. 630). (b) "Members of a congregation, not communicants, who regularly contribute their due proportion of the necessary expenses of the church and congregation, have a right to vote in the election of a pastor" (Minutes, G. A., 1886, p. 48). These decisions are based not only on Form of Government, Chap. xvi, Sec. 4, but also on the phraseology of other parts of the Constitution. The word congregation, as used in Chap. xiii, Sec. 2, Form of Government (the chapter dealing with the election of ruling elders and deacons), is, it is true, expressly limited to the members of the church, by the form of the question addressed to the congregation at the installation of elders and deacons, the opening words of which are, "Do you, the members of this church, acknowledge and receive this brother as a ruling elder?" (Form of Government, Chap. xiii, Sec. 4). The form of this question determines the meaning of the word congregation in the elections of ruling elders and deacons. When we come, however, to the questions at the installation of a pastor, we find that the words used are the following, "Do you, the people of this congregation, continue to profess your readiness to receive Rev. ——, whom you have called to be your minister?" (Form of Government, Chap. xv, Sec. 13). Further, throughout the section, the expression "members of the church" found in Chap. xiii is nowhere used, but instead the word "people" is constantly employed. This use of the term "people" can only mean that the congregation is taken as including both church members and contributors.

This difference in the meaning of the word congregation, as between Chap. xiii and xv of the Form of Government, is emphasized by the usage of the Church, having since 1788 the force of law, by which the pastor of a congregation was and is recognized as the pastor of all persons connected therewith, either as communicants or as contributors. In connection with the installation of pastors, it is declared that "it is highly becoming that after the solemnity of the installation, at least the elders and those appointed to take care of the temporal affairs of that church, should come forward to their pastor and give him their right hand in token of cordial reception and affectionate regard" (Form of Government, Chap. xvi, Sec. 7). The persons ordinarily appointed in our churches to the care of the temporal concerns are the trustees, some of whom are not communicants, but whatever their relation to the church, the minister of the congregation which they serve is recognized in the Constitution as their pastor. Further, the fact is important as bearing upon this subject that State legislation and the decisions of the civil courts, as they affect our Church, have been in harmony with the right of contributors as well as communicant members to vote in elections for pastors. Even a change in our Constitution, limiting voting for pastors to communicants, would not in some States avail to prevent pew-holders from having a voice in pastoral elections.

The Committee, therefore, in view of the considerations named, recommend the General Assembly to pass the following resolutions, viz.:

1. That it is the right of each one of our congregations, under the Constitution of the Church, to determine by rule the qualifications of non-communicants who are contributors to church expenses, as voters in the election of pastors.

2. That all communicant members in good standing, of whatever age or sex, and, in addition, all non-communicants of full age who contribute regularly to church support, in accordance with the rules of the congregations, are qualified voters at meetings for the election of pastors.

While no Overture was referred to the Committee as to the election of other church officers than pastors, yet the terms of appointment warrant the members in reporting as to voters for elders, deacons and trustees.

With reference to the election of elders and deacons, in view of the statements already made respecting the phraseology of Chap. xiii, Form of Government, it is recommended that the following resolution be adopted:

Resolved, That only communicants in good standing are qualified voters at the election of ruling elders and deacons.

With reference to the qualifications of voters at congregational meetings for the election of trustees, the Committee would respectfully report that this matter is in the control of the civil power, and that the qualifications of voters as fixed by law vary in matters of detail in the several States and Territories. Ordinarily it is true that communicant members of the church and pew-holders who are of full age are qualified to vote for trustees. While, however, the General Assembly cannot interfere with the legislation adopted by the States in this matter, it is recommended, in view of the fact that in many States denominational law is regarded as controlling, that action be taken by the Assembly. The State regards religious societies and churches as voluntary associations and therefore entitled to make rules for their own internal government even in matters of property, and where congregations are associated as they are in the Presbyterian Church, regards the denomination as the unit. It is therefore recommended that this Assembly adopt the following resolution:

Resolved, That the voters in the congregations under the care of this General Assembly, at elections for trustees or other persons to manage the temporal affairs, shall be the communicant members in good standing, and, in addition, such other persons as contribute by regular payments at stated periods to the support and necessary expenses of the congregation in accordance with its rules; Provided, That nothing in this regulation shall be valid which contravenes the provisions of the laws of any of the States, of the United States, or of special church charters.

The Committee also recommends the adoption of the following resolutions as essential to complete the rules for the proper management of elections of church officers.

Resolved, 1. That neither the presiding officers of church or congregational meetings, nor the Sessions of churches, possess the power to deprive communicant members in good standing of their right to vote at meetings of the church or of the congregation, except by due process of law in accordance with the provisions of the Book of Discipline.

Resolved, 2. That the rolls of communicant members in good standing in the possession of the Clerks of Sessions and the lists of regular contributors in the possession of the Secretary or Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, shall be the authoritative lists of voters at church and congregational meetings.

The Committee on Blanks for Statistics presented its Report, which was adopted, and is as follows:

The Committee on Blanks for Statistics respectfully report to the General Assembly that, after having given to the subject due consideration, they recommend the addition of two columns to the Statistical Reports of the churches and Presbyteries under the general title of Communicants, one to be headed, "Dismissed," and the other, "Deceased." The need for the statistics under these heads has been recognized for many years, and the securing of them will complete the statistics of membership in the churches. These two columns can be added without interfering with the present style of page and size of volume. To add other columns would require a recasting of the Statistical Reports, and this is at present unadvisable for several reasons. One reason is found in the expense involved in the change, amounting to not less than $3000 per annum. Others are, the increased time necessary for the publication of the Minutes, amounting to not less than three weeks; the additional burden which would be laid upon the Clerks of Sessions and of Presbyteries; and the absence at present of any extensive desire in the Church for a change in the Reports.

It has been suggested in connection with proposed changes that the columns of benevolent contributions should show the gifts to the Boards as distinct from gifts to other causes. It is alleged that the figures in the Minutes, being general in their nature are misleading, owing to the fact that they do not agree with the amounts given by the churches to the Boards. It is to be said in reply that the columns in the Minutes were never intended to exhibit the contributions made to the Boards, but have always included the total sums given by the congregations both to the Boards and to objects of a similar character with the great causes entrusted to these church agencies. Persons desiring to know what the exact contributions in cash to each of the Boards have been in any given year, can secure the information by consulting the volume now published for several years past, and containing the Reports of the Boards in full. Further, the contributions to the Boards include personal gifts which frequently do not appear in the columns in the Minutes. The Committee are convinced that the figures in the Minutes and the Reports of the Boards cannot be brought into agreement, and that for the reasons already stated it would be unadvisable at this time to make changes in this method of reporting contributions.

The Committee, therefore, recommend to the General Assembly the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That two columns be added to the Statistical Reports of the churches and Presbyteries to the General Assembly, under the general title of "Communicants," one to be headed "Dismissed and Erased," and the other "Deceased," the explanation of these headings to be inserted in the blanks furnished to the churches.

2. That the Committee be discharged.

In behalf of the Committee,

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Chairman.

The Report of the Treasurer of the Anniversary Reunion Fund was received, approved, and is as follows:

The Treasurer of the Quarter-Century Anniversary Reunion Fund respectfully reports to the General Assembly that his work has been completed; that the moneys of the Fund have been paid to the Boards entitled thereto; and that his accounts have been duly vouched and audited. The Report of the contributions to the Fund up to August 1, 1896, in accordance with the direction of the last General Assembly, was printed in pamphlet form, and included in the volume of the Reports of the Boards and Committees for that year. The report of contributions received since August 1, 1896, is included in the Report in complete form herewith submitted to this General Assembly.* It is recommended that the summary of the receipts by Synods, and the account of the Treasurer as vouched and audited, be published as a part of this Report.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Treasurer.

Dear Sir:—Permit me, in view of my visit to Europe, to request that you act in my stead, along with Rev. Dr. Wm. L. McEwan, on the Committee of Audit on the accounts of the Anniversary Reunion Fund.

Yours respectfully,

John H. Converse.

Philadelphia, March 22, 1897.

The Stated Clerk made report to the Assembly concerning the binding and distribution of the Annual Reports of the Boards, which was accepted, adopted, and is as follows:

The Stated Clerk respectfully reports to the General Assembly on the binding and distributing of the Annual Reports of the Boards as follows:

1. The Reports for the year 1896 were distributed in accordance with the directions of the General Assembly, and a statement of the expense involved is herewith submitted.

2. It is recommended that the Annual Reports of the Boards for the year 1897 be printed and distributed as heretofore, under the direction of the Stated Clerk, the expenses to be borne by the several Boards in proportion to the space occupied by each Report in the bound volume.

3. It is recommended that the Boards be requested and urged to transmit their Reports to the Stated Clerk on or before June 21, 1897. Unless this be done the Stated Clerk cannot distribute the Reports prior to August 1.

The Stated Clerk requested that his Report on Standing Rules for Presbyteries be postponed until the next Assembly. The request was granted.

The Committee on Editions of the Constitution presented its Report, which was accepted, approved, and is as follows:

The Permanent Committee on Editions of the Constitution respectfully report to the General Assembly, that a new edition of the Constitution has been issued under the supervision of the Committee by the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work; also an edition in separate form of the Standards of Government, Discipline and Worship. These editions are thoroughly accurate and have been published with great care and in excellent form.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. H. ROBERTS,
W. E. MOORE,
E. R. CRAVEN.

The following resolutions were severally adopted:

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed, as usual, to publish the Minutes of the General Assembly.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to furnish the Minutes to such Presbyteries only as have paid in full their quotas to the Contingent Fund.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk forward a copy each of the Minutes and Reports to the ruling elders who are Commissioners to this Assembly; Provided, That the ruling elders forward to the Clerk their post-office addresses, and that the Presbyteries which they represent have paid their full quotas to the Mileage and Contingent Funds.

Resolved, That the Moderator be authorized to fill, by appointment, any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries, and settle all accounts connected with the entertainment of the Assembly.

Resolved, That all Reports of Special Committees shall be delivered to the Stated Clerk thirty days prior to the meeting of the General Assembly; and that they be printed by him and delivered to Commissioners in bound form on the second day of the sessions.

Resolved, That the Stated Clerk be directed and empowered to prepare a Manual for the Presbytery and Synod similar to that prepared by him for Ruling Elders.

Resolved, That the popular meeting in the interests of the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies be held on the first Saturday evening of the sessions of the Assembly.

The following Committee of fifteen on Synodical Home Missions was announced by the Moderator: Ministers—John L. Withrow, D.D., Synod of Illinois; John Dixon, D.D., Synod of New Jersey; W. P. Kane, D.D., Synod of Illinois; John S. McIntosh, D.D., Synod of Pennsylvania; Samuel J. Niccolls, D.D., Synod of Missouri; J. McCluskey Blayney, D.D., Synod of Kentucky; R. M. Hayes, Synod of Oregon; John McC. Holmes, D.D., Synod of New York; D. S. Tappan, D.D., Synod of Ohio; William H. Logan, Synod of Baltimore; George L. Spining, D.D., Board of Home Missions. Ruling Elders—Hon. James A. Mount, Synod of Indiana; Hon. Charles E. Vanderburgh, Synod of Minnesota; Hon. Victor H. Lane, Synod of Michigan; Mr. John B. Minnis, Synod of Tennessee, with the Stated Clerk, under the rule of the Assembly, as Secretary of the Committee.

The Committee on the Celebration of the 250th Anniversary of the Adoption of the Westminster Standards was announced as follows: Ministers—Sheldon Jackson, D.D., William H. Roberts, D.D., William E. Moore, D.D., Jere Witherspoon, D.D., S. W. Dana, D.D.; Ruling Elders—George Junkin, LL.D., William C. Gray, LL.D., Hon. Stanton J. Peelle and Hon. Darwin R. James.

The Standing Committee on the Narrative presented its Report, which was approved, and ordered to be printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The Necrological Report was read by the Stated Clerk, and the Assembly was led in prayer by the Rev. Samuel C. Logan, D.D.

By unanimous consent the Stated Clerk was empowered to cast, and did cast, the vote of the Assembly for the following persons as Trustees of the Board of the Church Erection Fund: Ministers—David R. Frazer, D.D., Charles T. Haley, D.D., David Magie, D.D., John A. Ingham; Ruling Elders—Frederick W. Baldwin, Robert Jaffray, Hezekiah King.

By unanimous consent the Stated Clerk was empowered to cast, and did cast, the vote of the Assembly for Hon. William M. Lanning as a Trustee of the General Assembly.

The Standing Committee on Leave of Absence reported that, for satisfactory reasons, leave of absence had been granted to the following Commissioners, viz.:

XXVII. SYNOD OF TENNESSEE.

Union,	John B. Minnis. [8]

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

DAVID R. MOORE, Chairman.

The Standing Committees were called upon, and reported that they had no further business and were severally discharged, viz., Bills and Overtures, Judicial Committee, Polity of the Church, Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Education, Publication, Church Erection, Theological Seminaries, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Aid for Colleges, Correspondence, Benevolence, Narrative, Temperance, Leave of Absence, Mileage and Finance.

The Roll of the Assembly was called.

The following resolution of thanks was presented and unanimously adopted by a rising vote, the question being put by the Moderator of the last Assembly:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Assembly are due, and are hereby tendered, to the Moderator, Rev. Sheldon Jackson, D.D., for the wisdom, grace, courtesy, dignity and uniform fairness with which he has presided over the deliberations of the Assembly.

Additional resolutions of thanks, presented by Kiliaen Van Rensselaer, Esq., were adopted, as follows:

1. That the thanks of the Assembly are tendered to the Vice-Moderator, for the courteous and efficient aid rendered the Moderator, in connection with his duties; and to the Stated, Permanent and Temporary Clerks, for the faithfulness, patience and fidelity with which they have discharged the duties of their respective offices.

2. That the thanks of the Assembly are due and are hereby specially tendered to the Rev. S. C. Dickey, D.D., Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, to the President and officers of the Winona Assembly and Summer School Association, and to all who have been associated with them, in making the stay of the Assembly on the beautiful shore of Eagle Lake so delightful.

3. That the thanks of the Assembly are tendered to the State Bank of Warsaw for banking facilities; to the railroad companies that have made concessions to the Assembly in the rates of fare; to the Western Union Telegraph Company, and to the post-office officials and attendants for efficient service; to the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for the loan of Hymnals; to Dr. F. L. Marshall, for his most excellent service in leading the singing in the devotional exercises, and also to Mr. Yarnelle and his daughter and to his associates in the quartette for like services; to the faithful ushers who have so patiently served the Assembly throughout the session; to the hospitable Christian homes of Warsaw; and to the Warsaw Times, New York Tribune, Chicago and other papers for the fullness and accuracy of the reports and proceedings of the Assembly.

4. Especially do we return devout and heartfelt thanks to Almighty God, our heavenly Father, for His loving care over the members of the Assembly, by which serious illness has been averted from all the members, and also for His fatherly care over the loved ones who were left at home. We are further grateful to the Lord that the Assembly has been so evidently guided by the Holy Spirit, that there have been brought forth the fruits of love, peace and harmony to the glory of God, the advancement of His Church, and the uplifting of Christ and the Covenant.

The Minutes of to-day's proceedings were read and approved.

After solemn praise and thanksgiving, the business of the Assembly having been completed, and the vote taken for the dissolution, the Moderator dissolved the Assembly, saying, By virtue of the authority delegated to me by the Church, let this General Assembly be dissolved, and I do hereby dissolve it, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet at the Winona Assembly and Summer School Association Grounds, Eagle Lake, Indiana, on the third Thursday of May, 1898.

The sessions were closed with prayer and the apostolic benediction.

WILLIAM EVES MOORE, Permanent Clerk.

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

I. Narrative, Necrology, Correspondence, etc.

NARRATIVE

OF THE STATE OF RELIGION WITHIN THE BOUNDS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA FOR THE YEAR ENDING APRIL 30, 1897.

The Committee on Narrative respectfully report concerning the condition and progress of our Church during the past year as follows:

The blessing of God has rested abundantly upon our congregations and He has crowned the year with His goodness. Throughout the entire Church there has prevailed the spirit of unity and brotherly love. No strife or schism has arisen in any quarter to vex the body of Christ and grieve the Spirit of God. The disposition has been universal to seek the things which make for peace and for edification. Whatever differences or apprehensions may have existed in the recent past, the present is an era of restored harmony and confidence. The Church, therefore, cheered by these favorable conditions, which have been wrought by the Divine Spirit, faces the future with renewed courage and hope, and is prepared, we believe, to push her work for the Master during the coming year with a zeal and consecration which, by the blessing of God, will result in large success.

The continued financial depression has operated in many ways to limit growth. From the lack of means it has been impracticable for the most part to occupy new fields, however inviting, or to materially extend the work either at home or abroad. With diminished incomes, and burdened as many churches are with debt, the past year has been one of trial and struggle. Yet this condition has not been without its compensating benefits, in that it has led to a more entire reliance on God, and has developed a spirit of self-sacrificing giving which in many cases has been truly heroic, and wherever manifested has resulted in spiritual blessing.

We note with gratitude that notwithstanding the business depression few of our churches have been closed. From the examination of over two hundred reports from the several Presbyteries, it does not appear that, on the home field at least, the services of the sanctuary have been seriously interrupted or the work of the Church crippled from this cause. If there has been little expansion there has also been little contraction. By combining fields or giving less frequent services the spiritual wants of congregations have been generally supplied.

Another encouraging fact revealed by these reports is that, with some exceptions, churches have been faithful in discharging their financial obligations to their pastors. This evidences that congregations recognize their responsibilities to those who minister to them in spiritual things, and are willing to make special effort and sacrifice if necessary to meet these obligations.

The benevolent offerings of our Church have on the whole been well sustained in view of diminished resources. Some Presbyteries report even increased gifts. The majority tell of a partial reduction, but it is manifest that earnest effort has been made to maintain at least former rates of giving. While in the aggregate contributions have been doubtless reduced, yet we do not believe that the benevolences of the Church have diminished to the extent to which incomes and resources have been reduced. This is a hopeful sign, and we believe that habits of self-denial in beneficence, thus developed in times of business depression, will result in greatly enlarged gifts when material conditions are more favorable.

The Scriptural plan of systematic and proportionate giving is finding larger place in our churches and is to be commended to all our people. It brings the richest blessings upon the individual, is most acceptable unto God, and its general adoption would soon solve the financial embarrassments of our Boards. If as a Church we should thus bring all the tithes into the storehouse, the windows of heaven would soon be opened and the descending blessing would enrich every heart.

Many Presbyteries report large and some increasing attendance of young people at the services of the sanctuary. The habit of attending public worship should be formed in earliest youth. The blessings thus received, the church-going conscience thus developed, the love and reverence for the place and its services thus awakened, will in after-years prove strong barriers against evil and constant inspirations toward that which is good. From some portions of the Church, however, come tidings of a too general absence of children and youth from the house of God. This is chiefly the fault of parents who, through indifference or lack of realization of their duty, fail here signally to fulfill their covenant obligations, and leave that to the inclination of the child which should be required as a sacred obligation to God.

The reports concerning Sunday-schools are generally full of encouragement. Almost every church on our roll has its own school. A few schools in sparsely settled regions are formed on the union plan, but with these exceptions they are generally under the direction of some Session.

The Assembly Minutes of 1896 report a Sunday-school membership of 1,006,391. The present membership, a few Presbyteries being estimated, is 1,045,678, an increase of 39,287. This presents one of the largest gains in recent years. We rejoice in the improved methods which are being introduced into our Sunday-school work. The formation of large adult Bible classes and of the Home department, the more faithful and intelligent study of the Word, the effort at every point to spiritualize the work and make it effective for the salvation of every scholar, even the youngest, and for the full development of Christian character and usefulness, are evidences that the Sabbath-school is to an increasing degree fulfilling its divine mission. We trust that the time is not distant when these schools will embrace more fully those of every age, so that all in the Church will be found in the Sunday-school and all in the Sunday-school also will be found in the Church.

It is gratifying to learn that the Shorter Catechism is taught with more or less fidelity in so many of our schools. It should find a place in every school and be regularly taught. No Church can hope to maintain itself which does not indoctrinate its children in its own tenets. It is only thus that we can hope to see our youth fully grounded in the fundamental truths of the Gospel and in the historic faith of the Church. The clear, comprehensive, yet simple definitions of our Catechism are admirably fitted for this purpose, and its commitment to memory has always proved a strong defense against unbelief, as well as an efficient means in the development of Christian character and of an intelligent Christian faith.

Family religion lies at the heart of the Christian system. If religion is not found in the home it must soon perish from the earth. No parents can delegate the personal duty of training their children in the things of God to either the church or the Sunday-school. By instruction, prayer, example and discipline they are to bring them up in the knowledge and nurture of the Lord. A family altar, and the recognition of God's goodness at the table spread by His bounty, are potent factors in the maintenance of religion in the home. The neglect of family worship is a great and we fear a growing evil in the Church. Where such neglect exists there need be no surprise if children fail to receive the full blessings of the covenant and drift away in later years from the faith and services of the Church.

The reports concerning the work and spiritual condition of the young people's organizations, especially of the Christian Endeavor Societies, which are almost universal, are of the most encouraging character. One cannot read these reports, coming as they do from every portion of the Church at home and abroad, without being impressed with the fact that in these societies God is working mightily for the development of Christian character and usefulness among our youth. While these young people are so full of enthusiasm for Christ and His Church, they should have the constant sympathy, direction and oversight of pastors and Sessions, that they may be kept in closest relations with the Church and have developed within them that loyalty for their own Church and its services which is a fundamental principle of Christian Endeavor.

The women's societies, especially those of Home and Foreign Missions, are filling a place of growing importance and usefulness in all our churches. By awakening an interest in mission work, by their large offerings, the product of systematic and generous giving, and by the spiritual impulse of their prayers and efforts, they are doing a work for Christ which is worthy of all commendation and encouragement, and which should callforth the gratitude of every heart which loves the Master's name and seeks His glory.

It is to be regretted, however, that within the limits of the Church itself there are so few organizations of a similar character for men, or which include them. A few societies of the Brotherhood of Andrew and Philip are reported, but the men of our churches are seldom banded together as are the women and young people for Christian work and mutual helpfulness and holy living.

The obstructions reported to the progress of the Gospel and the growth in grace of Christians are such as are common to our times—worldliness, Sabbath desecration, questionable amusements, the saloon, the Sunday newspaper, infidelity and unchristian literature. We would urge our members to abstain from every appearance and association of evil, to remember that they are not their own, but are bought with a price, that anything, however harmless its guise, which impairs spiritual life and usefulness, or which cannot be done unto the glory of Christ, is to be avoided, lest we sin against Him, sin against our fellow-men and sin against our own souls.

It is to be regretted that we are able to report no widespread revivals of religion among our churches. There has been here and there special interest with large ingatherings, but no wave of pentecostal blessing has swept over any considerable portion of the Church.

It is a matter for prayerful inquiry why these times of financial distress so severe and protracted have been accompanied by no such general awakenings as have characterized similar seasons in the past. Possibly we have not yet been sufficiently humbled and chastened. Possibly we are looking too much to improved financial conditions to restore prosperity to Zion and too little to the Spirit of God. The Church needs power from on high, but the power is to use us and not we the power. A more entire consecration to Christ, therefore, and a more exclusive waiting upon God and dependence upon the Spirit will insure the blessing the Church so generally needs. Yet while there have been few marked revivals, the Lord has crowned with His blessing the ordinary means of grace. The largest ingatherings in some Presbyteries were in churches which made no special efforts, but throughout the year received from time to time such as were being saved.

The additions during the year just closed (a few Presbyteries being estimated) were on confession of faith 56,804 and on certificate 37,745, making the present membership 960,795.* On the foreign field the blessing of God upon the work has been most marked. Doors are opening, fields are whitening, but the laborers are few. Surely our churches, in obedience to the great commission and inspired by the success which has crowned the labors of our missionaries, should not let this work languish and these opportunities pass by unimproved for lack of the necessary means.

*See for final figures the Comparative Summary.

While in the wide survey of the Church the growth during the year has not been remarkable, there has been steady and general progress. We should be ungrateful if we did not thank God for His goodness. He hath done "great things for us whereof we are glad." That which has been achieved for the advancement of His kingdom has been accomplished through His power and grace alone, and to His name be the glory. Wherein there has been failure it has been because of the imperfection and unfaithfulness of the human instrument. The Church needs everywhere a fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit. Without that human efforts and Church machinery are of no avail. Shall not our people with one accord seek for themselves and for the Church of their love the richer bestowment of God's grace, that her light may shine to the uttermost parts of the earth.

In behalf of the Committee,

MAURICE D. EDWARDS, Chairman.

WM. HENRY ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

REPORT OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMISSION OF THE ALLIANCE OF THE REFORMED CHURCHES THROUGHOUT THE WORLD HOLDING THE PRESBYTERIAN SYSTEM.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 14, 1897.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

HONORED BRETHREN:—The Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, Western Section, respectfully presents to your venerable body its annual Report as follows:

Since the date of the last Report three meetings of the Commission have been held, one at Glasgow, Scotland, in June, 1896; another at Philadelphia, Pa., in November, 1896, and the third at Chicago, Ill., in April, 1897.

The Commission would draw your attention to action taken at its last meeting in connection with two important events in the ecclesiastical history of certain of the Churches in the Alliance. The first action had to do with the 250th anniversary of the adoption of the Westminster Standards and reads as follows:

"Resolved, That the Western Section tenders to the Churches in the Alliance holding the Westminster Confession and Catechisms cordial congratulations upon the anniversary of the adoption of those widely influential and historic standards of Christian faith and practice."

The other action was in relation to the approaching sesquicentennial of the Reformed (German) Church in the United States. It reads:

"The coetus of the Pennsylvania Reformed Churches was organized at Philadelphia, September 29, 1747, by the Rev. Michael Schlatter, under the auspices of the Reformed Church of Holland. Out of this in 1793 came the present General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States. The Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System congratulates that General Synod, one of its constituent members, upon the approach of the sesquicentennial of that important event in its history."

The Executive Commission also announces with pleasure that the Plan of Coöperation in Home Missions, which was submitted by it to the supreme judicatories of the several American Churches in the Alliance, has been adopted by the following bodies:

General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

General Synod of the Reformed Church in America.

General Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, and the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada.

The Executive Commission further transmits herewith the official notice in connection with the meeting of the Seventh General Council of the Alliance to be held in the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Washington, D.C., during the fall of 1899. It is requested that action be taken with a view to the appointment of delegates

The basis of representation in the Council is as follows: For each 100 congregations or less, two delegates up to 1000 congregations; above 1000 congregations, one delegate for each additional 100 up to 2000 congregations; above 2000 congregations, one delegate for each additional 250 congregations.

Action is also requested providing for the payment of the apportionment of expenses due from your venerable body for the present year. This amounts to the sum of $765. The Treasurer of the Alliance is George Junkin, Esq., Sixth and Walnut streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

With a view to the more full expression of the kindly sentiments of the Reformed Churches each towards the other, and of their spiritual unity, it has given us pleasure to appoint the Rev. W. S. P. Bryan, D.D., as a delegate to bear to your venerable body the fraternal greetings of the Alliance.

This Report appropriately closes with the statement that the Sixth General Council of the Alliance, held at Glasgow, Scotland, June 17 to 26, 1896, furthered materially the high aims cherished by the Alliance. The noble hospitality of the Presbyterians of the commercial metropolis of Scotland was and is worthy of all praise, and the Council itself was a visible witness to the world-wide extent and influence of the churches of the Reformation.

With best wishes for the prosperity of the cause of Christ in your midst as a Church, and through you to all the world, we are, in behalf of the Alliance, Yours fraternally,

WILLIAM HENRY ROBERTS, Secretary.

FRATERNAL LETTER FROM THE GENERAL SYNOD OF THE REFORMED (DUTCH) CHURCH IN AMERICA.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., May 10, 1897.

To the Reverend the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States—Grace, Mercy and Peace from the Lord Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit:

The undersigned having been appointed a delegate to your reverend and honorable Body, by the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, and finding a personal attendance at your sessions impracticable, sendeth greeting in the name of the Great Head of the Church, "Whose we are and Whom we serve."

Our Reformed Church stretches out a fraternal hand to all organizations which are attempting the Lord's work; but towards members of the great Presbyterian family, her relations are peculiarly tender.

Between the Presbyterian churches of Great Britain and the Reformed Church in the Netherlands, the historic bond is welded by many a precious memory. The intercourse began with the Reformation beyond the sea, and in this land of their adoption, the land of our love, our fathers labored side by side in laying deep and sure the foundation of our Republic.

Our Standards have been approved by your highest courts; your Confessions and Catechisms are in constant use among us. By recent arrangement between our Boards of Publication, your own valuable Westminster Lesson Helps are published in an edition adapted to our Sunday-schools. Without a pang of homesickness, ministers pass from Presbytery to Classis, or from Classis to Presbytery, as the Providence of God opens the way; and we are in constant interchange of beloved members and their families.

In all interdenominational work we are going hand in hand with mutual appreciation. We are one, save in name and the details of organization. Federal or organic union may be indicated in the future; for the present imperative reasons, which we can feel rather than define, compel a continued autonomy.

That our fellowship may be as sweet and our coöperation as sincere as ever; that in the battles of God, our columns may be found fighting within hailing distance and ready for mutual support, is the earnest prayer of every loyal son of the Reformed Church in America.

To convey the assurances of our fraternal spirit, we send these our salutations in the month of May and the year of our Lord 1897.

Yours in the Communion of Saints,

CORNELIUS BRETT,
Corresponding Delegate from the Reformed Church in America.

ANSWER TO FRATERNAL LETTER.

EAGLE LAKE, IND., May 26, 1897.

The Rev. Cornelius Brett, D.D., Corresponding Delegate:

REV. AND DEAR BRO.: Greeting and grace be unto you and the General Synod of the Reformed Church in America, through Jesus our Lord. To have seen you face to face in our Assembly would have given us joy and most fraternal satisfaction, but thanks be to God, the unity for which Christ prayed depends not on time or place, but is created and confirmed by that gracious spirit which pervades the entire Sacramental Host in Heaven and on earth. We rejoice to know that the Church of God, visible and invisible, comprises all those throughout the world who hold the one sole Supreme Headship of Jesus Christ our Lord, and are vital parts of His mystical body, of the whole family both in heaven and on earth, named after Him whose name is above every name and will live forever.

Verily, dear brother, we heartily respond to your fraternal sentiments, recognizing the special tie which from the first has bound together the great Calvin and William the Silent, Westminster and Dort, and all the vast company, both yours and ours, that have attested and are still attesting the saving truth of the Gospel of all mankind. We are simply two different corps of the same great army of the Lord. Our fathers indeed labored side by side in the Reformation and in the revolution of the eighteenth century, and they have ever stood together in the van of Christian civilization for all true patriotism, for all liberty regulated by law, for the order and purity of society, for the Christian Sabbath and the advancing work of God. In these great interests, looking to the day when the kingdoms of this world shall have become the Kingdom of our God and of His Christ, by the grace and will of Heaven, we shall labor side by side, to plant the banner of the Eternal Cross on the last fortress of Satan's empire, and then together will we rejoice in the hallelujah and ascription to Him who sitteth on the throne and to the Lord forever.

Courage, then, thou Church of the Reformation, and patience to the end, that no man take thy crown. Hereby receive our Christian salutation, and God speed you to the conquest of the world for Christ.

For the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

SHELDON JACKSON, Moderator.

Jesse Philander Williamson,	a graduate of	Yankton College.
Gilbert Livingston Wilson,	"	Wittenberg College,
David Junkin Woods,	"	Wash'gton and Jefferson.

Of these one hundred and twelve matriculants, nineteen are not Bachelors of Arts. Five of these, however, have had collegiate training for four years, and lack the degree on technicalities; four others have had three years in college and two others have had two years, and one is graduate of a State Normal School.

Of the matriculants there were enrolled as resident graduates William Hall, who completed the theological course at Assembly's College, Belfast; William John King and David Junkin Woods, graduates of Union Theological Seminary, Virginia, and Henry Butler Price, for two years in the Theological School of the Southwestern Presbyterian University.

There were admitted to the Senior class, Harold Sidney Davison, who took the first year of his course at Manitoba College and the second at the Presbyterian College, Halifax; George Martin Gibson, who completed two years at Assembly's College, Belfast, and Jesse Philander Williamson, who took the first year of his course at McCormick Theological Seminary and the second at Omaha Theological Seminary.

There were admitted to the Middle class, Frank Barbour Cleland, David Harry Devor, Benjamin Allen Mason and Edward Elbridge Vance, each of whom had taken one year at McCormick Theological Seminary; Charles Jacob Boppell, who had taken one year at Yale Divinity School: Robert Arthur Elwood, who had taken one year at the Reformed Presbyterian Seminary, Philadelphia; James Alexander Hogg, after one year in theology at Queen's College, Belfast; Robert John Lockhart, after one year in the Western Theological Seminary; William Roderick McKay and William Clarence Murdock, after one year at the Presbyterian College, Halifax; Josiah Thomas Stevenson, after one year at the United Presbyterian Seminary, Allegheny; and James Monroe Stewart, after one year at Lane Theological Seminary.

The enrollment for the session just closed has been:

Fellows,	4
Resident graduates,	17
Senior class,	70
Middle class,	61
Junior class,	90
Total,	253

The graduating class contains seventy members. Thirteen of these have accepted calls to churches and three have calls under consideration, four go to the foreign field, six expect to continue their studies, and forty-one are unsettled. None of the students, as far as known, will obtain work in the home field, though a number of them were ready to go had the Board been able to send them. Thirteen men would gladly undertake work in the foreign field, but it is impossible for them to be sent this year at least.

The course of lectures on the Stone and the Students foundation were delivered according to the announcement in the annual catalogue; the former by Dr. Walter William Moore, Professor in Union Theological Seminary, Va., on "The Beginning of Hebrew History in the Light of Recent Archæological Research," and the latter by Rev. Dr. Benjamin Couch Henry, of Canton, China, on "China as a Mission Field."

In addition to these endowed courses, the Rev. Dr. Henry C. McCook entertained the students with a lecture on "Ants," and addressed them also on "Modern Doubt and Its Treatment."

On February 16, the exercises of the Seminary were suspended in the afternoon and the four hundredth anniversary of the birth of Philip Melancthon was celebrated with appropriate services in Miller Chapel.

The Rev. Chalmers Martin was appointed as the Elliott F. Shepard Instructor in the Old Testament Department, during the duration of the endowment.

Mr. K. D. MacMillan has been appointed under special arrangement to assist Dr. William H. Green in the instruction of his classes during the present year.

The following prizes have been awarded during the past year: The George S. Green fellowship in Hebrew has been awarded to Kerr Duncan MacMillan, and the Alumni fellowship and Archibald Robertson scholarship in New Testament Studies to Thomas Cowdin Laughlin, with honorable mention of John Van de Erve.

Of the prizes offered to members of the Senior class, the Carter prize has been awarded to Charles Frederick Morrison, the first Scribner prize to Harry Schwartz Ecker, and the second to Charles Ernest Gubler. Of the prizes open to the Middle class, the Stanton prize has been awarded to Seldon Long Haynes, the first Maitland prize to Henry Martin Bruins and the second to Walter Everitt Smith, with honorable mention of William Brown Cooke and Henry Buck Master.

With great regret the Board of Directors announce during the past year the deaths of Hon. John Scott and Rev. James T. Leftwich, D.D. The Board has elected in their places the following: In the place of Hon. John Scott, John J. McCook, of New York city; in the place of Dr. Leftwich, Rev. Jere Witherspoon, D.D., of Baltimore, Md.

The following Directors, whose term of office expired May, 1897, were reëlected:

Robert Hamill, D.D., Philadelphia.
Joseph T. Smith, D.D., LL.D., Baltimore.
James O. Murray, D.D., LL.D., Princeton, N. J.
Abraham Gosman, D.D., Lawrenceville, N. J.
Everard Kempshall, D.D., Elizabeth, N. J.
Francis B. Hodge, D.D., Wilkesbarre, Pa.
Howard Duffield, D.D., New York City.
Hon. James A. Beaver, LL.D., Bellefonte, Pa.
Logan C. Murray, Esq., Louisville, Ky.

It was with the greatest regret that the Board of Directors were compelled to accept the resignation of Dr. William E. Schenck, who for twenty-seven years had been the Secretary of the Board, and, after expressing their regret at Dr. Schenck's inability to longer serve and their great appreciation of all that he has done for the Seminary while the Secretary of its Board, the Rev. Maitland Alexander, D.D., of New York city, was elected to succeed Dr. Schenck as Secretary.

Since the date of the last Report certificates of graduation have been given to sixty-five persons whose names are as follows:

The past year in the Seminary has been one which indicates the ever-increasing influence and usefulness of Princeton as a training school for those who are to be the ambassadors of Christ. It has not been specially marked from other years save in the quality of its course and the high standard which its Directors and Faculty set for the diploma which it issues. Every year exhibits more plainly the fact that we need a higher education for the ministers of our Church, and the Seminary at Princeton believes that none are debarred from preaching the Gospel by reason of a high standard of scholarship and attainment demanded of those who study there.

All of which is respectfully reported by order of the Board.

3. Action of the Boards of Directors and Trustees of Princeton Theological Seminary, in Relation to the Communication from the Assembly of 1896.

a. Action of the Directors.

At a meeting of the Directors of Princeton Theological Seminary held at Princeton, May 3, 1897, the following resolutions were adopted and the Clerk was directed to send a copy to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly:

Whereas, There has been confidently expressed the opinion that the property of the Theological Seminary of the Presbyterian Church, at Princeton, is sacredly and absolutely devoted to the education of men for the Gospel ministry, according to the Standards of our Presbyterian Church, and cannot be used for any other purpose; and it has, as a matter of fact, always been so held and administered;

And whereas, The General Assembly of 1895 in effect declared that it respected the judgment of the Boards of the Seminary and was not prepared to say that it was incorrect, yet was of opinion that it would be well for the Boards to do what they had expressed their willingness to do, viz., to endeavor to secure such legislative action as will insure to the General Assembly the right to be represented in the courts and to enforce its proper control over the Seminary; and the Boards of the Seminary not only cordially agreed to make the effort to secure such legislation, but actually did take steps looking to that end, by sending to the General Assembly of 1896, through the Committee of Conference, the draughts of two legislative bills, framed and designed for the purpose aforesaid, for an expression of choice on the part of the Assembly;

And whereas, The General Assembly of 1896 has discharged the Committee of Conference, and the Boards of the Seminary have no present means of ascertaining how (in view of the earlier action of the General Assembly of 1895 and of the Boards) the legislative bills above mentioned are open to the criticism passed by the Assembly of 1896, or how such criticism should be met; therefore,

Resolved, That the Boards of the Seminary very respectfully express the hope that the General Assembly will concur in the view entertained by the Boards that all that is necessary to secure the control desired by the Assembly over the Seminary will be fully attained by the shorter of the two bills already submitted to the Assembly by the Boards.

Attest: MAITLAND ALEXANDER,
Secretary of Board of Directors.

b. ACTION OF THE TRUSTEES.

Resolved, That the preamble and resolution presented by the joint Committees of the Directors and Trustees, relative to the legislative bills submitted by the Boards to the General Assembly of 1896, be approved and transmitted to the General Assembly of 1897.

Resolved, That the Vice-President and the Secretary be and they are hereby authorized to certify a copy of said preamble and resolution under their hands and the seal of the corporation, and to send the same to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly.

JAMES O. MURRAY, Vice-President.
A. GOSMAN, Secretary.

III. WESTERN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

1. Annual Report of the Directors.

The Board of Directors of Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., present to the General Assembly the following as their Seventieth Annual Report. Since the last Annual Report, the following students have been matriculated:

W. T. Matson,	T. C. Rankin,
J. F. Graham,	W. P. Schneider,
C. O. Anderson,	R. W. Veach,
Charles Bell,	S. S. White,
R. A. Boice,	J. I. Williams,
H. C. Cunningham,	G. I. Wilson,
J. C. Fields,	C. R. Zahnyer,
S. W. Griffiths,	James Waite,
J. D. Humphrey,	T. B. Gay,
J. B. Kelso,	S. F. Sharp,
J. S. Kittell,	W. W. Beard,
C. H. Love,	J. S. Blayney,
B. R. McHatton,	W. A. Cobb,
T. J. Milman,	R. P. Daubenspeck,
R. M. Offutt,	N. S. Fiscus,
J. H. Patterson,	E. A. Hodil,

C. F. Huss,
H. F. Kerr,
W. B. Kritz,
H. O. McDonald,
H. H. McQuilkin,
A. B. Minamyer,
J. C. Paterson,
R. E. Pugh,
J. H. Rodgers,
W. B. Sterrett,
E. B. Wells,
H. B. Williams,
C. R. Wilson,
A. L. Wiley,
W. W. Conner.

Of these, forty-two entered the Junior class; the other four were received by letter, as follows: Mr. W. T. Matson to the Senior class from Omaha Theological Seminary; Mr J. F. Graham to the Middle class from Auburn Theological Seminary; Mr. S. F. Sharp to the Middle class from the Theological Department of MacAllister College, and Mr. T. B. Gay to the Middle class on conditions from Auburn Theological Seminary.

The whole number of students enrolled has been one hundred and five, of which ninety-eight were college graduates. Twenty-six of the students are Seniors; thirty-six are members of the Middle class; two are Juniors, and one a post-graduate from Princeton Theological Seminary. Messrs. U. L. Montgomery and D. C. White have been pursuing a partial course.

The Missionary Society met weekly during the term. The society was addressed by Rev. Dr. Goheen, of India; the Rev. C. W. Gault, of West Africa, and the Rev. Arthur H. Brown, D.D., of the Foreign Board.

In addition to the regular meetings of the society, a convention was held on Thursday and Friday, the 8th and 9th of April, in conjunction with the students of the United Presbyterian and the Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminaries of Allegheny City. This convention was addressed by the Rev. E. W. Work, D.D., of Dayton, Ohio; the Rev. David R. Breed, D D., of Pittsburgh; Rev. H. H. Bell, of Monmouth, Ill.; Rev. Dr. Hunter Corbett, of China, and others.

The convention drew the students of the Seminaries more closely together in brotherly love and missionary effort, and they have made arrangements to hold similar conventions annually.

Mr. H. M. Luce, Secretary of the Inter-Seminary Missionary Alliance, visited the students for a few days during March, and endeavored, with good success, to introduce better plans for the operation of the local society.

The Thursday conferences have been conducted regularly by the professors. The classes have usually met separately, the students being invited to take part in the services of the hour. This method has brought the students and professors into closer contact, and has been productive of mutual helpfulness and of gratifying spiritual results.

Prof. George M. Sleeth, Instructor in Elocution, continues to give satisfaction in the charge of his department.

The Librarians, Messrs. C. A. McCrea and J. M. Oliver, members of the graduating class, have been faithful in the performance of their duties.

The lectures on the Elliott Lecturership foundation for 1897 will be delivered by the Rev. James Orr, D.D., Professor of Church History in the United Presbyterian College, Edinburgh, Scotland. His subject will be, "The Development of Dogma." The lectures will be given at the opening of the next term.

The following students have completed the course of study, and received in the regular way from the Board of Directors the usual diploma, after having passed the required examinations:

R. L. Barr,
D. Benton, Jr.,
C. W. Cherry,
J. T. Elder,
S. E. Foote,
J. W. Harvey,
W. S. Kreger,
W. T. Matson,
J. P. McDonald,
C. A. McCrea,
U. L. Montgomery,
W. F. Rever,
G. T. Timblin,
C. O. Bemeis,
R. S. Calder,
G. N. Donehoo,
H. D. Ewing,
J. E. Fulton,

A. S. Kerr,	H. S. McCutcheon,
J. J. Kuhn,	J. W. Oliver,
A. B. McCormick,	J. F. Record,
J. C. O. McCracken,	W. L. Wilson.

The closing exercises were held this year on Thursday evening, May 6, in the First Presbyterian Church, Pittsburgh, Pa., by Rev. John Sparhawk Jones, D.D., of Philadelphia, in connection with the delivering of the diplomas.

During the past year, two members of the Board have been called away by death, the Rev. David H. Sloan, D.D., for many years pastor at Leechburg, Pa., but residing of late at Blairsville, and Col. Joseph H. Gray, of Pittsburgh, Pa. W. P. Potter, Esq., was elected to take the place made vacant by the death of Col. Gray, and Rev. David S. Kennedy, D.D., to take the place of Dr. Stone.

The following members of the outgoing class of Directors of 1897 were reëlected and made the class of 1901, namely: Rev. W. O. Campbell, D.D., Rev. J. D. Moffatt, D.D., Rev. Jesse C. Bruce, D.D., Rev. W. P. Shrom, D.D., Rev. H. D. Lindsay, D.D., Rev. David R. Breed, D.D., Rev. J. P. E. Kumler, D.D., and Messrs. Charles H. Scott, James C. Lewis and Andrew W. Wilson.

The Board at its semiannual meeting, November, received an offer from Mr. J. H. Wallace of $20,000 toward the establishment of a new chair, securing regular instruction in Elocution, upon certain conditions. At a special meeting in December, the Board accepted the generous offer of Mr. Wallace, upon conditions substantially the same as those expressed by Mr. Wallace in his written communication, as follows: That Elocution as thus provided for shall be a part of the regular discipline and curriculum of this Seminary, and as such equally obligatory with other regular studies upon the students in attendance; that such a proportion of hours per week shall be assigned to this department as is represented by the proportion of the amount of Mr. Wallace's gift to the full amount necessary to endow a full Professorship; that the endowment of $10,000 already existing as a provision for elocutionary training be united with the gift of Mr. Wallace in order to the unity and efficiency of the department; that the full "Professorship" be and is hereby created for whose full endowment this Board will undertake to raise $20,000 in addition, making in all $50,000; that this new Chair shall be entitled "Sacred Rhetoric and Elocution," with the understanding that it may also include such instruction in the contents and public use of the sacred Scriptures in the English language as is not provided for in other departments, and that the subject of Sacred Rhetoric be removed from the so-called "Reunion Professorship" in order to its inclusion in the new Professorship.

Rev. James A. Kelso, an alumnus of the institution of the class of '96, was elected to fill the position of Assistant in Hebrew for the next Seminary year.

SUMMARY.

Senior class, 14; Middle class, 14; Junior class, 11; Special students, 5. Total number of students in attendance, 44.

IV. ENDOWMENT AND SPECIAL FUNDS.

Buildings and grounds, including Seminary and Library buildings and campus (non-productive), .	$162,000 00
General endowment, including grounds leased, dwelling houses for rent, etc., ...	242,334 50
Scholarship funds (invested), ...	67,633 44
Library funds (invested), ...	19,600 00

A considerable part of the general endowment is invested in dwelling houses for rent, the same having been built on grounds belonging to the Seminary. The net income from these investments are greatly reduced by expenses involved in the care of the property, including taxes (a large item), street and sewer assessments, insurance, superintendence and repairs, the last an increasing item.

The Scholarship Funds are now all paying interest, with the exception of $10,000 in United Brass Company bonds, received from the estate of the late Mr. Chamberlain, of Cleveland. It is hoped that the accrued interest on these bonds may ultimately be paid.

The Permanent Scholarship Funds (a number of which fall short of the full amount, $2000, required for a scholarship) bear the names of their donors as follows:

1. Sawyer Scholarship, founded by Nathaniel Sawyer.
2. Ward Scholarship, founded by Miss Jane Ward, Newark, N. J.
3. Condit Scholarship, founded by Miss Jane Ward, Newark, N. J.
4. Gandis Scholarship, founded by Daniel Gandis, Indianapolis, Ind.
5, 6. Wooodbury Scholarships (2), founded by D.L. Woodbury, Columbus.
7-21. Preserved Smith Scholarships (14), founded by Preserved Smith, Dayton.
22. Columbus Scholarship, founded by Second Presbyterian Church, Columbus.
23. Robert Browne Scholarship, founded by Robert Browne, Cincinnati.
24. D. Howe Allen Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Prof. Allen, Cincinnati.
25. Lafayette Scholarship (incomplete).
26. Ripley Scholarship (incomplete).
27. Rockville Scholarship (incomplete).
28. Stage Scholarship, founded by B. F. Stage, Columbus.
29. Aletta Whitlock Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Aletta Whitlock, Lockland.
30. Fairchild Scholarship, founded by Rev. E. B. Fairchild, D.D.
31. Stephen Whitlock Scholarship, founded by S. Whitlock, Lockland.
32. Shedd Scholarship, founded by Rev. Henry Shedd, Mt. Gilead.
33. Isabella Browne Scholarship, founded by Mrs. I. Browne, Cincinnati.
34. John J. Ferson Scholarship, founded by Mrs. C. M. Ferson, Columbus.
35. Beech Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Ambrose Beech, Monroe, Mich.
36. Laura Beaver De Witt Scholarship, founded by Rev. Dr. and Mrs. John De Witt, Princeton, N. J.

VI. WORK FOR THE YEAR.

REPORT OF THE EXAMINERS.

The Examiners appointed to examine the students in the several departments of instruction at the close of the year presented to the Board of Trustees the following report:

The Examiners, two representing the Synod of Ohio, and eleven representing six Presbyteries in Ohio and two in Indiana, extend their hearty congratulations to the Trustees and Faculty on the completion of a very successful year of work in the Seminary, despite the conditions which for a time limit the number of teachers too strictly, and despite the various causes which impose upon this Seminary, as upon all our Seminaries, the necessity of imparting theological training to some students who come with imperfect preparation.

We respectfully recommend the Trustees and Faculty to call the attention of Presbyteries to the necessity of insisting upon the preparation of their students in the classics to such a standard that they will be able to take up the required studies of Greek and Hebrew upon entering the Seminary.

The examinations in theology were of a very high order, showed a genuine soundness in the faith, and showed a thorough training and a spirit on the part of the new Professor of Theology, which is full of promise that the theology of his revered father, Dr. Henry Boynton Smith, will have its full and proper development in our Church.

The examinations in Greek and Hebrew showed thorough critical and exegetical work, with an application of the best inductive teaching methods, and a bearing of all on the practical work of the ministry, which we commend most highly. The result of such a spirit of genuine search for the meaning of God's Word must be an edifying and inspiring ministry.

The examinations in history have revealed that this subject has been taught with a profound appreciation and a close application of the lessons of the past with a reference to the problems of to-day.

We regret the loss of Prof. Hulbert after three years of most earnest and successful work. We note with especial interest the good results in the Senior class, which has had the benefit of his instructions during their entire course.

We recognize the value of "The Lectures in Course" in the Biblical department and department of Practical Theology. We regard the idea as one which ought to be applied more extensively, as funds and circumstances will permit, so as to put the student in close touch with the great world.

We commend Lane Seminary to the earnest sympathy and prayerful support of our Church, as a "school of the prophets" which has had a most inspiring history, from which it looks, as from a mountain top, upon the way along which we trust God will lead it.

We have breathed the eager air of the "good time coming, yea, already come, for Lane, and we have rejoiced to see that day."

R. C. Dodds, Chairman of Committee.
Wm. A. Powell, Secretary.

Lane Seminary, May 5, 1897.

It affords the Board of Trustees great satisfaction to be able to report that the Seminary year just closed has been a marked success. The number of students in attendance has been exceeded in only seven of the past twenty-six years, and is considerably above the average number in attendance during this period. The progress made in all departments has been very satisfactory, as is shown by the report of the Examiners given above. Fourteen students were graduated at the close of the year.

The Board regretted the necessity of reducing, at the opening of the year, the financial aid usually given to students. Many of the students who enter Lane are dependent on the Board of Education and the Seminary for the means to pursue their studies. The reduction of $20 by the Assembly Board, and a like reduction by the Seminary, subjected a number of the students last year to serious inconvenience. The receipt of accrued unpaid interest by the sale of Kansas Pacific bonds enables the Board to announce that the Seminary expects to give next year the usual aid to students without reduction; and it is earnestly hoped that the Board of Education may be able to do the same.

The resignation, by Prof. E. D. Morris, D.D., LL.D., of the chair of Systematic Theology was reported to the General Assembly of 1895, with a statement of his willingness to continue his work until his successor should be ready to enter upon his duties. Dr. Morris organized the work for the year just closed in a most efficient manner, and gave an unusual amount of instruction until January 1, 1897, when he retired from active connection with the Seminary which he had so long and so ably served. His retirement was the occasion of a banquet in his honor, given by those who are officially connected with higher education in Cincinnati and its vicinity, and by other friends of the Seminary. The occasion was a memorable one —a just recognition of his eminence as a scholar and teacher, and a fitting close to the distinguished service which he had rendered Lane Seminary. Dr. Morris is retired as Professor Emeritus, with an annual salary of $1500.

Prof. Henry Goodwin Smith, whose election to the chair of Systematic Theology was reported to the General Assembly of 1896, entered upon his duties January 1, 1897, and has made an auspicious beginning. He has been most cordially welcomed by the Presbyterian pastors of the city and vicinity, and by the citizens generally. He was formally inaugurated on May 6, in connection with the commencement exercises.

At the annual meeting of the Board, on May 5, the resignation by Prof. Henry W. Hulbert of the chair of Church History was accepted. Prof. Hulbert has entered upon his duties as co-pastor of the Old Stone Church, of Cleveland, O.

At this meeting the Board elected the Rev. David Schley Schaff, D.D., of Jacksonville, Ill., to the chair of Church History; and the Rev. Alexander B. Riggs, D.D., of Cincinnati, to the chair of New Testament Exegesis and Introduction.

Prof. Kemper Fullerton was reappointed Instructor of Hebrew and the Greek Gospels, and a small appropriation was made to secure such additional instructors and lecturers as may be needed to cover thoroughly the ground included in the course of instruction. The students who enter Lane Seminary in September next may expect the usual efficient instruction in all departments.

By order of the Board of Trustees,

Most respectfully submitted,

EMERSON E. WHITE,
President Board of Trustees.

ALEXANDER B. RIGGS, Secretary.

Lane Seminary, May 15, 1897.

V. UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

["The Assembly disavows all responsibility for the teaching of Union Seminary, and declines to receive any Report from its Board until satisfactory relations are established."—Minutes, 1893, p. 161.]

VI. DANVILLE THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

1. ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS.

THE Board of Directors of the Danville Theological Seminary presents to the General Assembly the following as its Forty-fourth Annual Report:

The Board is constituted of the following persons:

OFFICERS.

Rev. JAMES T. LAPSLEY, D.D., President.
Rev. WILLIAM C. CONDIT, D.D., First Vice-President.
Prof. A. B. NELSON, M.D., Second Vice-President.
Rev. ROBERT R. SUTHERLAND, D.D., Secretary.

Ministers.	Elders.
Term expires in May, 1898:
H. H. Allen, D.D.,	G. E. Wiseman,
W. C. Condit, D.D.,	W. H. Wherritt,
Maurice Waller, D.D.,	Andrew M. J. Cochran,
Francis J. Cheek,	J. L. Rhea,
R. R. Sutherland, D.D.,	J. T. Dwelly.
Term expires in May, 1899:
J. T. Lapsley, D.D.,	D. J. Curry,
L. F. Walker, D.D.,	A. B. Nelson, M.D.,
W. S. Fulton, D.D.,	H. V. Loving,
S. W. Boardman, D.D.,	L. B. Todd, M.D.,
E. L. Warren, D.D.,	John A. Simpson.

Ministers.	Elders.
Term expires in May, 1900:
J. P. Hendrick, D.D.,	J. I. Landes,
W. O. Goodloe, D.D.,	A. J. Grundy,
William B. Jennings,	F. B. Trussell,
J. K. Smith,	E. W. C. Humphrey,
W. J. Trimble, D.D.,	H. C. Baker.

This has been in some respects the most successful year since the resuscitation of the Seminary. The attendance of students was larger and the number of Presbyteries whence they came was also larger than in any past year, as may be seen from an examination of residences of students. A number of new Synods have been represented this year, indicating the good work the Seminary may be able to do as its special advantages shall become known. Nine Synods are represented in the catalogue. The Synods south of the Ohio river as they prosper will find their special needs met by the opportunities offered by this Seminary more and more.

Since the last report, the Seminary has suffered another great loss in the death of Dr. W. C. Young, who occupied the Chair of Homiletics and Pastoral Theology, and who was also President of Centre College. Dr. Young was a wise counselor and an able instructor. The instruction in this department has been given during the year by Rev. J. M. Worrall, D.D., in Homiletics, and by Rev. R. R. Sutherland, D.D., in Pastoral Theology. The Board has secured the services of Rev. John C. Ely, D.D., President of Caldwell College, in the department of Homiletics, and it retains Dr. Sutherland, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, in Pastoral Theology. The Chair of New Testament Literature and Exegesis, so long and so ably filled by Dr. Yerkes, is still vacant, but with a fair prospect of being filled during the year. In the meantime, Dr. Martin and Prof. Crawford will continue to give instructions in this department.

The Seminary will have two regular professors and three instructors during the coming year. While the income is limited, the Directors believe that the Seminary will be in all respects kept up to the high standard contemplated by its founders.

A course of instruction in vocal music was provided during this year, which was supplemented by special lectures by Dr. Sutherland on "The Management of Church Music."

The systematic study of the English Bible has formed a regular part of the Seminary course, and the students were fully instructed in Biblical criticism and kindred subjects.

A number of the students have been employed during the year by the Home Missionary Committee of the Presbytery of Transylvania in supplying vacant churches, with the approval of the Faculty as the proximity of these churches made it possible to do this work without interfering with the studies of the students. The students have, in other ways, had opportunities of engaging in Christian work and have maintained prayer meetings and other services among themselves.

The Trustees provided for a special course of lectures, which were delivered during this year as follows:

SPECIAL LECTURES.

Rev. JOHN C. ELY, D.D., Xenia, O.

First, Some Essentials of Success in Soul Winning; second, The Need of an Earnest Ministry; and third, Christianity and Socialism.

Rev. D. W. FISHER, D.D., Hanover, Ind.

First, The Coming King; second, The Christ of the Ages; and third, The New Psychology.

Rev. W. O. THOMPSON, D.D., Oxford, O.

First, The Apostolic Church and Its Problems; second, The Church of the Reformation and Its Problems; and third, The Modern Church and Its Problems.

Rev. W. S. BOARDMAN, D.D., Maryville, Tenn.

First, Limitations of Human Knowledge in Psychology; second, Limitations of Human Knowledge in Theology; and third, Limitations of Human Knowledge as Related to Revelation.

Rev. GEORGE S. BURROUGHS, D.D., Crawfordsville, Ind.

First, Inductive Old Testament Study in Relation to Old Testament Prophecy; second, Oral and Written Prophecy; Historical Survey; third, Prophecy in Israel; fourth, Prophecy in Judah; and fifth, Messianic Prophecy.

The Board has made provision for a similar course for the next year.

The Board of Trustees have under consideration the erection during the year of a Club House or Refectory, which will, if built, be of material assistance to the students, and will supplement in a desirable way the aid now given through scholarships to those needing help. It is believed that the expenses, already very low, can be considerably decreased in this way, besides adding to the comfort of the students.

I. STUDENTS.

The number of students attending the Seminary this year has been forty-one. Of these the following twenty-two matriculated this year: Robert C. McAdie, in the Senior class; David Demster, Harris C. Johnson and John W. McComb, in the Middle class: Claude Christensen, James M. Cornelison, Orland Gillette, Robert C. Jones, E. S. Marshall, Amos K. Matingly, Alexander Sharp and Albert B. Vanderlippe, in the Junior class; and James H. Armstrong, Thomas Barbee, Leonard A. Barrett, William H. Chapman, Aylmer B. Gould, Thomas P. Grant, Claude E. Leeper, John W. McMurray, Wallace T. Rainy, John R. Wilkie, who took the combined College and Seminary course, and were not yet made regular in the Seminary classes. In due course these students are expected to do all the work done by the regular students.

SUMMARY.

Senior class, 4; Middle class, 11; Junior class, 16; Combined course, 10. Total, 41.

GRADUATES.

The following three students have completed the course and have received the usual diplomas of graduation: Elmer A. Bess, T. Frank Walton, P. G. McCormack.

Two of these are already called to pastorates.

The annual address was given at the closing exercises by the Rev. J. M. LaBach, D.D., of Cincinnati.

II. FACULTY.

The Faculty as now constituted is as follows:

Rev. JOHN M. WORRALL, D.D., Biblical and Ecclesiastical History and Church Government.

Rev. CLAUDE B. H. MARTIN, D.D., Systematic Theology and Study of the English Bible.

Rev. CLARENCE K. CRAWFORD, A.M., Old Testament Languages and Exegesis and Biblical Antiquities.
Rev. R. R. SUTHERLAND, D.D., Pastoral Theology.
Rev. JOHN C. ELY, D.D., Homiletics.

III. THE LIBRARY.

Last year the Library received a valuable addition of books through the liberality of Mr. Anthony Dey, of New York city, consisting of four hundred and twenty-nine volumes, new and well selected. During this year Mr. Dey has added three hundred and two volumes. This collection comprises the most recent works of reference and the best commentaries. They are placed in a separate compartment, known as the "David C. Humphrey Library."

Dr. Yerkes bequeathed to the Seminary his carefully selected and valuable library, and it is now placed in a separate alcove known as the "Dr. Yerkes Library."

The recent additions to the Library have made it of great use to the professors and students, and have made up for our lack of means to bring the Library up to the highest point of efficiency.

The Report of the Board of Trustees will acquaint the General Assembly with the financial condition of the Seminary and the income and expenditures of the past year.

Respectfully submitted,
JAMES T. LAPSLEY, President.
ROBERT R. SUTHERLAND, Secretary.

8. Remarks.

Fifty-four members of the Senior class have received diplomas, and two have received certificates.

At the recent meeting of the Board of Directors, the Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, Adjunct-Professor, was elected to the full Chair of Ecclesiastical History.

Since the last meeting of the Assembly, the venerable Leroy J. Halsey, D.D., LL.D., Professor Emeritus in this institution, has entered into rest, after a long and useful career. The Board would return its thanks to God for his eminent services and his fidelity to this institution; for his learning, piety and influence. His memory lingers as a precious inheritance to all who have come within the circle of his varied ministry for Christ.

Respectfully submitted,

D. McCULLOCH, President.

Walter L. Rankin, Secretary.

Andrew J. McMurtry,	"	Oakland High School, Cal.
Rev. John Endter,	"	Eden College.

This makes a total of twenty-seven students who have been in attendance during the year, of whom ten have matriculated within the year. The eight members of the Senior class were all awarded diplomas of graduation. This is the second largest class that has gone out from our Seminary, and they will all probably find fields of labor upon this coast. It is gratifying to note the increase in the proportion of students in the Seminary who have received a thorough collegiate preparation, and the Board is pleased with the evidences of the excellent work done by our able Faculty.

The work of the faculty has been supplemented during the year by a number of lectures upon appropriate subjects in connection with the work of the ministry by prominent ministers of the coast and elsewhere.

4. The Library.

There are about 19,000 volumes in the library, among which are a goodly number of new books, up-to-date and well suited for the use of Faculty and students in the different departments of study. During the past year, however, but few books have been purchased, owing to lack of funds for that purpose.

5. Scholarships.

There are seven endowed scholarships, as follows:

1. The John Williams Buckley Scholarship, founded by Mrs. E. A. Buckley, of Brooklyn, New York.
2. The Davenport Scholarship, founded by John D. Thomson, of San Francisco.
3. The John A. Mackenzie Scholarship, founded by Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., of San Francisco.
4. The Williston Scholarship, founded by Mrs. Emily B. Hopkins, of San Francisco.
5. The David Jacks Scholarship, founded by David Jacks, of Monterey, Cal.
6. The David Jacks Scholarship, founded by David Jacks, of Monterey, Cal.
7. The Agnes Booth Hodge Nicholl Scholarship, founded by John Nicholl, of Oakland, Cal.

It is with sorrow that we report the death of Mr. A. S. Evans, a member of this Board since last October. He had entered earnestly into the work, when suddenly the Master called him to cease from labor and enter into rest.

Rev. John H. Kerr, D.D., who had rendered excellent service as an instructor during the previous year, has been elected professor of Greek Exegesis and New Testament Literature, and doubtless arrangements will soon be made for his installation.

The Montgomery Memorial Chapel, erected to the memory of the late Mr. Alexander Montgomery, the munificent benefactor of the Seminary, has been completed. The remains of Mr. Montgomery were deposited in the vault connected therewith on April 22, 1897. The chapel is a gem of beauty, and was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies on the morning of April 28, when an address was delivered by Rev. Edward Graham, D.D., a member of the Board of Directors, on "Conservatism in Religion."

In the afternoon the commencement exercises were held in Scott Library Hall, with an address by Rev. William Martin, of Santa Rosa, Cal.

The quarter-centennial celebration of the founding of the Seminary was held in San Francisco, April 29. A rally of Presbyterians was held in Calvary Presbyterian Church at 2 P.M. Addresses were made by Rev. William Alexander, D.D., Senior Professor, on "The Making of the Seminary;" by Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., Professor of Apologetics and Missions, on "A Forward Look;" and by Rev. George Mooar, D.D., of the Pacific (Congregational) Theological Seminary. In the evening a banquet, in honor of the occasion, was held which was largely attended, and at which a number of appropriate addresses were given. This event marks an important era in the history of the Seminary. Starting a quarter of a century ago with nothing, it now has a site of fourteen acres of ground in one of the most healthful and beautiful spots in California, three large, substantial Seminary buildings, four houses for the professors, a good library of 19,000 volumes, a Faculty of six able professors and one efficient instructor, a class of students gradually increasing in number, and over $700,000 worth of property. But increasing growth makes larger demands for funds to meet the ever-increasing expense. There is now need of more money to meet current expenses, to replenish the library, and to endow scholarships. We respectfully call the attention of the friends of our work to this fact, and express the desire and hope that there may be found those whom God has blessed with abundance, who are ready to provide the additional means needed for these objects.

8. General Remarks.

The number of graduates for the year is five (see seventh year).

The total number in attendance has been thirty-seven; one student, Mr. Steenmiller, died during the year.

Times have been very trying to this institution, limited to such small means. One gift, consisting of real estate in a Western city, is a practical loss through depreciation of values.

Mention should be made of the untiring services of the Rev. Charles E. Schaible, financial agent of the institution; also of the continued liberality of the churches of the West. In this liberality the German churches have year by year done a noble part.

The permanent funds of the institution are not only safely but advantageously placed, yet our endowment is so small that we are constantly limited in our efforts to supply those Germans disposed to our Church, with a ministry. The Board took order at its last meeting to secure the $50,000 endowment for which the General Assembly has commended us to the Presbyterian Church. Effort will be made during the coming year to secure this sum, which is so necessary to the full working of this school.

We would respectfully ask the General Assembly to again commend us to the Church for this sum, and in some fitting manner lay before it our needs.

Certain presuppositions underlie the work of the Presbyterian Church in behalf of the German population.

1. That all Germans, having become residents of this country after they have reached the age of twenty years, are unable to master the English tongue sufficiently to understand the Gospel when spoken in English.

2. That all such Germans think in the German tongue, and are therefore under the necessity of translating the Gospel into German as they hear it spoken, in order to understand it.

3. That the demand for a German ministry will exist only so long as adult German immigration continues.

4. That this immigration is likely to continue for many decades still.

The history of our German Presbyterian Churches, rather than any theory as to what should occur, gives us many illustrations that ours is a work of transition. The children attend our public schools, learn the English tongue, form English-speaking alliances, and pass into full-fledged Americanism by a natural process. So uniform is this result, that the Church at large need have no fear that the tendency of our German work will be to found, or perpetuate Germany in America. When immigration ceases our German work will pass into English naturally; meantime, if the German people are to hear the Gospel, they must hear it in their own tongue. If they are to hear it in their own tongue, they must hear it through a German ministry. If they are to have a German ministry, our German seminaries should have the cordial and ample support of the Church at large.

We consider our problem and the work imposed by it as simple as the foregoing statement. Grateful acknowledgment to God is made for the favors of the past year, and His blessing invoked for the future.

Respectfully submitted,

ADAM W. RINGLAND,
President of the Board.

XI. THE GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF NEWARK, N. J.

The Board of Directors of the German Theological School of Newark, N. J., by the direction of the Presbytery of Newark, present to the General Assembly their Report for the year ending May 10, 1897.

Rev. Henry Jacob Weber, Ph.D., Professor of Hebrew Exegesis and Church History.
Rev. Karl Gottfried Theodore Hock and Rev. Jacob Schmitt, Tutors in the Academic Department.

3. The Students.

Thirty-six students have been in attendance throughout the year, fifteen of whom have been in the Theological department, and twenty-one in the Academic or Preparatory department.

The graduating class, in 1896, had eight members. The graduating class in June next, in case certain delinquent studies are completed, will have five members.

The three members of the Pastoral Year have two of them been the missionary supplies of the Manhattan Park German Mission, and of the Forest Hill Immanuel German Church in Newark, and the third has preached as opportunity has offered.

Nine applicants for the regular course and two applicants as hospitants, have appeared, of whom eight were received with the two hospitants.

The hospitants were active pastors in other German denominations, and found themselves unable to continue their studies.

Five only of the applicants have continued throughout the year and are all in the Academic or Preparatory course.

4. The Finances.

The Endowment.—Including the Seminary property, the total endowment on May 4, 1896, was	$89,702 16

Current Expense and Current Income.

The total expense in regular current disbursements has been,	$11,697 74
The total amount received has been,	10,370 46
Leaving a deficit for the year of,	$1,327 28
The total deficit on May 4, 1896, was,	$8,236 95
Added to the current deficit during the year,	1,327 28
The total deficit on May 1, 1897, was,	$9,564 23

Repairs.

For the repairs of the Seminary building there has been expended,		$293 80
For which purpose, German contributors have provided,	$228 80
The German contributors provided also for repairs last year,	1,001 64
Making a total for this purpose in two years of,	$1.230 44, in addition to their generous contributions for the current expense.

The year has been subject to peculiar embarrassments. The financial depression of the general home missionary work of the Church, precluded the Board of Home Missions from responding to the needs of our German population. As our graduates are almost entirely home missionaries at first, this retrenchment gave them little or no employment from the Board. It is a far more severe trial for a young German, who has with self-denial made his way through the Seminary, to be left at his graduation without a church or missionary field, than for a young American. The temporary inconvenience was embarrassing and was in two or three instances severe. The providential openings, however, have so occurred that all of the members of the last class but one, who is pursuing the Pastoral Year, obtained a settlement in churches or missions during seven months of the year.

The financial depression has also affected both our expenses and our income. Through the diminution of the appropriations to our students by the Board of Education, our own expense in the support of students has been increased. The decrease of the number of contributors, and the decrease of the amount in church collections and personal contributions, have rendered our income less than last year. This has resulted in a deficit, instead of the slight surplus which we were able to report in May one year ago.

On the other hand, the demands which lie nearest us in space and which are most immediate in time, have presented themselves with conspicuous urgency. Our great metropolitan centre is taking on a new form. Greater New York is passing from an ideality to an actuality. The proclamation to the world that this centre is now the second great city of the world, in itself will bring to it a great increase of population. The Commissioners in their report on the new charter declare the man now living who will see the present population* doubled. Within the marvelous result already attained and within the marvelous realities of the future, lies a great polyglot population. Vaster still will be the polyglot influence which will pervade our whole land, and touch with its impress of mighty power the wide world. Great changes of the past, foretoken great changes of the future. The words of the Episcopal Bishop of New York, at the bicentenary of Trinity Church, give significant expression to a common expectancy: "One's mind goes back this morning, over all that story of vicissitude which

* The present population of Greater New York is 3,000,000 or 3,300,000, without reckoning the 750,000 on the Jersey side of the Hudson to be doubled also.

divides the New York of 1697 from the New York of 1897. . . . . The rule, the speech, the structures, all have changed, and greatest of all those simpler elements of its original constitution. Dutch, English, Huguenot have been submerged, as it were, by an influx of peoples and tongues—European, African, Asiatic—which seem likely sometimes to make this, like Constantinople, one of the foremost polyglot cities in the world."

It is a great thing to perceive the elements of this mighty transition. It is a far greater thing to hold steadfastly to the supply of its need, and to guide its power into healthful development.

Our Seminary has been set, by Providence, in its place for a vigilant and a steadfast service. That service seems more and more to be first of all to this mighty cosmopolitan life which is closing around it as a centre—beyond this to like centres in the land—and still beyond to the whole land and to the whole world.

We ask for our institution, from Christian men and Christian women who have means, a place in their contributions and bequests, and from our whole Church, material support and spiritual sympathy, and fervent prayer to Him who guides a conquering and triumphant kingdom.

CHARLES E. KNOX, President.

In accordance with the agreement between the Committee of the General Assembly on Theological Seminaries and the Board of Trustees of Lincoln University, the charter of the University has been changed so as to be represented by the following text—the last four paragraphs of which contain verbally the amendments to the charter conferring upon the General Assembly the control of the instruction, and the use of the funds of the Theological department.

"Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted, That there shall be and hereby is established in Lower Oxford, in the County of Chester, an institution of learning for the scientific, classical and theological education of colored youth of the male sex, by the name, style and title of 'Lincoln University,' under the care and direction of a Board of Trustees, not exceeding twenty-one in number, who, with their successors in office, shall be and hereby are declared to be one body politic and corporate, in deed and in law, to be known by the name, style and title of 'Lincoln University,' and by the same shall have perpetual succession, and shall be able to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded in all courts of law and equity, and shall be capable in law and equity to take, hold and purchase, for the use and benefit of said University, lands, goods, chattels and moneys of any kind whatever, by gift, grant, conveyance, devise, or bequest from any person or persons whomsoever capable of making the same, and the same from time to time to sell, convey, mortgage, or dispose of for the use and benefit of said University; and they shall have power to have a common seal; to erect such buildings as may be necessary for the purposes of said University, and provide libraries, apparatus and other needful means of imparting a full and thorough course of instruction in any or all the departments of science, literature, the liberal arts, classics, law, medicine and theology, and to do all and singular the matters and things for the purpose of this act which any corporation or body politic may or can do for the well-being of said University, and for the due management and ordering of the affairs thereof, which may not be contrary to the Constitution and laws of this State or of the United States.

"That the said Lincoln University shall be authorized to hold real and personal property, the annual income of which shall not exceed the sum of $150,000. That the Board of Trustees of Lincoln University, which shall consist of twenty-one members, shall arrange themselves in seven classes of three each by lot, of which classes the first shall serve one year, the second shall serve two years, the third shall serve three years, and when vacancies occur, and ever afterwards, they shall be filled by persons elected by the Board of Trustees, who shall choose three Trustees annually to serve for seven years, as well as fill all vacancies made by death, resignation, or otherwise; Provided, however, That if the Board shall at any time fail to elect successors to those whose term of office has expired, the same shall continue to act as members of the Board, until others shall have been chosen in their place.

"That the Board of Trustees shall have power to purchase, put up, or procure suitable buildings; they shall have power to appoint and remove the necessary professors and teachers, and name their salaries; to establish rules and regulations for the government of the institution; to appoint such officers and agencies for their own body as may be deemed expedient, and to adopt and establish their own by-laws and regulations.

"That the Trustees shall faithfully apply all moneys and other effects that may come into their hands, for the sole benefit of the said institution, nor shall any bequest or donation made to and accepted by the said Board for specific educational objects, ever be diverted from the purposes designated by the donor.

"That the University shall be open to the admission of colored pupils of the male sex of all religious denominations, who exhibit a fair moral character, and are willing to yield a ready obedience to the general regulations prescribed for the conduct of the pupils, and the government of the institution.

"That no misnomer of said corporation shall defeat or annul any gift, grant, devise, or bequest to or from the said corporation; Provided, That the intent of the parties shall sufficiently appear upon the face of the gift, will, or writing whereby any estate or interest was intended to be passed to said corporation.

"That the Trustees of said University shall have full power to confer all such literary degrees and academic honors and titles, as are usually conferred by university corporations.

Amendments, 1897.

"That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, shall hold a veto power in the election of professors in the Theological department in the said Lincoln University. That nothing shall be done or taught in the Theological department of said institution contrary to the constitution and government of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. That all property and funds of whatever kind henceforth given to said institution for theological education therein shall be held by said corporation in trust for the said, the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, for the purpose of theological education in said institution, unless the donors of said property or funds shall designate otherwise.

"And that in the event of the violation of any of the terms of these amendments, or of the misuse or diversion by said corporation of the property or funds so held in trust, then the General Assembly of said Church shall have power to enforce the same and to protect the trust on which such property and funds are held, in any civil court having jurisdiction over said corporation, in such manner and in the name of such person or corporation as the said General Assembly may by resolution direct."

Under this agreement, fortified by the amendments of the charter, we report to the General Assembly the following special funds and their income for the past year:

Until this department is fully and distinctly endowed, it must be dependent in part upon the general income of the University.

A proximate statement of what should be included in such an endowment may be made as follows: A Professorship fund to supplement the deficiency of the present endowments, and to provide for the necessity of investing at a lower rate of interest. The increase of the Scholarship fund. The endowment of other necessary chairs of instruction. The erection of the necessary buildings for the accommodation of the professors and students, and for the work of instruction.

We, therefore, respectfully ask the General Assembly, on the ground of the full control which the Assembly has acquired over the instruction and the funds of the institution, and of the necessity which this imposes on the University to subject all funds used for theological education to the control of the Assembly, to express its satisfaction with the University under its amended charter, and to recommend the work of the University to the favor of the Church, in substance, as follows:

Resolved, That in view of the fact that the Trustees of Lincoln University upon conference with the Assembly's Committee on Theological Seminaries have, by amendment of its charter, put its Theological department completely under the control of the General Assembly, both in respect to instruction and endowments: That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America hereby expresses its deep interest in Lincoln University, and especially in its Theological department; and that this school of learning for young colored men is hereby commended to the churches and their benevolent members for the liberal support of its whole work, and for the separate endowment of its Theological department.

The Board of Trustees has initiated a plan of endowment by which the friends of our colored fellow-citizens and fellow-Christians may gradually and yet speedily accomplish this desired result.

The separation of the departments will be made progressively, as provision is made for the distinctive courses of instruction in both the departments of Arts and Theology.

The additional chairs of instruction required in the Theological department will be established, as reliable provision is made for the very moderate salary of the professors.

The necessary buildings will be erected, as the funds for that purpose shall be supplied.

And the theological students will be aided by the permanent and annual scholarships made available for their needs.

And thus, while the aggregate of our needs is large, the friends of the cause may further it by even the smallest contributions.

The property of the University held distinctively for theological education represents about $109,000. The income from this amount would not be sufficient for the separate expenses of the department.

The Committee on Endowment consists of the Rev. Robert F. Sample, D.D., New York City; Rev. N. G. Parke, D.D., Pittston, Pa.; William H. Scott, Esq., Germantown, Pa.; and Rev. I. N. Rendall, D.D., Lincoln University, Pa.

We invite the ministers and elders of the Presbyterian Church, and any of its members who feel an interest in the thorough education of Christian ministers for our American population, black as well as white, to visit the University, or correspond with us upon this subject. We will be glad to be the agents of the Church in meeting this pressing want of the country and of the times.

The attention of considerate friends is invited to the following statement of special wants:

The separate and adequate endowment and equipment of the Theological department. A beginning could be made with any contribution towards the Professorship fund, the Scholarship fund, and the Building fund.

The endowment of the Chair of Mental and Moral Science. The erection of the Chair of Church History into a separate Chair of Instruction.

The more adequate endowment of the existing Chairs of Instruction.

The provision, by endowment, for the care and improvement of the property of the University.

A domestic laundry. A system of electric lighting. An adequate water supply. A common heating apparatus.

The completion of the one hundred scholarships for the perpetual education of worthy young men, whose diligence, talents and piety give promise of usefulness. Twenty-two, or one-fifth, of them have already been endowed.

A new Dormitory.

A Christian Association Hall.

A Gymnasium.

The Vail Memorial Library, now in course of erection, is most gratefully welcomed. But the University ought to have a small fund for the annual increase and care of the library.

The whole work of Lincoln University needs immediate enlargement. A comparatively small addition to her funds would greatly increase her power for usefulness. Lincoln University is a living, growing institution. It is a mistake to think that because her resources are increasing, her needs are becoming less. Our needs are the needs of the people for whom we are working. The needs of Christian teachers and ministers is only just beginning to be felt, and is by no means overtaken.

If we are doing any good, there is the same reason for increasing our efficiency. A college that has no wants has no vigor of life. Lincoln University would be recreant to her duty and opportunity if she did not enlarge her plans in behalf of a cause so needy and so hopeful.

The University is consecrated to the glory of God and the good of man. It has received the indorsement of all who are acquainted with its work. The friends of the education of "colored youth" are cordially invited to investigate its plans and operations, and coöperate with its officers in conferring the benefits of a liberal Christian culture on those who prize and so much need this blessing.

By order of the Faculty of Theology,

ISAAC N. RENDALL, President.

Lincoln University, Pa., May 18, 1897.

The closing year shows that Biddle University is still being greatly favored in its important work of Christian higher education. Owing to the financial depression and the consequent difficulties in the way of providing support for students both by their own efforts and through the assistance of others, there has been a slight falling off in the number in attendance; nevertheless the work has gone steadily forward with increased efficiency.

The closing exercises of the School of Theology will take place June 21, and the commencement of the School of Arts and Sciences the same day. The number of students in the School of Theology is twenty, two less than last year.

The greater and urgent demand for an educated and upright ministry is kept in view, and so the thorough preparation of men for that service is continued a leading feature of the work of the institution.

In all there are sixty-one students in the school who have the ministry in view. There have been a goodly number of conversions among the students, nearly all of whom united with the Presbyterian Church.

The total enrollment for this year is 222, a decrease from last year. The usual special care has been taken to educate them up to the condition of self-support.

The total number of graduates is 391, distributed as follows: Theological, 74; Classical and Scientific, 121; Normal and Preparatory, 196. Sixty-three are actually serving Presbyterian churches as ministers.

It is not forgotten that industrial education, as one of the essentials in solving the problem of industrial emancipation for the negroes of the South, should be encouraged, and so it is still desired to enlarge the facilities in that department of the work.

The institution is daily growing in favor, and those who know of its great work are more and more appreciating its value. The recommendation of the General Assembly at Washington for the endowment of the University has not been carried out, but steps have been taken recently looking in that direction, the most important of which is the recent appointment of Rev. W. H. Weaver, D.D., as a financial agent for the institution. The friends of Biddle University should not rest satisfied until the school is adequately endowed.

Endowments will:

1. Permit an enlargement of the facilities and usefulness of the School of Industries and other necessary improvements.

2. Enable Biddle to cope with the demand for scholarship aid, supplementary or as a whole, to indigent, worthy students.

3. Place Biddle University upon a secure foundation, where the Presbyterian Church stands pledged to place it, by what the Master has enabled her to do through this institution for the highest emancipation of the negro in the South, and by the more promising future, under the Divine blessing.

4. Endow Biddle, and $15,000 of the current income of the Freedmen's Board from the churches will become available for the general work. Thus to endow Biddle will be to furnish means for greatly enlarging our whole work in the South, and the reproach of non-aggressiveness in reaching out and occupying needy fields will be taken away.

In Biddle University the Presbyterian Church has its most powerful instrument for reaching out and uplifting the negro.

Respectfully submitted,

D. J. SANDERS, President.

XIV. OMAHA THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

THE Board of Directors of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Omaha, Neb., respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Sixth Annual Report, for the year ending April 14, 1897.

Rev. Joseph J. Lampe, Ph.D., Professor of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis.

Prof. J. M. Wilson has felt constrained by the pressing claims of his pastoral duties to resign the chair of English Bible, which he has filled with great fidelity and much self-sacrifice during the past three years. The Board decided in the circumstances to accept the resignation, and due provision will be made for the work of this department.

3. The Students.

Thirty-one students have been in attendance during the year. Of these Rollin E. Blackman was admitted to the Senior class by dismissal from McCormick Seminary, and the new students admitted to the Junior Class were:

Charles Augustus Arnold,	Hastings College.
Oscar Bostrom,	N. Y. State Normal.
Charles F. Ensign,	Moody's Biblical Institute.
Charles H. Fleming,	Iowa College.
Ralph H. Houseman,	Hastings College.

Arthur P. Vaughn,	Lenox College.

GRADUATE STUDENTS.

Two graduate students were also received, viz., Rev. David Donaldson and Rev. Alexander Litherland.

The members of the Senior class passed their examinations satisfactorily and were granted certificates of graduation. Their names are:

Rollin E. Blackman,	Kansas State University.
Knox Boude,	Carthage College.
Alfred E. Coe,	Pierre University.
Larimore C. Denise,	Princeton University.
Robert E. L. Hayes,	Del Norte College.
Henry E. Nicklen,	Reading High School, England.
William Parker,	Blackburn University.
William Regnemr,	Newark German Theological School.

4. Lectures.

A series of valuable lectures on the subject of Comparative Religions was delivered during the year to the Faculty and students by the Rev. J. D. Countermine, D.D., of Beatrice, Neb. The Seminary has also been favored with the very helpful and efficient services of the Rev. Peter Robertson, of Cincinnati, in training the students in a course of elocution.

5. Relations to the General Assembly.

In reply to the request of the General Assembly of 1896, urging the Boards of Control of our Theological Seminaries to take such measures as will carry out the plan approved by the General Assembly for the safeguarding of the funds and property under their care, we have to report:

1. The Articles of Incorporation of this Seminary already embody all the provisions included in the plan of Seminary Control adopted by the General Assemblies of 1895 and 1896.

2. The Legislature of the State of Nebraska, in its session of 1897 enacted a law,* a copy of which accompanies this Report, conferring upon Theological Seminaries the right to grant to the supreme courts of their churches the oversight and control asked by the General Assembly and contemplated by our charter.

3. At the last meeting, this Board formally reënacted its Articles of Incorporation in order to come under the provisions of the new law, and the necessary legal steps have since been taken to carry out the spirit and purpose thereof. This Seminary, therefore, will, after July 1, when the bill becomes operative, stand of record under the Nebraska statutes as incorporated to hold all funds and property committed to its care, as a trust for the Presbyterian Church, as represented in its General Assembly and as defined in its own Constitution, which has been approved by said General Assembly.

This Seminary is still without endowment or any permanent funds. It has been impossible in these years of universal financial stringency even to make a beginning in the matter of placing it upon a permanent basis. We are thankful to the favoring Providence of God that has permitted us to live and carry on our work. The need for this Seminary and its ability to perform the service for which it was undertaken become more apparent year by year, and we trust the time may not be far distant when the means shall be furnished that will secure to the Church the continuance and enlargement of this work which seems so vital to the interests of this great and important Home Mission field.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

ACT OF THE LEGISLATURE OF NEBRASKA.

A bill for an Act to amend section 19, chapter 16 (being general section 1694) of the Compiled Statutes of 1895, and to repeal said original section and to add thereto provisions relating to the holding of property in trust for purposes of theological education, and to provide for enforcement of said trust and the administration thereof.

Be it Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

SEC. 1. Section 19, chapter 16 (being general section 1694) of the Compiled Statutes of 1895, be amended to read as follows:

The trustees of any university, college, theological seminary, or academy, may hold in trust any property, devised, bequeathed or donated to such institution upon any specific trust consistent with the object of said corporation. Provided, however, that any corporation formed for the purpose of providing theological education, or giving religious instruction, or for the purpose of maintaining and operating a theological seminary in connection with, or on the part of, any religious sect, association or denomination, is hereby authorized and empowered to set forth in its articles, or certificate of incorporation, as a part of the same, the name of the religious sect, association or denomination, with which it is connected, and to declare that it shall acquire and hold its real and personal property in trust for the purpose of theological education or instruction, according to the standards of said religious sect, association or denomination, and it is further authorized and empowered to grant to the supreme court or other ecclesiastical body of such religious sect, association or denomination, whether the same be a conference, presbytery, synod, general assembly, convocation, or otherwise, the right to approve the election of its directors, trustees, professors, teachers and instructors, without which approval the election of said directors, trustees, professors, teachers and instructors shall not be valid, and it is further authorized and empowered to grant to said supreme court or other ecclesiastical body of such religious sect, association or denomination, authority to appear in any court of competent jurisdiction in the name of such person as it may designate for and on its behalf, to protect the trust in and to said property so declared in said articles of incorporation, and to provide against the misuse of the same, and to enforce the rights conferred on said supreme court or other ecclesiastical body of such religious sect, association or denomination, by the terms of said article or certificate of incorporation; and it is further authorized and empowered to set forth, in its articles or certificate of incorporation, such other rights as to the administration of the purpose for which it is organized, and not inconsistent with the laws of this State, or of the United States, as said incorporations may desire to confer on said supreme court or other ecclesiastical body of such religious sect, association or denomination, and said supreme court or other ecclesiastical body of such religious sect, association or denomination, shall possess and exercise all the rights and powers so set forth in said articles or certificate of incorporation. Provided, further, any corporation heretofore formed for the purpose of providing theological education or giving religious instruction or for the purpose of maintaining and operating a theological seminary in connection with or on the part of any religious sect, association or denomination, which has been incorporated under the laws of this State, whether by special act of the legislature or otherwise, may avail itself of the provisions of the preceding section as a part of its articles or certificate of incorporation, and may declare the trust on which it holds and for which it acquires its property, and may confer on the supreme court or other ecclesiatical body of such religious sect, association or denomination, any or all of the rights, powers and privileges provided by this section to be conferred on corporations hereafter organized, and may accept the provisions of this section by a vote of the majority of the trustees of said corporation present at a regular meeting, and when so accepted, a certified copy of such acceptance, together with a certified copy of the declaration of trust on which it holds and for which it acquires its property, and of the rights and powers which, pursuant to the provisions of this section, it desires to confer and has conferred upon the supreme court or other ecclesiastical body of such religious sect, association or denomination, shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and when so filed the same shall become and be a part of the charter of said corporation, and said supreme court or other ecclesiastical body of such religious sect, association or denomination, shall possess and exercise all of the rights and powers so set forth in said articles or certificate of incorporation.

SEC. 2. That said original section 19 (general section 1694) of the Compiled Statutes of 1895 be and the same hereby is repealed.

Abstract of the Ninety-fifth Annual Report.

In reviewing the various departments of its work the Board finds it necessary to make frequent allusions to circumstances and causes which had their origin in preceding years. This has been rendered the more necessary by the fact that the last four or five years form a unique and, in some respects, exceptional period in our country's history. Political, social and financial storms swept over the land, doing damage that will require years to repair. Strong banks having millions of dollars lying idle were not able to loan because there was little or no demand for money. Important railways, supposed to be solvent, passed into the hands of receivers for want of traffic to meet expenses. Many of the factories of New England, of the Middle States, and of the West, had either to close their doors or to reduce the number of their workmen. Tens of thousands of industrious men and women were unable to find employment by which they could support their families. Extensive strikes were inaugurated in the coal fields of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, which compelled tens of thousands of respectable and industrious operatives to beg bread. A formidable army of malcontents marched across the country to the national Capitol to demand legislation for the improvement of their condition. An uprising of formidable proportions took place in Chicago, which disturbed for a time the peace of that community, and threatened to cast the whole country into anarchy.

The result of all this is readily told. Capital quietly retired into the vaults of our great trust companies; millions of spindles in New England and other places were stopped; the fires in many of the great furnaces of Pennsylvania and Ohio were put out, and our interstate and foreign commerce gradually decreased in bulk and value. Multitudes of men were compelled to draw on the earnings of former years to support their families. Even the revenue of the United States Government showed a diminution of from $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 a year. In view of this condition of things it is not strange that our hospitals and orphan asylums, our Tract and Bible Societies, and especially our Missionary Boards should suffer a serious falling off in receipts.

The Finances of the Board.

Financially the Home Board is not an exception among the Boards of our Church, nor even among those of sister churches.

Comparison of Debts.—In the programme prepared for this year's week of prayer, a table is given, setting forth the debts of a few of our largest evangelical denominations. (See Annual Report).

Decline in Receipts.—Owing to the hard times and other causes there was a gradual falling off in the receipts of the Home Board during the years 1893-94, 1894-95, and 1895-96. The financial panic struck the country during the summer of 1893, and in a short time affected every department of business. As might be expected, the Home Board at once felt its effect. Its income was reduced during the year 1893-94, $191,000. The deficit in the receipts of the year 1894-95 amounted to $112,414.98. There was during the year 1895-96 a falling off of no less than $213,000; the receipts of the whole year, exclusive of what was received from the Memorial fund, being only $730,000, as against $943,000 during the year 1892-93, though all of this was not available for current expenses. With this diminished income the Board had to provide in the best way it could for a work that was as yet undiminished. It was not within the power of the Board directly to readjust or to curtail the work in the field, because that is the duty of the Presbyteries. Nor is it possible even for the Presbyteries always to adjust their financial affairs after the strict method of a business corporation. The doors of the mission church cannot be closed nor the agreement made with the missionary canceled by a simple resolution of Presbytery or Board. Sacred interests and solemn pledges are involved which cannot be changed without a breach of faith. In the hope that the Church would provide the sum of money which the General Assembly had authorized the Board to expend, funds were borrowed for two or three years to pay the missionaries and carry on the work without curtailment.

Expectation of Relief.—From the close of the fiscal year, April 1, 1896, to the meeting of the General Assembly, May 21, there was a general lull, not only in the mission field, but throughout the Church. Expectations had been excited that important measures would be recommended by the General Assembly looking to the speedy cancellation of the Board's debt. In a sense, a number of these expectations were realized. In aid of the Board's treasury the General Assembly unanimously adopted the following resolution (see Annual Report).

REMOVING THE CAUSES OF THE FALLING OFF.—Believing that there existed some uneasiness, if not a want of confidence, in the minds of a few in the Church on account of the "Presbyterian Building," and that the vague reports circulated regarding the Board's administration were affecting its receipts, the General Assembly thought it wise to appoint two able Committees, the one to inquire into the facts concerning the building, and the other to confer with the Board in reference to the advisability of making changes in the methods of administration. Both Committees held their first meetings during the summer months. Meanwhile, the Church was anxiously waiting for their reports. The conferences which the Committees had with the Board were frank, thorough and most satisfactory, and a brief report of each was at once published in our Presbyterian newspapers. It is believed that those outlines, which foreshadowed the complete reports, had the happy effect of quieting the feelings of some, and of arresting, in a degree, the agitation in the Church.

INDORSEMENT BY SYNODS.—Almost without exception, the Synods at their autumn meetings expressed their entire confidence in the administration of the Board. A number passed such resolutions as greatly strengthened the hands of its officers and members. And the resolutions were not allowed to remain, as similar resolutions usually are, as dead letters on the Minutes, but the pastors and elders made strenuous efforts to carry them out into practical results.

The Presidential election had its usual paralyzing effect upon business, and, consequently, upon contributions to all benevolent and religious institutions. Improvement, however, both in spirit and gifts, began to appear about the middle of November. This, with the curtailment already made in the work, gave rise to a new hope that a reduction would soon be made in the debt of the Board.

TEN PER CENTUM REDUCTION.—Before issuing the circular informing the Presbyteries that lack of funds would necessitate a reduction in the Board's appropriations of ten per cent., the expense of the office in New York was materially reduced. This was effected mainly by reducing the force and allocating the duties of the dismissed ones to those who remained. Besides, the officers of the Board and those of the Woman's Executive Committee expressed their willingness to have their salaries reduced ten per cent.

With the view of making further reduction with the least suffering to the missionaries and the slightest injury to the work, the following circular was issued June 15, 1896 (see Annual Report).

THE HARD TIMES.—Whatever effect other causes may have had upon the Board's receipts there can be no doubt that the principal one has been the hard times. They materially embarrassed all kinds of business, as well as the financial interests of the Church. Even in prosperous times there is a season every year when funds have to be borrowed to pay the missionaries. After exhausting its borrowing capacity the Board was unable last summer to meet its obligations to the missionaries. Seeing that not one of the movements set on foot by the Assembly, the Synods, or the Presbyteries was relieving its financial embarrassment, it felt constrained to issue the following circular, which was signed by all its members (see Annual Report).

THE SITUATION.—Being unable, as in former years, to borrow money to pay the missionaries, the Board issued, in November, the following circular addressed to every minister in the Church, with the request that it be read from the pulpit (see Annual Report).

Generous responses came at once from individuals and churches. Some of the latter, like the Third Church of Pittsburgh, Pa.; the Third Church of Newark, N. J.; the First Church of Allegheny City, Pa.; the Presbyterian Church of Glens Falls, N. Y., and others furnished funds to pay all the back salaries of a number of missionaries. In order to cancel all arrears and prevent suffering during the winter, the Board was able finally to borrow an additional sum of $50,000. By this means all the missionaries whose reports had reached the Secretaries received their back pay by the middle of December.

THE IMPENDING CRISIS.—To keep up the flow of gifts that had begun to come into the treasury until the whole debt was paid or reduced to manageable proportions, a fourth circular was issued, entitled "The Impending Crisis." Like the one immediately preceding it, this was largely made up of the appeals and the inquiries of missionaries in the field (see Annual Report).

THE HOME MISSION FORCE.

THE BOARD.—The Board regrets that ill-health compelled Mr. John S. Kennedy, one of the most useful of its members, to resign. Every effort was made to persuade him to remain and continue his valuable service to the cause in which he had been so long interested, but it proved unavailing, because his physician ordered him to give up all duties which required close attention and mental anxiety. The Board feels assured, however, that Mr. Kennedy will not lose his interest in Home Mission work nor his regard for the missionaries.

MR. O. D. EATON.—With deep sorrow the Board announces the death, during the past year, of its Treasurer, Mr. O. D. Eaton. His name had become a household word in nearly every home in the Presbyterian Church. On the 22d of September, 1896, he died in a camp near Weld, Maine. Nothing had been left undone which promised relief, but his life could not be prolonged. He entered quietly into rest among the beautiful hills of his native State. "He fought a good fight and kept the faith."

MR. HARVEY C. OLIN.—At its monthly meeting, November 24, 1896, the Board unanimously elected Mr. Harvey C. Olin, of Chicago, to fill the place made vacant by the death of Mr. Eaton. For years Mr. Olin was an elder and superintendent of the Sabbath-school in the Hyde Park Presbyterian Church, Chicago. He has had thorough training and large experience as a business man.

THE MISSIONARIES.—The successful prosecution of our Home Mission work depends specially upon the number and character of the missionaries. Though the field has been rapidly growing in extent and demands, yet the Board has been compelled to reduce the number. For more than two years no new work was undertaken for the lack of funds to carry it forward. For the same reason, middlers in our Theological Seminaries have not been sent out to preach as heretofore during their summer vacation. A number of contiguous churches have been grouped and a whole district committed, in many cases, to the care of a pastor-at large. By this means the number of our missionaries and that of our missionary teachers has been materially reduced. The whole force during the past year numbered 1416, and they are distributed in the following manner, namely:

Alabama,	2	New Hampshire,	2
Alaska,	9	New Jersey,	2
Arizona,	10	New Mexico,	42

DEATHS.—During the year those whose names are given below passed from their earthly labors into the rest that remaineth to God's people. Among them are found the veteran of more than fourscore years whose bow abode in strength to the day of his departure, and the useful man cut down in the midst of his years; the trusted, laborious Synodical missionary and the model pastor and stated supply. Servants of God, well done! Their names are:

D. F. Kuffel,	Elk Grove, Cal.
Enrico Vinay,	San Francisco, Cal.
Thomas W. Russell,	Ottumwa, Iowa.
Andrew Axline,	Arlington, Kans.
James A. Menaul,	Albuquerque, N. Mex.
J. C. Sylvanus,	Mehama, Oreg.
Robert M. Wallace,	Lewistown, Pa.
Joshua Loughran,	White Lake, S. Dak.
W. K. Marshall,	Marshall, Tex.
Robert Williams,	Kamiah, Ida.

THE TRIALS.—Owing to different causes, Home Missionaries have always had their share of trials. The pioneers in the mountains of Tennessee, Kentucky and parts of Ohio, about the close of the last century, are said to have undergone severe sufferings. Deer skin was then a common article of clothing, and a blanket or a coverlid served for an overcoat in winter. Homespun cloth was worn only by the better classes, and this the preacher was glad to obtain. The best dwellings of the settlers were huts or log cabins; and stools, pots, a Dutch oven, or no oven at all, with a hard bed of straw or of bear and buffalo skins, constituted the usual furniture.

The heroism of these early pioneers has not died out in the Church. During the last three years not a few of our Home Missionaries suffered in degree, if not in kind, as much as those who labored among the mountains at the beginning of this century.

THE WORK OF HOME MISSIONS.

Three questions of importance to the General Assembly and the Church at large arise here in respect to the work carried on by the Home Board.

First.—How has the work been affected by the financial and political storms which have lately swept over the land?

Second.—Has the Board's inability to undertake new work for two consecutive years crippled the work very seriously?

Third.—In any readjustment of the work that may be made in the future, how much more, if any, curtailment will it bear?

All information on these subjects has been sought by the Board from those in the field who were believed to be most competent to judge. The Synodical missionaries are in touch with all the Presbyteries, churches and the individual missionaries, hence their answers have been particularly asked and are given below. They demand the profoundest consideration of this General Assembly.

THE WORK AND THE HARD TIMES.—"The hard times," writes the late and lamented Dr. James A. Menaul, "have seriously affected every church in the Synod of New Mexico, especially the Mexican churches. Presbyterians have suffered more than others, because Romanists will not give them work, or help, unless they return to the old faith, which they will not do. The times have tried and are trying the fidelity of our Mexican members, and sifting out the chaff, but we hope that in the end they may prove a blessing to our work."

IS THE WORK SERIOUSLY INJURED?—"The injury to our Home Missionary work in Utah," writes Dr. Wishard, "appears in two directions. First, the uncertainty that confronts our missionaries cuts the nerve of enterprise and cools the ardor of enthusiasm. Second, the loss of resources that must lie back of every large advance movement renders impossible achievements which could easily be made under better conditions. These are serious. Nevertheless, our brethren have not 'turned their back.' They have held on steadfastly. Yet we have found it impossible to fill such vacancies as had occurred from other causes. We are in danger of losing one or two men, as they seem to have lost heart in reference to early relief. But I am writing, preaching and trying to stimulate their courage —with what effect remains to be seen."

"I sacrificed an arm," writes Dr. Bailey, "to save this country; and I did it cheerfully. I feel that the curtailing of our Home Missionary work means the blighting of the prospects of that land for which I fought. This nation cannot grow and prosper in the future unless the selfishness that is in all our hearts shall be restrained by the preaching and practice of the Gospel of Christ. I see no hope for our nation except in the observance of God's laws, and if we cease our Home Missionary efforts as Christians, it is only a question of time until the Lord will leave us and we shall deserve the overthrow of our nation, which will surely come."

The Field of Home Missions.

Our Home Mission field is to be measured not by square miles, but by the number of souls to be saved. Extent of territory must be an element in the computation, but the millions of men and women inhabiting that territory form a vastly more important element. This should remove the impression that the field of Home Missions is becoming gradually smaller in extent and less in importance. With all the restrictions which Congress may put upon immigration, the population of the land is sure to increase with more or less rapidity for a hundred years. Though our public possessions remain without the addition of one square mile, yet it is believed by the ablest statisticians that with its present area it is able to support more than the population either of India or China. Hence, the Home Mission field must grow from our present 73.000,000 to 400,000,000 or 500,000,000 of thrifty and intelligent people. This possibility—nay, certainty—must appall every one who reflects, with its stupendous proportions!

Though we add not a square mile to our national domain, we must add to our new political divisions the privileges and the appliances of the highest civilization. In the near future all our present Territories will be divided into sovereign States, which should enjoy all the powers now possessed by the older commonwealths.

The New Field.—Within eight years the seven great States of North and South Dakota, Montana, Washington, Idaho, Wyoming and Utah have been admitted into the Union. Each constitutes an empire; all together embrace 632,000 square miles—equaling the area claimed by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Republic of France, the Empire of Germany, Holland and Belgium combined. Should this comparison be pronounced unfair, because these new States are in the mountains, and consequently incapable of sustaining as large a population as the European countries with which they are compared, the reply is that three of them at least, namely, North and South Dakota and Washington, are among the greatest of our wheat-growing States. Even the mountain States of Montana, Idaho, Wyoming and Utah possess many fertile valleys, great wheat fields, vast forests, and almost fabulous mineral wealth. It is generally believed that these mountain States will be, in time, the most populous of all our commonwealths. Irrigating companies are beginning already to tap the mountain lakes, turn the great rivers from their courses, and draw on the treasures of the snow, in order to render fruitful the foothills and the mountain sides. Much, however, remains to be done in all these States before they are brought into perfect harmony with the older States east of the Mississippi.

The four Territories of New Mexico, Arizona, Oklahoma and Indian, with their 306,030 square miles, are already knocking at the door of Congress for admission as sovereign States. Since each claims the necessary population to entitle it to that position, it is presumable that in a few years they will be admitted. The work to be done by our missionaries and missionary teachers in these States and Territories is prodigious.

THE OLDER PARTS OF THE FIELD.—It is hardly necessary to present the General Assembly with a detailed account of the needs of the older States. Most of the members have had their attention called again and again to our different Synodical Sustentation schemes. A few of the Synods have undertaken not only the care of their own weak churches, but in addition the strictly speaking missionary work within their bounds. All of them are prosecuting the work with commendable zeal and gratifying results.

There is one feature of mission work in the older States, however, that deserves special mention, and that is the work carried on among our foreign populations. This is growing annually in extent and importance. During the decade intervening between 1880 and 1890 nearly as many immigrants came to our shores from foreign countries as would people a State of the size of Pennsylvania, the second in the American Union. When the character and early training of these millions are taken into account the work to be done among them is stupendous. Within three score years and ten seven States of the size of Pennsylvania could have been, according to this rate, populated by immigrants who have come to our shores.

THE RESULTS OF HOME MISSIONS.

The results of Home Mission work are varied—far more so than the superficial observer imagines. Many of the most important and far-reaching of them can neither be measured, weighed, nor traced. Like light, heat and electricity, they are imponderable; and yet, like these same physical agents, they are powerful and transforming in their effect upon surrounding objects. They dissipate clouds and bring light out of darkness; they ripen fruit and remove mountains. Who can trace the path of a Gospel truth from the lips of the missionary into the heart of the frontiersman, or from its reception by the frontiersman through the successive steps of knowledge, assent and trust to the salvation of the soul? It is impossible to put a proper estimate on Christian character, or to set a sufficient value on a true Christian example. For these and other reasons many of the most precious results of Home Missions cannot be known until that day when all secrets shall be revealed.

INDIRECT RESULTS.—There is a secular or commercial value to Home Missions which even intelligent people scarcely, if ever, think of. The planting of a Christian church in a new community increases the value of real estate, advances the price of railway bonds, and confirms the faith of creditors in the ability of its merchants to pay their debts.

Religion is also an important factor in the social life of a people. But few of those who make no profession of religion could be persuaded to make their home or rear their children in a community where there is neither a Christian church nor a preacher of the Gospel.

The Christian religion, moreover, produces beneficent results in the domain of politics. Whilst the Board sends no one to preach politics, it believes that the Gospel faithfully preached produces important changes in the political relations of communities. There is no doubt that the preaching of our early missionaries strengthened the sentiments of patriotism which led the American colonies to place life, liberty and sacred honor on their country's altar. No one acquainted with history will question that the Gospel as preached by our pioneer missionaries in Illinois and Kansas had much to do with keeping those States from having the curse of slavery fastened upon them. When the life of our nation was imperiled by the late civil war, the Christian influence in favor of freedom, which emanated from the preached Word, had much to do with bringing the Northern, with some of the border States, to stand shoulder to shoulder in resisting the overthrow of the Federal Government.

Much less will any one deny that the establishment of most of our academies and colleges has been due to the direct or indirect influence of the Gospel. There is scarcely a college in the land which cannot trace its origin to Home Missions. The pioneer preachers of our Church established in different places both academies and colleges, to conserve the results of their mission labor. "Our colleges," says ex-President Chapin, of Beloit, "stand as fortresses to maintain the ascendency of the truth. In them recruits are trained for service on the field. They are living fountains in which science and religion—kindred elements—are blended according to their mutual affinity, to pour forth into the forming civilization healthful streams of intelligent and refined culture. On those who went out to take possession of the country in the name of the Lord, there was laid a necessity to provide for Christian education." The Home Board has recently laid the foundation of Henry Kendall College, in the Indian Territory, and Sheldon Jackson College, in Salt Lake City, Utah. In time these will be transferred to the fostering care of the Board of Aid for Colleges.

THE DIRECT RESULTS.—It is hardly necessary to state in this connection that the first direct results of Home Mission work are the conversion of the unconverted, the comforting of saints by preaching and pastoral labors, and the affording to all who desire them Gospel ordinances and the rites of a Christian burial. During the past year 13,300 persons were received into the Church by our Home Missionaries.

THE PROSPECTS OF HOME MISSIONS.

These are more encouraging than they have been in two or three years. The whole sky is brightening and presaging the approach of a better day.

THE FINANCIAL OUTLOOK.—As yet the times have not materially improved, either East or West. Nevertheless, unmistakable indications of a change for the better are seen in better feeling and greater confidence among business men. Even those who are disposed to look on the dark side of things readily admit that we have seen the worst and are beginning to recover. From past experience it is safe to predict that our people in the future will contribute to the cause of Missions measurably at least as the Lord shall prosper them.

THE COÖPERATION OF PRESBYTERIES.—Never, perhaps, have the Presbyteries taken a firmer hold of the work of Home Missions than since the meetings of Synods in the fall. At their recent meetings resolutions were adopted directing their Home Mission Committees to see that the cause was properly presented to every church. In not a few the duty of supplying the people with information regarding the nature, extent and need of the field was particularly emphasized. In addition to the distribution of literature, the preaching of sermons, and the holding of yearly Presbyterial Conventions, were recommended. If this is done, and we believe it will be, the work must proceed for years to come with increased vigor and efficiency. Is it too much to ask the Assembly to encourage all these and similar plans to awaken interest in the evangelization of our land?

WHAT IS NEEDED FOR FUTURE SUCCESS.—The brethren in the two Dakotas tell us that all they need is energetic, self-denying, competent men to push the work forward. Those in Montana say that the outlook in all its valleys and on its mountain sides is bright as the Syrian sky, but bristling with hard work. Those in Idaho and Wyoming assure us that with a few consecrated men our Church there will lengthen her cords and strengthen her stakes indefinitely. Those in Washington declare that their State waves from centre to circumference with golden grain ready for the reaper. Even Utah, corrupt and despotic as it is, is showing the effects of the transforming power of the Gospel. Within two years a pentecostal revival has been enjoyed by two or three of its thriving towns.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT.

Owing to the fact that the past year has been the first of the consolidated departments of Young People's work, it has been a year of experiment. It is, however, believed that the presentation of the work by one Secretary at headquarters has simplified to the young people of the Church the mission work done under its auspices.

Systematic study and thorough knowledge of the needs will insure increased receipts year by year. The department has therefore striven toward those ends, and has been encouraged by the larger number of contributing societies, and by the demands for literature and definite information.

The Mission School Work.

The title Mission School Work is not in all respects appropriate. For it does not set forth its true nature and character. The Board's work is not educational in a technical, but in a Christian sense. It is strictly evangelical in its nature, and missionary in its spirit.

The class of people reached by this agency of the Church could not be reached so easily or economicaly, if at all, by any other. In many of those communities where the Home Missionary meets with persistent resistance the teacher succeeds. The children are gathered into the school in which the spelling book, the Gospel songs, the Catechism and the Bible do their work. Here prejudices give way; a Sabbath-school is conducted, and before long the Home Missionary is invited by the people to undertake a church organization. Out of these small beginnings have grown sixty-nine churches.

Structural Work.—The school department is further charged with providing chapel schoolhouses in which both day and Sabbath-schools are taught and church services held. In many cases it furnishes teachers' homes, which are indispensably necessary in those communities in which no suitable place of abode can be found for them. These form an object lesson which has stimulated many a father to provide a better house for his family. Teachers' homes, when the work of the school has fulfilled its mission, are often converted into manses and chapel schoolhouses into churches.

For the schools of higher grade larger and more commodious buildings have been erected. Thus there has been secured to the Presbyterian Church 275 buildings of various descriptions, valued at $743,005. The title to all this property is vested in the Board or held in trust by the Presteries within whose bounds the schools are located, and it will in time pass into the hands of the local church, or will be handed over to college or academy boards of trustees.

The People.—Alaskans.—In eight schools, with twenty-five teachers, eleven tribes of Alaskans, besides several hundreds of Eskimos, are being educated and evangelized. Three of these are industrial schools.

The Indians.—The Indian problem remains still unsolved. The United States Government is conducting many excellent schools among the tribes, but it does not teach them religion. The Presbyterian Church feels that she ought not to turn over these half-educated, partly civilized, though in many cases converted Indians, to the Government schools, which are taught in many places by unchristian teachers. She must continue to provide Christian instruction, especially for those Indians who are particularly her wards.

The Mexicans.—Much good is being done among this class of our fellow-citizens. Our teachers are winning their way to the hearts of the old and the young. Prejudices are being broken down, and the way opened for a more extended evangelistic work among them. Many young men are preparing to teach and preach among their own people.

The Mormons.—Statehood has not solved the Mormon problem. The "Church of the Latter-Day Saints" is yet unchanged. The power of the priesthood is unbroken. Missionary zeal among them was never more intense. Agitation over the question of Statehood has made our work in Utah very difficult, and the actual fact of Statehood has aroused the bitterest antagonism of the Mormon leaders. Both our missionaries and our teachers tell us of the unusual activity of church authorities, and allege that the Statehood movement threatens to cripple our work.

Mountaineers.—Mission school work is carried on in the mountain regions of North Carolina, Tennessee, West Virginia and eastern Kentucky. This is the newest of the several fields, but not the least interesting or hopeful.

Evangelistic Work.—The Woman's Executive Committee pays the salaries of several ministers who superintend schools and at the same time supply churches. A number of Indians and Mexicans are supported as evangelists, who labor among their own people.

Women Bible Readers.—The General Assembly of 1895 authorized the employment of women Bible readers in the mountain districts of the South. Six consecrated women have been sent into the field, two into eastern Kentucky and four into West Virginia. They have been most cordially received everywhere by the people.

FUNDS.—The Woman's Executive Committee is charged with the responsibility of collecting funds for the maintenance of this important department of Home Missions.

SUMMARY.—There have been in operation during the year 117 schools, with 308 teachers and 8018 pupils. In connection with these schools and missions, 110 Sabbath-schools have been maintained, with 6754 scholars and 47 Young People's societies, with 1117 members. There have been reported 645 pupils hopefully converted.

MISCELLANEOUS.

AVERAGE SALARY.—The salary paid to a missionary by the Board at the present time is about $300. This amount, however, does not constitute his entire compensation. It is only a supplement to what the church which he serves is able to pay. In making application for aid, the church is required to forward to the Board a list of its members and adherents, with their subscriptions towards the support of the pastor or stated supply. A few of our Church members contribute $300 yearly towards the support of these missionaries to preach the Gospel as their substitutes. Some support as many as twenty or twenty-five. It is pleasant to add that, by their bequests, two or three now in heaven preach the Gospel through a number of such substitutes.

MONTHLY PAYMENTS.—According to the announcement, monthly payments to the missionaries began with the present fiscal year, April 1, 1897. The adoption of monthly payments (1) annuls the authority given in the past to retain as part of the pastor's salary collections taken in the churches, (2) renders it hereafter unnecessary, as well as impracticable, to make payments "on account," and (3) causes some modification of the "Terms of Agreement" (see Agreement).

SPECIAL TIMES FOR COLLECTIONS.—There is no month specially designated by the General Assembly for taking up collections for the Home Board, but the majority of our churches have chosen the month of November for that purpose.

The General Assembly has repeatedly recommended that all our Sabbath-schools take up a collection on the Sabbath following the National Thanksgiving Day for the educational work conducted by the Woman's Executive Committee, and that the Sabbath nearest Washington's Birthday be set apart as a special rally day in the interest of the Board's work.

Abstract of the Sixtieth Annual Report.

DECEASE OF EDWARD WELLS, ESQ.

The Board reports with sorrow the death of its honored member, Edward Wells, Esq., who died at his home in Peekskill, October 9, 1896. Mr. Wells was elected by the General Assembly of 1890, and had served the Board six years with conscientious fidelity. He was most highly esteemed as a man and as a most earnest and valuable Christian counselor. His judicial quality of mind, his profound conviction of the revealed truth of God, and his enthusiastic devotion to the great cause of the world's evangelization rendered his services most valuable to the interests of the Board.

FINANCIAL EMBARRASSMENTS.

The work of the Board during the year has been unusually arduous, owing to many problems growing out of the insufficiency of funds to meet the numerous demands made upon the treasury. As the year began with a debt, the Board has aimed at the most economical limitations compatible with its sacred obligations to missionaries, and to the conservation of its great and responsible work. If it closes the year with an increased debt, this is not due to any rash advances or enlargement of its work. It began the year with an appropriation of $897,311.45, which is less than that made at the beginning of the previous year. The financial report herewith submitted will show that, notwithstanding great caution observed in the Board's disbursements, there has been a constantly increasing deficit, due to the shrinkage of the various classes of receipts. One large item in this falling off will be seen in the total amount of legacies received as compared with those received last year. Upon a careful study of the causes of decline in contributions, it has been ascertained that the general condition of the country has undoubtedly had more or less effect.

REDUCTION IN APPROPRIATIONS.

In view of these various facts and influences, and the continued uncertainty which hangs over its financial outlook, the Board has been compelled to reduce to an unparalleled degree the scale of its appropriations for the coming year. It hopes, however, that the churches may so rally to the rescue and support of its great work in heathen lands that it shall speedily be restored to that upward grade of efficiency which, until the last three or four years, it had pursued.

THE WOMEN'S BOARDS.

The fidelity and the zeal of the various Women's Societies and Boards have commended themselves to the grateful recognition of the Board. For a full quarter of a century the powerful and unwavering coöperation of these organizations have been relied upon with unshaken confidence. But their contributions have naturally suffered more or less from the same causes that have affected other departments of the work.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.—The work of the various Young People's Societies has developed increasing efficiency, and is recognized as one of the most promising indications that the Spirit of God rests upon the youth of the Church, and that, in His own infinite wisdom, He is making preparation for the maintenance of the great cause of the world's redemption, when the fathers and mothers of the Church shall have been called to their rest.

THE FIELD SECRETARY.—The work of the Field Secretary, Rev. Thomas Marshall, D.D., of Chicago, has been carried on with increasing efficiency and success. His visits to the churches of the Pacific coast during the autumn were received with hearty welcome. During the year measures have been adopted by which the Board and its work are to be brought into closer relationship to the Synodical Committees of Foreign Missions.

SPECIAL GIFT FOR WORK IN AFRICA.—In the subjoined report on the Gaboon and Corisco Mission will be found references to the generous gift of Miss Margaret McLean, of Scotland, for the establishment of a Mission among the Dwarfs in Western Central Africa, under the auspices of the Board.

MR. SPEER'S TOUR.—Under a sense of the great need of a more intimate knowledge and a closer sympathy as between its officers and members and the missionaries on the field, the Board sent Mr. Robert E. Speer on a tour of visitation to its Oriental Mission fields. Amid incessant labors of various kinds, Mr. Speer was attacked with typhoid fever at Hamadan, by which he was confined for several weeks; but he was mercifully raised up from his sick bed and enabled to pursue his journey toward Bagdad, and the Missions of Siam, China, Korea and Japan. The Board records its profound gratitude to God for this gracious answer to prayer.

MISSION POLICY AND METHODS.—Through its Standing Committee on Policy and Methods the Board has been giving considerable attention to the great problems of missionary management. It thus aims to secure the most economical and efficient methods of work, and the best adaptation of means to the changed conditions of the present time as compared with the earlier stages of the great missionary enterprise.

PROBLEMS OF ADMINISTRATION.—In the present time of financial stringency and diminished receipts, the Board has experienced no little difficulty in so conducting its widely extended operations as to meet the approval of all parties concerned in the one common work. How to follow out the impulses of a warm and hearty sympathy toward all missionaries in their varied and often trying labors, and at the same time manage sacred funds with such watchful care and fidelity as to meet the expectation of contributors, is a problem very difficult of solution. It is a difficult task to decide as between the menacing spectre of increasing debt and the inevitable sacrifice of promising work, how the line shall be drawn. In the circumstances the Board can only rely upon Divine guidance in the administration of this great and responsible work, having no other interest than the good of the faithful missionaries on the field, and the still higher claims of the Divine Master whom they serve.

It is often equally difficult for friends at home, especially interested in a particular work or worker on the field, to realize that gifts diverted from the general treasury to a special object are not a gain to the cause on the whole, or that the large amounts bestowed on outside objects have anything to do with the deficits of the Assembly's Board.

RESIGNATION OF MR. DULLES.—Near the close of the year the Treasurer of the Board, William Dulles, Jr., Esq., tendered his resignation.

After eight years of laborious service, during which a complete financial system had been effected, Mr. Dulles has felt constrained to withdraw from the service in which he has engaged with so much love and enthusiasm. With great hesitation and profound sorrow the Board finally accepted his resignation, entering upon its records its high appreciation of his able, efficient and consecrated service in the work of the world's evangelization.

The Year Under Review.

In reviewing the reports which have come from the foreign fields, several facts seem to stand out in rather bold relief, which deserve particular mention at this time.

Friendliness Toward the Missionaries.—With but few exceptions the past year has been free from persecutions or serious interruptions to missionary labor. In China, the attitude of the ruling classes and of the population as a whole, save in a few places, is more cordial than ever before. The new interest in Western learning has doubtless had much to do with this. In Siam and in Laos friendly recognition of native officials and of French commissioners, and in Africa, the courteous bearing of German and French officials have done much to lighten missionary toil. Mention is made of large States in Mexico where the missionary is now a welcome visitor, and all classes are inclined to treat him and his message with profound respect. Testimony of a like kind comes from other lands, pointing to new vantage ground gained by the missionary force.

Increasing Influence of Medical Work.—Hospitals and dispensaries are on the increase throughout the fields, largely as the result of special contributions of interested friends; and the beneficent activities of those institutions are only limited by the Board's resources to keep them in running order. The attitude of the Persian Shah toward our medical missionaries illustrates the hold this branch of missionary service has upon all classes in the un-Christian world.

Gains in Educational Work.—Everywhere the Gospel goes it awakens a thirst for knowledge. As a natural result, schools and colleges are swelling their number of students. Happily most determined effort is noticeable on the part of our missionaries to bring all these students more completely under the highest spiritual influences. There is no tendency to compromise with foreign religions or philosophies in any shape; rather there is a girding up to more resolute effort than ever to bring the thirty thousand pupils under instruction to a saving knowledge of Christ.

Native Self-Support.—We are glad to call renewed attention to this most important feature in the development of missionary policy. It must be confessed that only recently has it come to assume the importance it deserves in the minds of most missionaries and the native Christians. The wide circulation of Dr. Nevius' little book on Methods of Missionary Work, from our own Presbyterian headquarters, has given a vigorous impetus to this idea. Grasped now as a policy of vital consequence by missionaries, and acknowledged as a most necessary principle by the great body of native Christians, this movement is the harbinger of a signal advance in dignity and influence of these indigenous churches in foreign lands.

Missionary Tone and Aim.—From all over the field evidences reach us that our missionaries are yearning deeply for a more earnest spiritual life for themselves and for the native Christians. The topic of the "Spirit-filled Life" is apparently uppermost in their thoughts and prayers. Such a spirit is at once a proof of the presence of the Lord Himself in these mission centres, and an augury of vastly increasing spiritual power in the efforts of our Church for the evangelization of the world.

The fiscal year of the Missions closes on April 30. At that date the accounts of the Treasurers on the field are made up, and any balance unused is reported to the Board. Owing to inability—because of death or other unforeseen cause—to carry out some form of work for which appropriation was made, a balance is left in the Station Treasurers' hands. As these cannot be accurately determined until after April 30, the total amount is entered in the year following that in which the saving actually occurs.

ABSTRACT OF SEVENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Education reports to the General Assembly that the debt of $16,675 which existed in 1896, has been reduced during the current year to $9220.75. This reduction was accomplished with the aid of a total of $2255.59 received from the "Anniversary Reunion Fund."

The receipts during the year from churches, Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies were $2930 less than in 1895-96; but there was an increase of 222 in the number of contributing churches.

The total number of candidates under the care of the Board during the year has been 911, being 126 fewer than in the previous year. There were 744 renewals and 167 new men. Forty-two of the new men were provided for by friends who made special contributions for their benefit. The candidate now holding the "Newberry Scholarship" has offered his services to the Board of Foreign Missions, and it is the intention of the Board of Education to encourage him to devote a considerable portion of time, after his graduation from Auburn, to such special studies as may be deemed best calculated to prepare him for his work abroad. His immediate predecessor in the enjoyment of this scholarship is rendering distinguished service in a Home Mission field in Colorado. Consultation with Presbyteries, superintendents of missionary work, and professors in the seminaries, has been carried forward with a view to getting the consensus of opinion on the subject of a fourth year of practical work for students upon the conclusion of their theological education. This was in accordance with the directions of the General Assembly of 1895, and with the hope that a plan might be formulated which would be practicable and likely to meet with general acceptance. Correspondence and conference seem to show that the plan must be of such a character as to be applicable to all candidates, and free from any compulsory features. In order to carry these views into effect the Board offers for adoption the following:

PLAN FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF A MISSIONARY SPIRIT IN CANDIDATES.

1. The Board of Education is hereby directed to use its influence to incline the candidates under its care, at the conclusion of their studies in preparation for the holy ministry, to offer their services, under all ordinary circumstances, for missionary labor for a longer or shorter period of time as the providence of God may indicate.

And further, in order effectively to bring this influence to bear upon its candidates, the Board is hereby authorized to add the following to its rules relating to candidates for the ministry.

"III. SCHOLARSHIPS.—10. While the Church, in providing scholarships for her candidates, makes no specific conditions as to the particular kind of service in the ministry which they will be expected to render upon the completion of their theological training, nor as to the character or situation of the place where they shall labor, nevertheless her judgment is that they ought to cultivate a missionary spirit as Christlike, apostolic and timely; and that it would be highly becoming in them, under all ordinary circumstances, to offer their services, at the conclusion of their education, for work in missionary fields, ever remembering the abounding destitution in our own country, as well as in foreign lands; the peculiar fitness of young men for such work; the honor, privilege and advantage pertaining to it; the natural expectations of the Church which has trained them in the hope that they would endure hardness as good soldiers; and, above all, the spirit of the last command of our ascended Lord."

II. It is hereby made the duty of the Board, through its Corresponding Secretary, by correspondence with the candidates, the Education and the Mission Committees of Presbyteries, Synodical Superintendents, the Board of Home Missions, and the Mission Committees of Synods, to bring about, to as large a degree as possible, the employing of the probationers of the Church in missionary labor at the conclusion of their studies.

III. Each theological seminary is hereby requested to coöperate in this plan by so ordering the course of instruction, and the general life of the seminary, as to put increased emphasis, if possible, upon the dignity, privilege and preëminent importance, in this crisis of the world's history, of missionary labor; and to use its influence to incline the young men whom it has under its care, without distinction, to a willingness to consecrate the strength and zeal of their early manhood to a task so appropriate to men in their situation, and so rich with promise of large results.

IV. The Presbyteries are hereby requested to coöperate by making themselves acquainted, through the Board of Education and the authorities of the theological seminaries, or otherwise, with the number and qualifications of the candidates who are prepared to offer themselves for missionary service, and, as far as possible, to employ them promptly upon the conclusion of their studies; that thus efficient measures may be taken to supply some at least of our destitute mission fields, and to make use without delay of the men whom the Church is at so much pains to educate.

The suggestion, referred to the Board by the Assembly of 1895, to the effect that the assistance to candidates should be in the form of loans to be paid off by service in the ministry for a prescribed number of years, did not seem to meet with approval during the correspondence. The General Assembly is asked to give directions that the Board of Foreign Missions and the Board of Education should confer together upon the question what encouragement and assistance, if any, should be given to candidates for medical missionary work in foreign lands, and report to the next General Assembly. The Board calls attention anew to the importance of securing a competent and trustworthy ministry for labor among the numerous Italians and other foreigners who have come to America. Care has been taken to make effective the admonition given by the General Assembly of 1896 to Presbyteries to exercise due care in the recommending of candidates; and has conveyed its earnest request to teachers in the institutions where candidates of the Church are studying to be even more particular in the reports which they periodically make to the Board. The Corresponding Secretary has, as usual, visited a number of these institutions and given personal interviews to large numbers of students. He has taken advantage of the courtesy of the editor of the Assembly Herald in furnishing free of charge a sufficient number of copies of that paper each month to supply all of our candidates, and has prepared papers on practical topics and published them monthly for their benefit. He has sought to have the cause of Education presented before each Synod, and has personally visited the Synods of New Jersey, Indiana and Wisconsin, as well as Presbyteries and churches as opportunity offered. The year has been one of much anxiety, and the maintaining of the treasury in a sound condition has only been accomplished by reducing to a painful degree the amount of aid allowed to the candidates, and by the large reduction in the number accepted. There is imperative need of a very large increase of revenue. The scrupulous care with which the work is conducted and the remarkable success attending its operations may well encourage the Church to furnish the Board with the means necessary for greatly enlarged usefulness.

ABSTRACT OF THE FIFTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT.

With grateful recognition of the manifold blessings vouchsafed by God during the past year, the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work presents to the General Assembly its Fifty-ninth Annual Report, covering the year beginning April 1, 1896, and closing March 31, 1897.

I. SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY DEPARTMENT.

The work of this department is divided into two main branches: (1) Missionary, comprehending the organization of Sabbath-schools, and other forms of work connected therewith; (2) Educational, or the elevation and improvement of Presbyterian Sabbath-schools.

1. Missionary Work.

The missionaries are grouped under two classes—Synodical and Presbyterial.

Synodical Sabbath-school missionaries, in addition to the general work included in the statement of objects given below, have the supervision of the Presbyterial missionaries working in their respective Synods. They are under the supervision of the Synodical Committees on Publication and Sabbath-school Work, and also of the Presbyterial Committees in the several Presbyteries within whose bounds they labor.

Presbyterial Sabbath-school missionaries labor within the bounds of particular Presbyteries. They are under the supervision of the Committees on Publication and Sabbath-school Work of their respective Presbyteries, and also of the Synodical missionaries of their respective Synods.

There are now in commission seventy-six permanent Synodical and Presbyterial missionaries laboring within the bounds of twenty-two Synods.

(1) Organization and Reorganization of Sabbath-schools.

During the past year our missionaries organized 938 new Sabbath-schools and reorganized 389. The whole number of teachers and scholars gathered into these schools was 50,503.

(2) Upbuilding of Sabbath-schools.

Missionaries are instructed to labor for permanency in results. They are directed to place every new school, whenever possible, under the care of the Session of the nearest Presbyterian church, to continue correspondence with the superintendents, and to revisit from time to time the schools they have established.

During the year 3894 Sabbath-schools were visited or otherwise aided.

(3) Distribution of Literature.

The number of pages of tracts and periodicals gratuitously distributed by our missionaries was 2,654,704; the number directly granted by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee was 3,888,958—total, 6,543,662.

In addition to these grants there were given away by the missionaries 14,163 volumes of Christian literature and 3411 Bibles and Testaments. The number of volumes directly donated by the Sabbath-school and Missionary Committee was 5240.

The net value of the grants made, including share of deficiency on the German Lesson Leaf, which is a grant to German schools, was $5609.50.

The number of grants made to Sabbath-schools was 1940; the number made to churches and individuals was 299; making a total of 2239.

(4) Visitation of Families and Individuals.

Our missionaries have visited 89,940 families, leaving the Gospel in the memory of those to whom they have spoken and with whom they have prayed, and in the books, papers and tracts they have distributed.

In the course of their visitation they found many families in which the children were unable to attend either Sabbath or day-school for want of decent clothing. A successful appeal was made to the churches to supply this need. Second-hand clothing, more than $4000 in value, was contributed and judiciously distributed.

(5) Other Forms of Work.

Our missionaries report that evangelistic services have been held in 180 places, and that 675 persons have through their instrumentality become members of the Presbyterian Church. Institutes, conventions and normal classes, have been held in eighty-five places, an average of nearly ten schools being fully represented at each place. Thirty-three preaching stations have been established, and fourteen chapels have been opened or dedicated. Eighty-two Home departments and twenty-eight Young People's Societies have been started. Thirty-eight Presbyterian churches have grown from our mission schools and have been organized by the authority of Presbyteries.

The number of addresses delivered by our missionaries was 13,272; the total conversions reported by them as coming under their observation was 2824; and the number of miles traveled by them in the performance of their work was 641,319.

(6) ANNUAL CENSUS.

At the close of each fiscal year a census is taken of the schools organized during the preceding year. The following is the report of the condition of Sabbath-schools organized from April 1, 1895, to April 1, 1896: Of the 1030 schools organized, 990 have been heard from, while no report has been received concerning 40. Of those heard from, 466 are open during the entire year, and 296 are "summer schools," making a total of 762 living schools, while 228 have ceased to exist.

2. EDUCATIONAL WORK.

The Educational Work of the department has received great attention during the past year. The lines of work are as follows:

(1) NORMAL CLASS AND INSTITUTE WORK.

It is one of the duties of this department to encourage and stimulate the periodical holding of Sabbath-school or Bible Institutes in all our Presbyteries and Synods. The Superintendent attends such Institutes, so far as time and strength and other duties will allow. It is also part of the duties of our missionaries to hold such Institutes on their fields, and the testimony of pastors and others as to the utility and success of their efforts is exceedingly emphatic and satisfactory.

(2) THE HOME DEPARTMENT.

There is in the office of the Superintendent a thoroughly organized Home Department Bureau, with suitable literature and appliances. Particulars and samples of the materials used in Home Department Work will be furnished to all applicants.

(3) WESTMINSTER GRADED SUPPLEMENTAL LESSONS.

The system adopted is the outgrowth of many years of careful observation and experience. It provides for steady, gradual and progressive instruction and training in matters of doctrine and discipline regarding which no young Presbyterian should be ignorant. The graded Supplemental system provides for the issuing of certificates to scholars graduating from the Primary to the Intermediate, also to Normal Class scholars passing examinations. Full particulars may be had on application.

(4) WESTMINSTER CATECHISM STUDY.

There is a steadily growing movement in our Church toward systematic instruction in the Shorter Catechism in our Sabbath-schools. The Board offers an Oxford gilt-edged Bible to every scholar in Sabbath-schools connected with our own churches who shall be certified as having committed to memory the Shorter Catechism. The number of Bibles given away under these conditions last year was 1469, and the total number for the ten years during which this offer has been open is 14,406.

This offer, which is made to those who have not previously learned the Shorter Catechism, is still open.

Printed forms of the certificate required may be obtained on application. Applications for certificates, and certificates when filled up, should be addressed to the Superintendent.

(5) MEMORIZING THE SCRIPTURES.

A systematic plan, covering a four years' course, has been prepared for this purpose. passages of Scripture having been carefully selected from the Old and New Testaments.

It is proposed to present an engraved certificate to every Sabbath scholar who shall be certified by the pastor or the superintendent as having committed to memory and recited the Bible selections of any one year of the course, and also to present a more elaborate certificate to every scholar certified as having recited the selections of the entire course of four years.

The Standing Committees on Publication and Sabbath-school Work of Presbyteries and Synods are invited to coöperate with the department in introducing this plan into the Sabbath-schools of their respective Presbyteries and Synods.

(6) CHILDREN'S DAY.

The offerings on Children's Day to this cause have been very generous in amount year by year. All of these offerings go to the support of Sabbath-school missionaries and toward the distribution in our mission and other deserving schools of our Sabbath-school literature.

(7) RALLYING DAY AND THE UNITED MOVEMENT.

Rallying Day has also become a permanent institution. The object in view is twofold—the gathering together after the summer holidays of teachers and scholars for the work of another season, and the systematic canvass for new scholars. This canvass is what is known as the United Movement.

The Board asked the Sabbath schools last fall to make on Rallying Day an offering to this work. A goodly number responded, and the sum of $3676.15 was realized from this source.

(8) PRESBYTERIAN SABBATH-SCHOOL STATISTICS.

This department is charged by the General Assembly with the duty of collecting and tabulating the Sabbath-school statistics of our Church for publication in the Minutes of the General Assembly. The following is a synopsis of the statistical table:

MEMBERSHIP.

Number of reporting Sabbath-schools,	7,872
Number of officers and teachers,	114,882

3. Financial.

The financial condition of this department is better than was looked for at the beginning of the current year. Contributions from churches, Sabbath-schools and individuals amounted to $92,391.07. The total receipts of the department during the year were $113,811.50, and the total expenditures $111,633.14.

4. Missionary Bible Fund.

There was no balance in the hands of the Treasurer belonging to this fund April 1, 1896. The receipts last year were $280.43. The amount expended was $280.43.

The income of this fund has been exhausted, no interest being payable thereon until the close of the fiscal year 1897–8. The Board would solicit donations and bequests to this fund, which has been devoted for some years to purchasing Bibles as rewards for recitation of the Shorter Catechism.

II. EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

1. New Books and Tracts.

During the year the following new publications have been issued:

2. Reprints of Former Editions.

Reprints of one hundred and sixty-seven (167) former publications of the Board—64 bound volumes and 103 tracts and paper-covered books—have been issued.

3. Periodicals.

A few descriptive words will explain their character and purpose.

(1) Lesson Helps.

The Westminster Teacher is issued monthly. It is prepared specifically for the teachers and officers of Sabbath-schools, and is used also by many Bible class scholars. It contains full expositions of the International Bible Lessons. During the year a new department has been added—"Notes on Primary Work"—about four pages being devoted to it each month. This magazine is published in octavo form, each number containing from 40 to 48 pages, with cover. Price, single copy by mail, per annum. 60 cents; school subscriptions to one address, 50 cents per copy.

The Westminster Question Book, though included in the list of "Bound Volumes," belongs also among Lesson Helps. It contains the Scripture text, with Lesson Title, Golden Text and Daily Home Readings, with questions meant especially to guide in the study of the lesson. It makes an excellent pocket manual or handbook of the lessons for the year. Price, in quantities, 12 cents each, net; single copies, by mail, 15 cents.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is adapted to older scholars. It is issued quarterly, and each number contains full lesson work for the three months, with Order of Service, Map, Bible Dictionary, Hymns and Music, and other valuable matter. Each number contains forty-two pages. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly contains full lesson text, with notes, questions and practical teachings. In it are found also Map, Order of Service, Hymns with Music, and Bible Dictionary. It contains forty-two pages. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Junior Quarterly was much enlarged and improved last year. School subscriptions to one address, 12 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf is prepared for intermediate and younger scholars. It is issued monthly; but is so arranged that the leaves can be separated and distributed to scholars weekly. Each leaf contains one lesson complete, with Scripture, Golden Text, Catechism, Lesson Story, Questions, and Practical Teachings. School subscriptions to one address, 5 cents a year.

The Westminster Junior Lessons is a neat leaf adapted to the little people. Illustrated. It is issued weekly in the same form and at the same price as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

The Westminster Lesson Card has reached a great circulation. It contains a brightly colored lithographic picture, illustrating the lesson of the day, with Lesson Title, Golden Text, Lesson Hymn, Lesson Story, and Questions. It is adapted to the younger children and to primary classes. The price for school subscriptions to one address is 12 cents a year, or 3 cents a quarter. Single sets, 20 cents a year.

The German Lesson Leaf is prepared for the Sabbath-schools of our German congregations. It is published monthly. The price is the same as the Westminster Lesson Leaf.

The Westminster Question Leaf and The Westminster Sabbath-school Blackboard will be discontinued after June 30.

(2) ILLUSTRATED PAPERS.

Forward is designed especially for young people in intermediate and senior grades, and is adapted for reading in the home. At the beginning of the year 1896 Forward was made a weekly paper. Now it has been provided that, beginning with July of this year, the paper shall be doubled in size. It will then have eight pages, with four columns on each page. Our corps of contributors has been enlarged. Much attention will be given to the department of Young People's Societies. In clubs it costs less than one cent a number. School subscriptions, 50 cents a year; single subscriptions, 75 cents.

The Sabbath-school Visitor is adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward. It is an illustrated four-page paper published weekly. It may, however, be taken once or twice a month. Single subscriptions, per year, weekly, 50 cents; fortnightly, 30 cents; monthly, 20 cents. School subscriptions, to one address, per year, weekly, 30 cents; fortnightly, 16 cents; monthly, 8 cents.

The Morning Star is issued to meet the demand in many schools for a paper at small cost. It is of the same quality, grade, and style as The Visitor; but it is only half the size. It is issued every week, but may be taken once or twice a month. Single subscriptions, per year, weekly, 25 cents; fortnightly, 15 cents; monthly, 10 cents. School subscriptions, to one address, per year, weekly, 15 cents; fortnightly, 8 cents; monthly, 4 cents.

Sunbeam is a four-page weekly paper for very little people, finely illustrated. No subscriptions are taken for less than a month. Single subscriptions, 30 cents. School subscriptions, to one address, 20 cents a year for each scholar.

III. BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

This department conducts all the business operations of the Board. Of these the most important are, first, the manufacture of books, tracts and periodicals; and, secondly, the placing of the publications on the market.

(1) PUBLICATIONS.

There have been published during the year 1,831,975 copies of books and tracts, and 41,814,849 copies of periodicals, which, together with 8500 copies of the Annual Report, make an aggregate of 43,655,324 publications for the year.

(2) PLACING ON THE MARKET.

This work is performed by advertising in the leading papers of our own and affiliated denominations throughout the country, and through the agency of the main store in Philadelphia, the depositories in Chicago and St. Louis, and seventeen branch houses, twelve of which are in our own land, four in British America, and one in England. These agencies, at the present time, are as follows:

DEPOSITORIES AND BRANCH HOUSES.

Albany, N. Y., The Leonard Publishing Co., 31 Maiden Lane.
Baltimore, Md., S. W. Harman, 320 North Charles Street.
Boston, Mass., H. D. Noyes & Co., 13½ Bromfield Street.
Buffalo, N. Y., Otto Ulbrich, 386 Main Street.
Chicago, Ill., Chicago Depository, H. S. Elliott, Manager, 215-221 Wabash Avenue.
Cincinnati, O., Western Tract Society, 420 Elm Street.
Cleveland, O., The Burrows Bros. Co., 23, 25 and 27 Euclid Avenue.
Los Angeles, Cal., C. C. Parker, 246 South Broadway.
Montreal, Quebec, William Drysdale & Co., 232 St. James Street.
New York, N. Y., Ward & Drummond, 164 Fifth Avenue.
Pittsburgh, Pa., Board of Colportage, 706 Penn Avenue.
Portland, Oregon, J. R. Ewing, Fourth and Yamhill Streets.
San Francisco, Cal., American Tract Society, 637 Market Street.
St. Louis, Mo., St. Louis Depository, Rev. J. W. Allen, D.D., Manager, 1516 Locust Street.
Syracuse, N. Y., W. A. Duncan Co., 112 East Fayette Street.
Toronto, Ont., N. T. Wilson, 12 King Street, West.
Truro, N. S., D. H. Smith & Co.
Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell & Co., 504 Main Street.
London, England, 14 Paternoster Square. Terms on application.

These houses, with the exception of the one in London, furnish all our publications at the Board's catalogue prices.

(3) SALES.

The sales for the year in books and tracts were $114,634.42. This amount, as it includes credit sales, does not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received.

The amount received during the year for the sale of periodicals was $198,315.66.

(4) THE HYMNAL.

The new Hymnal is meeting with gratifying success. It has been adopted by several hundred churches throughout the country. The sales have reached nearly 50,000 copies, and orders for the book are now coming in with great frequency.

(5) FREE LIBRARIES.

In accordance with the recommendation of the General Assembly, the Board, during the year, distributed 163 Free Libraries to needy ministers, churches, Sabbath-schools, and also to other deserving objects, in thirty-four States and Territories. The number of volumes distributed was 14,057; their value, at former catalogue prices, was $8612.

It is contemplated to continue these donations throughout the coming year. Application for such libraries should be made directly to the Secretary, Rev. E. R. Craven, D.D.

(6) THE WITHERSPOON BUILDING.

The cornerstone of the new Presbyterian House, entitled The Witherspoon Building, was laid with impressive ceremonies on the 24th of October last. It is expected that the new edifice will be ready for occupation in the approaching autumn.

(7) NET PROFITS.

The net profits of the year were $26,366.85. Of this sum two-thirds, or $17,577.90, have been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly. The remaining third, or $8788.95, has been added to the capital.

(8) CAPITAL.

This, at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last report, was $332,833.07. In consequence of the addition of one-third of the profits of the year, of $8788.95, the capital is now reported as $341,622.02.

IV. THE CHURCH AT HOME AND ABROAD.

At the request of the Committee appointed by the General Assembly, the Board continues to be the publisher of The Church at Home and Abroad. The relations of the Board to this magazine are different, however, from those which it sustains to the other periodicals which it publishes.

The editor of the magazine is selected by the Assembly's Committee, and he works under its general direction, as does also the Board itself in this particular. The Board is an agent, rather than the principal, in its publication, and assumes no pecuniary responsibility in reference thereto.

No charge has been made by the Board for anything except actual expenditures directly on account of the magazine, and every effort has been adopted, through the machinery of the Board, to further the success of the enterprise.

The amount of receipts* on account of the magazine for the year was $13,139.41. The number of copies published was 184,450.

A balance of $1709.28 now stands against this magazine in the books of the Treasurer.

Abstract of Twenty-seventh Annual Report.

APPLICATIONS.

In addition to very many requests of an informal character from churches contemplating building in the future, the Board received during the year 216 formal applications, officially indorsed by Presbyteries. Of these, 168 were for aid either by grants or loans in the erection of church edifices, and 48 were in behalf of manses.

The decrease in number and in the aggregate amount from last year was almost entirely in the applications to the Loan Fund, thus indicating, perhaps, that there has been a reluctance during these times of financial depression to attempt new enterprises unless compelled by absolute necessity. The applications to the General Fund were 154, aggregating $83,408; to the Manse Fund 48, aggregating $45,950; and to the Loan Fund 14, aggregating $49,950.

The total thus applied for was $147,292.

THE INCOME OF THE BOARD.

From all sources the total income of the Board for the year was as follows:

Contributions from churches,	$45,269 08
Individual contributions,	1,813 18
Legacies,	6,281 79
Interest on invested funds,	10,788 37

		$76,469 54
Installments repaid to Loan Fund,	$13,011 13
Interest of Loan Fund,	10,792 05
		23,803 18
Contributions to Manse Fund,	$630 85
Repayment to Manse Fund,	12,833 20
Interest Manse Fund,	1,824 82
Special contributions to Manse Fund,	26 00
Receipt from insurance,	150 00
		15,464 87

APPROPRIATIONS.

1. Notwithstanding the shrinkage of resources, the Board was able to make from its General Fund in response to regular applications 126 appropriations to 122 churches and to the aggregate amount of $60,323.30. Of these, 96, amounting to $44,270, were grants, and 30, aggregating $16,053.30, were loans to be returned in annual contributions of specified amounts.

Four churches received both grants and loans, which accounts for the discrepancy between the number of churches and of appropriations.

In addition 21 churches received through this fund special gifts to the amount of $2524.50, making a total in this department of 143 churches and $62,847.80. The average appropriation was $494.44.

These appropriations and gifts have been distributed among 25 Synods, 104 Presbyteries and 31 States or Territories. The largest number have been assigned to Indian Territory and Iowa, 12 each; Minnesota comes next with 11; then Indiana, Missouri and Washington, 8 each. The remainder were about evenly divided among the remaining Synods.

2. The Loan Fund.—Of the 14 applications for loans in this department, the Board were able, after carefully considering the conditions, to respond favorably to 10, in sums ranging from $1000 to $6000, and aggregating $33,750. Seven of these loans were west of the Mississippi, in the States of Missouri, Minnesota, Kansas, Colorado and California; two were in Indiana and one in aid of a New England church.

3. The Manse Fund.—The appropriations from this fund number 42, there being 36 loans, aggregating $14,675, and averaging in amount $407.64, and also six small grants, aggregating only $710, or a little over $118 each. As to one church was assigned both a loan and a grant, the total number of churches reached was forty-one, and the amount provided $15,385.

SUMMARY.

Taking these three departments together, it will be seen that the number of churches aided in one way or another reaches 194, and that the aggregate amount appropriated was $111,982.80.

The aggregate receipts in all departments were $123,777.41, and the disbursements, including grants, loans and expenses of administration, were $137,577.78. During the year there were reported to the Board as completed through its aid without debt 174 churches and manses, the aggregate value of which is estimated at $444,735.

RESOURCES INADEQUATE.

As may be inferred from what has been already said, the Board is obliged to report that year by year it feels more seriously the inadequacy of its resources to meet the growing demand upon them. The present year, in order to avoid the disaster of debt, the Board was obliged, two months before the close of the year, to suspend the voting of further appropriations, and, after approving applications, place them on file to await the coming in of funds. When the account was finally closed, it was found that 25 applications, aggregating $13,475, although approved, could not be met within the year, and they were postponed for action in the succeeding year. But, manifestly, this means that the Board commences the new year under a grave disadvantage. Instead of facing its new work unincumbered, it must first meet the claims of those who were pushed over from the preceding year, and new-comers must await their turn.

Now the Board is weeks behind; soon it will be months, and by and by, if no relief comes, it will be years. What the effect will be upon infant congregations, either homeless or burdened with debt, awaiting their turn, it needs no prophet to foresee.

THE OUTLOOK.

The future is full of promise. The only question is as to the ability of the Board to continue the aid that for fifty years has been blessed of God to the establishment and upbuilding of His Kingdom. During that time the Board has distributed three and a half millions of dollars, and has aided in the building of more than 5000 churches. Such record of the needs it has been permitted to meet in the past should certainly inspire it to go forward, with assurance that it will still be sustained in its growing work. Under the divine guidance our Church is organizing every year from one hundred and fifty to two hundred new congregations. The majority of these are upon new and untried fields, and they are dependent upon the fostering care of the mother, to whom they owe their life, for ability to live and grow to maturity.

Is it too much to ask that at least one-half of the 3000 churches that last year gave nothing should this year remember the needs of infant congregations, struggling to live? Is it too much to ask that those who did not forget the work shall this year make an advance at least commensurate with their growing numbers and increasing prosperity?

ABSTRACT OF THE FORTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT.

HISTORY.

This Report contains a history of the Board from the organization of the work of our Church to relieve the wants of Presbyterian ministers and their families.

CHARTER, BY-LAWS AND RULES.

The Report also contains the charter of the Board, which was obtained in Pennsylvania, October 21, 1876; the By-Laws as they have recently been modified, and the Rules of the Board, which guide it in the administration of the sacred trust committed to its hands.

PERMANENT FUND.

Additions have been made to the Permanent Fund until it now amounts to $1,551,783.58. Of this amount, the sum of $1,224,100.80 is held by our corporation and $327,683.50 by Trustees of the General Assembly.

UNRESTRICTED LEGACIES.

Article iv, Section 5, of the By-Laws, adopted by the Board when it was first organized, read as follows: "Legacies shall always be considered Permanent Funds, of which the interest only shall be used, except in cases where the testator has otherwise ordered." Under this By-Law all legacies have been placed in the Permanent Fund, whether the testator directed that the money should go to the Permanent Fund or not, and had not the Board tied its own hands by this By-Law, instead of coming here to-day reporting a balance against it of $20,911.45, by the use of unrestricted legacies, it would have come to this Assembly free from all indebtedness.

The Board, according to the power given it by Article v, Section 1, has changed Article iv, Section 5, to read as follows: "Legacies, not specifically given to the Permanent Fund, may be used by the Board in paying beneficiaries and current expenses." The Board asks the General Assembly to approve of this change.

As all the other Boards have the privilege of using unrestricted legacies according to their necessities, this Board respectfully asks the General Assembly to grant it the same liberty; and we also ask the Assembly to specify a time when the Board may begin, under this new rule, to use undesignated legacies to pay off its indebtedness.

If any person, before making a will, had a copy of our Charter and By-Laws, he would see that, whilst the old By-Law (Art. iv, Sec. 5) read as follows: "Legacies shall always be considered Permanent Funds, of which the interest only shall be used, except in cases where the testator has otherwise ordered," the very next section (Art. v, Sec. 1) read in these words: "These By-Laws may be amended by a majority of the whole Board, notice in writing of such amendment having been given at a previous meeting."

It is fair to presume, that, when the testator saw that the Board might in four weeks' time, after he had made his will, change Article iv, Section 5, so as to use unrestricted legacies in paying annuities, if he wished his bequest to go to the Permanent Fund, the interest only to be used by the Board, he would have so stipulated in his will. When, therefore, a bequest has been made to the Board without restriction, it is fair to presume that the testator left the money to be used by the Board at its own discretion, i. e., either to be placed in the Permanent Fund, and the interest to be paid to the annuitants of the Board, or the whole amount of the legacy to be placed in the General Fund to be used in paying annuitants. And besides all this, every testator knows that the Board is governed in law by the wording of a will in the disposition of a legacy coming into its treasury, and where there is no restriction in the will the Board is free to use a legacy for current expenses.

In this view of the case, the Board submits the question to the Assembly: If the change by the Board in By-Law, Article iv, Section 5, should be approved by the General Assembly, can the Board transfer to the Current Fund enough of unrestricted legacies, now credited on our books to the Permanent Fund, but not yet invested, to pay the indebtedness of the Board? Or, should it leave the unrestricted legacies placed to the credit of the Permanent Fund where they are, and only use the unrestricted legacies and other funds which may come to us in the future to pay the indebtedness of the Board?

DECREASE IN CHURCH COLLECTIONS.

Whilst the Permanent Fund has thus increased in a most encouraging manner, it is painful to notice that since the Centennial Fund was raised, in 1888, the collections from the churches and Sabbath-schools have been gradually falling off, as may be seen from the following statement:

COLLECTIONS FROM CHURCHES AND SABBATH-SCHOOLS.

1888-89,	93,178 28
1889-90,	92,570 89
1890-91,	94,119 27
1891-92,	92,026 47
1892-93,	86,996 18
1893-94,	78,262 90
1894-95,	82,256 26
1895-96,	81,377 03
1896-97,	74,091 20

Thus in 1887-88 the churches and Sabbath-schools raised $98,922.23, and in 1896-97 only $74,091.20, a decrease of $24,831.63 in nine years!

In our correspondence the fact is brought out that many of our church Sessions think that because the Board of Relief has a large Permanent Fund, it does not need annual collections from the churches, and the figures showing the gradual decrease in the amount raised from churches and Sabbath-schools seem to prove this to be a too prevalent opinion. This showing is all the worse when we remember that in 1888 there were reported but 722,071 communicants in the Church, and in 1896 there were 943,716 (and in 1897 still more than that number). We had last year 221,645 more communicants than in 1888, and yet the churches and Sabbath-schools raised $24,831 less money for this Board last year than nine years ago! In other words, whilst the Church is more than one-fourth larger than it was nine years ago, the collections from the churches are more than one-fourth less! And what makes this showing appear still worse is that, in the year ending April 1, 1888, there were but 564 families under the care of the Board, and last year we had 835. That is, we had 271 more families under the care of the Board last year than in 1887-88, and the collections from the churches were $24,831 less; or we had nearly half as many more families under the care of the Board last year than we had under our care nine years ago, and the churches gave more than one-fourth less for their support than they did in 1887-88 for the smaller number!

In 1888, 722,071 communicants gave an average of 13 cents each to Ministerial Relief, and if the 943,716 communicants had last year given 13 cents each, instead of receiving $74,091.20, we would have received $122,683.09, or $48,591.89 more than we actually did receive. The average gifts have fallen from 13 cents each to about 7¾ cents each. Whilst this decrease in the percentage of collections has been going on for nine years, there has been a steady increase in the number of families to be relieved, and this increase will continue as the years go by.

GROWTH OF THE WORK.

Look how rapidly the number of families under the care of the Board is increasing.

The Old School Branch of the Church in 1851 relieved two widows; in 1853, eight families; and in 1869-70, 168 families.

The New School Branch in 1865 relieved two families, and in 1869-70, 78 families.

The year prior to the Reunion, both branches of the Church relieved 248 families. In 1876, 379 families were relieved, and in 1897, 835 families. When we look at the rapid increase of the roll of annuitants, we must all see that a very large increase of money must be received from the churches, or a large reduction must soon be made in the annuities paid by the Board.

ROLL OF ANNUITANTS.

During the past year, upon the recommendation of 186 Presbyteries, the Board has had under its care 835 families, being 40 more families than it ever had on the roll in any previous year. Of these, 317 were ministers; 468 widows of ministers; 20 orphan families; 3 women missionaries; 1 widow of a medical missionary; 18 guests at the Ministers' House, at Perth Amboy, N. J., in lieu of receiving an appropriation in money. Of these 105 are new names; 46 have been removed from the roll by death—32 ministers, 12 widows and 2 orphans. Other names have been withdrawn from the roll by reason of restored health, or because aid was no longer necessary. Thus probably considerably over 3000 persons have been aided by the Board during the past year.

RECEIPTS FOR THE YEAR 1896-97.

	1895-6.	1896-7.
(1) Contributions from Churches and Sabbath-schools,	$81,377 03	$74,091 20
(2) Contributions from Individuals,	21,282 03	13,922 91
(3) Interest from Permanent Fund,	64,935 58	70,985 62
(4) Interest from Deposits in Bank,	1,514 70	831 55
(5) Interest from Anniversary Reunion Fund and Special Funds held by the Synod of Ohio and other Trustees,	2,447 39	1,024 79
	$171,557 72	$160,856 07

Thus during the past year the receipts from all sources for current use were $160,856.07. Besides these cash receipts, the Ladies' Aid Societies of our Church have sent to families on our roll, boxes of clothing, groceries, money, etc., valued at $4168.23.

During the year the Board has received by gifts, $3227.55; by legacies, $23,742.13. Total, $26,969.68. Some of these amounts have been entirely unrestricted as to their use, but under our old By-Law (Art. iv, Sec. 5) these moneys have been placed in the Permanent Fund.

The Tabular Statement required by the General Assembly will be found in the Annual Report. This statement shows that last year, out of 7279 churches (we do not here include the churches in foreign Presbyteries which neither contribute to, nor draw out from, the Board), 3814 contributed to the Board and 3465 did not contribute. This is very encouraging in one respect, for this is the largest number of churches that ever contributed to the Board in one year. The year previous, out of 7225 churches, only 3511 contributed and 3714 did not contribute. But owing to the hard times the contributions were smaller last year than the previous year.

EXPENDITURES.

The total appropriations made by the Board during the past year, including the expense of the Ministers' House at Perth Amboy, have been $173,210,01—$6474.94 more than the year previous. This money has been distributed among 835 families, making an average to each family of $207. The largest amount allowed is to the family of an honorably retired minister, and is $300.

The office expenses of the Board amounted to $7442.65. The entire cash receipts last year from all sources amounted to $197,995.75. A little less than four per cent. of this sum, therefore, was used for the expenses of administration.

Times have been unprecedentedly hard, and the collections from the churches, which have been painfully falling off year by year since the year the Centenary Fund was raised, when they amounted to $98,922.83, last year fell off to $74,091.20, $24,831.63 less than in 1887–88. Individual contributions also fell off. Whilst the contributions to the Board have been falling off year by year, the families aided have been constantly increasing. Last year the Board had forty families more to aid than any previous year of its history.

Last year when the Board reported a debt of $9673.26, the Annual Report said, in speaking of former reductions in the appropriations made to those on its roll, "The Board is impressed with the necessity of again resorting even to so painful a measure as a reduction of appropriations, if there be no other alternative to avoid a debt." The members of the Board watched with the most intense solicitude for the response the churches would make to the warning given at the last Assembly. They saw the debt rolling up to frightful proportions until, when the 1st of January came, the debt had increased to $50,000. Then it was felt that the reduction must begin, but hoping still for better times, and a more favorable response from the churches, the Board, realizing the dreadful suffering that would be inflicted upon hundreds of families if the reduction were made, continued to pay the appropriations granted, until the close of the fiscal year, when the debt was reduced to $20,911.45.

In view of this indebtedness, the Board (which always pays in advance) began with the April payments to withhold one-fourth of all appropriations (except those made to honorably retired men) until the churches supply the treasury with funds sufficient to pay all appropriations in full, hoping that this withholding may be of short duration.

SESSIONS.

The Board respectfully asks the General Assembly to take such action as will secure the appointment of a Committee by every Session whose duty it shall be to take this subject under its special charge, and to have a definite time fixed for taking a collection when no other plan has been adopted for making contributions to this cause, and see that leaflets furnished by the Board are circulated in each church the Sabbath prior to the taking of the collection; and to secure, wherever possible, a collection from the Sabbath-school and the Young People's Societies for this blessed work.

RESIGNATION OF DR. CATTELL.

Since the last meeting of the General Assembly, the Rev. William C. Cattell, D.D., LL.D., who has so faithfully, acceptably and successfully served the Board as Corresponding Secretary for eleven and a half years, from December 1, 1884, to June 18, 1896, felt constrained, on account of the condition of his health, to ask to be relieved of his responsible duties, and, after considering his request for some months, the Board, on the 18th of June, 1896, most reluctantly accepted his resignation. It is due to this beloved brother to say that, after his resignation was accepted, until his successor was elected, he rendered gratuitously such service to the Board as his strength would permit. The Board, out of the profound respect and the warm love which the members cherish for him, unanimously adopted a paper, which will be found upon its records of June 18, 1896, and which may be seen in full in the Annual Report.

HON. JOHN SCOTT.

During the past year the Board has lost, by death, one of its most highly valued members, the Hon. John Scott, who died November 29, 1896, and action was taken by the Board at its meeting held December 17, 1896, expressive of their great loss at the removal from their number of this efficient co-worker.

Abstract of Thirty-second Annual Report.

Although no new work has been projected for the past four years, the Board finds itself at the close of this year operating two large, well-equipped boarding schools for girls that were not on our list last year, one at Anniston, Ala., and the other at West Point, Miss. The school at Anniston, Ala., is the generous gift of Mrs. Phineas M. Barber, of Philadelphia, and is established by her as a memorial to her late husband, who in his lifetime contemplated the founding of such a school. The building is a substantial structure of stone and brick, four stories high, with basement underneath, and is capable of accommodating from two to three hundred pupils. The property is held by Trustees for the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and for school purposes is placed entirely at the disposal of the Board of Missions for Freedmen. The entire plant cost $50,000, and not a dollar of debt rests upon it. The Board felt all the more justified in accepting the care and maintenance of this school in view of the fact that the "Barber Fund," established by request of the late Phineas M. Barber, and held by the Trustees of the General Assembly, yields to us annually for certain features of our general work an amount fully equal to the cost of maintaining Barber Memorial Seminary.

The Mary Holmes Seminary at West Point, Miss., was reopened for work on the 1st of January, the first building having been burned January 31, 1895, at Jackson, Miss., where the school was formerly located.

The land—twenty acres—on the outskirts of West Point, Miss., where the new building has been erected, was given to the Board by citizens of that place, and a good artesian well, yielding the best of water, was also bored by them on the premises at their expense. The contract price for the building was $28,500, and the subsequent cost of heating, furnishing and general equipment for the work raised the total amount of expenditure to $39,000. As this was $5000 in excess of the amount available for this enterprise coming from insurance money, and special gifts from friends, a mortgage has been placed upon the property to meet the deficit, and the special friends of this institution, it is hoped, will not long allow this debt to remain.

Beside these two schools that have been added to our list for part of this year, we have retained all of our other seventeen boarding schools; but we have again reduced the length of the term of thirteen of them another month. Twelve of them have been allowed only six months each. Two other academies have been reduced five months, while all the parochial schools that we have continued have been allowed only four months each. We have reduced the number of our schools by twenty in the last two years. To reduce the expenses of administration as far as possible, the Board has dispensed with the services of the Treasurer as a salaried officer. The former Treasurer, Rev. J. J. Beacom, D.D., will perform the duties of Treasurer for the present without salary. The Board has also dispensed with the services of the Field Secretary. These changes effect a reduction of expenses in the office and on the field to the amount of $2966.30, as compared with last year, and of $4775.50, as compared with the previous year.

The increase in our real estate item of expense, together with the fact that our receipts this year in their sum total fell to a lower figure than they have done in the last eight years, have operated to increase our debt largely over last year's amount. Our notes in bank and to individuals amount this year to $51,275, as against $26,123 last year. The real estate item of expense amounted this year to $49,613, being for certain reasons much larger than it probably will be again for many years to come. Of this entire amount only about $1500 was expended out of the general fund. The rest was expended for objects for which it was especially raised, and could not be either diverted into other channels or held longer on our books as special credits. The accumulation of so much money to be turned in a single year into one channel of our work necessarily deflected funds that would otherwise have gone into other channels of the work. The general amount of expenditure has not been increased; only the proportions have been disturbed.

Foreseeing in January that our receipts were falling behind, and that expenditures were being increased by this unusual outlay in the matter of real estate, the Board sent notice to all the teachers under its care that possibly many of our schools would have to be closed during the coming year. Should the Assembly order the closing of the schools, this timely notification, which was sent out in January, will at least save them the pain of a sudden and unexpected loss of occupation.

The Board desires that at least $20,000 be paid on its debt during the coming year. An increase of $11,000 over last year's receipts will make this possible. The reduction of expense, which means a reduction of the work to that extent, will accomplish the same thing, but a reduction of the work to that extent means almost its destruction to that extent. The counsel of the Assembly as to what plan to adopt will be gladly accepted and be followed by the Board.

Acting on past recommendations of the General Assembly, the Board has recently secured the services of Rev. W. H. Weaver, D.D., of Baltimore, Md., who will this coming year devote his time and energies, with the hearty indorsement of the Board, in enlisting the interests and securing the aid of the benevolent in favor of Biddle University.

The repressing influence we have been compelled to exert for the past few years shows its unfortunate effects in the annual statement of the extent of the work.

THE CHURCHES.

OFFERINGS OF CHURCHES, SABBATH-SCHOOLS AND YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES.

	1895-96.	1896-97

Sent, by permission of the Board, to aided institutions in their own Synods or Presbyteries, ...	570	495
Total, ...	$2917	$3031

Nearly two-thirds of the churches make no offerings for this Board, do not place its literature in their pews, and presumably do not hear sermons on this great work for our Church and country.

THE GENERAL FUND.

At the beginning of the year the Board resolved to cut administrative expenses 15 per centum. In voting appropriations it allowed for a possible decrease of 6 per centum in its General Fund income.

Administrative expenses were reduced nearly 22 per centum instead of the 15 contemplated. But near the close of the year it appeared probable that the General Fund income would be much less than in 1895-96, threatening a considerable deficit. Kind friends, some new, some long time and generous benefactors, made up the necessary amount. The year closes with funds in hand to pay all appropriations voted.

For the current year the Board will cut administrative expenses about 10 per centum more, and will vote appropriations very conservatively.

ASSIGNMENT OF FIELDS.

In accordance with the action of the last General Assembly, fields for solicitation of funds have been assigned to some institutions under a carefully devised plan. It is still an experiment, and will be continued until the wisdom of it can be estimated by results.

INSTITUTIONS.

Thirty institutions have been aided.

Most institutions have suffered severe reductions in income, and have been able to keep open only by great sacrifices made by instructors or by local friends.

The number of students was 2711, being (for the same institutions) 170 more than in 1895-96, and the number in college classes also increased; but there was a considerable decrease in the number in classical courses, and some decrease in church membership, credible conversions, and choices of the ministry, with slight increase of the number in systematic Bible study.

THE CRITICAL SITUATION.

Unless this Board shall soon be enabled, by more and larger church offerings to its General Fund, to grant much larger current aid to institutions, and unless it shall be enabled, by more and larger legacies and individual gifts to its Property Fund, to secure endowments for institutions, some institutions which render eminent service to the Church, and are both needed and desired in their several regions, are likely to close their doors.

Our beloved and honored Church, the ancient friend of higher education based upon the Word of God, either must presently put much money into Western use for such purpose, or must consent to underrank all the other great Churches in such work and in future harvesting in the newer West.

THE WAY OUT.

If our ministers, appreciating the critical condition, will inform their congregations, the loyal people of our name will no doubt see to it that our responsibility to our history, to our claims to possess superior culture and loyalty to the Bible, to our country and to the great Head of the Church, shall be better discharged.

EDUCATION DAY.

The use of a Sunday near the Day of Prayer for Schools and Colleges as Education Day, recommended by previous General Assemblies, is happily increasing. The successive generations of our Church should have continual instruction regarding one of its fundamental principles and historic glories—Higher Education based upon the Word of God.

Abstract of the Eighteenth Annual Report.

The leading lines of work of the Committee have been frequently outlined as follows:

1. To secure a contribution from every church for every Board.
2. To influence every member of every church to contribute to every Board.
3. To lead God's people to give to Him a generous percentage of their income in recognition of His just claim upon their all.
4. To lead God's people to recognize giving as an act of worship, in accordance with the sixth chapter of the Directory of Worship.

THE DISTINCTIVE WORK OF THE COMMITTEE.

The distinctive work of the Committee is largely with one source of income of the Boards of the Church, viz., that which comes to them directly from the treasuries of the churches. The time has arrived when the importance of this source of income to the Boards should be more earnestly considered.

As it is necessary that the Boards, in making their annual reports of income, should keep that from church offerings separate from all other sources of income, would it not also be expedient that General Assembly when making recommendations as to the amounts to be raised for the various Boards should also make a like separation? In order that General Assembly may have the facts easily at command, if it deems best to make such a recommendation, we have brought together from the official reports of the Boards for the past six years the amounts annually given through church offerings alone, and have also given the total amounts from all sources, given by the churches for the various Boards of the Church as reported in the Minutes of the General Assembly, for the same years.

GIFTS TO THE BOARDS.

We have gathered together in an Appendix* subjoined to this report, a detailed statement of the gifts to the Boards through church offerings, tabulated by Presbyteries, for the six years from 1891–96. A study of this table will show that the gifts of the Church through Sabbath offerings are not keeping pace with the growth of the Church. It also will indicate that the weakest point to-day in our whole benevolent system is precisely the neglect of system in obtaining benevolent gifts in connection with Sabbath worship.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE CHURCHES BY SYNODS.

The problems of proper church support and of giving to the missionary work of the Church are closely associated. A church that is habitually in debt on account of inadequate income to meet its own local expenses will not be apt to be a church that will be a large contributor to the Boards of the Church. So that while it is natural for us to comment upon the number of churches not contributing to our various Boards, it is well to keep continually in mind the number of small Presbyterian churches which are unable of themselves to give an adequate support to a pastor. This is clearly revealed by consulting table (Appendix 3)† of the membership of the Presbyterian churches by Synods. The table reveals the fact that while we have about fifteen hundred churches with a membership of over two hundred, we have six thousand with a membership of less than two hundred, and forty-five hundred with a membership of less than one hundred, and twenty-nine hundred with less than fifty, and nearly a thousand with less than twenty.

While we can hardly expect a very large income for our Board work from the three thousand churches with a membership less than fifty, yet each of them might do a little.

If these smaller churches of our denomination could at the present time receive fostering care and encouragement, many of them might grow rapidly in membership and become self-supporting and enlarged contributors to the missionary work of our Church.

THE APPORTIONMENT FOR CHURCH OFFERINGS.

The last General Assembly authorized an apportionment among the different Presbyteries of the various amounts recommended by the General Assembly to be raised for the Boards.

In 1895, General Assembly had recommended the raising of $3,134,000 for the year ending May, 1896. Of this sum, $784,121 came through church offerings and $1,655,686 came from various other sources. Including all sources of income, the total amount raised was over $700,000 less than the amount recommended to be raised.

In carrying out the recommendations of 1896, we have been perplexed as to the amount General Assembly intended should be apportioned to the Presbyteries. Without any definite instructions we felt obliged to interpret the recommendation of General Assembly that $3,134,000 be raised as referring to the amount to be expected for the Boards of the Church for the coming year from all possible sources of income and not from church offerings alone.

We therefore assumed that the income of the Boards of the Church for 1896–97 would not be less than that for the previous year. Therefore we assigned for the coming year $2,439,807, of the total $3,134,000 recommended to be raised, to the various sources of income of the several Boards according to the actual receipts for the year ending 1896, and the deficiency between the total income of the Boards and the amount recommended by General Assembly we divided among the various sources of income according to the ratio existing between them.

*See volume of Annual Reports.
†See volume of Annual Reports for full report.

As the result of this first apportionment of the amount recommended by General Assembly to the several sources of income, $1,024,000 was assigned to be raised for the Boards of the Church through church offerings. To each Presbytery a statement of the amount to be expected from it for each of the Boards through church offerings was sent, and the amount thus apportioned was determined according to the direction of General Assembly, basing it upon the aggregate amount expended for current expenses, together with the amounts contributed for all missionary purposes.

With the apportionment there was also sent to each Presbytery a statement of the amount that had been contributed by each church within the bounds of the Presbytery to the several Boards through church offerings, as reported for the previous year.

It was clearly explained that this apportionment was not intended in any single instance to lessen the amount contributed by churches already contributing within the bounds of any Presbytery, but only to serve as a basis of comparison and suggestion for churches that had no system of giving, and had seemed to fail of doing their just share toward the support of the work of the Boards, whether through negligence or from lack of definite information as to the needs of the work, and their fair share of the responsibility for its support.

The Committee did not feel that it fell within its prerogative, or that it was directed by General Assembly, or indeed that it was possible, to apportion to the Presbyteries or for the Presbyteries to apportion to the churches, the amounts that should come from each Presbytery and each church from any other source than the Sabbath Church offering. In carrying out the apportionment for individual churches, adjustments are supposed to be made by Presbyterial Committees in consideration of exceptional local conditions, and where churches were found to be already contributing beyond the apportionment, last year's contribution was to be substituted for the amount determined by the general system of apportionment. It is of course to be expected that in not a few instances, all told, churches should already have adopted an effective system of benevolent contributions, which leaves no room for further suggestion on the part of Committees on Systematic Beneficence.

APPORTIONMENT vs. VOLUNTARY SYSTEM.

The only serious misconception of the plan that seems anywhere to have been entertained is that which is understood as intending to interfere with, or as in effect interfering with, that voluntariness of benevolent gifts which it is of first importance to encourage and which indeed is divinely commended as an attribute of all true benevolence. But the conflict between "the apportionment system" and "the voluntary system" is entirely imaginary. The plans of apportionment adopted by the General Assembly and put in operation by the Committee had solely the design of giving information, stimulus and direction where this assistance is desired and appreciated. It seeks only to answer such questions as the following:

What is the recommendation of General Assembly as to amounts to be raised for each of the Boards; what is the amount actually raised from all sources for the Boards the past year, and therefore the least amount to be expected from all sources during the current year; what proportion of this amount upon the basis of experience may be expected from church offerings; and what is a fair division of this expected amount to be raised by church offerings among the Presbyteries and churches on the basis of their reported expenditures for current expenses and benevolence? Apportionment is in no sense, even in intention, an assessment or tax upon the churches. As long, however, as the individual Presbyterian churches compose one Church and have assumed common responsibility—each according to its "several ability"—for a common missionary and benevolent and missionary work, there can be no harm or impropriety in ascertaining and publishing to the churches what is a fair apportionment of the joint financial responsibility.

So far from advocating any system which assumes to dictate to Presbyteries and churches in the matter of their benevolences, we would most emphatically recommend giving the churches themselves the initiative in the entire missionary and benevolent work of the Church. Only let the churches indicate each year in advance the amounts which each will contribute to the various benevolent causes, responsibility for which they have undertaken, and the way would be clear to abandon apportionment in favor of a better plan.

In this way it might be hoped would finally come to an end the chronic condition of debt in which our great Boards have so long lived and moved and had their being. Most certainly it is the province of the churches themselves to say what they will do in the way of missionary and benevolent work, and while plans may properly be taken to extend and to systematize the benevolences of the churches, they may not be forced nor commanded.

ADVANCE PLEDGES SUGGESTED.

We earnestly recommend, therefore, the taking of measures to substitute for the Assembly's present plan of apportioning among the churches their just share of financial responsibility for work undertaken in their name, the plan of securing advance pledges from the churches, to be reported at the spring meeting of Presbyteries and through the Presbyterial Committees on Systematic Beneficence to be reported to the Assembly's Committee, upon the basis of which the benevolent work of the churches shall then be planned, and by which it shall be limited.

When this system shall be in operation, the Boards will expend in the name of the churches only such sums as shall have been thus promised by them in advance. Apportionment will then be as unnecessary as it will be inappropriate. The Boards will rejoice in the certainty of a definite income and the long era of debt—due to overconfident reliance on the benevolence of churches—will have come to an end, having no longer either occasion or excuse.

It is too late to introduce this system for the current year—once more it may be necessary to apportion the work undertaken among those in whose name it has been undertaken, according to their "several ability"—but we hope General Assembly will request the Presbyterial Committees to find out so far as possible from each of the churches within its bounds what each will do for each of the Boards for the year following this, and make report of such amounts to the Assembly's Committee, who shall in turn report the total sums at the next meeting of General Assembly, to serve as the basis for recommendation and appropriation for the year '98 to '99.

OTHER WORK OF THE COMMITTEE.

In addition to the work of making out the apportionment for each of the Presbyteries for each of the Boards, as directed by General Assembly, the offer was made to each of the Presbyteries to furnish free, in any desired amount, copies of an individual subscription blank to be used in making pledges of contributions to each of the Boards. As a result of this proposition presented to Presbyteries at their fall meeting, 100,000 subscription blanks were sent out. In many Presbyteries enough blanks were ordered of your Committee to supply every member of every church.

We have also issued as a tract for distribution, without other charge than for postage, the notable address of Ralph E. Prime, Esq., on Christian Benevolence, presented at the Pan Presbyterian Council in Glasgow. For distribution in the same way we have republished an excellent English tract, entitled "The Gift Bag," emphasizing the importance of every Christian setting apart regularly a fund, from which the demands of Christian benevolence may be met.

ABSTRACT OF THE SIXTEENTH ANNUAL REPORT.

THE WORK OF THE YEAR.

The past year has been one of activity in our work. Our correspondence has largely exceeded that of any former year since the transfer of the Committee to Pittsburgh. We regret to report that the Temperance literature printed and sent abroad for free distribution fell short of that of the preceding year. This has not been from lack of opportunity to place such printed matter, for the demand has never been greater. Nor has it been due to any decline in your Committee's estimate of the importance and value of the printed page for the forwarding of the work. On the contrary, we are more than ever convinced that before the objects for which this Committee was constituted can be attained our churches and the communities in which they are located must be sown thick with Temperance truth in printed form. If we have printed less than heretofore it has been solely because we lacked funds.

To the same cause has been due the curtailment of Temperance missionary work among the colored people of the South. To the allurements of the intoxicating cup these grown-up children are everywhere peculiarly susceptible. And should we not be stirred to activity in this Temperance mission work by the remembrance of the wrongs inflicted by our nation on past generations of these Afro-Americans, and of the wrongs, not yet righted, which their kindred in the "Dark Continent" are to-day suffering through American rum?

Your Committee has continued its efforts to secure the appointment by Sessions of Temperance Committees for their respective churches, in accordance with the recommendation of the last Assembly. One circular was issued solely with reference to this matter, and another dealing with it in part. We are glad to be able to report that many Presbyteries and several Synods are urging this action on the Sessions under their jurisdiction.

Unquestionably there has come in Assembly, Synods and Presbyteries a gradual but steady uplift of Temperance sentiment from this wisely planned system of Committees; from their reports, their suggestions of action and from the discussion elicited.

Now let these beneficent results be passed along. Let them be extended by similar means to the Session and the local church. "Make a chain, for the land is full of bloody crimes and the city is full of violence." With this call of the old prophet, our Church, recognizing the impending peril, has essayed compliance. But in her chain there is yet a missing link. Let it be supplied.

The Permanent Committee has requested that as rapidly as Sessions fall into line with the Assembly's scheme of Temperance organization by the appointment of Committees, the names and addresses of the chairmen be reported to the Presbyterial Committee and to us, that such counsel and coöperation may be given as we may find possible.

It has been our desire that the Young People's Societies should be brought into thoroughly loyal relations and active coöperation with the Temperance work of their own Church.

THE TEMPERANCE NARRATIVES.

Your Committee would here record their grateful appreciation of the able and helpful coöperation of many brethren of the Presbyterial Temperance Committees.

The list of questions, which is sent with a brief circular letter to each Session, is varied somewhat from year to year, emphasis being laid now on one point and now on another.

The questions sent out were as follows. The answers are indicated only in the briefest and most general manner:

I. Is your influence from pulpit, Sabbath-school, Young People's and other societies exerted for total abstinence, and towards the banishment of social drinking customs, and of the liquor traffic?

With almost absolute unanimity the answers are affirmative.

II. Have you looked after the enforcement of the laws requiring instruction in Temperance physiology in public schools?

The major part of the replies betoken interest and attention.

III. Do you observe Temperance Sabbath?

The Temperance Sabbath or some other is being observed by increasing numbers of our churches.

IV. Is the unfermented fruit of the vine used in the celebration of the Lord's Supper?

But one Presbytery reports a majority using fermented wine.

V. Has anything been attempted in your community towards combining the efforts of the enemies of the saloon? If so, can you report any success?

Not much progress in this direction. The Anti-Saloon League movement mentioned hopefully by a number of Presbyteries.

VI. Are you under prohibitory laws, or license high or low, local option, State Dispensary or Mulct tax law?

Please report what influence your existing liquor laws seem to exert on the cause of Temperance.

Almost all testify that the license laws are a failure as to the repression of intemperance. And prohibition must be made successful by earnest effort towards the education and elevation of public sentiment.

Attention is cited in Question vii to the following deliverance of General Assembly of 1871:

"Those who knowingly rent their premises for the traffic, or indorse licenses which legalize it, are reprehensible as accomplices in the guilt of the same."

VII. Referring to deliverance of Assembly of 1871, is the position of our Church as therein indicated made known and sufficiently emphasized?

The answers indicate that but few members of the Presbyterian Church sign applications for license or rent property for the traffic. There has been some exercise of discipline upon this ground.

From a careful study of these communications from our brethren in the Sessions and Presbyteries we arise heartened for the prosecution of our work, and we would gladly impart to all our brethren "the comfort wherewith we ourselves are comforted."

We are encouraged by the fact that a largely increased number of reports have come to us, and that their testimony is convincing that the bombardment from our pulpits of the drink habit and of the drink traffic is more general and vigorous all along the line than ever before. In our Sabbath-schools and Young People's Societies there is more Temperance teaching and more Temperance effort. A vast majority of all our churches have ceased to place on the Lord's table an intoxicating cup.

When from all quarters the reported experience is repeated—high license, low license, license laws elaborated to the highest degree, all fail to produce any appreciable effect in decreasing intemperance, may we not hope that a change of liquor laws is at hand?

And we are thankful to God for the evidence that our brethren in prohibition States and districts perceive in the reverses there sustained the reminder of neglected duty. Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty. The necessity for agitation and moral suasion is not relieved by the enactment of good laws. There must still be inculcation of the truth. And in this department of her work the Church brings into the conflict a weapon infinitely more effective than mere moral suasion. Our recourse is not to argument merely, nor an appeal to motive alone, but the soul of man is reached by spiritual suasion. In seeking the emancipation of the slave of drink, as of all Satan's victims, we have the promise, "Lo, I am with you." In the dynamic spiritual force with which our Lord accompanies His truth lies our hope.

The fact that 15,000,000 children in this land are in schools which are required to instruct them thoroughly regarding the poisonous and perilous character of alcoholic beverages, ought to bring joy and hope to our hearts.

It is gratifying to note the fact as indicated by the tables of the United States Bureau of Statistics that for the past three years there has been a slight decrease in the amount of liquor consumed in the country. Prior to 1873 there had been rapid yearly increase especially in the quantity of beer used.

The abatement, however, of the awful flood of intoxicating liquors has been but slight. In 1892 a careful estimate of the national drink bill was made for the United States Bureau of Statistics, by Mr. F. N. Barrett, editor of the American Grocer, and an acknowledged authority on such statistics. The estimated sum at that time was $1,000,844,277, being an increase of almost $400,000,000 in five years. This gentleman now writes us that "it is safe to say that $1,000,000,000 fully covers the retail cost of liquors consumed in the United States," adding that "absolute accuracy is out of the question."

In 1885 there were 978 suicides in the whole country. This dire list in 1895 had grown to 5750. In the same decade the number of murders increased from 1808 to 10,500!

And whence this awful carnival of crime? Judges and other magistrates might be quoted in large numbers, whose uniform testimony is that a very large proportion of all crimes can be charged upon strong drink. Within the year official report has been made to the Legislature of Massachusetts, of investigation had, regarding "the relation of the saloon to drunkenness, crime, pauperism," etc., by the Bureau of Statistics and Labor. From this official investigation we learn that out of all convictions for crime during the year under review, about 66 in every 100 were for drunkenness. In nearly 82 cases in every 100, the offender was under the influence of liquor at the time that the offense was committed. In more than 84 cases in every 100, the intemperate habits of the offender led to a condition which induced the crime. Disregarding the convictions directly for drunkenness, it appears that intemperance was responsible for more than one-half of the remaining cases of crime. Finally, excluding minors, the tables show that of every 100 persons convicted of crime during the year, 96.44 per cent. were addicted to the use of liquor.

Regarding the relation of the licensed saloons to drunkenness, the license cities and towns showed 36.24 arrests for drunkenness to every 1000 of the population; the no-license communities showed 9.94 such arrests to every 1000 of the population. Arrests for offenses other than drunkenness were 22.34 to each 1000 of the population in the license cities and towns; in the no-license cities and towns they were 10.26 to every 1000 of the population.

When about to close this Report there comes to us a document of much importance, from which we can make only a brief extract. It is the report of a committee of eminent physicians relative to the accuracy of the teachings of the indorsed school text-books on Temperance physiology. The accuracy of these books having been called in question in certain quarters, these scientific men have been asked to make investigations on the subject. In the request which has now elicited this report your Committee joined with Committees of the Methodist Episcopal, Congregational and Unitarian Churches, of the National and International W. C. T. U., and various other Temperance Societies. These scientific experts having kindly acceded to the request made, each sends a letter conveying the result of his investigation

N. S. Davis, A.M., M.D., LL.D., Chicago, Ill., President of the American Medical Association, Dean of the Northwestern University Medical School, writes as follows:

CHICAGO, ILL., Sept. 1, 1896.

To the Temperance Committees of Christian Churches and Allied Philanthropic Organizations in the United States:

The text-books of Physiology, Hygiene and Alcohol, etc., for use in public schools and high schools, including the following books [enumerating all the above-mentioned school text-books], aggregating over twenty volumes, have all been carefully examined, particularly in reference to their teaching concerning the effects of alcohol and other narcotics on the living human body at all periods of life, and I am happy to say that I find no errors in the teaching of any of them on this subject. They all inculcate the one great fact that alcohol as existing in fermented and distilled drinks is a subtle and deceptive poison, always injurious to the healthy living body in direct proportion to the quantity used—a fact sustained by the most varied and accurate scientific experiments, and the vital statistics of every civilized nation in the world.

Yours truly,
(Signed) N. S. DAVIS.

Five others of like eminence and ability give similar testimony. There is no dissenting voice as to the substantial accuracy of the teaching.

While former Assemblies seem to have left little to be desired in the way of deliverance on the whole subject, your Committee suggest that the General Assembly memorialize the President and Congress for the appointment of a Committee for the thorough investigation of the liquor traffic, and further that earnest appeal be made that our nation be relieved from complicity in this criminal business by ceasing to receive the price of blood into our treasury. It also seems to your Committee befitting that this General Assembly shall express its unqualified disapprobation of the use of intoxicating beverages at college banquets, a practice in utter contravention of the well-defined position of our Church and which cannot but exert a pernicious influence on our youth.

By order of the Permanent Committee,
J. F. HILL, Corresponding Secretary.

The Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, in accordance with the direction of the ninth section of its charter, respectfully reports to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America the exact state of the accounts of the Corporation for the year ending March 31, 1897.

* See also p. 38.

These accounts are herewith presented and made part of this Report; and consist of the Treasurer's Annual Account of Principal and Income, showing the receipts and disbursements of both funds, together with the balances of each on hand at the end of the fiscal year, together with the investments of the principal.

These accounts are accompanied by the reports of the Committees of the Board on Finances and on Accounts, with the usual certificates of these Committees as to the condition of the finances and investments of the funds as shown by these accounts.

Default was made upon one mortgage of $6500, and the mortgaged premises have been bought in by the Corporation, and it is believed that there will be no loss of either principal or income, ultimately.

Default was also made in two items of railroad bonds. These were not investments made by the Corporation, but were specific bequests.

All the other interests and income have been paid, and the net income applied to the proper trusts as required by the terms of the various trusts and the direction of the General Assembly, as will appear by an examination of these accounts.

During the year the Corporation has received the following legacies:

For the benefit of the Board of Ministerial Relief:

Payment on account of residuary legacy under will of Robert Beer, deceased,	$10,000 00
Legacy under will of Elizabeth Hoge, deceased,	5,000 00
Legacy under will of Elizabeth Pleasanton, deceased,	5,000 00
Legacy under will of Rev. J. S. Gallagher, deceased,	500 00

For the use of the Presbyterian Board for Freedmen:

Payment on account of legacy under will of Harness Renick, deceased,	208 00

The funds for the Board of Relief have been duly invested; and the legacy for Freedmen has been paid over to the General Assembly's Board for Freedmen.

The Hon. Edward T. Green, LL.D., died October 10, 1896. This vacancy should be filled by the Assembly.

All of which is respectfully reported for the Corporation by GEORGE JUNKIN, President.

JACOB WILSON, Secretary.

FRANK K. HIPPLE, Treasurer.

Philadelphia, April 10, 1897.

The undersigned, having examined the Cash Account of Frank K. Hipple, Treasurer of the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, from April 1, 1896, to March 31, 1897, inclusive, and compared the vouchers with the payments charged, find the same correct; leaving a balance in the Treasury of sixteen thousand six hundred and ten dollars and fifty-three cents ($16,610.53), of which sixteen thousand two hundred and forty-six dollars and ninety-eight cents ($16,246.98) is principal and three hundred and sixty-three dollars and fifty-five cents ($363.55) is income, verified by deposit in bank.

SAMUEL C. PERKINS, } Committee
B. L. AGNEW, } on Accounts.

The undersigned have examined the Bonds and Mortgages and other evidences of property belonging to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, as set forth in the Treasurer's statement herewith, and find the same in proper order, and amounting at their face value, in the aggregate, at the close of the fiscal year, March 31, 1897, to six hundred and ninety thousand, five hundred and fifty-eight dollars and seventy-four cents ($690,558.74), adding to which sixteen thousand two hundred and forty-six dollars and ninety-eight cents ($16,246.98) cash balance of principal for investment, makes total Permanent Fund on hand at close of fiscal year, as shown on the books, seven hundred and six thousand eight hundred and five dollars and seventy-two cents ($706,805.72).

The investments are registered in the name of the Corporation, excepting $7000 in Corporation Bonds which are coupons, being securities specifically bequeathed to the Corporation, and which are kept in the vaults of The Real Estate Trust Company of Philadelphia.

CHARLES M. LUKENS,
ANDREW BLAIR,
R. DALE BENSON,
Committee on Finance.

The Committee on Finance, in compliance with the first item of Article iv of the By-Laws, respectfully report to the Trustees of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, the investments, as set forth in the foregoing table.

CHARLES M. LUKENS,
ANDREW BLAIR,
R. DALE BENSON,
Committee on Finance.

V. Miscellaneous.

I. THE MILEAGE AND CONTINGENT FUNDS.

SPECIAL attention is called to the Mileage and Contingent System adopted by the General Assembly of 1870, and amended by the General Assemblies of 1875, 1877, 1884 and 1896. As amended it is as follows:

"The Committee to whom it was referred to consider and report a uniform system of Mileage, whereby full provision may be made for the traveling expenses of the Commissioners to our General Assemblies, and to meet the contingent expenses of each Assembly, respectfully report:

"It is affirmed, Form of Government, Chap. xxii, Section 3, that, 'in order, as far as possible, to procure a respectable and full delegation to all our judicatories, it is proper that the expenses of ministers and elders, in their attendance on these judicatories, be defrayed by the bodies which they respectively represent.'

"The principle is thus established, that provision should be made for the payment of the traveling expenses of Commissioners to the General Assembly. This provision should be made by the Presbyteries. As far as possible, the feebler Presbyteries should be aided in this matter by the stronger. It appears just and reasonable, and so has been found by experience, that the estimated contingent expenses of each Assembly, and the traveling expenses of the Commissioners in coming to and returning from the Assembly, should be fully met by the apportionment of the whole amount among the several Presbyteries, according to the number of their communicants respectively.

"It is therefore recommended—

"1. That the Standing Committee on Mileage, annually appointed, be instructed to present an estimate of the probable amount that will be needed by the next General Assembly, in order to meet their contingent expenses and the traveling expenses of their Commissioners, with a statement of the per capita rate, based on the number of communicants, that will be needed to secure the amount.

"2. That the Presbyteries, at their Stated Meeting next following the adjournment of the General Assembly, apportion the amount required of their churches as they deem best.

"3. That the churches be instructed to pay over their respective apportionments at the Stated Meeting of their Presbyteries next preceding the meeting of the General Assembly—the whole amount due from the Presbytery to be forwarded to the Assembly by their Commissioners.

"4. That, as early as the fourth day of the sessions of the Assembly, the apportionment of each Presbytery be paid in full, and a bill of the necessary traveling expenses of its Commissioners be presented to the Standing Committee on Mileage.—N. B. It is understood that Commissioners, both in coming to and returning from the Assembly, will avail themselves of any commutation of fares that may be offered in season; and that in other cases they are to take, when practicable, the most economical route; no allowance to be made for extra accommodations on the way. Also, that no one will charge for return expenses unless he intends to go back to his field of labor; and that no one on a business tour, or excursion of pleasure, will make a convenience of the meeting of the Assembly and expect payment of his traveling expenses from the Mileage Fund. Also, that Commissioners, as soon after their arrival as practicable, are to report themselves to the Committee of Arrangements, and have their respective places of abode assigned them.

"5. That the Mileage Committee, after appropriating from the whole sum an amount sufficient to meet the estimated contingent expenses of the Assembly, be instructed to audit these bills and that the Stated Clerk pay them pro rata (if found in accordance with the preceding regulations), as far as the funds will permit.

"6. That, in order to avail themselves of the proceeds of this fund, the Presbyteries must contribute their full proportion to it according to the per capita rate.

"7. That every minister, and every vacant church contributing to this fund, connected with the Presbyteries thus complying with the provisions of this plan, be entitled to a copy of the Annual Minutes of the General Assembly.

"8. That the Commissioners from Presbyteries in foreign lands receive their necessary traveling expenses, pro rata, from their place of residence in this country."

In accordance with this system, every Presbytery is requested to pay in full, next year, to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, a sum equal to two and one-half cents for mileage, and one and one-half cents for Contingent Expenses, or in all, four cents for every communicant under the care of their churches, as determined by their Statistical Report, herewith printed. This will entitle their Commissioners to a full share in the apportionments for necessary traveling expenses. It is expected that these expenses will be fully met, if the Presbyteries comply with the recommendations of the Assembly.

They are expected, also, to provide for an

ENTERTAINMENT FUND.

In addition to the Mileage Fund, the Assembly of 1877 made provision for a "Supplemental Contingent Expense Fund," to "be used for the purpose of meeting the expense of entertaining such Commissioners as are not otherwise provided for." Each Presbytery is requested to contribute to this fund a sum equal at least to one cent per church member, and to forward it, with the Mileage Fund, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly. It is to be disbursed by the Committee of Arrangements, whose bills for entertainment the Stated Clerk, as Treasurer, is authorized to pay, after they have been approved by an Auditing Committee composed of the clerks of the Assembly.

☞ See, also, Minutes of 1897, p. 135.

II. THE ANNUAL MINUTES.

The Minutes for 1897 will be supplied at One Dollar per copy, postage included. A copy will be sent, without charge, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery and of every Synod; also (in the case of every Presbytery that has paid its full apportionment to the Mileage and Contingent Funds of the Assembly), to every ordained minister, and to the Session of each contributing vacant church, whose address is known; also to every ordained missionary of the Foreign Presbyteries.

III. SYNODICAL REPORTS.

A Statistical Report is to be forwarded to the Assembly by the Stated Clerk of every Synod; in which are to be stated the number and names of the Presbyteries within their bounds; the changes which may have been made in the number or arrangements of their Presbyteries; the names of the Stated Clerks of the Presbyteries; the place and hour of the next annual meeting; and the names of the Moderator and Stated Clerk of the Synod. A blank will be sent to the Stated Clerk of every Synod, near the close of the calendar year, which should be filled up, and forwarded, without delay, to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly.

IV. PRESBYTERIAL REPORTS.

It is required of every Presbytery to prepare and forward to the General Assembly:

1. A Statistical Report, according to the form exhibited on page 385 of the present Appendix; a printed blank for which will be furnished in due season, by order of the Assembly, to the Stated Clerk of every Presbytery. This Report should, if possible, embrace all the changes in the Presbytery previous to the first day of April.

2. A Narrative of the State of Religion within the bounds of the Presbytery, for the year ending April 1st. A blank for the Narrative was adopted by the General Assembly of 1891, and a copy will be forwarded to every Stated Clerk. By order of the Assembly of 1880, a blank for a Tabulated Statement of facts will annually be forwarded to the Stated Clerk of each Presbytery, to be filled properly, and duly reported to the Assembly. This Tabulated Statement should be sent to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly at least ten days before the meeting of that body. As the Narratives are not to be publicly read, less care may be given to their style, and more to the details of particulars, such as will aid the Committee of the Assembly in preparing their Annual General Narrative of the State of the Church. The blank for the Congregational Narratives, ordered by the Assembly of 1895, can be had from the Board of Publication.

V. STATED CLERKS OF PRESBYTERIES.*

In preparing the Statistical Report, let the following RULES be strictly observed:

(1) Carefully copy the blank form and order of columns, etc., on page ☞ 3491, Minutes, 1896, if a blank has not been received.

(2) Record ministers in the order of their MINISTERIAL AGE, with their CHRISTIAN names in full, without abbreviations, and their address on the same line, in the adjoining column.

(3) ☞Place the name of every Church and Mission Chapel opposite the name of its Pastor, or Stated Supply; never opposite the name of any other minister; if the Church is Vacant, place it at the foot of the roll. If the Church uses in worship a language other than English, indicate the fact by words such as German, Welsh, etc.☜

(4) Place, after the name of every minister, an abbreviation, denoting his occupation; e. g., P., for a Pastor; P. E., for a Pastor Elect; C. P., for a Colleague Pastor; A. P., for an Associate Pastor; S. S., for a Stated Supply; H. M., for a Home Missionary; D. M., for a District Missionary; C. M., for a City Missionary; T. M., for a Tract Missionary; S. M., for a Synodical Missionary; S. S. M., for a Sunday-school Missionary; P. M., for a Presbyterial Missionary; F. M., for a Foreign Missionary; Pres., for the President of a College; Chan., for a Chancellor; Prof., for a Professor of a Theological Seminary or College; Prin., for the Principal of an Academy, etc.; Sec., for a Secretary or Stated Clerk; D. Sec., for District Secretary of a Benevolent Institution; Ag., for an Agent of do.; Ch., for a Chaplain; Tea., for a Teacher; Ed., for an Editor; Ev., for an Evangelist; H. R., for a Minister honorably retired; Col., for a Colporteur; Com., for a Commissioner; Supt., for a Superintendent; Libr., for a Librarian; and W. C., for other Ministers without charge.

(5) Place after the name of every Church the abbreviation P., for one that has a Pastor; P. E., for one that has a Pastor Elect; S. S., for one that has a Stated Supply; and V., for one that is vacant.

*These rules were adopted as a whole by the General Assembly of 1891. See "Minutes," p. 181.

(6) If a Church fail to report, let the "whole number" of communicants be given as reported to the Synod, or to the last Assembly, with an asterisk (*) in the column of communicants, denoting the fact.

(7) In the Additions to the Church, distinguish between those on examination and those on certificate; in the Baptisms, between the adults and the infants; and be careful to observe the order of the columns in which these particulars are recorded.

(8) In the Losses to the Church, distinguish between (1) those dismissed and erased, and (2) those deceased. Under dismissed and erased, place the total number of communicants dismissed, suspended, erased or dropped by purging the Roll.

(9) In the report of "Funds" contributed, observe the order of the columns, and the directions of the Assembly of 1871 (p. 589) as modified by the Assemblies of 1873, 1874, 1883 and 1887, as follows:

1. Home Missions. To include all moneys collected, whether for the Board, or for any Home Missionary operations, including Presbyterial Mission Schools, value of boxes, Ladies' Societies, etc.

2. Foreign Missions. To include all contributions for the spread of the Gospel in foreign lands.

3. Education. To include all that is given for the education of Candidates for the Ministry, whether to the Board or otherwise; and for Theological Seminaries.

4. Sabbath-school Work. To include all moneys contributed to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for their Missionary work, Sabbath-schools included, and for Synodical and Presbyterial Depositories.

5. Church Erection. To include all contributions for Church Erection, outside of the congregation, whether through the Board or otherwise.

6. Relief Fund. To include all moneys contributed for the support of disabled Ministers, and Missionaries, and in aid of their families.

7. Freedmen. To include all moneys contributed to the evangelization and education of Freedmen, whether through the Board or otherwise.

8. Synodical Aid. To include all Contributions to the Synods for Synodical Sustentation.

9. Aid for Colleges. All given for Presbyterian Colleges, Academies and Schools, whether established for the education of males or females.

10. General Assembly. To include all given for ecclesiastical expenses, whether in Presbytery, Synod, or General Assembly.

11. Congregational. To include all moneys contributed for the congregation, the salary of the minister, the support of the Church Sabbath-schools, the relief of the poor of the congregation, building and repairing churches, liquidation of debts, and current expenses.

12. Miscellaneous. To include all other collections, for Bible and Tract Societies, etc., and for general benevolence.

Be sure to omit the fractions of the dollar, except in the General Assembly column.

(10) The names of the Licentiates are to be recorded immediately after the list of Ministers, in the same column, with their Address in the next column; but of the candidates—including all who are studying for the ministry under the care of the Churches of the Presbytery—the number only is to be given.

(11) ☞ADD UP☜ and verify every column of figures, and Authenticate the Report with your signature.

(12) Annex a Statement of the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolutions of pastoral relations, organizations, receptions and dissolutions of Churches; also, any changes in the names of Churches; and the decease (with age, date and place) of Ministers since the last Annual Report.

(13) Avoid erasures and interlineations, make names and numbers distinctly legible, and punctuate properly.

(14) Affix no extraneous matter, such as memoranda, explanations, or orders for the delivery of the printed Minutes of the Assembly; let these be given on a separate sheet; also, every Overture to the Assembly.

Revise your Report, and find out its defects. Put in the commas and periods that are wanting; fill out the abbreviations; supply the Christian name of every minister (an initial letter is not a name); and see that every name and figure is perfectly legible.

☞ Forward the Statistical Report by April 25,* but if anything should prevent the forwarding of the Statistical Report in time for the meeting of the General Assembly, let it be sent at the earliest date possible to the STATED CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, the Rev. W. H. Roberts, D.D.

* See "Minutes," 1890, p. 37.

IX. STANDING ORDERS AND RULES.

1. The General Assembly meets invariably on the third Thursday of May, annually, at 11 o'clock A.M.

2. The credentials of Commissioners and Delegates are to be presented at a previous hour of the same day, or of the preceding day, according to public notice, to the Stated and Permanent Clerks, acting as a Permanent Committee on Commissions.

3. The Lord's Supper is to be celebrated by the Assembly on the evening of Thursday, the first day of its sessions.

4. The dates assigned to popular meetings are as follows:

The evening of Friday, the second day, to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work and the Sabbath-school interests of the Church.

The evening of the first Saturday to the Board of Aid for Colleges and Academies.

The afternoon of the first Sunday, to the Woman's Executive Committee of Home Missions; the evening, to Young People's work for Home and Foreign Missions.

The evening of Monday, the fourth day, to Missions among the Freedmen.

The evening of Tuesday, the fifth day, to the Home Mission Work.

The evening of Wednesday, the sixth day, to the Foreign Mission Work.

The evening of Friday, the eighth day, to the cause of Temperance.

5. The reports of the Standing Committees shall be considered at the times herein designated, viz.:

Ministerial Relief, Saturday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Freedmen, Monday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Education, Monday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Home Missions, Tuesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Aid for Colleges and Academies, Tuesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Foreign Missions, Wednesday, at 10 o'clock A.M.
Publication and Sabbath-school Work, Wednesday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Church Erection, second Thursday, at 3 o'clock P.M.
Benevolence, second Thursday, at 7.30 o'clock P.M.
Temperance, second Friday, at 3 o'clock P.M.

6. That the Standing Committees on Home Missions and Foreign Missions have each two and a half hours; and those on Education, Publication, Church Erection, Ministerial Relief, Freedmen, Temperance and Aid for Colleges, have each one and a half hours. That the Secretaries and the Chairmen of the Standing and Special Committees be requested to make their statements within the limits of half an hour.

7. The Stated Clerk shall receive all Memorials, Overtures, and other miscellaneous papers addressed to the General Assembly, shall make record of the same, and then deliver them for distribution or reference to the Committee on Bills and Overtures. All complaints and appeals, however, shall be transmitted by the Stated Clerk directly to the Judicial Committee.

8. All Special Committees appointed by one General Assembly to report to the next Assembly, shall be ready to present their reports on the second day of the session.

9. The Stated Clerk shall have printed and ready for distribution, so far as practicable, on the morning of the day fixed for their consideration, the resolutions appended to the reports of Special Committees appointed at previous Assemblies to report at that meeting.

10. The Stated Clerk and Permanent Clerk shall be a Committee to revise the phraseology of all papers sent down to the Presbyteries to be voted upon, provided that in no case shall this Committee so change the phraseology as to alter the meaning [1886, p. 113].

11. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to supervise the publication of any and all editions of the Constitution, hereafter issued by the Board of Publication, and also of the Rules for Judicatories [1886, p. 113].

12. Each Board and Permanent Committee is instructed to send up its minutes with its report, that these minutes may be reviewed by the Assembly on the report of the appropriate Standing Committee [1885, p. 690].

13. A sufficient number of the Reports of the Boards and Committees shall be forwarded by them to the place of meeting of each Assembly, prior to the day of meeting; and a complete file of the same, stitched together, shall be delivered to each Commissioner [1886, p. 77].

14. In all regions where, through the organization of Union Presbyteries, there are no Presbyteries in connection with this Assembly, each mission organized as such under our Board of Foreign Missions may send to the General Assembly an ordained missionary, or ruling elder, as a delegate; and the Standing Rules of the Assembly are hereby so amended that such delegate is entitled to sit as an advisory member in the Assembly, and to speak, under the rules, on all questions, and that his expenses from his domicile in this country to and during the Assembly and return, shall be met as those of Commissioners, out of the funds of the Assembly [1887, p. 247].

15. No person shall serve as a member of a Board who is an executive officer or employé of said Board, or a member of any other benevolent Board of the Church; and no more than one ruling elder from the same congregation shall serve on a Board at the same time [1887, pp. 51, 108].

16. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of any of the Boards of the Church during the interval between the Assemblies, may be filled until the next succeeding meeting of the Assembly, by the Board in which such vacancy may occur [1887, p. 128].

17. The Moderator is authorized to fill by appointment any vacancies which may occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the Special Committees [1892, p. 209].

18. All resolutions for the appropriation of money, outside the Boards, should be brought before the Finance Committee, before action by the Assembly [1892, p. 199].

19. The recommendation of any particular congregation to the benevolence of the denomination, by the General Assembly, is not to be understood as creating either a legal or a moral obligation upon the Assembly for the payment of the amount recommended to be contributed by the churches [1892, p. 36, 1893, p. 41].

20. All Overtures must be presented to the Assembly not later than the fifth day of its sessions.

21. The Stated and Permanent Clerks shall be a Committee to have the oversight of arrangements for the entertainment of the General Assembly. [Minutes, 1896, p. 130].

22. All Reports of Special Committees shall be delivered to the Stated Clerk, thirty days prior to the meeting of the General Assembly, and shall be printed by him and delivered to Commissioners in bound form on the second day of the sessions. [Minutes, 1897, p. 144].

GENERAL RULES FOR JUDICATORIES.

[The following "General Rules for Judicatories," not having been submitted to the Presbyteries, make no part of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church. Yet the General Assembly of 1871, considering uniformity in proceedings in all the subordinate judicatories as greatly conducive to order and despatch in business, having revised and approved these rules, recommended them to all the lower judicatories of the Church for adoption. The rules were amended by the General Assemblies of 1885 and 1887.]

I. The Moderator shall take the chair precisely at the hour to which the judicatory stands adjourned; and shall immediately call the members to order; and, on the appearance of a quorum, shall open the session with prayer.

II. If a quorum be assembled at the time appointed, and the Moderator be absent, the last Moderator present, being a commissioner, or if there be none, the senior member present, shall be requested to take his place without delay, until a new election.

III. If a quorum be not assembled at the hour appointed, any two members shall be competent to adjourn from time to time, that an opportunity may be given for a quorum to assemble.

IV. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, at all times, to preserve order, and to endeavor to conduct all business before the judicatory to a speedy and proper result.

V. It shall be the duty of the Moderator, carefully to keep notes of the several articles of business which may be assigned for particular days, and to call them up at the time appointed.

VI. The Moderator may speak to points of order, in preference to other members, rising from his seat for that purpose; and shall decide questions of order, subject to an appeal to the judicatory by any two members.

VII. The Moderator shall appoint all committees, except in those cases in which the judicatory shall decide otherwise. In appointing the standing committees, the Moderator may appoint a Vice-Moderator, who may occupy the chair at his request, and otherwise assist him in the discharge of his duties.

VIII. When a vote is taken by ballot in any judicatory, the Moderator shall vote with the other members; but he shall not vote in any other case, unless the judicatory be equally divided; when, if he do not choose to vote, the question shall be lost.

IX. The person first named on any committee shall be considered as the chairman thereof, whose duty it shall be to convene the committee; and, in case of his absence or inability to act, the second named member shall take his place and perform his duties.

X. It shall be the duty of the clerk, as soon as possible after the commencement of the sessions of every judicatory, to form a complete roll of the members present, and put the same into the hands of the Moderator. And it shall also be the duty of the clerk, whenever any additional members take their seats, to add their names, in their proper places, to the said roll.

XI. It shall be the duty of the clerk immediately to file all papers, in the order in which they have been read, with proper indorsements, and to keep them in perfect order. The Stated Clerk shall receive all overtures, memorials and miscellaneous papers addressed to the judicatory; shall make record of the same and deliver them to the Committee on Bills and Overtures for appropriate disposition or reference. This committee shall have the floor on the reassembling of the judicatory after each adjournment, to report its recommendations as to reference of papers, and this right of the committee shall take precedence of the Orders of the Day. This committee shall report the papers retained by it as well as those recommended for reference to other committees, and no committee shall report on matters which have not been referred to it by the Judicatory.

XII. The minutes of the last meeting of the judicatory shall be presented at the commencement of its session, and, if requisite, read and corrected.

XIII. Business left unfinished at the last sitting is ordinarily to be taken up first.

XIV. A motion made must be seconded, and afterwards repeated by the Moderator, or read aloud, before it is debated; and every motion shall be reduced to writing, if the Moderator or any member require it.

XV. Any member who shall have made a motion, shall have liberty to withdraw it, with the consent of his second, before any debate has taken place thereon; but not afterwards, without the leave of the judicatory.

XVI. If a motion under debate contain several parts, any two members may have it divided, and a question taken on each part.

XVII. When various motions are made with respect to the filling of blanks, with particular numbers or times, the question shall always be first taken on the highest number and the longest time.

XVIII. Motions to lay on the table, to take up business, to adjourn, and the call for the previous question, shall be put without debate. On questions of order, postponement, or commitment, no member shall speak more than once. On all other questions, each member may speak twice, but not oftener, without express leave of the judicatory.

XIX. When a question is under debate, no motion shall be received, unless to adjourn, to lay on the table, to postpone indefinitely, to postpone to a day certain, to commit, or to amend; which several motions shall have precedence in the order in which they are herein arranged; and the motion for adjournment shall always be in order.

XX. An amendment, and also an amendment to an amendment, may be moved on any motion; but a motion, to amend an amendment to an amendment, shall not be in order. Action on amendments shall precede action on the original motion. A substitute shall be treated as an amendment.

XXI. A distinction shall be observed between a motion to lay on the table for the present, and a motion to lay on the table unconditionally, namely: A motion to lay on the table, for the present, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, the effect shall be to place the subject on the docket, and it may be taken up and considered at any subsequent time. But a motion to lay on the table, unconditionally, shall be taken without debate; and, if carried in the affirmative, it shall not be in order to take up the subject during the same meeting of the judicatory, without a vote of reconsideration.

XXII. The previous question shall be put in this form, namely, Shall the main question be now put? It shall only be admitted when demanded by a majority of the members present; and the effect shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the body to a direct vote: First, on a motion to commit the subject under consideration (if such motion shall have been made); secondly, if the motion for commitment does not prevail, on pending amendments; and lastly, on the main question.

XXIII. A question shall not be again called up or reconsidered at the same sessions of the judicatory at which it has been decided, unless by the consent of two-thirds of the members who were present at the decision; and unless the motion to reconsider be made and seconded by persons who voted with the majority.

XXIV. A subject which has been indefinitely postponed, either by the operation of the previous question, or by a motion for indefinite postponement, shall not be again called up during the same sessions of the judicatory, unless by the consent of three-fourths of the members who were present at the decision.

XXV. Members ought not, without weighty reasons, to decline voting, as this practice might leave the decision of very interesting questions to a small proportion of the judicatory. Silent members, unless excused from voting, must be considered as acquiescing with the majority.

XXVI. When the Moderator has commenced taking the vote, no further debate or remark shall be admitted, unless there has evidently been a mistake, in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the Moderator shall recommence taking the vote. If the House shall pass the motion to "vote on a given subject at a time named," speeches shall thereafter be limited to ten minutes. Should the hour for adjournment or recess arrive during the voting, it shall be postponed to finish the vote, unless the majority shall vote to adjourn; in which case the voting shall, on the reassembling of the House, take precedence of all other business till it is finished. Under this rule the "yeas and nays" shall not be called, except on the final motion to adopt as a whole. This motion to fix a time for voting shall be put without debate.

XXVII. The yeas and nays on any question shall not be recorded, unless required by one-third of the members present. If division is called for on any vote, it shall be by a rising vote, without a count. If on such a rising vote the Moderator is unable to decide, or a quorum rise to second a call for "tellers," then the vote shall be taken by rising, and the count made by tellers, who shall pass through the aisles and report to the Moderator the number voting on each side.

XXVIII. No member, in the course of debate, shall be allowed to indulge in personal reflections.

XXIX. If more than one member rise to speak at the same time, the member who is most distant from the Moderator's chair shall speak first. In the discussion of all matters where the sentiment of the House is divided, it is proper that the floor should be occupied alternately by those representing the different sides of the question.

XXX. When more than three members of the judicatory shall be standing at the same time, the Moderator shall require all to take their seats, the person only excepted who may be speaking.

XXXI. Every member, when speaking, shall address himself to the Moderator, and shall treat his fellow-members, and especially the Moderator, with decorum and respect.

XXXII. No speaker shall be interrupted, unless he be out of order; or for the purpose of correcting mistakes or misrepresentations.

XXXIII. Without express permission, no member of a judicatory, while business is going on, shall engage in private conversation; nor shall members address one another, nor any person present, but through the Moderator.

XXXIV. It is indispensable that members of ecclesiastical judicatories maintain great gravity and dignity while judicially convened; that they attend closely in their speeches to the subject under consideration, and avoid prolix and desultory harangues: and, when they deviate from the subject, it is the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call them to order.

XXXV. If any member act, in any respect, in a disorderly manner, it shall be the privilege of any member, and the duty of the Moderator, to call him to order.

XXXVI. If any member consider himself aggrieved by a decision of the Moderator, it shall be his privilege to appeal to the judicatory, and the question on the appeal shall be taken without debate.

XXXVII. No member shall retire from any judicatory without the leave of the Moderator, nor withdraw from it to return home without the consent of the judicatory.

XXXVIII. All judicatories have a right to sit in private, on business, which in their judgment ought not to be matter of public speculation.

XXXIX. Besides the right to sit judicially in private, whenever they think proper to do so, all judicatories have a right to hold what are commonly called "interlocutory meetings," in which members may freely converse together, without the formalities which are usually necessary in judicial proceedings.

XL. Whenever a judicatory is about to sit in a judicial capacity, it shall be the duty of the Moderator solemnly to announce, from the chair, that the body is about to pass to the consideration of the business assigned for trial, and to enjoin on the members to recollect and regard their high character as judges of a court of Jesus Christ, and the solemn duty in which they are about to act.

XLI. In all cases before a judicatory, where there is an accuser or prosecutor, it is expedient that there be a committee of the judicatory appointed (provided the number of members be sufficient to admit it without inconvenience), who shall be called the "Judicial Committee," and whose duty it shall be to digest and arrange all the papers, and to prescribe, under the direction of the judicatory, the whole order of proceedings. The members of this committee shall be entitled, notwithstanding their performance of this duty, to sit and vote in the cause as members of the judicatory.

XLII. The permanent officers of a judicatory shall have the rights of corresponding members in matters touching their several offices.

XLIII. The Moderator of every judicatory above the Church session, in finally closing its sessions, in addition to prayer, may cause to be sung an appropriate psalm or hymn, and shall pronounce the apostolical benediction.
